PREFACE

THE "Biographical Annals of Ohio" is the outcome of efforts to preserve in ready reference form the names and history of the men who have served the State. In 1888-1892, Col. William A. Taylor, a well-known journalist, collected from official sources much of the matter which appears within these covers and published as a private enterprise "The Ohio Statesman and Hundred Year Book." The General Assembly purchased and distributed an edition of 7,500 copies. In 1896-98 a revised edition under the name of the "Ohio Statesman and Annals of Progress" was prepared by Col. Taylor. The State through an act of the General Assembly purchased the manuscript and copyright of the work and printed for gratuitous distribution an edition of 9,500 copies.

In 1900-1901 another revision, prepared under the direction of the General Assembly by Mr. E. Howard Gilkey, was published under the name of the Hundred Year Book.

The Act of May 12, 1902, as amended April 19, 1904, contemplates the publication of a work of this character biennially under the name of "The Biographical Annals of Ohio." In order that the series may be complete the matter heretofore published is reprinted in this volume covering the biographical history of Ohio from the formation of the Northwest Territory in 1787 to September 1, 1904.

The present compilers make no claim to originality or authorship. They acknowledge their obligations to Col. Taylor, Mr. Gilkey and the others who have contributed hours of research and labor to the sum of this result.

THE DECLARATION OF THE INDEPENDENCE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

In Confederate Congress, July 4th, 1776.

THE UNANIMOUS DECLARATION OF THE THIRTEEN STATES OF AMERICA.

HEN in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the Powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights Governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed. That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or abolish it, and to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shown, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of usages and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security. Such has been the patient sufferance of these colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his Assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other Laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of Representation in the Legislature, a right inestimable to them and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their Public Records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused for a long time after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the Legislative Powers, incapable of Annihilation, have returned to the people at large for their exercise; the State remaining in the mean time exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavored to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the Laws for Naturalization of Foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migration hither, and raising the conditions of new Appropriations of Lands.

He has obstructed the Administration of Justice, by refusing his Assent to Laws for establishing Judiciary Powers.

He has made Judges dependent on his will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount of payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers to harass our people and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, Standing Armies, without the Consent of our legislature.

He has affected to render the Military independent of and superior to the civil power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his Assent to their Acts of pretended Legislation:

For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us:

For protecting them by a mock trial, from punishment for any Murders which they should commit on the Inhabitants of these States:

For cutting off our trade with all parts of the world:

For imposing taxes on us without our consent:

For depriving us in many cases, of the benefits of Trial by Jury:

For transporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended offenses: For abolishing the free System of English Laws in a neighboring Province, establishing therein an Arbitrary government, and enlarging its Boundaries so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these Colonies:

For taking away our Charters, abolish our most valuable Laws, and altering fundamentally the Forms of our Governments:

The Declaration of Independence.

For suspending our own Legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with Power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated Government here, by declaring us out of his protection and waging war against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our Coasts, burnt our towns and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is at this time transporting large armies of mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation and tyranny, already begun with circumstances of Cruelty & perfidy scarcely parallelled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the Head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow Citizens taken Captive on the high Seas to bear arms against their Country to become the executioners of their friends and Brethren, or to fall themselves by their hands.

He has excited domestic insurrection amongst us, and has endeavored to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian Savages, whose known rule of warfare, is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions.

In every stage of these Oppressions We have Petitioned for Redress in the most humble terms: Our repeated Petitions have been answered by repeated injury. A Prince, whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have We been wanting in attention to our British brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and our correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity, which denounces our Separation and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, Enemies in War, in Peace Friends.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the United States of America, in General Congress assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by Authority of the Good people of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare. That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be Free and Independent States; and that they are Absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do. And for NOTE—In the facsimile of the Declaration of Independence, as in the original, the whole instrument runs without a break, dashes being freely used to emphasize the several utterances, and to bind them together. In the above copy, the arrangement of paragraphs adopted in the old Congress, and inserted in its journal, and which is also found in the original draft of the Declaration in the handwriting of the author now in the custody of the State Department at Washington, has been followed with care, that the reader may have a correct transcript. The spelling, capitalization, and punctuation is as in the authority referred to.

ACT OF CONFEDERATION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

JULY 9, 1778.

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, WE, THE UNDERSIGNED DELEGATES OF THE STATES AFFIXED TO OUR NAMES, SEND GREETING.

HEREAS the Delegates of the United States of America in Congress assembled did on the 15th day of November in the year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy-Seven and in the Second Year of the Independence of America agree to certain articles of Confederation and perpetuated Union between the States of Newhampshire, Massachusetts-bay, Rhodeisland and Providence Plantations, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia in the Words following viz:

"Articles of Confederation and Perpetual Union Between the States of Newhampshire, Massachusetts-Bay, Rhodeisland and Providence Plantations, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia."

ARTICLE I. The Stile of this confederacy shall be "The United States of America."

ARTICLE II. Each state retains its Sovereignty, freedom and independence and every Power, Jurisdiction and Right, which is not by this confederation expressly delegated to the United States in Congress assembled.

ARTICLE III. The said states hereby severally enter into a firm league of friendship with each other, for their common defence, the security of their Liberties, and their mutual and general welfare, binding themselves to assist each other, against all force offered to, or attacks made upon, them or any of them, on account of religion, sovereignty, trade, or any other pretence whatever.

ARTICLE IV. The better to secure and perpetuate mutual friendship and intercourse among the people of the different states in this union, the free inhabitants of each of these states, paupers, vagabonds and fugitives from Justice excepted shall be entitled to all privileges and immunities of free citizens in the several states; and the people of each state shall have free ingress and regress to and from any other state, and shall enjoy therein all the privileges of trade and commerce, subject to the same duties, impositions and restrictions as the inhabitants thereof respectively, provided that such restrictions shall not extend so far as to prevent the removal of property imported into the state, to any other state of which the Owner is an inhabitant; provided also that no imposition, duties or restriction shall be laid by any state, on the property of the united states, or either of them. If any Person is guilty of, or charged with treason, felony, or other high misdemeanor in any state, shall flee from Justice, and be found in any of the united states, he shall upon demand of the Governor or executive power, of the state from which he fled, be delivered up and removed to the state having jurisdiction of his offence.

Full faith and credit shall be given in each of these states to the records, acts and judicial proceedings of the courts and magistrates of every other state.

ARTICLE V. For the more convenient management of the general interest of the united states, delegates shall be annually appointed in such manner as the legislature of each state shall direct, to meet in Congress on the first Monday in November, in every year, with a power reserved to each state, to recall its delegates, or any of them, at any time within the year, and to send others in their stead, for the remainder of the year. No state shall be represented in Congress by less than two, nor more than seven members; and no person shall be capable of being a delegate for more than three years in any term of six years; nor shall any person, being a delegate, be capable of holding any office under the united states for which he, or another for his benefit receives any salary, fees or emoluments of any kind.

Each state shall maintain its own delegates in a meeting of the states, and while they act as members of the committee of the states.

In determining questions in the united states, in Congress assembled, each state shall have one vote.

Freedom of speech and debate in Congress shall not be impeached or questioned in any Court or place out of Congress, and the members of congress shall be protected in their persons from arrests and imprisonments, during the time of their going to and from, and attendance on congress, except for treason, felony, or breach of the peace.

ARTICLE VI. No state without the Consent of the united states in congress assembled, shall send any embassy to, or receive any embassy from, or enter into any conference, agreement, alliance or treaty with any King prince or state; nor shall any person holding any office of profit or trust under the united states, or any of them, accept of any present, emolument, office or title of any kind whatever from any king prince or foreign state; nor shall the united states in congress assembled, or any of them, grant any title of nobility.

No two or more states shall enter into any treaty, confederation or alliance whatever between them, without the consent of the united states in congress assembled, specifying accurately the purposes for which the same is to entered into, and how long it shall continue.

No state shall lay any imposts or duties, which may interfere with any stipulations in treaties, entered into by the united states in congress assembled with any king, prince, or state, in pursuance of any treaties already proposed by congress to the courts of France and Spain.

No vessels of war shall be kept up in time of peace by any state, except such number only, as shall be deemed necessary by the united states in congress assembled, for the defence of such state, or its trade; nor shall any body of forces be kept up by any state, in time of peace, except such number only, as in the judgment of the united states, in congress assembled, shall be deemed requisite to garrison the forts necessary for the defence of such state; but every state shall always keep up a well regulated disciplined militia, sufficiently armed and accoutred, and shall provide and constantly have ready for use, in public stores, a due number of field pieces and tents, and a proper quantity of arms, ammunition and camp equipage.

No state shall engage in any war without the consent of the united states in congress assembled, unless such state be actually invaded by enemies, or shall have received certain advice of a resolution being formed by some nation of Indians to invade such state, and the danger is so imminent as not to admit of a delay, till the united states in congress assembled can be consulted nor shall any state grant commissions to any ships or vessels of war, nor letters of marque or reprisal, except it be after a declaration of war by the united states in congress assembled, and then only against the kingdom or state and the subjects thereof, against which war has been so declared, and under such regulations as shall be established by the united states in congress assembled, unless such state be infested by pirates, in which case vessels of war may be fitted out for that occasion, and kept so long as the danger shall continue, or until the united states in congress assembled shall determine otherwise.

ARTICLE VII. When land forces are raised by any state for the common defence, all officers of or under the rank of colonel, shall be appointed by the legislature of each state respectively by whom such forces shall be raised, or in such manner as such state shall direct, and all vacancies shall be filled up by the state which first made the appointment.

ARTICLE VIII. All charges of war, and all other expenses that shall be incurred for the common defence or general welfare, and allowed by the united states in congress assembled, shall be defrayed out of a common treasury, which shall be supplied by the several states, in proportion to the value of all land within each state, granted to or surveyed for any Person, as such land and the buildings and the improvements thereon shall be estimated according to such mode as the united states in congress assembled, shall from time to time direct and appoint.

The taxes for paying that portion shall be laid and levied by the authority and direction of the legislatures of the several states within the time agreed upon by the united states in congress assembled.

ARTICLE IX. The united states in congress assembled, shall have the sole and exclusive right and power of determining on peace and war, except in the cases mentioned in the sixth article—of sending and receiving embassadors—entering into treaties and alliances, provided that no treaty of commerce shall be made whereby the legislative power of the respective states shall be restrained from imposing such imposts and duties on foreigners, as their own people are subjected to, or from prohibiting the exportation or importation of any species of goods or commodities whatsoever—of establishing rules for deciding in all cases, what captures on land or water shall be legal, and in what manner prizes taken by land or naval forces in the service of the united states shall be divided or appropriated—of granting letters of marque and reprisal in times of peace —appointing courts for the trial of piracies and felonies committed on the high seas and establishing courts for receiving and determining finally appeals in all cases of captures, provided that no member of congress shall be appointed a judge of any of the said courts. The united states in congress assembled shall also be the last resort on appeal in all disputes and differences now subsisting or that hereafter may arise between two or more states concerning boundary, jurisdiction or any cause whatever; which authority shall always be exercised in the manner following. Whenever the legislative or executive authority or lawful agent of any state in controversy with another shall present a petition to congress stating the matter in question and praying for a hearing, notice thereof shall be given by congress to the legislative or executive authority of the other state in controversy, and a day assigned for the appearance of the parties by their lawful agents, who shall then be directed to appoint by joint consent, commissioners or judges to constitute a court for hearing and determining the matter in question; but if they cannot agree, congress shall name three persons out of each of the united states, and from the list of such persons each party shall alternately strike out one, the petitioners beginning, until the number shall be reduced to thirteen; and from that number not less than seven, nor more than nine names as congress shall direct, shall in the presence of congress be drawn out by lot, and the persons whose names shall be so drawn, or any five of them, shall be commissioners or judges to hear and finally determine the controversy, so always as a major part of the judges who shall hear the cause shall agree in the determination: and if either party shall neglect to attend at the day appointed, without showing reasons, which congress shall judge sufficient, or being present shall refuse to strike, the congress shall proceed to nominate three persons out of each state, and the secretary of congress shall strike in behalf of such party absent or refusing; and the judgment and sentence of the court to be appointed, in the manner before prescribed. shall be final and conclusive; and if any of the parties shall refuse to submit to the authority of such court, or to appear or defend their claim or cause, the court shall nevertheless proceed to pronounce sentence, or judgment, which shall in like manner be final and decisive, the judgment or sentence and other proceedings being in either case transmitted to congress, and lodged among the acts of congress for the security of the parties concerned: provided that every commissioner, before he sits in judgment, shall take an oath to be administered by one of the judges of the supreme or superior court of the state, where the cause shall be tried, "well and truly to hear and determine the matter in question, according to the best of his judgment, without favor, affection or hope of reward:" provided also that no state shall be deprived of territory for the benefit of the united states.

All controversies concerning the private right of soil claimed under different grants of two or more states, whose jurisdictions as they may respect such lands, and the states which passed such grants are adjusted, the said grants or either of them being at the same time claimed to have originated antecedent to such settlement of jurisdiction, shall on the petition of either party to the congress of the united states, be finally determined as near as may be in the same manner as is before prescribed for deciding disputes respecting territorial jurisdiction between different states.

The united states in congress assembled shall also have the sole and exclusive right of regulating the alloy and value of coin struck by their own authority, or by that of the respective states—fixing the standard of weights and measures throughout the united states—regulating the trade and managing all affairs with the Indians, not members of any of the states, provided that the legislative right of any state within its own limits be not infringed or violated—establishing and regulating post-offices from one state to another, throughout all the united states, and exacting such postage on the papers passing thro' the same as may be requisite to defray the expenses of said office—appointing all officers of the land forces, in the service of the united states, excepting regimental officers—appointing all the officers of the naval forces, and commissioning all officers whatever in the service of the united states—making rules for the government and regulation of said land and naval forces, and directing their operations.

The united states in congress assembled shall have authority to appoint a committee, to sit in the recess of congress, to be denominated "A Committee of the States," and to consist of one delegate from each state; and to appoint such other committees and civil officers as may be necessary for managing the general affairs of the united states under their direction—to appoint one of their number to preside, provided that no person be allowed to serve in the office of president more than one year in any term of three years; to ascertain the necessary sums of Money to be raised for the service of the united states, and to appropriate and apply the same for defraying the public expenses—to borrow money, or emit bills on the credit of the united states; transmitting every half year to the respective states an account of the sums of money so borrowed or emitted,—to build and equip a navy—to agree upon the number of land forces, and to make requisitions from each state for its quota, in proportion to the number of white inhabitants in such state: which requisitions shall be binding, and thereupon the legislature of each state shall appoint the regimental officers, raise the men and cloath, arm and equip them in a soldier like manner, at the expense of the united states: and the officers and men so cloathed, armed and equipped shall march to the place appointed and within the time agreed upon by the united states in congress assembled: But if the united states in congress assembled shall, on consideration of circumstances judge proper that any state should not raise men, or should raise a smaller number than its quota, and that any other state should raise a greater number of men than its quota thereof, such extra number shall be raised, officered, cloathed, armed and equipped in the same manner as the quota of such state, unless the legislature of such state shall judge that such extra number cannot be safely spared out of the same, in which case they shall raise, officer, cloathe, arm and equip as many of such number as they judge can be safely spared. And the officers and men so cloathed, armed and equipped shall march to the place appointed, and within the time agreed on by the united states in congress assembled.

The united states in congress assembled shall never engage in a war, nor grant letters of marque and reprisal in time of peace, nor enter into any treaties or alliances, nor coin money, nor regulate the value thereof, nor ascertain the sums and expenses necessary for the defence and welfare of the united states, or any of them, nor emit bills, nor borrow money on the credit of the united states, nor appropriate money, nor agree upon the number of vessels of war, to be built or purchased, or the number of land or sea forces to be raised, nor appoint a commander-in-chief of the army or navy, unless nine states assent to the same: nor shall a question on any point, except for adjourning from day to day, be determined unless by the votes of a majority of the united states in congress assembled.

The congress of the united states shall have power to adjourn to any time within the year, and to any place within the united states, so that no period of adjournment be for a longer duration than the space of six months, and shall publish the Journal of their proceedings monthly, except such part thereof relating to treaties, alliances or military operations, as in their judgment may require secrecy; and the yeas and nays of the delegates of each state on any question shall be entered on the journal, when it is desired by any delegate; and the delegates of a state, or any of them, at his or their request shall be furnished with a transcript of the said Journal, except such parts as are above excepted, to lay before the legislatures of the several states.

ARTICLE X. The committee of the states, or any nine of them, shall be authorized to execute, in the recess of congress, such of the powers of congress as the united states in congress assembled, by the consent of nine states, shall from time to time think it expedient to vest them with; provided that no power be delegated to the said committee, for the exercise of which, by the articles of confederation, the voice of nine states in the congress of the united states assembled is requisite.

ARTICLE XI. Canada acceding to this confederation and joining in the measures of the united states, shall be admitted into, and entitled to all the advantages of this union: but no other colony shall be admitted into the same, unless such admission be agreed to by nine states.

ARTICLE XII. All bills of credit emitted, monies borrowed and debts contracted by, or under the authority of congress, before the assembling of the united states, in pursuance of the present confederation, shall be deemed and considered as a charge against the united states, for payment and satisfaction whereof the said united states, and the public faith are hereby solemnly pledged.

ARTICLE XIII. Every state shall abide by the determination of the united states in congress assembled, on all questions which by this confederation are submitted to them. And the articles of this confederation shall be inviolably observed by every state, and the union shall be perpetual; nor shall any alteration at any time hereafter be made in any of them; unless such alteration be agreed to in a congress of the united states, and be afterward confirmed by the legislatures of every state.

AND WHEREAS, it hath pleased the Great Governor of the World to incline the hearts of the legislatures we respectively represent in congress, to approve of, and to authorize us to ratify the said articles of confederation and perpetual union, Know YE that we the undersigned delegates, by virtue of the power and authority to us given for that purpose, do by these presents, in the name and in behalf of our respective constituents, fully and entirely ratify and confirm each and every of the said articles of confederation and perpetual union, and all and singular the matter and things therein contained: And we do futher solemnly plight and engage the faith of our respective constituents, that they shall abide by the determination of the united states in congress assembled, on all questions, which by the said confederation are submitted to them. And that the articles thereof shall be inviolably observed by the states we respectively represent and that the union shall be perpetual.

IN WITNESS whereof we have hereunto set our hands in congress. Done at Philadelphia in the state of Pennsylvania the ninth day of July in the Year of our Lord one Thousand seven Hundred and Seventy-eight, and in the third year of the independence of America.

NOTE—Prior to the Declaration of Independence, and on the 12th day of the preceding month, a committee was appointed by the Continental Congress, "to prepare and digest the form of a confederation to be entered into between these colonies." The report of the committee was made on the 12th of July, and printed copies placed in the hands of members of the congress for their secret examination. For two years the articles were under discussion by the members of the several state legislatures to whom copies were sent by the new government, and on the 9th of July, 1778, the representatives in congress of the States of New Hampshire, Massachusetts Bay, Rhode Island and Providence Plantations. Connecticut, New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia and South Carolina, signed the form above which had been agreed upon. To those states whose delegates being absent or uncertain of their power, did not sign the form at this time, Congress addressed a request for action with all convenient dispatch. North Carolina ratified the Act on the 21st of July, and Georgia on the 24th of the same month, thus giving the assent of ten states to the instrument. The remaining ratifications were given, by New Jersey, November 26, 1778; by Delaware, May 5, 1779; and by Maryland, March 1, 1781.

Congress assembled under the Act of Confederation, March 2, 1781, the day following the ratification of the act by Maryland.

RUTHERFORD BIRCHARD HAYES.

RUTHERFORD BIRCHARD HAYES.

UTHERFORD BIRCHARD HAYES, nineteenth president of the United States, was born at Delaware, Ohio, October 4, 1822; graduated at Kenyon College, Ohio, in 1842, and at Harvard Law School in 1845; began the practice of law at Fremont, Ohio; removed to Cincinnati in 1849; was city solicitor from 1858 to 1861; was appointed, June 27, 1861, major Twenty-third Ohio Volunteers, of which W. S. Rosecrans was the first colonel and Stanley Matthews (afterwards justice U. S. Supreme Court) lieutenant-colonel. He was promoted lieutenant-colonel October 24, 1861, from which date he commanded the Twentythird until December, 1862. In the brilliant action of South Mountain (1862) he received a severe wound in the left arm which compelled him to leave the field. After the battle of Antietam the regiment was returned to West Virginia, where, November 30, 1862, he rejoined it as colonel, having been promoted October 24. He was commissioned brigadier-general of volunteers, to date from battle of Cedar Creek, at the close of which he received news of his election to Congress from the second district of Ohio; was made brevet major-general for gallant services, and resigned from the army June 1, 1865. In December he took his seat in Congress; was re-elected in 1866, but left his seat in 1867, having been nominated for governor of Ohio, to which office he was elected in October and re-elected in 1869. In 1872 he suffered his first defeat for Congress. In 1875 he reluctantly consented to allow his name to be used once more as a candidate for governor, and was elected for a third time, an honor never before conferred upon a citizen of Ohio. On June 16, 1876, he was nominated at Cincinnati for President of the United States, on the Republican ticket, on the seventh ballot, receiving 384 votes, to 351 for J. G. Blaine, and 21 for B. H. Bristow. ensuing canvass, which was bitter and exciting, was closed by a disputed election, the electoral votes of Florida, South Carolina, and Louisiana, and one of those of Oregon being claimed by both parties. The Presidential Electoral Commission announced, March 2, 1877, that he had been duly elected president of the United States. The inauguration ceremonies took place on March 5. During the four years of his office the affairs of the government were conducted in a manner that will command the favorable judgment of history. Died at Fremont, Ohio, January 17, 1893.

THE ORDINANCE OF 1787.

AN ORDINANCE FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF THE TERRITORY OF THE UNITED STATES NORTH WEST OF THE OHIO RIVER.

[Adopted by the Confederate Congress July 13th, 1787. The Constitution of the United States was adopted by the Congress the 28th of September following. The text from which this was printed was found in a volume of territorial laws printed in Cincinnati in the year 1796. By authority W. Maxwell, Jr., and known as "Maxwell's Code, 1796."]

B E it ordained by the United States in Congress assembled, That the said territory, for the purpose of temporary government, be one district; subject, however, to be divided into two districts, as future circumstances may, in the opinion of Congress, make it expedient.

Be it ordained by the authority aforesaid, that the estates both of resident and non-resident proprietors, in the said territory, dying intestate, shall descend to, and be distributed among their children, and the descendants of a deceased child in equal parts; the descendants of a deceased child or grandchild, to take the share of their deceased parent in equal parts among them; and where there shall be no children or descendants, then in equal parts to the next of kin, in equal degree; and among collaterals, the children of a deceased brother or sister of the intestate shall have in equal parts among them their deceased parents share; and there shall in no case be a distinction between kindred of the whole and half blood; saving in all cases to the widow of the intestate, her third part of the real estate for life, and one-third part of the personal estate; and this law relative to descents and dower, shall remain in full force until altered by the legislature of the district. And until the governor and judges shall adopt laws as hereinafter mentioned, estates in the said territory may be devised or bequeathed by wills in writing, signed and sealed by him or her in whom the estate may be (being of full age) and attested by three witnesses; and real estates may be conveyed by lease and release or bargain and sale signed, sealed and delivered by the person, being of full age, in whom the estate may be, and attested by two witnesses, provided such wills be duly proved, and such conveyances be acknowledged, or the execution thereof duly proved, and be recorded within one year after proper magistrates, courts, and registers shall be appointed for that purpose; and personal property may be transferred by delivery, saving, however, to the French and Canadian inhabitants, and other settlers of the Kaskaskies, Saint Vincents, and the neighboring villages, who have heretofore professed themselves citizens of Virginia, their laws and customs now in force among them, relative to the descent and conveyance of property.

Be it ordained by the authority aforesaid, that there shall be appointed from time to time, by Congress, a governor, whose commission shall continue in force for the term of three years, unless sooner revoked by Congress; he shall reside in the district, and have a freehold estate therein, in one thousand acres of land, while in the exercise of his office.

There shall be appointed from time to time, by Congress, a secretary, whose commission shall continue in force for four years, unless sooner revoked, he shall reside in the district, and have a freehold estate therein, in five hundred acres of land, while in the exercise of his office; it shall be his duty to keep and preserve the acts and laws passed by the legislature, and the public records of the district, and the proceedings of the governor in his executive department; and transmit authentic copies of such acts and proceedings, every six months, to the Secretary of Congress. There shall also be appointed a court to consist of three judges, any two of whom to form a court, who shall have a common-law jurisdiction, and reside in the district, and have each therein a free-hold estate in five hundred acres of land, while in the exercise of their offices; and their commissions shall continue in force during good behavior.

The governor and judges, or a majority of them, shall adopt and publish in the district such laws of the original States, criminal and civil, as may be necessary, and best suited to the circumstances of the district, and report them to Congress, from time to time, which laws shall be in force in the district until the organization of the general assembly therein, unless disapproved of by Congress; but afterwards the legislature shall have authority to alter them as they shall think fit.

The governor, for the time being, shall be commander-in-chief of the militia, appoint and commission all officers in the same, below the rank of general officers; all general officers shall be appointed and commissioned by Congress.

Previous to the organization of the general assembly, the governor shall appoint such magistrates and other civil officers, in each county or township, as he shall find necessary for the preservation of the peace and good order in the same. After the general assembly shall be organized, the powers and duties of magistrates and other civil officers shall be regulated and defined by the said assembly; but all magistrates and other civil officers, not herein otherwise directed, shall, during the continuance of this temporary government, be appointed by the governor.

For the prevention of crimes and injuries, the laws to be adopted or made shall have force in all parts of the district, and for the execution of process, criminal and civil, the governor shall make proper divisions thereof—and he shall proceed from time to time, as circumstances may require, to lay out the parts of the district in which the Indian titles shall have been extinguished, into counties and townships, subject, however, to such alterations as may thereafter be made by the legislature.

So soon as there shall be five thousand free male inhabitants, of full age, in the district, upon giving proof thereof to the governor, they shall receive authority, with time and place, to elect representatives from their counties or townships, to represent them in the general assembly: Provided. That for every five hundred free male inhabitants there shall be one representative, and so on, progressively, with the number of free male inhabitants, shall the right of representation increase, until the number of representatives shall amount to twenty-five, after which the number and proportion of representatives shall be regulated by the legislature; Provided, That no person be eligible or qualified to act as a representative unless he shall have been a citizen of one of the United States three years, and be a resident in the district, or unless he shall have resided in the district three years, and in either case, shall likewise hold in his own right, in fee simple, two hundred acres of land within the same: -Provided also, that a freehold in fifty acres of land in the district, having been a citizen of one of the States, and being resident in the district; or the like freehold and two years' residence in the district shall be necessary to qualify a man as an elector of a representative.

The representatives thus elected, shall serve for the term of two years, and in case of the death of a representative, or removal from office, the governor shall issue a writ to the county or township for which he was a member, to elect another in his stead, to serve for the residue of the term. The general assembly, or legislature, shall consist of the governor, legislative council, and a house of representatives. The legislative council shall consist of five members, to continue in office five years, unless sooner removed by Congress, any three of whom to be a quorum, and the members of the council shall be nominated and appointed in the following manner, to-wit: As soon as representatives shall be elected, the governor shall appoint a time and place for them to meet together, and, when met, they shall nominate ten persons, resident in the district, and each possessed of a freehold in five hundred acres of land, and return their names to Congress; five of whom Congress shall appoint and commission to serve as aforesaid; and whenever a vacancy shall happen in the council, by death or removal from office, the house of representatives shall nominate two persons, qualified as aforesaid, for each vacancy, and return their names to Congress; one of whom Congress shall appoint and commission for the residue of the term; and every five years, four months at least before the expiration of the time of service of the members of the council, the said house shall nominate ten persons, qualified as aforesaid, and return their names to Congress, five of whom Congress shall appoint and commission to serve as members of the council five years, unless sooner removed. And the governor, legislative council, and house of representatives shall have authority to make laws in all cases for good government of the district, not repugnant to the principles and articles in this ordinance established and declared. And all bills having passed by a majority in the house, and by a majority in the council, shall be referred to the governor for his assent; but no bills or legislative act whatever, shall be of any force without his assent. The governor shall have power to convene, prorogue and dissolve the general assembly, when in his opinion, it shall be expedient.

The governor, judges, legislative council, secretary, and such other officers as Congress shall appoint in the district, shall take an oath or affirmation of fidelity, and of office, the governor before the President of Congress, and all other officers before the governor. As soon as a legislature shall be formed in the district, the council and house assembled in one room, shall have authority by joint ballot, to elect a delegate to Congress, who shall have a seat in Congress, with a right of debating, but not of voting, during this temporary government.

And for extending the fundamental principles of civil and religious liberty, which forms the basis whereon these republics, their laws and constitutions are erected; to fix and establish those principles as the basis of all laws, constitutions and governments, which forever hereafter shall be formed in the said territory;—to provide also for the establishment of States, and permanent government therein, and for their admission to a share in the Federal councils on an equal footing with the original States, at as early periods as may be consistent with the general interest.

It is hereby ordained and declared, by the authority aforesaid, that the following articles shall be considered as articles of compact between the original States and the people and State in the said territory, and forever remain unalterable, unless by common consent, to-wit:

ARTICLE I. No person, demeaning himself in a peaceable and orderly manner, shall ever be molested on account of his mode of worship or religious sentiments in the said 'territory.

ARTICLE II. The inhabitants of the said territory shall always be entitled to the benefits of the writs of habeas corpus, and of the trial by jury; of a proportionate representation of the people in the legislature, and of judicial proceedings according to the course of the common law; all persons shall be bailable unless for capital offenses where the proof shall be evident or the presumption great; all fines shall be moderate, and no cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted; no man shall be deprived of his liberty or property, but by the judgment of his peers, or the law of the land; and should the public exigencies make it necessary for the common preservation to take any person's property, or to demand his particular services, full compensation shall be made for the same;—and in the just preservation of rights and property it is understood and declared, that no law ought ever to be made, or have force in the said territory, that shall in any manner whatever interfere with, or affect private contracts or engagements, bona fide and without fraud previously formed.

ARTICLE III. Religion, morality, and knowledge, being necessary to good government and the happiness of mankind, schools and the means of education shall forever be encouraged. The utmost good faith shall always be observed towards the Indians; their lands and property shall never be taken from them without their consent; and in their property, rights and liberty, they never shall be invaded or disturbed, unless in just and lawful wars authorized by Congress; but laws founded in justice and humanity shall from time to time be made for preventing wrongs being done to them, and for preserving peace and friendship with them.

ARTICLE IV. The said territory, and the States which may be formed therein shall forever remain a part of this confederacy of the United States of America, subject to the Articles of Confederation, and to such alterations therein as shall be constitutionally made; and to all the acts and ordinances of the United States in Congress assembled, conformable thereto. The inhabitants and settlers in the said territory, shall be subject to pay a part of the Federal debt, contracted or to be contracted, and proportional part of the expenses of government, to be apportioned on them by Congress, according to the same common rule and measure by which apportionments thereof shall be made on the other states; and the taxes for paying their proportion, shall be laid and levied by the authority and direction of the legislatures of the district or districts, or new states as in the original states, within the time agreed upon by the United States in Congress assembled. The legislatures of those districts, or new States, shall never interfere with the primary disposal of the soil by the United States in Congress assembled, nor with any regulations Congress may find necessary for securing the title in such soil to the bona fide purchasers. No tax shall be imposed on lands the property of the United States; and in no case shall non-resident proprietors be taxed higher than residents. The navigable waters leading into the Mississippi and Saint Lawrence, and carrying places between the same shall be common highways, and forever free, as well as to the inhabitants of the said Territory as to the citizens of the United States, and those of any other states that may be admitted into the confederacy, without any tax, impost, or duty therefor.

ARTICLE V. There shall be formed in the said Territory, not less than three nor more than five States; and the boundaries of the States, as soon as Virginia shall alter her act of cession and consent to the same, shall become fixed and established as follows, to-wit: The western State, in the said Territory, shall be bounded by the Mississippi, the Ohio, and the Wabash rivers, a direct line drawn from the Wabash and Post Vincents, due north, to the territorial line between the United States and Canada; and by the said territorial line to the Lake of the Woods and Mississippi. The middle State shall be bounded by the said direct line, the Wabash from Post Vincents to the Ohio; by the Ohio, by a direct line drawn due north from the mouth of the Great Miami to the said territorial line, and by the said territorial line. The eastern State shall be bounded by the last mentioned direct line, the Ohio, Pennsylvania, and the said territorial line: Provided, however, and it is further understood and declared, that the boundaries of these three States shall be subject so far to be altered, that if Congress shall hereafter find it expedient. they shall have authority to form one or two States in that part of the said territory which lies north of an east and west line drawn through the southerly bend or extreme of lake Michigan; and whenever any of the said States shall have sixty thousand free inhabitants therein, such State shall be admitted by its delegates into the Congress of the United States, on an equal footing with the original states, in all respects whatsoever and shall be at liberty to form a permanent constitution and State government; provided, the constitution and government so to be formed shall be republican, and in conformity to the principles contained in these articles, and so far as it can be consistent with the general interest of the confederacy, such admission shall be allowed at an earlier period, and when there may be a less number of free inhabitants in the State than sixty thousand.

ARTICLE VI. There shall be neither slavery nor involuntary servitude in the said territory, otherwise than in the punishment of crimes whereof the party shall have been duly convicted; provided, always, that any person escaping into the same, from whom labor or service is lawfully claimed in any one of the original states, such fugitive may be lawfully reclaimed and conveyed to the person claiming his or her labor or services as aforesaid.

Be it ordained by the authority aforesaid, that the resolutions of the 23d of April, 1784, relative to the subject of this ordinance, be and the same are hereby repealed and declared null and void.

Done by the United States in Congress assembled, the 13th day of July, in the year of our Lord, 1787, and of their sovereignty and independence the 12th.

CHA. THOMPSON, Secy.

Who was the Author of the Ordinance of 1787?—"There has been some diversity of opinion as to the individual to whom the honor of the paternity of that document rightfully belongs. Some have claimed it for Mr. Jefferson, though he did not claim it himself. The honor of drafting that instrument, on which the constitutions of all the northwestern states are founded, belongs of right to Nathan Dane, a revolutionary patriot of Massachusetts. He was its author,—he reported it to Congress and persevered in explaining, and impressing it on their attention till they became satisfied of its merits and adopted it by a unanimous vote, Mr. Jefferson being in France at the time."—Burnett's Notes on the North-Western Territory, pp. 37-8.

JAMES A. GARFIELD.

JAMES A. GARFIELD.

TAMES ABRAHAM GARFIELD, twentieth president of the United States, was born in Orange, Cuyahoga County, Ohio, November 19, 1831; he graduated at Williams College, Massachusetts, in 1856; studied and practiced law; was a member of the Ohio Senate in 1859-1860. In the Civil War he entered the military service as colonel of the Forty-second Ohio Volunteers; and served in southeastern Kentucky, where (January, 1862), in command of a brigade, he forced Humphrey Marshall and his command to evacuate Kentucky, and for this service was promoted to be brigadier-general of volunteers, January 11, 1862; also served at Shiloh, Corinth, etc. In 1863 he was appointed chief of staff by General Rosecrans, with whom he continued to serve until December 5, 1863, having in the meantime (September 19, 1863) been promoted to be major-general of volunteers for gallantry at the battle of Chickamauga, when he resigned to take his seat in the Thirty-eighth Congress, to which he had been elected, and was re-elected to each succeeding Congress, serving as chairman of the committees on military affairs, banking and appropriations; elected United States Senator from Ohio January 13, 1880; nominated for president by the Republicans at Chicago, Ill., with Chester A. Arthur for vice-president, June 8, 1880, and elected November 2, 1880; shot and mortally wounded July 2, 1881, by Charles J. Guiteau, who was lying in wait for him in the Baltimore & Potomac Railroad Station in Washington, D. C., as the presidential party was about leaving for an extended pleasure trip through New England. President Garfield was removed in a critical condition September 6, 1881, from the White House at Washington in a specially arranged car to Long Branch, N. J., where he died September 19, 1881. A bronze statute of him was unveiled at Washington, D. C., May 12, 1887. The city of Cleveland erected a beautiful monument to his memory in Lake View Park, where his remains are buried.

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.*

[Recommended to the Congress by a constitutional convention, of which George Washington was President, on the 17th day of September, 1787, and transmitted to the several states for ratification on the 28th day of the same month. On the fourth of March, 1789, the day which had been fixed for commencing operations of Government under the new Constitution, it had been ratified by the conventions chosen in each state to consider it, as follows: Delaware, December 7, 1787; New Jersey, December 18, 1787; Connecticut, January 9, 1788; Maryland, April 28, 1788; Pennsylvania, December 12, 1787; Georgia, January 2, 1788; Massachusetts, February 6, 1788; South Carolina, May 23, 1788; New Hampshire, June 21, 1788; Virginia, June 26, 1788; and New York, July 26, 1788.

Rhode Island ratified the constitution on the 29th of May, and North Carolina on the 21st of November, 1789. Vermont, then an applicant for admission to statehood, ratified the constitution on the 10th day of January, 1791, and was admitted into the Union on the 18th day of February following.]

E the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

The Number of Representatives shall not exceed one for every Thirty thousand, but each State shall have at Least one Representative; and until such enumeration shall be made, the State of New Hampshire shall be entitled to chuse three, Massachusetts eight, Rhode Island and Providence Plantations one, Connecticut five, New York six, New Jersey four, Pennsylvania eight, Delaware one, Maryland six, Virginia ten, North Carolina five, South Carolina five, and Georgia three.

- 4. When vacancies happen in the Representation from any State, the Executive Authority thereof shall issue Writs of Election to fill such vacancies.
- 5. The House of Representatives shall chuse their Speaker and other Officers; and shall have the sole Power of Impeachment.
- SEC. 3. (1) The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, chosen by the Legislature thereof, for six years; and each Senator shall have one Vote.
- 2. Immediately after they shall be assembled in Consequence of the first Election, they shall be divided as equally as may be into three Classes. The Seats of the Senators of the first Class shall be vacated at the Expiration of the second Year, of the second Class at the Expiration of the fourth Year, and of the third Class at the Expiration of the sixth Year, so that one-third may be chosen every second Year; and if vacancies happen by Resignation, or otherwise, during the Recess of the Legislature of any State, the Executive thereof may make temporary Appointments until the next Meeting of the Legislature, which shall then fill such Vacancies.
- 3. No Person shall be a Senator who shall not have attained to the Age of thirty Years, and been nine Years a Citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an Inhabitant of that State for which he shall be chosen.
- 4. The Vice President of the United States shall be President of the Senate, but shall have no Vote, unless they be equally divided.
- 5. The Senate shall chuse their Officers, and also a President protempore, in the Absence of the Vice President, or when he shall exercise the Office of President of the United States.
- 6. The Senate shall have the sole Power to try all Impeachments. When sitting for that Purpose, they shall be on Oath or Affirmation.

When the President of the United States is tried, the Chief Justice shall preside: And no Person shall be convicted without the Concurrence of two-thirds of the Members present.

7. Judgment in Cases of Impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from Office, and disqualification to hold and enjoy any Office of honor, Trust or Profit under the United States: but the Party convicted shall nevertheless be liable and subject to Indictment, Trial, Judgment and Punishment, according to Law.

SECTION 4. (1) The Times, Places and Manner of holding Elections for Senators and Representatives, shall be prescribed in each State by the Legislature thereof; but the Congress may at any time by Law make or alter such Regulations, except as to the Places of chusing Senators.

2. The Congress shall assemble at least once in every Year, and such Meeting shall be on the first Monday in December, unless they shall by Law appoint a different day.

SECTION 5. (I) Each House shall be the Judge of Elections, Returns, and Qualifications of its own Members, and a Majority of each shall constitute a Quorum to do Business; but a smaller Number may adjourn from day to day, and may be authorized to compel the Attendance of absent Members, in such Manner, and under such Penalties, as each House may provide.

2. Each House may determine the Rules of its Proceedings, punish its Members for disorderly Behavior, and, with the Concurrence of two-thirds, expel a Member.

3. Each House shall keep a Journal of its Proceedings, and from time to time publish the same, excepting such Parts as may in their Judgment require Secrecy; and the Yeas and Nays of the Members of either House on any question shall, at the Desire of one fifth of those Present, be entered on the Journal.

4. Neither House, during the Session of Congress, shall, without the Consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other Place than that in which the two Houses shall be sitting.

SECTION 6. (I) The Senators and Representatives shall receive a Compensation for their Services, to be ascertained by Law, and paid out of the Treasury of the United States. They shall in all Cases, except Treason, Felony and Breach of the Peace, be privileged from Arrest during their Attendance at the Session of their respective Houses, and in going to and returning from the same; and for any Speech or Debate in either House, they shall not be questioned in any other Place.

2. No Senator or Representative shall, during the Time for which he was elected, be appointed to any civil Office under the Authority of the United States, which shall have been created, or the Emoluments whereof shall have been encreased during such time; and no Person holding any Office under the United States, shall be a Member of either House during his Continuance in Office.

SECTION 7. (1) All Bills for raising Revenue shall originate in the House of Representatives; but the Senate may propose or concur with Amendments as on other Bills.

- 2. Every Bill which shall have passed the House of Representatives and the Senate shall, before it becomes a Law, be presented to the President of the United States; If he approves he shall sign it, but if not he shall return it, with his Objections, to that House in which it shall have originated, who shall enter the Objections at large on their Journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If, after such Reconsideration, two-thirds of that House shall agree to pass the Bill, it shall be sent, together with the Objections, to the other House, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered. and if approved by two-thirds of that House, it shall become a Law. But in all such Cases the Vote of both Houses shall be determined by Yeas and Nays, and the Names of the Persons voting for or against the Bill shall be entered on the Journal of each House respectively. If any Bill shall not be returned by the President within ten Days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him the Same shall be a Law, in like Manner as if he had signed it, unless the Congress by their Adjournment prevent its Return, in which Case it shall not be a Law.
- 3. Every Order, Resolution or Vote, to which the Concurrence of the Senate and House of Representatives may be necessary (except on a question of Adjournment), shall be presented to the President of the United States; and before the Same shall take Effect, shall be approved by him, or being disapproved by him, shall be re-passed by two-thirds of the Senate and House of Representatives, according to the Rules and Limitations prescribed in the Case of a Bill.

Section 8. (1) The Congress shall have Power To lay and collect Taxes, Duties, Imposts and Excises to pay the Debts and provide for the common Defence and general Welfare of the United States; but all Duties, Imposts and Excises shall be uniform throughout the United States;

- 2. To borrow Money on the credit of the United States.
- 3. To regulate Commerce with foreign Nations, and among the several States, and with the Indian Tribes;
- 4. To establish an uniform Rule of Naturalization, and uniform Laws on the subject of Bankruptcies throughout the United States;
- 5. To coin money, regulate the Value thereof, and of foreign Coin, and fix the Standard of Weights and Measures;
- 6. To provide for the Punishment of counterfeiting the Securities and current Coin of the United States;

- 7. To establish Post Offices and post Roads;
- 8. To promote the Progress of Science and useful Arts, by securing for limited Times to Authors and Inventors the exclusive Right to their respective Writings and Discoveries;

- 10. To define and punish Piracies and Felonies committed on the high Seas and Offences against the Law of Nations;
- 11. To declare War, grant letters of Marque and Reprisal, and make Rules concerning Captures on Land and Water;
- 12. To raise and support Armies, but no Appropriation of Money to that Use shall be for a longer Terms than two Years;
  - 13. To provide and maintain a Navy;
- 14. To make Rules for the Government and Regulation of the land and naval Forces;
- 15. To provide for calling forth the Militia to execute the Laws of of the Union, suppress Insurrections and repel Invasions.
- 16. To provide for organizing, arming and disciplining the Militia, and for governing such Part of them as may be employed in the Service of the United States, reserving to the States respectively the Appointment of the Officers, and the Authority of training the Militia according to the discipline prescribed by Congress;
- 17. To exercise exclusive Legislation in all Cases whatsoever, over such District (not exceeding ten miles square) as may, by Cession of particular States, and the Acceptance of Congress, become the Seat of the Government of the United States, and to exercise like Authority over all Places purchased by the Consent of the Legislature of the State in which the Same shall be for the Erection of Forts, Magazines, Arsenals, dock-Yards, and other needful buildings;—And
- 18. To make all Laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into Execution the foregoing Powers, and all other Powers vested by this Constitution in the Government of the United States, or in any Department or Office thereof.
- Section 9. (1) The Migration or Importation of such Persons as any of the States now existing shall think proper to admit, shall not be prohibited by the Congress prior to the Year one thousand eight hundred and eight, but a Tax or duty may be imposed on such Importation, not exceeding ten dollars for each Person.
- 2. The Privilege of the Writ of Habeas Corpus shall not be suspended unless when in Case of Rebellion or Invasion the public Safety may require it.
  - 3. No Bill of Attainder or ex post facto Law shall be passed.
- 4. No Capitation, or other direct, tax shall be laid, unless in Proportion to the Census or Enumeration herein before directed to be taken.

- 5. No Tax or Duty shall be laid on Articles exported from any State.
- 6. No Preference shall be given by any Regulation of Commerce or Revenue to the Ports of one State over those of another; nor shall Vessels bound to, or from, one State, be obliged to enter, clear, or pay Duties in another.
- 7. No Money shall be drawn from the Treasury, but in Consequence of Appropriations made by Law; and a regular Statement and Account of Receipts and Expenditures of all public Money shall be published from time to time.
- 8. No Title of nobility shall be granted by the United States: And no Person holding any Office of Profit or Trust under them, shall, without the Consent of the Congress, accept of any present, Emolument, Office, or Title, of any kind whatever, from any King, Prince, or foreign State.
- SECTION 10. (1) No State shall enter into any Treaty, Alliance, or Confederation; grant Letters of Marque and Reprisal; coin Money; emit Bills of Credit; make any Thing but gold and silver Coin a Tender in Payment of Debts; pass any Bill of Attainder, ex post facto Law, or Law impairing the Obligation of Contracts, or grant any Title of Nobility.
- 2. No State shall, without the Consent of the Congress, lay any Imposts or Duties or Imports or Exports, except what may be absolutely necessary for executing its inspection Laws; and the net Produce of all Duties, and Imports, laid by any State on Imports or Exports, shall be for the Use of the Treasury of the United States; and all such Laws shall be subject to the Revision and Control of the Congress.
- 3. No State shall, without the Consent of Congress, lay any Duty of Tonnage, keep Troops, or Ships of War in time of Peace, enter into an Agreement or Compact with another State, or with a foreign Power, or engage in War, unless actually invaded, or in such imminent Danger as will not admit of delay.

ARTICLE II.

- SECTION I. (I) The executive Power shall be vested in a President of the United States of America. He shall hold his Office during the Term of four Years, and, together with the Vice President, chosen for the same Term, be elected, as follows:
- 2. Each State shall appoint in such Manner as the Legislature thereof may direct, a Number of Electors, equal to the whole Number of Senators and Representatives to which the State may be entitled in the Congress; but no Senator or Representative, or Person holding an Office of Trust or Profit under the United States, shall be appointed an Elector. [The remainder of this clause is superseded by the XIIth Amendment.]

- 3. The Congress may determine the Time of chusing the Electors, and the Day on which they shall give their Votes; which Day shall be the same throughout the United States.
- 4. No Person except a natural born Citizen, or a Citizen of the United States, at the time of the Adoption of this Constitution, shall be eligible to the Office of President; neither shall any Person be eligible to that Office who shall not have attained to the Age of thirty-five Years, and been fourteen Years a Resident within the United States.
- 5. In Case of the Removal of the President from Office, or of his Death, Resignation, or Inability to discharge the Powers and Duties of the said Office, the same shall devolve on the Vice President, and the Congress may by Law provide for the Case of Removal, Death, Resignation or Inability, both of the President and Vice President, declaring what Officer shall then act as President, and such Officer shall act accordingly, until the Disability be removed, or a President shall be elected.
- 6. The President shall, at stated Times, receive for his Services, a Compensation, which shall neither be increased nor diminished during the Period for which he shall have been elected, and he shall not receive within that Period any other Emolument from the United States, or any of them.
- 7. Before he enters on the Execution of his Office, he shall take the following Oath or Affirmation:—"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the Office of President of the United States, and will to the best of my Ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States."
- Section 2. (I) The President shall be Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States, and of the Militia of the several States when called into the actual Service of the United States; he may require the Opinion, in writing, of the principal Officer in each of the executive Departments, upon any subject relating to the Duties of their respective Offices, and he shall have power to grant Reprieves and Pardons for Offences against the United States, except in Cases of Impeachment.
- 2. He shall have Power, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Senate, to make Treaties, provided two-thirds of the Senators present concur; and he shall nominate, and by and with the Advice and Consent of the Senate, shall appoint Ambassadors, other public Ministers and Consuls, Judges of the Supreme Court, and all other Officers of the United States, whose Appointments are not herein otherwise provided for, and which shall be established by Law; but the Congress may by Law vest the Appointment of such inferior Officers as they think proper, in the President alone, in the Courts of Law, or in the Heads of Departments.

3. The President shall have Power to fill up all Vacancies that may happen during the Recess of the Senate, by granting Commissions which shall expire at the End of their next Session.

Section 3. He shall, from time to time, give to the Congress Information of the State of the Union, and recommend to their consideration such Measures as he shall judge necessary and expedient; he may, on extraordinary Occasions, convene both Houses, or either of them, and in Case of Disagreement between them, with Respect to the Time of Adjournment, he may adjourn them to such Time as he shall think proper; he shall receive Ambassadors and other public Ministers; he shall take Care that the Laws be faithfully executed, and shall Commission all the Officers of the United States.

Section 4. The President, Vice President and all civil Officers of the United States, shall be removed from Office on Impeachment for, and Conviction of, Treason, Bribery, or other high Crimes and Misdemeanors.

ARTICLE III.

Section 1. The judicial Power of the United States, shall be vested in one Supreme Court, and in such inferior Courts as the Congress may from time to time ordain and establish. The Judges, both of the supreme and inferior Courts, shall hold their Offices during good Behaviour, and shall, at stated Times, receive for their Services, a Compensation, which shall not be diminished during their Continuance in Office.

Section 2. (1) The judicial Power shall extend to all Cases, in Law and Equity, arising under this Constitution, the Laws of the United States, and Treaties made, or which shall be made, under their Authority;—to all Cases affecting Ambassadors, other public ministers and Consuls;—to all Cases of admiralty and maratime Jurisdiction;—to Controversies to which the United States shall be a Party;—to Controversies between two or more States;—between a State and Citizen of another State;—between Citizens of different States;—between Citizens of the same State claiming Lands under Grants of different States, and between a State, or the Citizen thereof, and foreign States, Citizens or Subjects.

- 2. In all cases affecting Ambassadors, other public Ministers and Consuls, and those in which a State shall be Party, the supreme Court shall have original jurisdiction. In all the other Cases before mentioned, the supreme Court shall have appellate Jurisdiction, both as to Law and Fact, with such Exceptions, and under such Regulations as the Congress shall make.
  - 3. The Trial of all Crimes, except in Cases of Impeachment, shall be by Jury; and such Trial shall be held in the State where the said Crimes shall have been committed; but when not committed within any State, the Trial shall be at such Place or Places as the Congress may by Law have directed.

- SECTION 3. (I) Treason against the United States, shall consist only in levying War against them, or in adhering to their Enemies, giving them Aid and Comfort. No Person shall be convicted of Treason unless on the Testimony of two Witnesses to the same overt Act, or on Confession in open Court.
- 2. The Congress shall have Power to declare the Punishment of Treason, but no Attainder of Treason shall work Corruption of Blood, or Forfeiture, except during the Life of the Person attained.

ARTICLE IV.

- Section I. (I) Full faith and Credit shall be given in each State to the public Acts, Records, and judicial Proceedings of every other State. And the Congress may by general Laws prescribe the Manner in which such Acts, Records, and Proceedings shall be proved, and the Effect thereof.
- 2. A person charged in any State with Treason, Felony, or other Crime, who shall flee from Justice, and be found in another State, shall, on Demand of the executive Authority of the State from which he fled be delivered up, to be removed to the State having Jurisdiction of the Crime.
- 3. No Person held to Service or Labour in one State, under the Laws thereof, escaping into another, shall, in Consequence of any Law or Regulation therein, be discharged from such Service or Labour, but shall be delivered up on Claim of the Party to whom such Service or Labour may be due.
- Section 3. (1) New States may be admitted by the Congress into this Union; but no new State shall be formed or erected with the Jurisdiction of any other State; nor any State be formed by the Junction of two or more States, or Parts of States without the Consent of the Legislatures of the States concerned as well as of the Congress.
- 2. The Congress shall have Power to dispose of, and make all needful Rules and Regulations respecting the Territory, or other Property belonging to the United States; and nothing in this Constitution shall be so construed as to Prejudice any Claims of the United States, or of any particular State.

Section 4. The United States shall guarantee to every State in this Union a Republican Form of Government, and shall protect each of them against Invasion; and on Application of the Legislature, or of the Executive (when the Legislature cannot be convened) against domestic Violence.

ARTICLE V.

The Congress, whenever two-thirds of both Houses shall deem it necessary, shall propose Amendments to this Constitution, or, on the Application of the Legislatures of two-thirds of the several States, shall call a Convention for proposing Amendments, which, in either Case, shall be valid to all Intents and Purposes, as Part of this Constitution, when ratified by the Legislatures of three-fourths of the several States, or by Conventions in three-fourths thereof, as the one or the other Mode of Ratification may be proposed by the Congress; Provided that no Amendment which may be made prior to the Year One thousand eight hundred and eight shall in any Manner affect the first and fourth clauses of the Ninth Section of the first article; and that no State without its Consent, shall be deprived of its equal Suffrage in the Senate.

ARTICLE VI.

All Debts contracted and Engagements entered into, before the Adoption of this Constitution, shall be as valid against the United States under this Constitution, as under the Confederation.

- 2. This Constitution, and the Laws of the United States which shall be made in Pursuance thereof, and all Treaties made, or which shall be made, under the Authority of the United States, shall be the supreme Law of the Land; and the Judges in every State shall be bound thereby, any Thing in the Constitution or Laws of any State to the Contrary notwithstanding.
- 3. The Senators and Representatives before mentioned, and the Members of the several State Legislatures, and all executive and judicial Officers, both of the United States and of the several States, shall be bound by Oath or Affirmation, to support this Constitution; but no religious Test shall ever be required as a Qualification to any Office or public Trust under the United States.

ARTICLE VII.

The Ratification of the Conventions of nine States, shall be sufficient for the Establishment of this Constitution between the States so ratifying the Same.

Done in Convention by the Unanimous Consent of the States present the Seventeenth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and Eighty-seven and of the Independence of the United States of America the Twelfth. In Witness whereof We have hereunto subscribed our Names,

RESOLUTION ON THE ADOPTION OF THE CONSTITUTION.

In Convention Monday September 17th, 1787.

Present

The States of

New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Mr. Hamilton from New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia.

Resolved, That the preceding Constitution be laid before the United States in Congress assembled, and that it is the Opinion of this Convention, that it should afterwards be submitted to a Convention of Delegates, chosen in each State by the People thereof, under the Recommendation of its Legislature, for their Assent and Ratification; and that each Convention assenting to, and ratifying the Same, should give Notice thereof to the United States in Congress assembled.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Convention, that as soon as the Conventions of nine States shall have ratified this Constitution, the United States in Congress assembled should fix a Day on which Electors should be appointed by the States which shall have ratified the same, and a Day on which the Electors should assemble to vote for the President, and the Time and Place for commencing Proceedings under this Constitution. That after such Publication the Electors should be appointed, and the Senators and Representatives elected: That the Electors should meet on the Day fixed for the Election of the President, and should transmit their Votes certified, signed, sealed and directed, as the Constitution requires, to the Secretary of the United States in Congress assembled, that the Senators and Representatives should convene at the Time and Place assigned; that the Senators should appoint a President of the Senate, for the sole Purpose of receiving, opening and counting the Votes for President; and, that after he shall be chosen, the Congress, together with the President, should, without Delay, proceed to execute this Constitution.

By the Unanimous Order of the Convention.

Go. WASHINGTON, Presidt.

W. Jackson, Secretary.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES.

ARTICLES IN ADDITION TO, AND AMENDMENT OF, THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, PROPOSED BY CONGRESS, AND RATIFIED BY THE LEGISLATURES OF THE SEVERAL STATES PURSUANT TO THE FIFTH ARTICLE OF THE ORIGINAL CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

ARTICLE II.

A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms shall not be infringed.

[*The first ten amendments to the Constitution of the United States were proposed to the legislatures of the several States by the First Congress, on the 25th of September, 1789. They were ratified by the following States, and the notifications of ratification by the governors thereof were successively communicated by the President to Congress: New Jersey, November 20, 1789; Maryland, December 19, 1789; North Carolina, December 22, 1789; South Carolina, January 19, 1790; New Hampshire, January 25, 1790; Delaware, January 28, 1790; Pennsylvania, March 10, 1790; New York, March 27, 1790; Rhode Island, June 15, 1790; Vermont, November 3, 1791; and Virginia, December 15, 1791. There is no evidence on the journals of Congress that the legislatures of Connecticut, Georgia and Massachusetts ratified them.]

ARTICLE III.

No Soldier shall, in time of peace be quartered in any house, without the consent of the Owner, nor in time of war, but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

ARTICLE IV.

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated; and no Warrants shall issue but upon probable cause, supported by Oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the person or things to be seized.

ARTICLE V.

No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a Grand Jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the Militia, when in actual service, in time of War or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offence to be put twice in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled, in any Criminal Case, to be a witness against himself; nor be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use without just compensation.

ARTICLE VI.

In all criminal prosecutions the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the State and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the Assistance of Counsel for his defence.

ARTICLE VII.

In suits at common law, where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved, and no fact tried by jury shall be otherwise re-examined in any Court of the United States, than according to the rules of the common law.

ARTICLE VIII.

Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed. nor cruel and unusual punishment inflicted.

ARTICLE IX.

The enumeration in the Constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.

ARTICLE X.

The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people.

ARTICLE XI.

The Judicial power of the United States shall not be construed to extend to any suit in law or equity, commenced or prosecuted against one of the United States by Citizens of another State, or by Citizens or Subjects of any Foreign State.

ARTICLE XII.

The Electors shall meet in their respective states, and vote by ballot for President and Vice-President, one of whom, at least, shall not be an inhabitant of the same state with themselves; they shall name in their ballots the person voted for as President, and in distinct ballots the person voted for as Vice-President, and they shall make distinct lists of all persons voted for as President, and of all persons voted for as Vice-President, and of the number of votes for each, which lists they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of government of the United States, directed to the President of the Senate;-The President of the Senate shall, in presence of the Senate and House of Representatives, open all the certificates and the votes shall then be counted; the person having the greatest number of votes for President shall be the President, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if no person have such a majority, then from the persons having the highest number, not exceeding three, on the list of those voted for as President, the House of Representatives shall choose immediately by ballot the President. But in choosing the President, the vote shall be taken by States, the representatives from each State having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two-thirds of the States, and a majority of all the States shall be necessary to a choice. And if the House of Representatives shall not choose a President whenever the right of choice shall devolve upon them, before the fourth day of March next following, then the Vice-President shall act as President, as in the case of the death or other Constitutional disability of the President.

The person having the greatest number of votes as Vice-President shall be the Vice-President, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if no person have a majority, then from the two highest numbers on the list, the Senate shall choose the Vice-President; a quorum for the purpose shall consist of two-thirds of the whole number of Senators, and a majority of the whole number shall be necessary to a choice.

But no person Constitutionally ineligible to the office of President shall be eligible to that of Vice-President of the United States.

[The twelfth amendment to the Constitution of the United States was proposed to the legislatures of the several States by the Eighth Congress, on the 12th of December, 1803, in lieu of the original third paragraph of the first section of the second article; and was declared in a proclamation of the Secretary of State, dated the 25th of September, 1804, to have been ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the States.]

ARTICLE XIII.

Section 1. Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction.

Section 2. Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

[The thirteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States was proposed to the legislatures of the several States by the Thirty-eighth Congress, on the 1st of February, 1865, and was declared, in a proclamation of the Secretary of State, dated the 18th of December, 1865, to have been ratified by the legislatures of twenty-seven of the thirty-six States, viz.: Illinois, Rhode Island, Michigan, Maryland, New York, West Virginia, Maine, Kansas, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Ohio, Missouri, Nevada, Indiana, Louisiana, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Vermont, Tennessee, Arkansas, Connecticut, New Hampshire, South Carolina, Alabama, North Carolina and Georgia.]

ARTICLE XIV.

Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State herein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Section 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed; but whenever the right to vote at any election for electors of President and Vice-President, or United States Representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridge, except for participation in rebellion or other crimes, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in that State.

Section 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; but Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

Section 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for the payment of pensions and bounties for service in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned; but neither the United States nor any State shall assume to pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for loss or emancipation of any slave, but all such debts, obligations and claims shall be illegal and void.

Section 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.

[The fourteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States was proposed to the legislatures of the several States by the Thirty-ninth Congress, on the 16th of June, 1866. On the 21st of July, 1868, Congress adopted and transmitted to the Department of State a concurrent resolution declaring that "the legislatures of the States of Connecticut, Tennessee, New Jersey, Oregon, Vermont, New York, Ohio, Illinois, West Virginia, Kansas, Maine, Nevada, Missouri, Indiana, Minnesota, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Nebraska, Iowa, Arkansas, Florida, North Carolina, Alabama, South Carolina, and Louisiana, being three-fourths and more of the several States of the Union, have ratified the fourteenth article of amendment to the Constitution of the United States, duly proposed by two-thirds of each House of the Thirty-ninth Congress: Therefore, Resolved, That said fourteenth article is hereby declared to be a part of the Constitution of the United States, and it shall be duly promulgated as such by the Secretary of State." The Secretary of State accordingly issued a proclamation, dated the 28th of July, 1868, declaring that the proposed fourteenth amendment had been ratified, in the manner hereafter mentioned, by the legislatures of thirty of the thirty-six States, viz.: Connecticut, June 30, 1866; New Hampshire, July 7, 1866; Tennessee, July 19, 1866; New Jersey, September 11, 1866, (and the legislature of the same State passed a resolution in April, 1868, to withdraw its consent to it;) Oregon, September 19, 1866; Vermont, November 9, 1866; Georgia rejected it November 13, 1866, and ratified it July 21, 1868; North Carolina rejected it December 4, 1866, and ratified it July 4, 1868; South Carolina rejected it December 20, 1866, and ratified it July 9, 1868; New York ratified it January 10, 1867; Ohio ratified it January 11, 1867, (and the legislature of the same State passed a resolution in January, 1868, to withdraw its consent to it); Illinois ratified it January 15, 1867; West Virginia, January 16, 1867; Kansas, January 18, 1867; Maine, January 19, 1867; Nevada, January 22, 1867; Missouri, January 26, 1867; Indiana, January 29, 1867; Minnesota, February 1. 1867; Rhode Island, February 7, 1867; Wisconsin, February 13, 1867; Pennsylvania, February 13, 1867; Michigan, February 15, 1867; Massachusetts, March 20, 1867; Nebraska, June 15, 1867; Iowa, April 3, 1868; Arkansas, April 6, 1868; Florida, June 9, 1868; Louisiana, July 9, 1868; and Alabama, July 13, 1868. Georgia again ratified the amendment February 2, 1870. Texas rejected it Virginia rejected it November 1, 1866, and ratified it February 18, 1870. January 19, 1867, and ratified it October 8, 1869. The amendment was rejected by Kentucky January 10, 1867; by Delaware February 8, 1867; by Maryland March 23, 1867; and was not afterward ratified by either State.]

ARTICLE XV.

SECTION I. The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Section 2. The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

The fifteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States was proposed to the legislatures of the several States by the Fortieth Congress on the 27th of February, 1869, and was declared, in a proclamation of the Secretary of State, dated March 30, 1870, to have been ratified by the legislatures of twentynine of the thirty-seven States. The dates of these ratifications (arranged in the order of their reception at the Department of State) were: from North Carolina, March 5, 1869; West Virginia, March 3, 1869; Massachusetts, March 9-12, 1869; Wisconsin, March 9, 1869; Maine, March 12, 1869; Louisiana, March 5, 1869; Michigan, March 8, 1869; South Carolina, March 16, 1869; Pennsylvania, March 26, 1869; Arkansas, March 30, 1869; Connecticut, May 19, 1869; Florida, June 15, 1869; Ilinois, March 5, 1869; Indiana, May 13-14, 1869; New York, March 17-April 14, 1869 (and the legislature of the same State passed a resolution January 5, 1870, to withdraw its consent to it); New Hampshire, July 7, 1869; Nevada, March 1, 1869; Vermont, October 21, 1869; Virginia, October 8, 1869; Missouri, January 10, 1870; Mississippi, January 15-17, 1870; Ohio, January 27, 1870; Iowa, February 3, 1870; Kansas, January 18-19, 1870; Minnesota, February 19, 1870; Rhode Island, January 18, 1870; Nebraska, February 17, 1870; Texas, February 18, 1870. The State of Georgia also ratified the amendment February 2, 1870.]

WILLIAM McKINLEY.

WILLIAM McKINLEY

ILLIAM McKINLEY, President, was born at Niles, Trumbull County, Ohio, January 29, 1843; was educated in the public schools, Poland Academy, Allegheny College; before attaining his majority he taught in the public schools; enlisted as a private in the Twenty-third Ohio Volunteer Infantry June 11, 1861; promoted to commissary-sergeant April 15, 1862, to second lieutenant September 23, 1862, to first lieutenant February 7, 1863, to captain July 25, 1864; served successively on the staffs of Generals R. B. Hayes, George Crook and Winfield S. Hancock and was breveted major in the United States Volunteers by President Lincoln for gallantry in battle March 13, 1865; detailed for acting adjutant-general of the First Division, First Army Corps, on the staff of General S. S. Carroll; mustered out of service July 26, 1865; returning to civil life, he studied law in Mahoning County; took a course at the Albany (N. Y.) Law School, and in 1867 was admitted to the bar and settled at Canton. Ohio, which has since been his home; in 1869 he was elected prosecuting attorney of Stark County, and served a term in that office; in 1876 he was elected a member of the National House of Representatives, and for fourteen years represented the congressional district of which his county was a part; as chairman of the Ways and Means Committee he reported the tariff law of 1890, but in November following was defeated for Congress in a gerrymandered district, although reducing the usual adverse majority from 3,000 to 300; in 1891 was elected governor of Ohio by a plurality of 21,511, and 1893 was re-elected by a plurality of 80,995; in 1884 was a delegate-at-large to the Republican national convention and supported James G. Blaine for president; was a member of the committee on resolutions and read the platform to the convention; in 1888 was also a delegate-at-large from Ohio, supporting John Sherman, and as chairman of the committee on resolutions again reported the platform; in 1892 was again a delegate-at-large from Ohio, and supported the nomination of Benjamin Harrison, and served as chairman of the convention. At that convention 182 votes were cast for him for president, although he had persistently refused to have his name considered. On June 18, 1896, he was nominated for president at St. Louis, receiving 661 out of 905 votes. He was elected president at the ensuing November election by a popular plurality of 600,000 votes, and received 271 electoral votes as against 176 for William J. Bryan, of Nebraska. He was again elected president in 1900. On September 6, 1901, at the Pan-American Exposition he was shot by an anarchist, and died of his wound September 14. His remains were buried at Canton, Ohio.

THE ACT OF CONGRESS DIVIDING THE NORTHWEST TERRITORY INTO THE NORTHWEST TERRITORY (OF OHIO) AND THE TERRITORY OF INDIANA.

AN ACT TO DIVIDE THE TERRITORY OF THE UNITED STATES NORTHWEST OF THE OHIO, INTO TWO SEPARATE GOVERNMENTS.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That from and after the fourth day of July next, all that part of the territory of the United States northwest of the Ohio river, which lies to the westward of a line beginning at the Ohio, opposite to the mouth of Kentucky river, and running thence to Fort Recovery, and thence north until it shall intersect the territorial line between the United States and Canada, shall, for the purposes of temporary government, constitute a separate territory and be called the Indian Territory.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That there shall be established within the said territory a government in all respects similar to that provided by the ordinance of Congress, passed on the thirteenth day of July one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, for the government of the territory of the United States northwest of the river Ohio; and the inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to, and enjoy all and singular the rights, privileges and advantages granted and secured to the people by the said ordinance.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the officers for the said territory, who by virtue of this act shall be appointed by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall respectively exercise the same powers, perform the same duties, and receive for their services the same compensations as by the ordinance aforesaid and the laws of the United States, have been provided and established for similar officers in the territory of the United States northwest of the river Ohio. And the duties and emoluments of superintendent of Indian affairs shall be united with those of governor: Provided, That the President of the United States shall have full power, in the recess of Congress, to appoint and commission all officers herein authorized; and their commissions shall continue in force until the end of the next session of Congress.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That so much of the ordinance for the government of the territory of the United States northwest of the Ohio river, as relates to the organization of a general assembly therein, and prescribes the powers thereof, shall be in force and operate in the # Act Dividing the Northwest Territory.

Indiana territory, whenever satisfactory evidence shall be given to the governor thereof, that such is the wish of the majority of freeholders, notwithstanding there may not be therein five thousand free male inhabitants of the age of twenty-one years and upwards: Provided, that until there shall be five thousand free male inhabitants of twenty-one years and upward in said territory, the whole number of representatives to the general assembly shall not be less than seven, nor more than nine, to be apportioned by the governor to the several counties in the said territory, agreeably to the number of free males of the age of twenty-one years and upwards which they may respectively contain.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this act contained shall be construed so as in any manner to affect the government now in force in the territory of the United States northwest of the Ohio river, further than to prohibit the exercise thereof within the Indiana territory, from and after the aforesaid fourth day of July next: Provided, that whenever that part of the territory of the United States which lies to the eastward of a line beginning at the mouth of the Great Miami river, and running thence due north to the territorial line between the United States and Canada, shall be erected into an independent state, and admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the original states, thenceforth said line shall become and remain permanently the boundary line between such state and the Indiana territory; anything in this act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That until it shall be otherwise ordered by the legislatures of the said territories respectively, Chillicothe, on Scioto river, shall be the seat of the government of the territory of the United States northwest of the Ohio River; and that Saint Vincennes, on the Wabash river, shall be the seat of the government for the Indiana territory.

APPROVED, May 7, 1800.

THE ACT OF CONGRESS DIRECTING THE CREATION OF THE STATE OF OHIO.

WITH SUPPLEMENTARY ACT OF MARCH 3, 1803.

AN ACT TO ENABLE THE PEOPLE OF THE EASTERN DIVISION OF THE TERRITORY NORTHWEST OF THE RIVER OHIO TO FORM A CONSTITUTION AND STATE GOVERNMENT, AND FOR THE ADMISSION OF SUCH STATE INTO THE UNION, ON AN EQUAL FOOTING WITH THE ORIGINAL STATES, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

B E it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the inhabitants of the eastern division of the territory northwest of the river Ohio, be, and they are hereby authorized to form for themselves a constitution and state government, and to assume such name as they shall deem proper, and the said state, when formed, shall be admitted into the Union, upon the same footing with the original states, in all respects whatever.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the said state shall consist of all the territory included within the following boundaries, to-wit: Bounded on the east by the Pennsylvania line, on the south by the Ohio river, to the mouth of the Great Miami river, on the west by a line drawn due north from the mouth of the Great Miami, aforesaid, and on the north by an east and west line, drawn through the southerly extreme of Lake Michigan, running east after intersecting the due north line aforesaid from the mouth of the Great Miami, until it shall intersect Lake Erie, or the territorial line, and thence with the same through Lake Erie to the Pennsylvania line, aforesaid: Provided, that Congress shall be at liberty at any time hereafter, either to attach all the territory lying east of the line to be drawn due north from the mouth of the Miami, aforesaid, to the territorial line, and north of an east and west line drawn through the southerly extreme of Lake Michigan, running east as aforesaid to Lake Erie, to the aforesaid state, or dispose of it otherwise, in conformity to the fifth article of compact between the original states, and the peoples and states to be formed in the territory northwest of the river Ohio.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That all that part of the territory of the United States, northwest of the river Ohio, heretofore included in the eastern division of said territory, and not included within the boundary herein prescribed for the said state, is hereby attached to and made a part of the Indiana territory, from and after the formation of the said state, subject nevertheless to be disposed of by Congress, according to the right reserved in the fifth article of the ordinance aforesaid, and the inhabitants therein shall be entitled to the same privileges and immunities, and subject to the same rules and regulations, in all respects whatever, with all other citizens residing within the Indiana territory.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted. That all male citizens of the United States, who shall have arrived at full age, and resided within the said territory at least one year previous to the day of election, and shall have paid a territorial or county tax, and all persons having in other respects, the legal qualifications to vote for representatives in the general assembly of the territory, be, and they are hereby authorized to choose representatives to form a convention, who shall be apportioned amongst the several counties within the eastern division aforesaid, in a ratio of one representative to every twelve hundred inhabitants of each county, according to the enumeration taken under the authority of the United States, as near as may be, that is to say: from the county of Trumbull, two representatives; from the county of Jefferson, seven representatives, two of the seven to be elected within what is now known by the county of Belmont, taken from Jefferson and Washington counties; from the county of Washington, four representatives; from the county of Ross, seven representatives, two of the seven to be elected in what is now known by Fairfield county, taken from Ross and Washington counties; from the county of Adams, three representatives; from the county of Hamilton, twelve representatives, two of the twelve to be elected in what is now known by Clermont county, taken entirely from Hamilton county; and the elections for the representatives aforesaid, shall take place on the second Tuesday of October next, the time fixed by a law of the territory, entitled "An act to ascertain the number of free male inhabitants of the age of twenty-one, in the territory of the United States northwest of the river Ohio, and to regulate the elections of representatives for the same," for electing representatives to the general assembly, and shall be held and conducted in the same manner as is provided by the aforesaid act, except that the qualifications of electors shall be as herein specified.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the members of the convention, thus duly elected, be, and they are hereby authorized to meet at Chillicothe on the first Monday in November next; which convention, when met, shall first determine by a majority of the whole number elected, whether it be or be not expedient at that time to form a constitution and state government for the people, within the said territory, and if it be determined to be expedient, the convention shall be, and hereby are (is) authorized to form a constitution and state government, or if it be deemed more expedient, the said convention shall provide by ordinance for electing representatives to form a constitution or frame of government; which said representatives shall be chosen in such manner, and in such proportion, and shall meet at such time and place, as shall be prescribed by the said ordinance; and shall form for the people of the said state, a constitution and state government; provided the same shall be republican, and not repugnant to the ordinance of the thirteenth of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, between the original states and the people and states of the territory northwest of the river Ohio.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That until the next general census shall be taken, the said state shall be entitled to one representative in the House of Representatives of the United States.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the following propositions be, and the same are hereby offered to the convention of the eastern state of the said territory, when formed, for their free acceptance or rejection, which, if accepted by the convention, shall be obligatory upon the United States.

First. That the section number sixteen, in every township, and where such section has been sold, granted or disposed of, other lands equivalent thereto and most contiguous to the same, shall be granted to the inhabitants of such township, for the use of schools.

Second. That the six miles reservation including the salt springs, commonly called the Scioto salt springs, the salt springs near the Muskingum river, and in the military tract, with the sections of land which include the same, shall be granted to the said state for the use of the people thereof, the same to be used under such terms and conditions and regulations as the legislature of the said state shall direct: Provided: the said legislature shall never sell nor lease the same for a longer period than ten years.

Third. That one twentieth part of the net proceeds of the lands lying within the said state sold by Congress, from and after the thirtieth day of June next, after deducting all expenses incident to the same, shall be applied to the laying out and making public roads, leading from the navigable waters emptying into the Atlantic, to the Ohio, to the said state, and through the same, such roads to be laid out under the authority of Congress, with the consent of the several states through which the road shall pass: Provided always, that the three foregoing propositions herein offered, are on the conditions that the convention of the state shall provide, by an ordinance irrevocable, without the consent of the United States, that every and each tract of land sold by Congress, from and after the thirtieth day of June next, shall be and remain exempt from any tax laid by order or under authority of the state, whether for state, county, township or any other purpose whatever, for the term of five years from and after the day of sale.

APPROVED APRIL 30, 1802.

(U. S. Statutes at Large, Vol. 2, p. 173.)

SUPPLEMENTARY ACT OF MARCH 3, 1803.

AN ACT IN ADDITION TO, AND IN MODIFICATION OF, THE PROPOSITIONS CONTAINED IN THE ACT ENTITLED "AN ACT TO ENABLE THE PEOPLE OF THE EASTERN DIVISION OF THE TERRITORY NORTHWEST OF THE RIVER OHIO, TO FORM A CONSTITUTION AND STATE GOVERNMENT, AND FOR THE ADMISSION OF SUCH STATE INTO THE UNION, ON AN EQUAL FOOTING WITH THE ORIGINAL STATES, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following several tracts of land in the state of Ohio, be, and the same are hereby appropriated for the use of schools in that state, and shall, together with all the tracts of land heretofore appropriated for that purpose, be vested in the legislature of that state, in trust for the use aforesaid, and for no other use, intent or purpose whatever, that is to say:

First.—The following quarter townships in that tract commonly called the "United States military tract," for the use of schools within the same, viz.: the first quarter of the third township in the first range, the first quarter of the first township in the fourth range, the fourth quarter of the first township and the third quarter of the fifth township in the fifth range, the second quarter of the third township in the sixth range, the fourth quarter of the second township in the seventh range, the third quarter of the third township in the eighth range, the first quarter of the first township and the first quarter of the third township in the ninth range, the third quarter of the first township in the tenth range, the first and fourth quarters of the third township in the eleventh range, the fourth quarter of the fourth township in the twelfth range, the second and third quarters of the fourth township in the fifteenth range, the third quarter of the seventh township in the sixteenth range, and the first quarter of the sixth township and third quarter of the seventh township in the eighteenth range, being the one thirty-sixth part of the estimated whole amount of lands within that tract.

Secondly.—The following quarter townships in the same tract for the use of schools in that tract commonly called the Connecticut reserve, viz.: the third quarter of the ninth township and the fourth quarter of the tenth township in the first range, the first and second quarters of the ninth township in the second range, the second and third quarters of the ninth township in the third range, the first quarter of the ninth township and the fourth quarter of the tenth township in the fourth range, the first quarter of the ninth township in the fifth range, the first and fourth quarters of the ninth township in the sixth range, the first and third quarters of the ninth township in the seventh range, and the fourth quarter of the ninth township in the eighth range.

Thirdly.—So much of that tract, commonly called the "Virginia military reservation," as will amount to one thirty-sixth part of the whole tract, for the use of schools within the same, and to be selected by the legislature of the state of Ohio, out of the unlocated lands in that tract after the warrants issued from the state of Virginia shall have been satisfied; it being however understood, that the donation is not to exceed the whole amount of the above-mentioned residue of such unlocated lands, even if it shall fall short of one thirty-sixth part of the said tract.

Fourthly.—One thirty-sixth part of all the lands of the United States lying in the state of Ohio, to which the Indian title has not been extinguished, which may hereafter be purchased of the Indian tribes by the United States, which thirty-sixth part shall consist of the section No. sixteen, in each township, if the said lands shall be surveyed in townships of six miles square, and shall, if the lands be surveyed in a different manner, be designated by lot.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the Treasury shall, from time to time, and whenever the quarterly accounts of the receivers of public monies of the several land offices shall be settled, pay three per cent. of the net proceeds of the lands of the United States, lying within the state of Ohio, which since the thirtieth day of June last have been or hereafter may be sold by the United States, after deducting all expenses incidental to the same, to such person or persons as may be authorized by the legislature of the said state to receive the same, which sums thus paid, shall be applied to the laying out, opening and making roads within the said state, and to no other purpose whatever; and an annual account of the application of the same shall be transmitted to the Secretary of the Treasury, by such officer of the state as the legislature thereof shall direct; and it is hereby declared, that the payments thus to be made, as well as the several appropriations for schools made by the preceding section, are in conformity with, and in consideration of the conditions agreed on by the state of Ohio, by the ordinance of the convention of said state, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of November last.

Supplementary Act Creating the State of Ohio.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the sections of land here-tofore promised for the use of schools, in lieu of such of the sections No. 16, as have been otherwise disposed of, shall be selected by the Secretary of the Treasury, out of the unappropriated reserved sections in the most contiguous townships.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That one complete township in the state of Ohio, and district of Cincinnati, or so much of any one complete township within the same, as may then remain unsold, together with as many adjoining sections as shall have been sold in the said township, so as to make in the whole thirty-six sections, to be located under the direction of the legislature of the said state, on or before the first day of October next, with the register of the land office in Cincinnati, be, and the same is hereby vested in the legislature of the State of Ohio, for the purpose of establishing an academy, in lieu of the township already granted for the same purpose, by virtue of the act entitled "An act authorizing the grant and conveyance of certain lands to John Cleves Symmes and his associates:" Provided, however, that the same shall revert to the United States, if, within five years after the passing of this act, a township shall have been secured for the purpose, within the boundary of the patent granted by virtue of the above-mentioned act, to John Cleves Symmes, and his associates.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the attorney-general for the time being, be directed and authorized to locate and accept from the said John Cleves Symmes, and his associates, any one complete township within the boundaries of the said patent, so as to secure the same for the purpose of establishing an academy, in conformity to the provisions of the said patent, and in case of noncompliance, to take, or direct to be taken, such measures as will compel an execution of the trust: Provided, however, that John Cleves Symmes and his associates shall be released from the said trust, and the said township shall vest in them, or any of them, in fee simple, upon payment into the treasury of the United States, of fifteen thousand three hundred and sixty dollars, with interest from the date of the above-mentioned patent, to the day of such payment.

Approved March 3, 1803.

THE ACT OF CONGRESS RECOGNIZING THE STATE OF OHIO AS A MEMBER OF THE UNION.

(February 19, 1803.)

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE DUE EXECUTION OF THE LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES, WITHIN THE STATE OF OHIO.

HEREAS, The people of the eastern division of the territory northwest of the river Ohio, did, on the twenty-ninth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and two, form for themselves a constitution and state government, and did give to the said state the name of the "State of Ohio," in pursuance of an act of Congress, entitled "An act to enable the people of the Eastern division of the territory northwest of the river Ohio, to form a constitution and state government, and for admission of such state into the Union on an equal footing with the original states, and for other purposes," whereby the said state has become one of the United States of America; in order therefore to provide for the due execution of the laws of the United States within the said state of Ohio:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That all the laws of the United States which are not locally inapplicable, shall have the same force and effect within the said state of Ohio, as elsewhere within the United States.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That the said state shall be one district, and be called the Ohio district; and a district court shall be held therein, to consist of one judge, who shall reside in the said district, and be called a district judge. He shall hold at the seat of government of the said state,* three sessions annually, the first to commence on the first Monday in June next, and the two other sessions progressively on the like Monday of every fourth calendar month afterwards, and he shall in all things have and exercise the same jurisdiction and powers which are by law given to the judge of the Kentucky district: he shall appoint a clerk for the said district, who, shall reside and keep the records of the court at the place of holding the same, and shall receive for the services performed by him, the same fees to which the clerk of the Kentucky district is entitled for similar services.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That there shall be allowed to the judge of the said district court, the annual compensation of one thousand dollars, to commence from the date of his appointment, to be paid quarter-yearly at the treasury of the United States.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That there shall be appointed in the said district, a person learned in the law, to act as attorney for the United States, who shall, in addition to his stated fees, be paid by the United States, two hundred dollars annually, as a full compensation for all extra services.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That a marshal shall be appointed for the said district, who shall perform the same duties, be subject to the same regulations and penalties, and be entitled to the same fees as are prescribed to marshals in other districts, and shall moreover be entitled to the sum of two hundred dollars annually, as a compensation for all extra services.

APPROVED February 19, 1803.

ACT OF CONGRESS ORDERING THE DESIGNATION BY A NEW SURVEY, OF THE WESTERN AND NORTHERN BOUNDARIES OF OHIO.

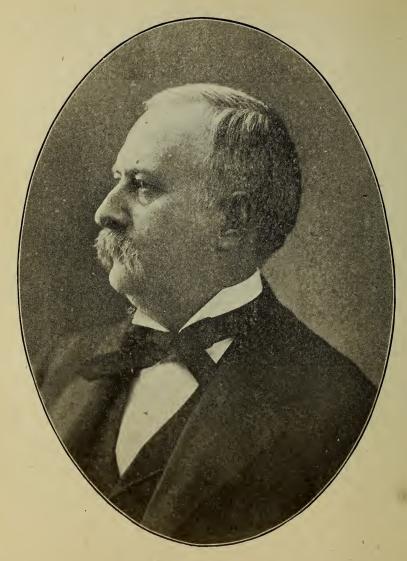

(May 20, 1812.)

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES TO ASCER-TAIN AND DESIGNATE CERTAIN BOUNDARIES.

E it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the surveyor general, under the direction of the President of the United States be, and he is hereby authorized and required (as soon as the consent of the Indians can be obtained), to cause to be surveyed, marked and designated, so much of the western and northern boundaries of the state of Ohio, which have not already been ascertained, as divides said state from the territories of Indiana and Michigan, agreeably to the boundaries as established by the act entitled, "An act to enable the people of the eastern division of the territory northwest of the river Ohio to form a constitution and state government, and for the admission of such state into the Union on an equal footing with the original states, and for other purposes," passed April thirtieth, one thousand eight hundred and two; and to cause to be made a plat or plan of so much of the boundary line as runs from the southerly extreme of Lake Michigan to Lake Erie, particularly noting the place where said line intersects the margin of said lake, and to return the same when made to Congress: Provided, that the whole expense of surveying and marking the said · boundary lines shall not exceed five dollars for every mile that shall be actually surveyed and marked, which shall be paid out of the monies appropriated for defraying the expense of surveying the public lands.

THE FIRST CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF OHIO.

(Done in Convention at Chillicothe, Nov. 29, 1802.)

E the people of the eastern division of the territory of the United States northwest of the river Ohio, having the right of admission into the general government as a member of the Union, consistent with the Constitution of the United States, the ordinance of Congress of one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, and of the law of Congress entitled "An act to enable the people of the eastern division of the territory of the United States northwest of the river Ohio to form a constitution and state government, and for the admission of such state into the Union, on an equal footing with the original States, and for other purposes;" in order to establish justice, promote the welfare and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish the following constitution or form of government; and do mutually agree with each other to form ourselves into a free and independent State, by the name of the State of Ohio.

ARTICLE I.

OF THE LEGISLATIVE POWER.

Section I. The legislative authority of this State shall be vested in a General Assembly, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives, both to be elected by the people.

- SEC. 2. Within one year after the first meeting of the General Assembly, and within every subsequent term of four years, an enumeration of all the white male inhabitants above twenty-one years of age shall be made in such manner as shall be directed by law. The number of Representatives shall, at the several periods of making such enumeration, be fixed by the Legislature and apportioned among the several Counties, according to the number of white male inhabitants above twenty-one years of age in each, and shall never be less than twenty-four nor greater than thirty-six until the number of white male inhabitants above twenty-one years of age shall be twenty-two thousand; and after that event, at such ratio that the whole number of Representatives shall never be less than thirty-six nor exceed seventy-two.
- SEC. 3. The Representatives shall be chosen annually, by the citizens of each County, respectively, on the second Tuesday of October.
- SEC. 4. No person shall be a Representative who shall not have attained the age of twenty-five years, and be a citizen of the United States and an inhabitant of this State; shall also have resided within the limits of the County in which he shall be chosen one year next preceding his election, unless he shall have been absent on the public business of the United States, or of this State, and shall have paid a State or County tax.

SEC. 5. The Senators shall be chosen biennally, by the qualified voters for Representatives; and on their being convened in consequence of the first election, they shall be divided, by lot, from their respective Counties or Districts, as near as can be, into two classes: the seats of the Senators of the first class shall be vacated at the expiration of the first year, and of the second class at the expiration of the second year, so that one-half thereof, as near as possible, may be annually chosen forever thereafter.

SEC. 6. The number of Senators shall, at the several periods of making the enumeration, before mentioned, be fixed by the Legislature, and apportioned among the several Counties or Districts, to be established by law, according to the number of white male inhabitants of the age of twenty-one years in each, and shall never be less than one-third nor more than one-half of the number of Representatives.

SEC. 7. No person shall be a Senator who has not arrived at the age of thirty years, and is a citizen of the United States; shall have resided two years in the County or District immediately preceding the election, unless he shall have been absent on the public business of the United States, or of this State; and shall, moreover, have paid a State or County tax.

SEC. 8. The Senate and House of Representatives, when assembled, shall each choose a Speaker and its other officers; be judges of the qualifications and elections of its members, and sit upon its own adjournments; two-thirds of each house shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and compel the attendance of absent members.

SEC. 9. Each house shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and publish them; the yeas and nays of the members on any question shall, at the desire of any two of them, be entered on the journals.

SEC. 10. Any two members of either house shall have liberty to dissent from, and protest against, any act or resolution which they may think injurious to the public or any individual, and have the reasons of their dissent entered on the journals.

SEC. 11. Each house may determine the rules of its proceedings, punish its members for disorderly behavior, and, with the concurrence of two-thirds, expel a member, but not a second time for the same cause; and shall have all other powers necessary for a branch of the Legislature of a free and independent State.

SEC. 12. When vacancies happen in either house, the Governor, or the person exercising the power of the Governor, shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies.

SEC. 13. Senators and Representatives shall, in all cases, except treason, felony, or breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during the session of the General Assembly, and in going to and returning from the same; and for any speech or debate in either house, they shall not be questioned in any other place.

SEC. 14. Each house may punish, by imprisonment, during their session, any person not a member who shall be guilty of disrespect to the house by any disorderly or contemptuous behavior in their presence; provided such imprisonment shall not, at any one time, exceed twenty-four hours.

SEC. 15. The doors of each house, and of committee of the whole, shall be kept open, except in such cases as, in the opinion of the house, require secrecy. Neither house shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than two days, nor to any other place than that in which the two houses shall be sitting.

SEC. 16. Bills may originate in either house, but may be altered, amended, or rejected by the other.

SEC. 17. Every bill shall be read on three different days in each house, unless, in case of urgency, three-fourths of the house where such bill is pending shall deem it expedient to dispense with this rule; and every bill having passed both houses, shall be signed by the speakers of their respective houses.

SEC. 18. The style of the laws of this State shall be: "Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio."

SEC. 10. The Legislature of this State shall not allow the following officers of government greater annual salaries than as follows, until the year one thousand eight hundred and eight, to-wit: The Governor, not more than one thousand dollars; the Judges of the Supreme Court, not more than one thousand dollars each; the President of the Courts of Common Pleas, not more than eight hundred dollars each; the Secretary of State, not more than five hundred dollars; the Auditor of Public Accounts, not more than seven hundred and fifty dollars; the Treasurer, not more than four hundred and fifty dollars; no member of the Legislature shall receive more than two dollars per day during his attendance on the Legislature, nor more than two dollars for every twenty-five miles he shall travel in going to and returning from, the General Assembly.

SEC. 20. No Senator or Representative shall, during the time for which he shall have been elected, be appointed to any civil office under this State which shall have been created or the emoluments of which shall have been increased during such time.

SEC. 21. No money shall be drawn from the treasury but in consequence of appropriations made by law.

SEC. 22. An accurate statement of the receipts and expenditures of the public money shall be attached to, and published with, the laws annually.

SEC. 23. The House of Representatives shall have the sole power of impeaching, but a majority of all the members must concur in an impeachment; all impeachments shall be tried by the Senate; and when sitting for that purpose, the Senators shall be upon oath or affirmation to do justice according to law and evidence; no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of all the Senators.

SEC. 24. The Governor, and all other civil officers under this State, shall be liable to impeachment for any misdemeanor in office; but judgment in such case shall not extend further than removal from office and disqualification to hold any office of honor, profit, or trust under this State. The party, whether convicted or acquitted, shall, nevertheless, be liable to indictment, trial, judgment, and punishment, according to law.

SEC. 25. The first session of the General Assembly shall commence on the first Tuesday of March next; and forever after, the General Assembly shall meet on the first Monday of December in every year, and at no other period, unless directed by law or provided for by this Constitution.

SEC. 26. No judge of any court of law or equity, Secretary of State, Attorney-General, register, clerk of any court of record, Sheriff or collector, member of either House of Congress, or person holding any office under the authority of the United States, or any lucrative office under the authority of this State (provided that appointments in the militia or justices of the peace shall not be considered lucrative offices), shall be eligible as a candidate for, or have a seat in, the General Assembly.

SEC. 27. No person shall be appointed to any office within any County who shall not have been a citizen and inhabitant therein one year next before his appointment, if the County shall have been so long erected, but if the County shall not have been so long erected, then within the limits of the County or Counties out of which it shall have been taken.

SEC. 28. No person who heretofore hath been, or hereafter may be, a collector or holder of public moneys, shall have a seat in either house of the General Assembly until such person shall have accounted for, and paid into the treasury, all sums for which he may be accountable or liable.

ARTICLE II.

OF THE EXECUTIVE.

Section 1. The supreme executive power of this State shall be vested in a Governor.

- SEC. 2. The Governor shall be chosen by the electors of the members of the General Assembly, on the second Tuesday of October, at the same places and in the same manner that they shall respectively vote for members thereof. The returns of every election for Governor shall be sealed up and transmitted to the seat of government by the returning officers, directed to the Speaker of the Senate, who shall open and publish them in the presence of a majority of the members of each house of the General Assembly: the person having the highest number of votes shall be governor; but if two or more shall be equal and highest in votes, one of them shall be chosen Governor by joint ballot of both houses of the General Assembly. Contested elections for Governor shall be determined by both houses of the General Assembly, in such manner as shall be prescribed by law.
- SEC. 3. The first Governor shall hold his office until the first Monday of December, one thousand eight hundred and five, and until another Governor shall be elected and qualified to office; and forever after, the Governor shall hold his office for the term of two years, and until another Governor shall be elected and qualified; but he shall not be eligible more than six years in any term of eight years. He shall be at least thirty years of age, and have been a citizen of the United States twelve years, and an inhabitant of this State four years next preceding his election.
- SEC. 4. He shall, from time to time, give to the General Assembly information of the state of the government, and recommend to their consideration such measures as he shall deem expedient.
- Sec. 5. He shall have the power to grant reprieves and pardons, after conviction, except in cases of impeachment.
- SEC. 6. The Governor shall, at stated times, receive for his services a compensation, which shall neither be increased nor diminished during the term for which he shall have been elected.
- SEC. 7. He may require information, in writing, from the officers in the executive department, upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices, and shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed.
- SEC. 8. When any officer, the right of whose appointment is, by this Constitution, vested in the General Assembly, shall during the recess, die, or his office by any means become vacant, the Governor shall have power to fill such vacancy, by granting a commission, which shall expire at the end of the next session of the Legislature.

SEC. 9. He may, on extraordinary occasions, convene the General Assembly, by proclamation, and shall state to them, when assembled, the purposes for which they shall have been convened.

SEC. 10. He shall be Commander-in-Chief of the army and navy of this State, and of the militia, except when they shall be called into the service of the United States.

SEC. II. In case of disagreement between the two houses with respect to the time of adjournment, the Governor shall have the power to adjourn the General Assembly to such a time as he thinks proper; provided it be not a period beyond the annual meeting of the Legislature.

SEC. 12. In case of the death, impeachment, resignation, or removal of the Governor from office, the Speaker of the Senate, shall exercise the office of Governor until he be acquitted or another Governor shall be duly qualified. In case of the impeachment of the Speaker of the Senate, or his death, removal from office, resignation, or absence from the State, the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall succeed to the office, and exercise the duties thereof, until a Governor shall be elected and qualified.

SEC. 13. No member of Congress, or person holding any office under the United States, or this State, shall execute the office of Governor.

SEC. 14. There shall be a seal of this State, which shall be kept by the Governor, and used by him officially, and shall be called "THE GREAT SEAL OF THE STATE OF OHIO."

Sec. 15. All grants and commissions shall be in the name and by the authority of the State of Ohio, sealed with the seal, signed by the Governor and countersigned by the secretary.

SECRETARY OF STATE.

SEC. 16. A Secretary of State shall be appointed by a joint ballot of the Senate and House of Representatives, who shall continue in office three years, if he shall so long behave himself well: he shall keep a fair register of the official acts and proceedings of the Governor; and shall, when required, lay the same, and all papers, minutes, and vouchers relative thereto, before either branch of the Legislature; and shall perform such other duties as shall be assigned him by law.

ARTICLE III.

OF THE JUDICIARY.

Section I. The judicial power of this State, both as to matters of law and equity, shall be vested in a Supreme Court, in Courts of Common Pleas for each County, in Justices of the Peace, and in such other courts as the Legislature may, from time to time, establish.

SEC. 2. The Supreme Court shall consist of three Judges, any two of whom shall be a quorum. They shall have original and appellate jurisdiction, both in common law and chancery, in such cases as shall be directed by law; providing that nothing herein contained shall prevent the General Assembly from adding another Judge to the Supreme Court after the term of five years, in which case the Judges may divide the State into two circuits, within which any two of the Judges may hold a court.

SEC. 3. The several Courts of Common Pleas shall consist of a President and Associate Judges. The State shall be divided, by law, into three circuits: there shall be appointed in each circuit a President of the courts, who, during his continuance in office, shall reside therein. There shall be appointed in each County not more than three nor less than two Associate Judges, who, during their continuance in office, shall reside therein. The President and Associate Judges, in their respective Counties, any three of whom shall be a quorum, shall compose the Court of Common Pleas; which court shall have common law and chancery jurisdiction in all such cases as shall be directed by law: provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the Legislature from increasing the number of circuits and Presidents after the term of five years.

SEC. 4. The Judges of the Supreme Court and Courts of Common Pleas shall have complete criminal jurisdiction in such cases and in such manner as may be pointed out by law.

SEC. 5. The Court of Common Pleas in each County shall have jurisdiction of all probate and testamentary matters, granting administration, the appointment of guardians, and such other cases as shall be prescribed by law.

SEC. 6. The Judges of the Court of Common Pleas shall, within their respective Counties, have the same powers with the Judges of the Supreme Court to issue writs of certiorari to the Justices of the Peace, and to cause their proceedings to be brought before them, and the like right and justice to be done.

SEC. 7. The Judges of the Supreme Court shall, by virtue of offices, be conservators of the peace in their respective circuits; and Presidents of the Courts of Common Pleas shall, by virtue of their offices, be conservators of the peace in their respective circuits; and the Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas shall, by virtue of their offices, be conservators of the peace in their respective Counties.

SEC. 8. The Judges of the Supreme Court, the Presidents and the Associate Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas shall be appointed by a joint ballot of both houses of the General Assembly, and shall hold their offices for the term of seven years, if so long they behave well. The Judges of the Supreme Court and the Presidents of the Courts of Common Pleas shall, at stated times, receive for their services an adequate compensation, to be fixed by law, which shall not be diminished during their continuance in office; but they shall receive no fees or perquisites of office, nor hold any other office of profit or trust under the authority of this State or the United States.

SEC. 9. Each court shall appoint its own clerk, for the term of seven years; but no person shall be appointed clerk, except pro tempore, who shall not produce to the court appointing him a certificate from a majority of the Judges of the Supreme Court that they judge him to be well qualified to execute the duties of the office of clerk to any court of the same dignity with that for which he offers himself. They shall be removable for breach of good behavior at any time by the Judges of the respective courts.

SEC. 10. The Supreme Court shall be held once a year in each County, and the Courts of Common Pleas shall be holden in each County at such times and places as shall be prescribed by law.

SEC. II. A competent number of Justices of the Peace shall be elected by the qualified electors in each township in the several counties, and shall continue in office three years, whose powers and duties shall, from time to time, be regulated and defined by law.

SEC. 12. The style of all process shall be, "The State of Ohio;" all prosecutions shall be carried on in the name and by the authority of the State of Ohio; and all indictments shall conclude, "against the peace and dignity of the same."

ARTICLE IV.

OF ELECTIONS AND ELECTORS.

Section 1. In all elections, all white male inhabitants above the age of twenty-one years, having resided in the State one year next preceding the election, and who have paid or are charged with a State or County tax, shall enjoy the right of an elector; but no person shall be entitled to vote except in the County or District in which he shall actually reside at the time of the election.

- Sec. 2. All elections shall be by ballot.
- SEC. 3. Electors shall, in all cases except treason, felony, or breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance at elections, and in going to and returning from the same.
- SEC. 4. The Legislature shall have full power to exclude from the privilege of electing, or being elected, any person convicted of bribery, perjury, or any other infamous crime.
- SEC. 5. Nothing contained in this article shall be so construed as to prevent white male persons above the age of twenty-one years who are compelled to labor on the roads of their respective townships or Counties, and who have resided one year in the State, from having the right of an elector.

ARTICLE V.

OF THE MILITIA OFFICERS.

- Section 1. Captains and Subalterns in the militia shall be elected by those persons, in their respective company districts, subject to military duty.
- Sec. 2. Majors shall be elected by the Captains and Subalterns of the battalion.
- SEC. 3. Colonels shall be elected by the Majors, Captains, and Subalterns of the regiment.
- SEC. 4. Brigadiers-General shall be elected by the commissioned officers of their respective brigades.
- SEC. 5. Majors-General and Quartermasters-General shall be appointed by joint ballot of both houses of the Legislature.
- Sec. 6. The Governor shall appoint the Adjutant-General. The Majors-General shall appoint their aids and other division staff officers. The Brigadiers-General shall appoint their Brigade Majors and other brigade staff officers. The commanding officers of regiments shall appoint their Adjutants, Quartermasters, and other regimental staff officers; and the Captains and Subalterns shall appoint their non-commissioned officers and musicians.
- SEC. 7. The Captains and Subalterns of the artillery and cavalry shall be elected by the persons enrolled in their respective corps; and the Majors and Colonels shall be appointed in such a manner as shall be directed by law. The Colonels shall appoint their regimental staff; and the Captains and Subalterns their non-commissioned officers and musicians.

ARTICLE VI.

OUR CIVIL OFFICERS.

SECTION I. There shall be elected in each County one Sheriff and one Coroner by the citizens thereof who are qualified to vote for members of the Assembly; they shall be elected at the time and place of holding elections for members of Assembly; they shall continue in office two years, if they shall so long behave well, and until successors be chosen and duly qualified; provided, that no person shall be eligible as Sheriff for a longer term than four years in any term of six years.

SEC. 2. The State Treasurer and Auditor shall be triennially appointed by a joint ballot of both houses of the Legislature.

SEC. 3. All town and township officers shall be chosen annually by the inhabitants thereof duly qualified to vote for members of Assembly, at such time and place as may be directed by law.

SEC. 4. The appointment of all civil officers not otherwise directed by this Constitution, shall be made in such manner as may be directed by law.

ARTICLE VII.

OFFICIAL OATHS.

Section I. Every person who shall be chosen or appointed to any office of trust or profit under the authority of this State, shall, before the entering on the execution thereof, take an oath or affirmation to support the Constitution of the United States and of this State, and also an oath of office.

BRIBERY AT ELECTIONS.

SEC. 2. Any elector who shall receive any gift or reward for his vote, in meat, drink, money, or otherwise, shall suffer such punishment as the law shall direct; and any person who shall, directly or indirectly, give, promise, or bestow any such reward to be elected, shall thereby be rendered incapable for two years to serve in the office for which he was elected, and be subject to such other punishment as shall be directed by law.

OF NEW COUNTIES.

SEC. 3. No new County shall be established by the General Assembly which shall reduce the County or Counties or either of them, from which it shall be taken to less contents than four hundred square miles; nor shall any County be laid off of less contents. Every new County, as to the right of suffrage and representation, shall be considered as a part of the County or Counties from which it was taken until entitled by numbers to the right of representation.

ON THE SEAT OF GOVERNMENT.

SEC. 4. Chillicothe shall be the seat of government until the year one thousand eight hundred and eight. No money shall be raised until the year one thousand eight hundred and nine by the Legislature of this State for the purpose of erecting public buildings for the accommodation of the Legislature.

OF THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION.

Sec. 5. That after the year one thousand eight hundred and six, whenever two-thirds of the General Assembly shall think it necessary to amend or change this Constitution, they shall recommend to the electors, at the next election for members to the General Assembly, to vote for or against a convention; and if it shall appear that a majority of the citizens of the State voting for Representative have voted for a convention, the General Assembly shall, at their next session, call a convention, to consist of as many members as there be in the General Assembly, to be chosen in the same manner, at the same place, and by the same electors that choose the General Assembly; who shall meet within three months after the said election, for the purpose of revising, amending, or changing the Constitution. But no alteration of this Constitution shall ever take place so as to introduce slavery or involuntary servitude into this State.

BOUNDARIES OF THE STATE.

Sec. 6. That the limits and boundaries of this State be ascertained, it is declared that they are as hereafter mentioned; that is to say: bounded on the east by the Pennsylvania line; on the south by the Ohio River to the mouth of the Great Miami River; on the west by the line drawn due north from the mouth of the Great Miami aforesaid; and on the north by an east and west line drawn through the southerly extreme of Lake Michigan, running east, after intersecting the due north line aforesaid from the mouth of the Great Miami, until it shall intersect Lake Erie, or the territorial line, and thence with the same, through Lake Erie, to the Pennsylvania line aforesaid; provided, always, and it is hereby fully understood and declared by this convention, that if the southerly bend or extreme of Lake Michigan should extend so far south that a line drawn due east from it should not intersect Lake Erie, or if it should intersect the said Lake Erie east of the mouth of the Miami River of the lake, then and in that case with the assent of the Congress of the United States, the northern boundary of this State shall be established by, and extend to, a direct line running from the southern extremity of Lake Michigan to the most northerly cape of the Miami Bay, after intersecting the due north line from the mouth of the Great Miami River as aforesaid, thence northeast to the territorial line, and, by said territorial line, to the Pennsylvania line.

ARTICLE VIII.

BILL OF RIGHTS.

That the general great and essential principles of liberty and free government may be recognized and forever unalterably established, we declare—

Section I. That all men are born equally free and independent, and have certain natural inherent and unalienable rights, amongst which are the enjoying and defending life and liberty, acquiring, possessing, and protecting property, and pursuing and obtaining happiness and safety; and every free republican government being founded on their sole authority, and organized for the great purpose of protecting their rights and liberties, and securing their independence—to effect these ends, they have at all times a complete power to alter, reform or abolish their government whenever they may deem it necessary.

SEC. 2. There shall be neither slavery nor involuntary servitude in this State, otherwise than for the punishment of crimes, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted; nor shall any male person arrived at the age of twenty-one years or female person arrived at the age of eighteen years, be held to serve any person as a servant under the pretense of indenture or otherwise, unless such person shall enter into such indenture while in a state of perfect freedom, and on condition of a bona fide consideration received, or to be received for their service, except as before excepted. Nor shall any indenture of any negro or mulatto hereafter made and executed out of the State, or, if made in the State where the term of servitude exceeds one year, be of the least validity, except those given in the case of apprenticeships.

SEC. 3. That all men have a natural and indefeasible right to worship Almighty God according to the dictates of conscience; that no human authority can, in any case whatever, control or interfere with the rights of conscience; that no man shall be compelled to attend, erect, or support any place of worship, or to maintain any ministry against his consent; and that no preference shall ever be given by law to any religious society or mode of worship, and no religious test shall be required as a qualification to any office of trust or profit. But religion, morality, and knowledge being essentially necessary to good government and the happiness of mankind, schools and the means of instruction shall forever be encouraged by legislative provision not inconsistent with the rights of conscience.

- SEC. 4. Private property ought, and shall ever be held inviolate, but always subservient to the public welfare, provided a compensation in money be made to the owner.
- SEC. 5. That the people shall be secure in their persons, houses, papers and possessions from unwarrantable searches and seizures and that general warrants, whereby an officer may be commanded to search suspected places without probable evidence of the fact committed, or to seize any person or persons not named whose offenses are not particularly described, and without oath or affirmation, are dangerous to liberty, and shall not be granted.
- SEC. 6. That the printing presses shall be open and free to every citizen who wishes to examine the proceedings of any branch of government, or the conduct of any public officer; and no law shall ever restrain the right thereof. Every citizen has an indisputable right to speak, write or print upon any subject as he thinks proper, being liable for the abuse of that liberty. In prosecutions for any publication respecting the official conduct of men in a public capacity, or where the matter published is proper for public information the truth thereof may always be given in evidence; and in all indictments for libels the jury shall have the right to determine the law and the facts under the direction of the court, as in other cases.
- Sec. 7. That all courts shall be open, and every person, for an injury done him in his lands, goods, person, or reputation, shall have remedy by the due course of law, and right and justice administered without denial or delay.
  - SEC. 8. That the right of trial by jury shall be inviolate.
- Sec. 9. That no power of suspending laws shall be exercised unless by the Legislature.
- SEC. 10. That no person arrested or confined in jail shall be treated with unnecessary rigor or be put to answer any criminal charge but by presentment, indictment, or impeachment.
  - SEC. 11. That in all criminal prosecutions, the accused hath a right to be heard by himself and counsel; to demand the nature and cause of the accusations against him and to have a copy thereof; to meet the witnesses face to face; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor; and in prosecutions by indictment or presentment a speedy public trial by an impartial jury of the County or District in which the offense shall have been committed; and shall not be compelled to give evidence against himself, nor shall he be twice put in jeopardy for the same offense.

SEC. 12. That all persons shall be bailable by sufficient sureties, unless for capital offenses where the proof is evident or the presumption great; and the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless, when in case of rebellion or invasion, the public safety may require it.

SEC. 13. Excessive bail shall not be required; excessive fines shall not be imposed; nor cruel and unusual punishment inflicted.

SEC. 14. All penalties shall be proportioned to the nature of the offense. No wise Legislature will affix the same punishment to the crimes of theft, forgery, and the like, which they do to those of murder and treason. When the same undisguised severity is exerted against all offenses, the people are led to forget the real distinction in the crimes themselves, and to commit the most flagrant with as little compunction as they do the slightest offenses. For the same reasons, a multitude of sanguinary laws are both impolitic and unjust; the true design of all punishments being to reform, not to exterminate, mankind.

SEC. 15. The person of a debtor, where there is not strong presumption of fraud, shall not/be continued in prison after delivering up his estate for the benefit of his creditor or creditors, in such manner as shall be prescribed by law.

SEC. 16. No ex post facto law, nor any law impairing the validity of contracts, shall ever be made; and no conviction shall work corruption of blood or forfeiture of estate.

SEC. 17. That no person shall be liable to be transported out of this State for any offense committed within the State.

SEC. 18. That a frequent recurrence to the fundamental principles of civil government is absolutely necessary to preserve the blessings of liberty.

SEC. 19. That the people have a right to assemble together in a peaceable manner to consult for their common good to instruct their Representatives, and to apply to the Legislature for a redress of grievances,

SEC. 20. That the people have a right to bear arms for the defence of themselves and the State; and as standing armies in time of peace are dangerous to liberty, they shall not be kept up; and that the military shall be kept under strict subordination to the civil power.

SEC. 21. That no person in this State, except such as are employed in the army or navy of the United States, or militia in actual service, shall be subject to corporal punishment under the military law.

SEC. 22. That no soldier, in time of peace, be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner; nor in time of war, but in the manner prescribed by law.

SEC. 23. That the levying of taxes by the poll is grievous and oppressive; therefore the Legislature shall never levy a poll tax for County or State purposes.

SEC. 24. That no hereditary emoluments, privileges, or honors shall ever be granted or conferred by this State.

SEC. 25. That no law shall be passed to prevent the poor in the several Counties and townships within this State from an equal participation in the schools, academies, colleges, and universities within this State which are endowed, in whole or in part, from the revenue arising from donations made by the United States for the support of schools and colleges; and the doors of the said schools, academies, and universities shall be open for the reception of scholars, students, and teachers of every grade without any distinction or preference whatever contrary to the intent for which said donations were made.

Sec. 26. That laws shall be passed by the Legislature which shall secure to each and every denomination of religious societies in each surveyed township, which now is or may hereafter be formed in the State, an equal participation, according to their number of adherents, of the profits, arising from the land granted by Congress for the support of religion, agreeably to the ordinance or act of Congress making the appropriation.

Sec. 27. That every association of persons, when regularly formed, within this State, and having given themselves a name, may, on application to the Legislature, be entitled to receive letters of incorporation, to enable them to hold estates, real and personal, for the support of their schools, academies, colleges, universities, and for other purposes.

SEC. 28. To guard against the transgression of the high powers which we have delegated, we declare that all powers not hereby delegated remain with the people.

SCHEDULE.

SECTION 1. • That no evils or inconveniences may arise from the change of a territorial government to a permanent State government, it is declared by this convention that all rights, suits, actions, prosecutions, claims, and contracts, both as it respects individuals and bodies corporate, shall continue as if no change had taken place in this government.

- SEC. 2. All fines, penalties, and forfeitures, due and owing to the territory of the United States northwest of the River Ohio, shall inure to the use of the State. All bonds executed to the Governor, or any other officer in his official capacity in the territory, shall pass over to the Governor or the other officers of the State, and their successors in office for the use of the State, or by him or them to be respectively assigned over to the use of those concerned, as the case may be.
- SEC. 3. The Governor, Secretary, and Judges, and all other officers under the territorial government shall continue in the exercise of the duties of their respective departments until the said officers are superseded under the authority of this Constitution.
- SEC. 4. All laws and parts of laws now in force in this territory, not inconsistent with this Constitution, shall continue and remain in full effect until repealed by the Legislature, except so much of the act entitled "an act regulating the admission and practice of attorneys and counselors-at-law," and of the act made amendatory thereto, as relates to the term of time which the applicant shall have studied law, his residence within the territory and the term of time which he shall have practiced as an attorney-at-law before he can be admitted to the degree of a counselor-at-law.
- SEC. 5. The Governor of the State shall make use of his private seal until a State seal be procured.
- SEC. 6. The President of the convention shall issue writs of election to the Sheriffs of the several Counties, requiring them to proceed to the election of a Governor, members of the General Assembly, Sheriffs and Coroners, at the respective election districts in each County, on the second Tuesday of January next; which election shall be conducted in the manner prescribed by the existing election laws of this territory; and the members of the General Assembly then elected shall continue to exercise the duties of their respective offices until the next annual or biennial election thereafter, as prescribed in this Constitution, and no longer.
- SEC. 7. Until the first enumeration shall be made, as directed in the second section of the first article of this Constitution, the County of Hamilton shall be entitled to four Senators and eight Representatives; the County of Clermont, one Senator and two Representatives; the County of Adams, one Senator and three Representatives; the County of Ross, two Senators and four Representatives; the County of Fairfield, one Senator and two Representatives; the County of Washington, two Senators and three Representatives; the County of Belmont, one Senator and two Representatives; the County of Jefferson, two Senators and four Representatives; and the County of Trumbull, one Senator and two Representatives.

Done in convention at Chillicothe, the twenty-ninth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and two, and of the independence of the United States of America, the twenty-seventh.

MARCUS A. HANNA.

MARCUS A. HANNA

MARCUS ALONZO HANNA, Republican, of Cleveland, was born in New Lisbon (now Lisbon), Columbiana County, Ohio, September 24, 1837; removed with his father's family to Cleveland in 1852; was educated in the common schools of that city and the Western Reserve College, Hudson, Ohio; was engaged as an employee in the wholesale grocery house of Hanna, Garretson & Co., his father being senior member of the firm; his father died in 1862, and he represented that interest in the firm until 1867, when the business was closed up; then became a member of the firm of Rhodes & Co., engaged in the iron and coal business; at the expiration of ten years the title of this firm was changed to M. A. Hanna & Co., which still exists; has been identified with lake carrying business, being interested in vessels on the lakes, and in the construction of such vessels; was president of the Union National Bank of Cleveland; president of the Cleveland City Railway Company; was director of the Union Pacific Railway Company in 1885, by appointment of President Cleveland; was a delegate to the national Republican conventions in 1884, 1888, and 1896; was elected chairman of the national Republican committee in 1896 and 1900; was appointed to the United States Senate by Governor Bushnell, March 5, 1897, to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of Hon. John Sherman, who resigned to accept the position of Secretary of State in President McKinley's cabinet; took his seat March 5, 1897; in January, 1898, he was elected for the short term ending March 4, 1899, and also for the succeeding full term. Senator Hanna occupied a very prominent place among the leaders of the Senate. His advocacy of the Panama route for the isthmian canal, after the House of Representatives had by an overwhelming vote chosen the Nicaraguan route, resulted in a complete reversal of the program and the final choice of Panama; this is said to be one of the most remarkable legislative feats in the history of the United States Congress, and was the result alone of Senator Hanna's masterful presentation of the claims of Panama as compared with those of Nicaragua. Senator Hanna was chosen in January, 1904, to succeed himself in the United States Senate for the term commencing March 4, 1905, by the largest majority ever accorded a senatorial candidate by the legislature of Ohio. His speech of acceptance delivered to the General Assembly was looked upon as the benediction of one about to lay down the burdens of life, as indeed it proved to be, for his death followed one month later. Senator Hanna died February 15, 1904, in the city of Washington, and the funeral was held in Cleveland. His remains were deposited in the Wade mausoleum, Lake View Cemetery.

NOTES ON THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION OF 1802.

HE Constitutional Convention of 1802 forms a connecting-link between the Territorial and State Government which seems to find its proper consideration at this point. The first session of the Second (and last) Territorial Legislature, was adjourned by Governor St. Clair in January, 1802, to meet in Cincinnati, November 29. The Congress, by an act of April 30, 1802, provided for the election of members of a convention which should:

First. Decide on the desirability of forming a state government, and Second. Frame the constitution for the state should the convention decide the first question affirmatively.

This convention met in Chillicothe on Monday, November 1, four weeks prior to the time set for the convening of the Second Territorial Legislature in its second session, and on the day appointed for the legislature to meet, promulgated the First Constitution of the State of Ohio.

Many members of the territorial legislature were members of this first constitutional convention, and the following notes from the Journal of that convention are republished as matters of history:

NOTES FROM THE JOURNAL OF CONVENTION.

The members of the Convention were:

ADAMS COUNTY.

Joseph Darlington,

Thomas Kirker,

Israel Donaldson.

BELMONT COUNTY.

James Caldwell,

Elijah Woods.

CLERMONT COUNTY.

Philip Gatch,

James Sargent.

HAMILTON COUNTY.

Francis Dunlavy, John Paul, Jeremiah Morrow,
John Wilson, Charles Willing Byrd,
William Goforth, John Smith, John Reily,
John Browne, John Kitchel.

JEFFERSON COUNTY.

Rudolph Blair, John Milligan, George Humphrey, Bazaleel Wells, Nathan Updegraff.

ROSS COUNTY.

Edward Tiffin, Nathaniel Massie, Thomas Worthington, Michael Baldwin, James Grubb.

TRUMBULL COUNTY.

Samuel Huntington, David Abbot.

FAIRFIELD COUNTY.

Emanuel Carpenter, Henry Abrams.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.

Rufus Putnam, Ephriam Cutler, John McIntire, Benjamin Ives Gilman.

Edward Tiffin was chosen president of the Convention.

William Goforth was elected president pro tempore.

Thomas Scott was elected secretary at $3 per day.

William McFarland was elected assistant secretary, and ordered to attend the Committee on Preamble and First Article.

Adam Betz was elected door-keeper at $1.50 per day.

Upon the question whether it would be expedient to form a constitution and state government for the people of the Territory, at this time, the question carried in the affirmative by a vote of 32 to 1. Mr. Cutler voted in the negative.

Note.—"Although more than a fourth of the members comprising the body had expressed their opinion in very decided terms against the expediency of the measure, and against the manner of its accomplishment, yet the resolution was carried. * * * Judge Cutler, an indomitable Whig, of Washington County, voting in the negative, solitary and alone." (Burnett's Notes on the Northwest Territory, pp. 352-3.)

A resolution was adopted requesting the governor to prorogue the territorial legislature which had adjourned in January last, to meet in Cincinnati on the fourth Monday of the present month. But this was not done, as the members of the legislature, many of whom were in convention, manifested no disposition to interfere with the progress of the Territory toward statehood. (See Burnett quoted.)

Nathaniel Willis was elected printer to the Convention, on the terms of his proposition to print 700 copies of the Journal of Convention, and 1,000 copies of the constitution then being framed.

A resolution to submit the proposed constitution to the people is found on page 15 of the Journal. It was disagreed to by the vote of 27 to 7, and the constitution was not submitted to the people, but was put in operation by the act of the delegates to the convention in formally signing the instrument in their representative capacity.

A proposition to have the members of the Senate chosen annually instead of biennially was defeated by a vote of 15 to 18.

A proposition to insert a proviso in Section 19 of Article 1, prohibiting any member of the Convention from holding any office under the constitution so framed, unless elective, for the term of one year after its adoption, was defeated—yeas 3, nays 31.

A proposition to strike out of the bill of rights that part of the second section relating to servitude of adult persons not negroes or mulattoes was defeated by a vote of 12 to 21.

A proposition to strike out that part of the same section which forbids slavery or involuntary servitude in this state, was defeated overwhelmingly, by a vote of yeas 2, nays 31.

Messrs. Paul and Reily, of Hamilton County, voted in favor of the proposition. (See Journal, p. 26; November 20, 1802.)

A proposition to amend the third section of the bill of rights by striking out the words "no religious test shall be required," etc., and inserting words to the effect that no person who denies the being of a God, or a place of future rewards and punishments, shall hold office in the civil government, was lost—yeas 3, nays 30.

In considering Article 4, on the twenty-second of November, the Convention voted—yeas 19, nays 15—to add these words to the end of the article:

"Provided, that all male negroes and mulattoes, now residing in this territory, shall be entitled to the rights of suffrage, if they shall within twelve months make a record of their citizenship."

As this is one of the earliest records of an attempt to give the right of suffrage to the negro in America, the vote on that proposition is interesting. Those who voted aye-were: Abbot, Byrd, Cutler, Darlington, Dunlavy, Gatch, Gilman, Goforth, Grubb, Kitchel, Morrow. Paul, Putnam, Reily, Sargent, Smith, Updegraff, Wells and Wilson—19. Those who voted in the negative were: Abrams, Baldwin, Bair, Browne, Caldwell, Carpenter, Donaldson, Humphrey, Huntington, Kirker, McIntire, Massie, Milligan, Woods and Worthington—15.

At the same time the Convention refused, by a vote of 17 to 16, to extend the right of suffrage to the male descendants of such negro residents.

A motion was made to add to the seventh article of the constitution a new section, as follows:

"Section 7. No negro or mulatto shall ever be eligible to any office, civil, or military, or give their oath in any court of justice against a white person, be subject to do military duty or pay a poll tax in this state; provided always, and it is fully understood and declared, that all negroes and mulattoes, now in, or who may hereafter reside in this state, shall be entitled to all the privileges of citizens of this state, not excepted by this constitution."

This was agreed to by a vote of—yeas 19, mays 16—as follows:

Yeas—Abrams, Baldwin, Bair, Byrd, Caldwell, Carpenter, Darlington, Donaldson, Grubb, Humphrey, Kirker, Massie, McIntire, Milligan, Morrow, Smith, Tiffin, Woods and Worthington—19.

Nays—Abbot, Browne, Cutler, Gatch, Gilman, Goforth, Huntington, Kitchel, Paul, Putnam, Reily, Sargent, Updegraff, Wells and Wilson—15.

On Friday, November 26, in considering Article IV, a motion was made to strike out the provision which had been inserted on the twenty-second, giving right of suffrage to negroes and mulattoes who would prove their residence within twelve months. On this motion the yeas and nays were taken and resulted, 17 to 17. There being a tie vote, the president of the Convention (Edward Tiffin, afterward governor of the State) voted in the affirmative, and the proposition was stricken from the first constitution of the state. The change of front was brought about by the vote of the president and of the Messrs. Darlington, Grubb and Smith, who had previously voted to add this provision to the constitution. On the other hand, Mr. Browne, who had voted against the proposition in the first instance now voted to retain it as a part of the organic law of the state. (P. 34.) Mr. Donaldson, who had opposed the proposition on the twenty-second, refrained from voting on the question as now presented.

A proposition was made to strike out the fifth section of Article IV, relating to labor on roads and its relation to an elector's qualifications, which was defeated by a vote of 13 to 21.

A provision in Article VII, Section 3, that "no new county shall be established by the legislature, which is not entitled by its numbers to a representative," was stricken out by a vote of 22 to 12.

An effort to make the minimum number of square miles in a county five hundred instead of four hundred was defeated, 11 to 23.

A motion to strike out the section (7) added to Article VII on the twenty-second, in relation to the bar to negroes in office, etc., was carried by a vote of 17 to 16.

On this vote Messrs. Dunlavy (who had not voted on this proposition before), and Milligan (who had voted to incorporate it in the article), voted with the friends of the negro, and caused the amendment to be made. President Tiffin, who had voted for the incorporation of the section on the twenty-second, is not recorded on this later vote. The friends of the restriction tried to have it inserted in an amended form, but on a demand for the previous question were outgeneraled, and defeated. (P. 36.)

By a vote of 20 to 13, the convention inserted a provision in Section 2, Article VIII, prohibiting in this state the indenture of any negro or mulatto.

Early in the sitting of the convention the following message was adopted and ordered to be officially transmitted to the representatives of the United States:

To the President and Both Houses of Congress:

The Convention of the State of Ohio, November 27, 1802, duly appreciating the importance of a free and independent state government and impressed with sentiments of gratitude to the Congress of the United States, for the prompt and decisive measures taken at their last session, to enable the people of the north-western territory to immerge from their colonial government, and to assume a rank among the sister states, beg leave to take the earliest opportunity of announcing to you this important event: on this occasion the convention can not help expressing their unequivocal approbation of the measures pursued by the present administration of the general government, and both Houses of Congress, in diminishing the public burdens, cultivating peace with all nations, and producing the happiness and prosperity of our country.

As Amended and in force January, 1906.

E the people of the State of Ohio, grateful to Almighty God for our freedom, to secure its blessings and promote our common welfare, do establish this constitution.

ARTICLE I.

BILL OF RIGHTS.

- SEC. I. All men are, by nature, free and independent, and have certain inalienable rights, among which are those of enjoying and defending life and liberty, acquiring, possessing, and protecting property, and seeking and obtaining happiness and safety.
- SEC. 2. All political power is inherent in the people. Government is instituted for their equal protection and benefit, and they have the right to alter, reform, or abolish the same, whenever they may deem it necessary; and no special privileges or immunities shall ever be granted, that may not be altered, revoked, or repealed by the General Assembly.
- SEC. 3. The people have the right to assemble together, in a peaceable manner, to consult for their common good; to instruct their representatives; and to petition the General Assembly for the redress of grievances.
- SEC. 4. The people have the right to bear arms for their defense and security; but standing armies, in time of peace, are dangerous to liberty, and shall not be kept up; and the military shall be in strict subordination to the civil power.
  - Sec. 5. The right of trial by jury shall be inviolate.
- Sec. 6. There shall be no slavery in this state, nor involuntary servitude, unless for the punishment of crime.
- SEC. 7. All men have a natural and indefeasible right to worship Almighty God according to the dictates of their own conscience. No person shall be compelled to attend, erect, or support any place of worship, or maintain any form of worship, against his consent; and no preference shall be given, by law, to any religious society; nor shall any interference with the rights of conscience be permitted. No religious test shall be required, as a qualification for office, nor shall any person be incompetent to be a witness on account of his religious belief; but nothing herein shall be construed to dispense with oaths and affirmations. Religion, morality, and knowledge, however, being essential to good government, it shall be the duty of the General Assembly to pass suitable laws to protect every religious denomination in the peaceable enjoyment of its own mode of public worship, and to encourage schools, and the means of instruction.

SEC. 8. The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless in cases of rebellion or invasion, the public safety require it.

SEC. 9. All persons shall be bailable by sufficient sureties, except for capital offenses where the proof is evident, or the presumption great. Excessive bail shall not be required; nor excessive fines imposed; nor cruel and unusual punishment inflicted.

SEC. 10. Except in cases of impeachment, and cases arising in the army and navy, or in the militia when in actual service in time of war or public danger, and in cases of petit larceny and other inferior offenses, no person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on presentment or indictment of a grand jury. In any trial, in any court, the party accused shall be allowed to appear and defend in person, and with counsel; to demand the nature of the cause of the accusation against him, and to have a copy thereof, to meet the witnesses face to face, and to have compulsory process to procure the attendance of witnesses in his behalf, and a speedy public trial by an impartial jury of the county or district, in which the offense is alleged to have been committed; nor shall any person be compelled, in any criminal case, to be a witness against himself, or be twice put in jeopardy for the same offense.

SEC. II. Every citizen may freely speak, write, and publish his sentiments on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of the right; and no law shall be passed to restrain or abridge the liberty of speech, or of the press. In all criminal prosecutions for libel the truth may be given in evidence to the jury, and if it shall appear to the jury, that the matter charged as libelous is true, and was published with good motives, and for justifiable ends, the party shall be acquitted.

SEC. 12. No person shall be transported out of the state, for any offense committed within the same; and no conviction shall work corruption of blood, or forfeiture of estate.

SEC. 13. No soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house, without the consent of the owner; nor, in time of war, except in the manner prescribed by law.

SEC. 14. The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and possessions, against unreasonable searches and seizures shall not be violated; and no warrant shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, particularly describing the place to be searched and the person and things to be seized.

Sec. 15. No person shall be imprisoned for debt in any civil action, on mesne or final process, unless in cases of fraud.

SEC. 16. All courts shall be open, and every person, for an injury done him in his land, goods, person, or reputation, shall have remedy by due course of law; and justice administered without denial or delay.

SEC. 17. No hereditary emoluments, honors, or privileges, shall ever be granted or conferred by this state.

Sec. 18. No power of suspending laws shall ever be exercised, except by the General Assembly.

SEC. 19. Private property shall ever be held inviolate, but subservient to the public welfare. When taken in time of war, or other public exigency, imperatively requiring its immediate seizure or for the purpose of making or repairing roads, which shall be open to the public, without charge, a compensation shall be made to the owner, in money, and in all other cases, where private property shall be taken for public use, a compensation therefor shall first be made in money, or first secured by a deposit of money, and such compensation shall be assessed by a jury, without deduction for benefits to any property of the owner.

SEC. 20. This enumeration of rights shall not be construed to impair or deny others retained by the people; and all powers, not herein delegated, remain with the people.

ARTICLE II.

LEGISLATIVE.

- SEC. I. The legislative power of this state shall be vested in a General Assembly, which shall consist of a Senate, and House of Representatives.
- SEC. 2. Senators and representatives shall be elected biennially by the electors of the respective counties or districts, on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November; their term of office shall commence on the first day of January next thereafter, and continue two years. [As amended October 13, 1885, 82 v. 446.]
- SEC. 3. Senators and representatives shall have resided in their respective counties, or districts, one year next preceding their election, unless they shall have been absent on the public business of the United States, or of this state.
- SEC. 4. No person holding office under the authority of the United States, or any lucrative office under the authority of this state, shall be eligible to, or have a seat in, the General Assembly; but this provision shall not extend to township officers, justices of the peace, notaries public, or officers of the militia.

SEC. 5. No person hereafter convicted of an embezzlement of the public funds, shall hold any office in this state; nor shall any person, holding public money for disbursement, or otherwise, have a seat in the General Assembly, until he shall have accounted for, and paid such money into the treasury.

SEC. 6. Each house shall be judge of the election, returns, and qualifications of its own members; a majority of all the members elected to each house shall be a quorum to do business; but a less number may adjourn from day to day, and compel the attendance of absent members, in such manner, and under such penalties, as shall be prescribed by law.

Sec. 7. The mode of organizing the house of representatives, at the commencement of each regular session, shall be prescribed by law.

SEC. 8. Each house, except as otherwise provided in this constitution, shall choose its own officers, may determine its own rules of proceeding, punish its members for disorderly conduct; and, with the concurrence of two-thirds, expel a member, but not the second time for the same cause; and shall have all other powers, necessary to provide for its safety, and the undisturbed transaction of its business.

Sec. 9. Each house shall keep a correct journal of its proceedings, which shall be published. At the desire of any two members, the yeas and nays shall be entered upon the journal; and, on the passage of every bill, in either house, the vote shall be taken by yeas and nays, and entered upon the journal; and no law shall be passed in either house without the concurrence of a majority of all the members elected thereto.

SEC. 10. Any member of either house shall have the right to protest against any act, or resolution thereof; and such protest, and the reasons therefor, shall, without alteration, commitment, or delay, be entered upon the journal.

SEC. 11. All vacancies which may happen in either house shall, for the unexpired term, be filled by election, as shall be directed by law.

SEC. 12. Senators and representatives, during the session of the General Assembly, and in going to and returning from the same, shall be privileged from arrest, in all cases, except treason, felony, or breach of the peace; and for any speech, or debate, in either house, they shall not be questioned elsewhere.

SEC. 13. The proceedings of both houses shall be public, except in cases which, in the opinion of two-thirds of those present, require secrecy.

SEC. 14. Neither house shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than two days, Sundays excluded; nor to any other place than that, in which the two houses shall be in session.

SEC. 15. Bills may originate in either house; but may be altered, amended, or rejected in the other.

SEC. 16. Every bill shall be fully and distinctly read [on] three different days, unless in case of urgency three-fourths of the house in which it shall be pending, shall dispense with the rule. No bill shall contain more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in its title, and no law shall be revived or amended unless the new act contains the entire act revived, or the section or sections amended, and the section or sections so amended shall be repealed.

Every bill passed by both houses of the General Assembly shall, before said bill can become law, be presented to the governor. he approves he shall sign said bill and thereupon said bill shall be law. If he object he shall not sign and shall return said bill, together with his objections thereto in writing, to the house wherein said bill originated, which house shall enter at large upon its journal said objection and shall proceed to reconsider said bill. If, after said reconsideration, at least two-thirds of the members-elect of that house vote to repass said bill it shall be sent, together with said objection, to the other house, which shall enter at large upon its journal said objection and shall proceed to reconsider said bill. If, after said reconsideration, at least twothirds of the members-elect of that house vote to pass said bill it shall be law, otherwise it shall not be law. The votes for the repassage of said bill shall in each house respectively be no less than those given on the original passage. If any bill passed by both houses of the General Assembly and presented to the governor is not signed and is not returned to the house wherein it originated and within ten days after being so presented, exclusive of Sunday and the day said bill was presented, said bill shall be law as in like manner as if signed, unless final adjournment of the General Assembly prevents such return, in which case shall be law, unless objected to by the Governor and filed, together with his objection thereto in writing, by him in the office of the Secretary of State within the prescribed ten days; and the Secretary of State shall at once make public said fact and shall return said bill, together with said objection, upon the opening of the next following session of the General Assembly, to the house wherein said bill originated, where it shall be treated in like manner as if returned within the prescribed ten days.

If any bill passed by both houses of the General Assembly and presented to the Governor contains two or more sections, or two or more items of appropriation of money, he may object to one or more of said sections or to one or more of said items of appropriation of money, and approve the other portion of said bill, in which case said approved portion may be signed and then shall be law; and such section or sections, item or items of appropriation of money objected to shall be returned within the time and in the manner prescribed for, and shall be separately reconsidered as in the case of, a whole bill; but if final adjournment of the General Assembly prevents such return the Governor shall file said section or sections, item or items of appropriation of money, together with his objection thereto in writing, with the Secretary of State as in the case of a whole bill, and the Secretary of State shall then make public said fact but shall not further act as in the case of a whole bill. [As amended November, 1903.]

SEC. 17. The presiding officer of each house shall sign, publicly in the presence of the house over which he presides, while the same is in session and capable of transacting business, all bills and joint resolutions passed by the General Assembly.

SEC. 18. The style of the laws of this state shall be, "Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio."

SEC. 19. No Senator or Representative shall, during the term for which he shall have been elected, or for one year thereafter, be appointed to any civil office under this state, which shall be created or the emoluments of which shall have been increased, during the term for which he shall have been elected.

SEC. 20. The General Assembly, in cases not provided for in this constitution, shall fix the term of office and the compensation of all officers; but no change therein shall affect the salary of any officer during his existing term, unless the office be abolished.

SEC. 21. The General Assembly shall determine, by law, before what authority, and in what manner, the trial of contested elections shall be conducted.

SEC. 22. No money shall be drawn from the treasury, except in pursuance of a specific appropriation, made by law; and no appropritaion shall be made for a longer period than two years.

SEC. 23. The House of Representatives shall have the sole power of impeachment, but a majority of the members elected must concur therein. Impeachments shall be tried by the Senate; and the senators, when sitting for that purpose, shall be upon oath or affirmation to do justice according to law and evidence. No person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the senators.

SEC. 24. The governor, judges, and all state officers, may be impeached for any misdemeanor in office; but judgment shall not extend further than removal from office, and disqualification to hold any office, under the authority of this state. The party impeached, whether convicted or not, shall be liable to indictment, trial and judgment, according to law.

SEC. 25. All regular sessions of the General Assembly shall commence on the first Monday of January, biennially. The first session, under this constitution, shall commence on the first Monday of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

SEC. 26. All laws, of a general nature, shall have a uniform operation throughout the state; nor, shall any act, except such as relates to public schools, be passed, to take effect upon the approval of any other authority than the General Assembly, except, as otherwise provided in this constitution.

SEC. 27. The election and appointment of all officers, and the filling of all vacancies, not otherwise provided for by this constitution, or the constitution of the United States, shall be made in such manner as may be directed by law; but no appointing power shall be exercised by the General Assembly, except as prescribed in this constitution, and in the election of the United States senators; and in these cases the vote shall be taken "viva voce."

SEC. 28. The General Assembly shall have no power to pass retroactive laws, or laws impairing the obligation of contracts; but may, by general laws, authorize courts to carry into effect, upon such terms as shall be just and equitable, the manifest intention of parties, and officers, by curing omissions, defects, and errors, in instruments and proceedings, arising out of their want of conformity with the laws of this state.

SEC. 29. No extra compensation shall be made to any officer, public agent, or contractor, after the service shall have been rendered, or the contract entered into; nor shall any money be paid, on any claim, the subject matter of which shall not have been provided for by pre-existing law, unless such compensation, or claim, be allowed by two-thirds of the members elected to each branch of the General Assembly.

SEC. 30. No new county shall contain less than four hundred square miles of territory, nor shall any county be reduced below that amount; and all laws creating new counties, changing county lines, or removing county seats, shall, before taking effect, be submitted to the electors of the several counties to be affected thereby, at the next general election after the passage thereof, and be adopted by a majority of all the electors voting at such election, in each of said counties; but any county now or hereafter containing one hundred thousand inhabitants, may be divided, whenever a majority of the voters residing in each of the proposed divisions shall approve of the law passed for that purpose; but no town or city within the same shall be divided, nor shall either of the divisions contain less than twenty thousand inhabitants.

SEC. 31. The members and officers of the General Assembly shall receive a fixed compensation, to be prescribed by law, and no other allowance or perquisites, either in the payment of postage or otherwise; and no change in their compensation shall take effect during their term of office.

Sec. 32. The General Assembly shall grant no divorce, nor exercise any judicial power not herein expressly conferred.

EXECUTIVE.

- SEC. I. The executive department shall consist of a governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, auditor of state, treasurer of state, and an attorney-general, who shall be elected on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, by the electors of the state, and at the places of voting for members of the General Assembly. [As amended October 13, 1885; 82 v. 446.]
- SEC. 2. The governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, treasurer, and attorney-general shall hold their offices for two years; and the auditor for four years. Their terms of office shall commence on the second Monday of January next after their election, and continue until their successors are elected and qualified.
- SEC. 3. The returns for every election for the officers named in the foregoing section shall be sealed up and transmitted to the seat of government, by the returning officers, directed to the president of the senate, who, during the first week of the session, shall open and publish them, and declare the result, in the presence of a majority of the members of each house of the General Assembly. The person having the highest number of votes shall be declared duly elected; but if any two or more shall be highest, and equal in votes, for the same office, one of them shall be chosen by the joint vote of both houses.
- SEC. 4. Should there be no session of the General Assembly in January next after an election for any of the officers aforesaid, the returns of such election shall be made to the secretary of state, and opened, and the result declared by the governor, in such manner as may be provided by law.
- SEC. 5. The supreme executive power of this state shall be vested in the governor.
- Sec. 6. He may require information, in writing, from the officers in the executive department, upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices, and shall see that the laws are faithfully executed.
- SEC. 7. He shall communicate at every session, by message, to the General Assembly, the condition of the state, and recommend such measures as he shall deem expedient.
- Sec. 8. He may, on extraordinary occasions, convene the General Assembly by proclamation, and shall state to both houses, when assembled, the purpose for which they have been convened.

SEC. 9. In case of a disagreement between the two houses, in respect to the time of adjournment, he shall have power to adjourn the General Assembly to such time as he may think proper, but not beyond the regular meetings thereof.

SEC. 10. He shall be commander-in-chief of the military and naval forces of the state, except when they shall be called into the service of the United States.

SEC. II. He shall have power, after conviction, to grant reprieves, commutations, and pardons, for all crimes and offenses, except treason and cases of impeachment, upon such conditions as he may think proper; subject, however, to such regulations, as to the manner of applying for pardons, as may be prescribed by law. Upon conviction for treason, he may suspend the execution of the sentence, and report the case to the General Assembly, at its next meeting, when the General Assembly shall either pardon, commute the sentence, direct its execution, or grant a further reprieve. He shall communicate to the General Assembly, at every regular session each case of reprieve, commutation, or pardon granted, stating the name and crime of the convict, the sentence, its date, and the date of the commutation, pardon, or reprieve, with his reason therefor.

SEC. 12. There shall be a seal of the state, which shall be kept by the governor, and used by him officially; and shall be called "The Great Seal of the State of Ohio."

SEC. 13. All grants and commissions shall be issued in the name, and by the authority, of the state of Ohio; sealed with the great seal; signed by the governor, and countersigned by the secretary of state.

SEC. 14. No member of Congress, or other person holding office under the authority of this state, or of the United States, shall execute the office of governor, except as herein provided.

SEC. 15. In case of the death, impeachment, resignation, removal, or other disability of the governor, the powers and duties of the office, for the residue of the term, or until he shall be acquitted, or the disability removed, shall devolve upon the lieutenant governor.

SEC. 16. The lieutenant governor shall be president of the senate, but shall vote only when the senate is equally divided; and in case of his absence, or impeachment, or when he shall exercise the office of governor, the senate shall chose a president pro tempore.

SEC. 17. If the lieutenant governor, while executing the office of governor, shall be impeached, displaced, resign or die, or otherwise become incapable of performing the duties of the office, the president of the senate shall act as governor until the vacancy is filled, or the disability removed; and if the president of the senate, for any of the above causes, shall be rendered incapable of performing the duties pertaining to the office of governor, the same shall devolve upon the speaker of the house of representatives.

SEC. 18. Should the office of auditor, treasurer, secretary, or attorney-general, become vacant, for any of the causes specified in the fifteenth section of this article, the governor shall fill the vacancy until the disability is removed, or a successor elected and qualified. Every such vacancy shall be filled by election, at the first general election that occurs more than thirty days after it shall have happened; and the person chosen shall hold the office for the full term fixed in the second section of this article.

SEC. 19. The officers mentioned in this article shall, at stated times, receive for their services, a compensation to be established by law, which shall neither be increased nor diminished during the period for which they shall have been elected.

Sec. 20. The officers of the executive department, and of the public state institutions shall, at least five days preceding each regular session of the General Assembly, severally report to the governor, who shall transmit such reports, with his message, to the General Assembly.

ARTICLE IV.

JUDICIAL.

SEC. I. The judicial power of the state is vested in a supreme court, circuit courts, courts of common pleas, courts of probate, justices of the peace, and such other courts inferior to the supreme court, as the General Assembly may, from time to time establish. [As amended October 9, 1883, (vol. 80, p. 382).]

Sec. 2. The supreme court shall, until otherwise provide [d] by law, consist of five judges, a majority of whom competent to sit shall be necessary to form a quorum or to pronounce a decision, except as hereinafter provided. It shall have original jurisdiction in quo warranto, mandamus, habeas corpus and procedendo, and such appellate jurisdiction as may be provided by law. It shall hold at least one term in each year at the seat of government, and such other terms, there or elsewhere, as may be provided by law. The judges of the supreme court shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, for such term, not less than five years, as the General Assembly may prescribe, and they shall be elected and their official term shall begin at such time as may be fixed by law. In case the General Assembly shall increase the number of such judges, the first term of each of such additional judges shall be such, that in each year after their first election, an equal number of judges of the supreme court shall be elected, except in elections to fill vacancies; and whenever the number of such judges shall be increased, the General Assembly may authorize such court to organize divisions thereof, not exceeding three, each division to consist of an equal number of judges; for the adjudication of cases, a majority of each division shall constitute a quorum, and such an assignment of the cases to each division may be made as such court may deem expedient, but whenever all the judges of either division hearing a case shall not concur as to the judgment to be rendered therein, or whenever a case shall involve the constitutionality of an act of the General Assembly or an act of Congress, it shall be reserved to the whole court for adjudication. The judges of the supreme court in office when this amendment takes effect, shall continue to hold their offices until their successors are elected and qualified. [As amended October 9, 1883; 80 v. 382.]

SEC. 3. The state shall be divided into nine common pleas districts, of which the county of Hamilton shall constitute one, of compact territory, and bounded by county lines; and each of said districts, consisting of three or more counties, shall be subdivided into three parts, of compact territory, bounded by county lines, and as nearly equal in population as practicable; in each of which, one judge of the court of common pleas for said district, and residing therein, shall be elected by the electors of said subdivision. Courts of common pleas shall be held, by one or more of these judges, in every county in the district, as often as may be provided by law; and more than one court, or sitting thereof, may be held at the same time in each district.

SEC. 4. The jurisdiction of the courts of common pleas, and of the judges thereof, shall be fixed by law.

Sec. 5. [Repealed October 9, 1883; 80 v. 382.]

Sec. 6. The circuit court shall have like original jurisdiction with the supreme court, and such appellate jurisdiction as may be provided by law. Such courts shall be composed of such number of judges as may be provided by law, and shall be held in each county, at least once in each year. The number of circuits, and the boundaries thereof, shall be prescribed by law. Such judges shall be elected in each circuit by the electors thereof, and at such time and for such term as may be prescribed by law, and the same number shall be elected in each circuit. Each judge shall be competent to exercise his judicial powers in any circuit. The General Assembly may change, from time to time, the number of boundaries of the circuits. The circuit courts shall be the successors of the district courts, and all cases, judgments, records, and proceedings pending in said district courts, in the several counties of any district, shall be transferred to the circuit courts in the several counties, and be proceeded in as though said district courts had not been abolished, and the district courts shall continue in existence until the election and qualification of the judges of the circuit court. [As amended October 9, 1883; 80 v. 382.]

SEC. 7. There shall be established in each county, a probate court, which shall be a court of record, open at all times, and holden by one judge, elected by the voters of the county, who shall hold his office for the term of three years, and shall receive such compensation, payable out of the county treasury, or by fees, or both, as shall be provided by law.

SEC. 8. The probate court shall have jurisdiction in probate and testamentary matters, the appointment of administrators and guardians, the settlement of the accounts of executors, administrators, and guardians, and such jurisdiction in habeas corpus, the issuing of marriage licenses, and for the sale of land by executors, administrators, and guardians, and such other jurisdiction, in any county or counties, as may be provided by law.

SEC. 9. A competent number of justices of the peace shall be elected, by the electors, in each township in the several counties. Their term of office shall be three years, and their powers and duties shall be regulated by law.

SEC. 10. All judges, other than those provided for in this constitution, shall be elected, by the electors of the judicial district for which they may be created, but not for a longer term of office than five years.

SEC. 11. [Repealed October 9, 1883; 80 v. 382.]

SEC. 12. The judges of the courts of common pleas shall, while in office, reside in the district for which they are elected; and their term of office shall be for five years.

SEC. 13. In case the office of any judge shall become vacant, before the expiration of the regular term for which he was elected, the vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the governor, until a successor is elected and qualified; and such successor shall be elected for the unexpired term, at the first annual election that occurs more than thirty days after the vacancy shall have happened.

SEC. 14. The judges of the supreme court, and of the court of common pleas, shall, at stated times, receive, for their services, such compensation as may be provided by law; which shall not be diminished, or increased, during their term of office; but they shall receive no fees or perquisites, nor hold any other office of profit or trust, under the authority of this state, or the United States. All votes for either of them, for any elective office, except a judicial office, under the authority of this state, given by the General Assembly, or the people, shall be void.

SEC. 15. The General Assembly may increase, or diminish, the number of the judges of the supreme court, the number of the districts of the court of common pleas, the number of judges in any district, change the districts, or the subdivisions thereof, or establish other courts, whenever two-thirds of the members elected to each house shall concur therein; but no such change, addition, or diminution, shall vacate the office of any judge.

SEC. 16. There shall be elected in each county, by the electors thereof, one clerk of the court of common pleas, who shall hold his office for the term of three years, and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. He shall, by virtue of his office, be clerk of all other courts of record held therein; but, the General Assembly may provide, by law, for the election of a clerk, with a like term of office, for each or any other of the courts of record, and may authorize the judge of the probate court to perform the duties of clerk for his court, under such regulations as may be directed by law. Clerks of courts shall be removable for such cause and in such manner as shall be prescribed by law.

SEC. 17. Judges may be removed from office, by concurrent resolutions of both houses of the General Assembly, if two-thirds of the members, elected to each house, concur therein; but no such removal shall be made, except upon complaint, the substance of which shall be entered on the journal, nor, until the party charged shall have had notice thereof, and an opportunity to be heard.

SEC. 18. The several judges of the supreme court, of the common pleas, and of such other courts as may be created, shall, respectively, have and exercise such power and jurisdiction, at chambers, or otherwise, as may be directed by law.

SEC. 19. The General Assembly may establish courts of conciliation, and prescribe their powers and duties; but such courts shall not render final judgment in any case, except upon submission, by the parties, of the matter in dispute, and their agreement to abide such judgment.

SEC. 20. The style of all process shall be "The State of Ohio;" all prosecutions shall be carried on, in the name, and by the authority, of the State of Ohio; and all indictments shall conclude, "against the peace and dignity of the State of Ohio."

SEC. 22. (21) A commission, which shall consist of five members, shall be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, the members of which shall hold office for the term of three years from and after the first day of February, 1876, to dispose of such part of the business then on the dockets of the supreme court, as shall, by arrangement between said commission and said court, be transferred to such commission; and said commission shall have like jurisdiction and power in respect to such business as are or may be vested in said court; and the members of said commission shall receive a like compensation for the time being with the judges of said court. A majority of the members of said commission shall be necessary to form a quorum or pronounce a decision, and its decision shall be certified, entered, and enforced as the judgments of the supreme court, and at the expiration of the term of said commission, all business undisposed of, shall by it be certified to the supreme court and disposed of as if said The clerk and reporter of said court commission had never existed. shall be the clerk and reporter of said commission, and the commission shall have such other attendants not exceeding in number those provided by law for said court, which attendants said commission may appoint and remove at its pleasure. Any vacancy occurring in said commission, shall be filled by appointment of the governor, with the advice and consent of the senate, if the senate be in session, and if the senate be not in session, by the governor, but in such last case, such appointment shall expire at the end of the next session of the General As-The General Assembly may, on application of the supreme court duly entered on the journal of the court and certified, provide by law, whenever two-thirds of such [each] house shall concur therein, from time to time, for the appointment, in like manner, of a like commission with like powers, jurisdiction and duties; provided, that the term of any such commission shall not exceed two years, nor shall it be created oftener than once in ten years. [As adopted October 12, 1875; 72 v. 269.]

ARTICLE V.

ELECTIVE FRANCHISE.

- SEC. I. Every white male citizen of the United States, of the age of twenty-one years, who shall have been a resident of the state one year next preceding the election, and of the county, township, or ward, in which he resides, such time as may be provided by law, shall have the qualifications of an elector, and be entitled to vote at all elections.
  - Sec. 2. All elections shall be by ballot.
- SEC. 3. Electors, during their attendance at elections, and in going to, and returning therefrom, shall be privileged from arrest, in all cases, except treason, felony, and breach of the peace.
- SEC. 4. The General Assembly shall have power to exclude from the privilege of voting, or of being eligible to office, any person convicted of bribery, perjury, or other infamous crime.
  - SEC. 5. No person in the military, naval, or marine service of the United States, shall, by being stationed in any garrison, or military, or naval station, within the state, be considered a resident of this state.

Sec. 6. No idiot, or insane person, shall be entitled to the privileges of an elector.

EDUCATION.

- Sec. 1. The principal of all funds, arising from the sale, or other disposition of lands, or other property granted or entrusted to this state for educational and religious purposes, shall forever be preserved inviolate, and undiminished; and, the income arising therefrom, shall be faithfully applied to the specific objects of the original grants, or appropriations.
- SEC. 2. The General Assembly shall make such provisions, by taxation, or otherwise, as, with the income arising from the school trust fund, will secure a thorough and efficient system of common schools throughout the state; but no religious or other sect, or sects, shall ever have any exclusive right to, or control of any part of the school funds of this state.

ARTICLE VII.

PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS.

- SEC. I. Institutions for the benefit of the insane, blind, and deaf and dumb, shall always be fostered and supported by the state; and be subject to such regulations as may be prescribed by the General Assembly.
- SEC. 2. The directors of the penitentiary shall be appointed or elected in such manner as the General Assembly may direct; and the trustees of the benevolent, and other state institutions, now elected by the General Assembly, and of such other state institutions, as may be hereafter created, shall be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate; and upon all nominations made by the governor, the question shall be taken by yeas and nays, and entered upon the journals of the senate.
- SEC. 3. The governor shall have power to fill all vacancies that may occur in the offices aforesaid, until the next session of the General Assembly, and, until a successor to his appointee shall be confirmed and qualified.

ARTICLE VIII.

PUBLIC DEBT AND PUBLIC WORKS.

SEC. I. The state may contract debts to supply casual deficits or failures in revenues, or to meet expenses not otherwise provided for; but the aggregate amount of such debts, direct and contingent, whether contracted by virtue of one or more acts of the General Assembly, or at different periods of time, shall never exceed seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars; and the money, arising from the creation of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was obtained, or to repay the debts so contracted, and to no other purpose whatever.

SEC. 2. In addition to the above limited power, the state may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend the state in war, or to redeem the present outstanding indebtedness of the state; but the money, arising from the contracting of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised, or to repay such debts, and to no other purpose whatever; and all debts, incurred to redeem the present outstanding indebtedness of the state, shall be so conracted as to be payable by the sinking fund, hereinafter provided for, as the same shall accumulate.

SEC. 3. Except the debts above specified in sections one and two of this article, no debt whatever shall hereafter be created by or on behalf of the state.

SEC. 4. The credit of the state shall not, in any manner be given or loaned to, or in aid of, any individual association or corporation whatever; nor shall the state ever hereafter become a joint owner, or stockholder, in any company or association in this state, or elsewhere, formed for any purpose whatever.

SEC. 5. The state shall never assume the debts of any county, city, town or township, or of any corporation whatever, unless such debt shall have been created to repeal invasion, suppress insurrection, or defend the state in war.

Sec. 6. The General Assembly shall never authorize any county, city, town, or township, by vote of its citizens, or otherwise, to become a stockholder in any joint stock company, corporation, or association whatever; or to raise money for, or loan its credit to, or in aid of, any such company, corporation, or association.

SEC. 7. The faith of the state being pledged for the payment of its public debt, in order to provide therefor, there shall be created a sinking fund, which shall be sufficient to pay the accruing interest on such debt, and, annually, to reduce the principal thereof, by a sum not less than one hundred thousand dollars, increased yearly, and each and every year, by compounding, at the rate of six per cent. per annum. The said sinking fund shall consist, of the net annual income of the public works and stocks owned by the state, of any other funds or resources that are, or may be, provided by law, and of such further sum, to be raised by taxation, as may be required for the purposes aforesaid.

- SEC. 8. The auditor of state, secretary of state, and attorney-general, are hereby created a board of commissioners, to be styled, "The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund."
- SEC. 9. The commissioners of the sinking fund shall, immediately preceding each regular session of the General Assembly, make an estimate of the probable amount of the fund, provided for in the seventh section of this article, from all sources except from taxation, and report the same, together with all their proceedings relative to said fund and the public debt, to the governor, who shall transmit the same with his regular message, to the General Assembly; and the General Assembly shall make all necessary provision for raising and disbursing said sinking fund, in pursuance of the provisions of this article.
- SEC. 10. It shall be the duty of the said commissioners faithfully to apply said fund, together with all moneys that may be, by the General Assembly, appropriated to that object, to the payment of the interest, as it becomes due, and the redemption of the principal of the public debt of the state, excepting only, the school and trust funds held by the state.
- SEC. II. The said commissioners shall, semi-annually, make a full and detailed report of their proceedings to the governor, who shall immediately, cause the same to be published, and shall also communicate the same to the General Assembly, forthwith, if it be in session, and if not, then at its first session after such report shall be made.
- SEC. 12. So long as this state shall have public works which require superintendence, there shall be a board of public works, to consist of three members, who shall be elected by the people, at the first general election after the adoption of this constitution, one for the term of one year, one for the term of two years, and one for the term of three years; and one member of said board shall be elected annually thereafter, who shall hold his office for three years.
- SEC. 13. The powers and duties of said board of public works, and its several members, and their compensation, shall be such as now are, or may be, prescribed by law.

ARTICLE IX.

MILITIA.

SEC. I. All white male citizens, residents of this state, being eighteen years of age, and under the age of forty-five years, shall be enrolled in the militia, and perform military duty, in such manner, not incompatible with the constitution and laws of the United States, as may be prescribed by law.

- SEC. 2. Majors general, brigadiers general, colonels, lieutenant colonels, majors, captains, and subalterns, shall be elected by the persons subject to military duty, in their respective districts.
- SEC. 3. The governor shall appoint the adjutant-general, quarter-master-general, and such other staff officers, as may be provided for by law. Majors general, brigadiers general, colonels, or commandants of regiments, battalions, or squadrons, shall, severally, appoint their staff, and captains shall appoint their non-commissioned officers and musicians.
- SEC. 4. The governor shall commission all officers of the line and staff, ranking as such; and shall have power to call forth the militia, to execute the laws of the state, to suppress insurrection, and repel invasion.
- SEC. 5. The General Assembly shall provide, by law, for the protection and safe-keeping of the public arms.

ARTICLE X.

COUNTY AND TOWNSHIP ORGANIZATIONS.

- SEC. I. The General Assembly shall provide, by law, for the election of such county and township officers as may be necessary.
- SEC. 2. County officers shall be elected on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, by the electors of each county in such manner, and for such term, not exceeding three years, as may be provided by law. [As amended October 13, 1885; 82 v. 446.]
- SEC. 3. No person shall be eligible to the office of sheriff, or county treasurer, for more than four years, in any period of six years.
- SEC. 4. Township officers shall be elected by the electors of each township, at such time, in such manner, and for such term, not exceeding three years, as may be provided by law; but shall hold their offices until their successors are elected and qualified. [As amended October 13, 1885; 82 v. 449.]
- SEC. 5. No money shall be drawn from any county or township treasury, except by authority of law.
- SEC. 6. Justices of the peace, and county and township officers, may be removed, in such manner and for such cause, as shall be prescribed by law.
- Sec. 7. The commissioners of counties, the trustees of townships, and similar boards, shall have such power of local taxation, for police purposes, as may be prescribed by law.

ARTICLE XI.

APPORTIONMENT.

- SEC. I. The apportionment of this state for members of the General Assembly shall be made every ten years, after the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, in the following manner: The whole population of the state, as ascertained by the federal census, or in such other mode as the General Assembly may direct, shall be divided by the number "one hundred," and the quotient shall be the ratio of representation in the house of representatives, for ten years next succeeding such apportionment.
- SEC. 2. Every county having a population equal to one-half of said ratio, shall be entitled to one representative; every county, containing said ratio, and three-fourths over, shall be entitled to two representatives; every county containing three times said ratio, shall be entitled to three representatives; and so on, requiring after the first two, an entire ratio for each additional representative. Provided, however, that each county shall have one representative. [As amended November, 1903.]
- SEC. 3. When any county shall have a fraction above the ratio, so large, that being multiplied by five, the result will be equal to one or more ratios, additional representatives shall be apportioned for such ratios, among the several sessions of the decennial period, in the following manner: If there be only one ratio, a representative shall be allotted to the fifth session of the decennial period; if there are two ratios, a representative shall be allotted to the fourth and third sessions, respectively; if three, to the third, second, and first sessions, respectively; if four, to the fourth, third, second, and first sessions, respectively.
- SEC. 4. Any county, forming with another county or counties, a representative district, during one decennial period, if it have acquired sufficient population at the next decennial period, shall be entitled to a separate representation, if there shall be left, in the district from which it shall have been separated, a population sufficient for a representative; but no such change shall be made, except at the regular decennial period for the apportionment of representatives.
- SEC. 5. If, in fixing any subsequent ratio, a county, previously entitled to separate representation, shall have less than the number required by the new ratio for a representative, such county shall be attached to the county adjoining it, having the least number of inhabitants; and the representation of the district, so formed, shall be determined as herein provided.

SEC. 6. The ratio for a senator shall forever, hereafter, be ascertained by dividing the whole population of the state by the number thirty-five.

SEC. 7. The state is hereby divided into thirty-three senatorial districts, as follows: The county of Hamilton shall constitute the first senatorial district; the counties of Butler and Warren, the second; Montgomery and Preble, the third; Clermont and Brown, the fourth; Greene, Clinton, and Fayette, the fifth; Ross and Highland, the sixth; Adams, Pike, Scioto, and Jackson, the seventh; Lawrence, Gallia, Meigs, and Vinton, the eighth; Athens, Hocking, and Fairfield, the ninth; Franklin and Pickaway, the tenth; Clark, Champaign, and Madison, the eleventh; Miami, Darke, and Shelby, the twelfth; Logan, Union, Marion, and Hardin, the thirteenth; Washington and Morgan, the fourteenth; Muskingum and Perry, the fifteenth; Delaware and Licking, the sixteenth; Knox and Morrow, the seventeenth; Coshocton and Tuscarawas, the eighteenth; Guernsey and Monroe, the nineteenth; Belmont and Harrison, the twentieth; Carroll and Stark, the twenty-first; Jefferson and Columbiana, the twenty-second; Trumbull and Mahoning, the twenty-third; Ashtabula, Lake and Geauga, the twenty-fourth; Cuyahoga, the twenty-fifth; Portage and Summit, the twenty-sixth; Medina and Lorain, the twenty-seventh; Wayne and Holmes, the twentyeighth; Ashland and Richland, the twenty-ninth; Huron, Erie, Sandusky, and Ottawa, the thirtieth; Seneca, Crawford, and Wyandot, the thirty-first; Mercer, Auglaize, Allen, Van Wert, Paulding, Defiance, and Williams, the thirty-second; and Hancock, Wood, Lucas, Fulton, Henry, and Putnam, the thirty-third. For the first decennial period, after the adoption of this constitution, each of said districts shall be entitled to one senator, except the first district, which shall be entitled to three senators.

SEC. 8. The same rules shall be applied, in apportioning the fractions of senatorial districts, and in annexing districts, which may hereafter have less than three-fourths of a senatorial ratio, as are applied to representative districts.

SEC. 9. Any county forming part of a senatorial district, having acquired a population equal to a full senatorial ratio, shall be made a separate senatorial district, at any regular decennial apportionment, if a full senatorial ratio shall be left in the district from which it shall be taken.

SEC. 10. For the first ten years, after the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, the apportionment of representatives shall be as provided in the schedule, and no change shall ever be made in the principles of representation, as herein established, or, in the senatorial districts, except as above provided. All territory, belonging to a county at the time of any apportionment, shall, as to the right of representation and suffrage, remain an integral part thereof, during the decennial period.

SEC. II. The governor, auditor, and secretary of state, or any two of them, shall, at least six months prior to the October election, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and, at each decennial period thereafter, ascertain and determine the ratio of representation, according to the decennial census, the number of representatives and senators each county or district shall be entitled to elect, and for what years, within the next ensuing ten years, and the governor shall cause the same to be published, in such manner as shall be directed by law.

JUDICIAL APPORTIONMENT.

Sec. 12. For judicial purposes, the state shall be apportioned as follows:

The county of Hamilton shall constitute the first district, which shall not be subdivided; and the judges therein, may hold separate courts or separate sittings of the same court, at the same time.

The counties of Butler, Preble, and Darke, shall constitute the first subdivision; Montgomery, Miami, and Champaign, the second; and Warren, Clinton, Greene, and Clark, the third subdivision, of the second district; and, together, shall form such district.

The counties of Shelby, Auglaize, Allen, Hardin, Logan, Union, and Marion, shall constitute the first subdivision; Mercer, Van Wert, Putnam, Paulding, Defiance, Williams, Henry, and Fulton, the second; and Wood, Seneca, Hancock, Wyandot, and Crawford, the third subdivision of the third district; and, together, shall form such district.

The counties of Lucas, Ottawa, Sandusky, Erie, and Huron, shall constitute the first subdivision; Lorain, Medina, and Summit, the second; and the county of Cuyahoga, the third subdivision, of the fourth district; and, together, shall form such district.

The counties of Clermont, Brown, and Adams, shall constitute the first subdivision; Highland, Ross, and Fayette, the second; and Pickaway, Franklin, and Madison, the third subdivision, of the fifth district; and, together, shall form such district.

The counties of Licking, Knox, and Delaware, shall constitute the first subdivision; Morrow, Richland, and Ashland, the second; and Wayne, Holmes, and Coshocton, the third subdivision, of the sixth district; and, together, shall form such district.

The counties of Fairfield, Perry, and Hocking, shall constitute the first subdivision; Jackson, Vinton, Pike, Scioto, and Lawrence, the second; and Gallia, Meigs, Athens, and Washington, the third subdivision, of the seventh district; and, together, shall form such district.

The counties of Muskingum, and Morgan, shall constitute the first subdivision; Guernsey, Belmont, and Monroe, the second; and Jefferson, Harrison, and Tuscarawas, the third subdivision, of the eighth district; and, together, shall form such district.

The counties of Stark, Carroll, and Columbiana, shall constitute the first subdivision; Trumbull, Portage, and Mahoning, the second; and Geauga, Lake, and Ashtabula, the third subdivision, of the ninth district; and, together, shall form such district.

SEC. 13. The General Assembly shall attach any new counties, that may hereafter be erected, to such districts, or subdivisions thereof, as shall be most convenient.

ARTICLE XII.

FINANCE AND TAXATION.

- Sec. 1. The levying of taxes, by the poll, is grievous and oppressive; therefore, the General Assembly shall never levy a poll tax, for county or state purposes.
- SEC. 2. Laws shall be passed, taxing by a uniform rule, all moneys, credits, investments in bonds, stocks, joint stock companies, or otherwise; and also all real and personal property according to its true value in money, excepting/bonds of the state of Ohio, bonds of any city, village, hamlet, county or township in this state, and bonds issued in behalf of the public schools of Ohio and the means of instruction in connection therewith, which bonds shall be exempt from taxation; but burying grounds, public school houses, houses used exclusively for public worship, institutions of purely public charity, public property used exclusively for and public purpose, and personal property, to an amount not exceeding in value two hundred dollars for each individual, may, by general laws, be exempted from taxation; but all such laws shall be subject to alteration or repeal; and the value of all property so exempted, shall, from time to time, be ascertained and published as may be directed by law. [As amended November, 1905.]
- SEC. 3. The General Assembly shall provide, by law, for taxing the notes and bills discounted or purchased, moneys loaned, and all other property, effects, or dues, of every description (without deduction), of all banks now existing, or hereafter created and of all bankers, so that all property employed in banking, shall always bear a burden of taxation, equal to that imposed on the property of individuals.
- SEC. 4. The General Assembly shall provide for raising revenue, sufficient to defray the expenses of the state, for each year, and also a sufficient sum to pay the interest on the state debt.
  - SEC. 5. No tax shall be levied, except in pursuance of law; and every law imposing a tax, shall state, distinctly, the object of the same, to which only, it shall be applied.

Sec. 6. The state shall never contract any debt for purposes of internal improvement.

. CORPORATIONS.

- SEC. 1. The General Assembly shall pass no special act conferring corporate powers.
- Sec. 2. Corporations may be formed under general laws; but all such laws may, from time to time, be altered or repealed.
- SEC. 3. Dues from private corporations shall be secured by such means as may be prescribed by law, but in no case shall any stockholder be individually liable otherwise than for the unpaid stock owned by him or her. [As amended November, 1903.]
- SEC. 4. The property of corporations, now existing or hereafter created, shall forever be subject to taxation, the same as the property of individuals.
- SEC. 5. No right of way shall be appropriated to the use of any corporation, until full compensation therefor be first made in money, or first secured by a deposit of money, to the owner, irrespective of any benefit from any improvement proposed by such corporation; which compensation shall be ascertained by a jury of twelve men, in a court of record, as shall be prescribed by law.
- SEC. 6. The General Assembly shall provide for the organization of cities, and incorporated villages, by general laws, and restrict their power of taxation, assessment, borrowing money, contracting debts and loaning their credit, so as to prevent the abuse of such power.
- SEC. 7. No act of the General Assembly, authorizing associations with banking powers, shall take effect until it shall be submitted to the people, at the general election next succeeding the passage therof, and be approved by a majority of all the electors, voting at such election.

ARTICLE XIV.

JURISPRUDENCE.

- SEC. I. The General Assembly, at its first session after the adoption of this constitution, shall provide for the appointment of three commissioners, and prescribe their tenure of office, compensation, and the mode of filling vacancies in said commission.
- SEC. 2. The said commissioners shall revise, reform, simplify, and abridge the practice, pleadings, forms, and proceedings of the courts of record of this state; and, as far as practicable and expedient, shall provide for the abolition of the distinct forms of action at law, now in use, and for the administration of justice by a uniform mode of proceeding, without reference to any distinction between law and equity.

SEC. 3. The proceedings of the commissioners shall, from time to time, be reported to the General Assembly, and be subject to the action of that body.

ARTICLE XV.

MISCELLANEOUS.

- SEC. I. Columbus shall be the seat of government, until otherwise directed by law.
- SEC. 2. The printing of the laws, journals, bills, legislative documents and papers for each branch of the General Assembly, with the printing required for the executive and other departments of state, shall be let, on contract, to the lowest responsible bidder, by such executive officers, and in such manner, as shall be prescribed by law.
- Sec. 3. An accurate and detailed statement of the receipts and expenditures of the public money, the several amounts paid, to whom, and on what account, shall, from time to time, be published, as shall be prescribed by law.
- SEC. 4. No person shall be elected or appointed to any office in this state, unless he possess the qualifications of an elector.
- Sec. 5. No person who shall hereafter fight a duel, assist in the same as second, or send, accept, or knowingly carry, a challenge therefor, shall hold any office in this state.
- Sec. 6. Lotteries, and the sale of lottery tickets, for any purpose whatever, shall forever be prohibited in this state.
- SEC. 7. Every person chosen or appointed to any office under this state, before entering upon the discharge of its duties, shall take an oath or affirmation, to support the Constitution of the United States, and of this state, and also an oath of office.
- SEC. 8. There may be established, in the secretary of state's office, a bureau of statistics, under such regulations as may be prescribed by law.
- SEC. 9. No license to traffic in intoxicating liquors shall hereafter be granted in this state; but the General Assembly may, by law, provide against evils resulting therefrom.

ARTICLE XVI.

AMENDMENTS.

SEC. 1. Either branch of the General Assembly may propose amendments to this constitution; and, if the same shall be agreed to by three-fifths of the members elected to each house, such proposed amendments shall be entered on the journals, with the yeas and nays, and shall be published in at least one newspaper in each county of the state, where a newspaper is published, for six months preceding the next election for senators and representatives, at which time the same shall be submitted to the electors, for their approval or rejection; and if a majority of the electors, voting at such election, shall adopt such amendments, the same shall become a part of the constitution. When more than one amendment shall be submitted at the same time, they shall be so submitted as to enable the electors to vote on each amendment, separately.

SEC. 2. Whenever two-thirds of the members elected to each branch of the General Assembly, shall think it necessary to call a convention, to revise, amend, or change this constitution, they shall recommend to the electors to vote, at the next election for members to the General Assembly, for or against a convention; and if a majority of all the electors, voting at said election, shall have voted for a convention, the General Assembly shall, at their next session, provide, by law, for calling the same. The convention shall consist of as many members as the House of Representatives, who shall be chosen in the same manner, and shall meet within three months after their election, for the purpose aforesaid.

SEC. 3. At the general election, to be held in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and in each twentieth year thereafter, the question: "Shall there be a convention to revise, alter, or amend the constitution," shall be submitted to the electors of the state; and, in case a majority of all the electors, voting at such election, shall decide in favor of a convention, the General Assembly, at its next session shall provide, by law, for the election of delegates, and the assembling of such convention, as is provided in the preceding section; but no amendment of this constitution, agreed upon by any convention assembled in pursuance of this article, shall take effect, until the same shall have been submitted to the electors of the state, and adopted by a majority of those voting thereon.

ARTICLE XVII.

SEC. I. Elections for state and county officers shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November in the even numbered years; and all elections for all other elective officers shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November in the odd numbered years.

SEC. 2. The term of office of the governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, secretary of state and treasurer of state shall be two years, and that of the auditor of state shall be four years. The term of office of the judges of the supreme court and circuit courts shall be such even number of years not less than six (6) years as may be prescribed by the general assembly; that of the judges of the common pleas court six (6) years and of the judges of the probate court, four (4) years, and that of other judges shall be such even number of years not exceeding six (6) years as may be prescribed by the general assembly. The term of office of justices of the peace shall be such even number of years not exceeding four (4) years as may be prescribed by the general assembly. The term of office of the members of the board of public works shall be such even number of years not exceeding six (6) years as may be so prescribed; and the term of office of all elective county, township, municipal and school officers shall be such even number of years not exceeding four (4) years as may be so prescribed.

And the General Assembly shall have power to so extend existing terms of office as to effect the purpose of section 1 of this article.

Any vacancy which may occur in any elective state office other than that of a member of the General Assembly or of governor, shall be filled by appointment by the governor until the disability is removed or a successor elected and qualified. Every such vacancy shall be filled by election at the first general election for the office which is vacant, that occurs more than thirty (30) days after the vacancy shall have occurred. The person elected shall fill the office for the unexpired term. All vacancies in other elective offices shall be filled for the unexpired term in such manner as may be prescribed by law.

SEC. 3. Every elective officer holding office when this amendment is adopted shall continue to hold such office for the full term for which he was elected and until his successor shall be elected and qualified as provided by law. [As adopted November, 1905.]

SCHEDULE.

- SEC. I. All laws of this state, in force on the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, not inconsistent with this constitution, shall continue in force, until amended, or repealed.
- SEC. 2. The first election for members of the General Assembly, under this constitution, shall be held on the second Tuesday of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one.
- SEC. 3. The first election for governor, lieutenant-governor, auditor, treasurer, and secretary of state and attorney-general, shall be held on the second Tuesday of October, one thousand eight hundred and fiftyone. The persons, holding said offices on the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, shall continue therein, until the second Monday of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

SEC. 4. The first election for judges of the supreme court, courts of common pleas, and probate courts, and clerks of the court of common pleas, shall be held on the second Tuesday of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and the official term of said judges and clerks, so elected, shall commence on the second Monday of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two. Judges and clerks of the courts of common pleas and supreme court, in office on the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, shall continue in office with their present powers and duties, until the second Monday of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two. No suit or proceeding pending in any of the courts of this state, shall be affected by the adoption of this constitution.

SEC. 5. The register and receiver of the land office, directors of the penitentiary, directors of the benevolent institutions of the state, the state librarian, and all other officers, not otherwise provided for in this constitution, in office on the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, shall continue in office, until their terms expire, respectively, unless the General Assembly shall otherwise provide.

- SEC. 6. The superior and commercial courts of Cincinnati, and the superior court of Cleveland, shall remain, until otherwise provided by law, with their present powers and jurisdiction; and the judges and clerks of said courts, in office on the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, shall continue in office, until the expiration of their terms of office, respectively, or, until otherwise provided by law; but neither of said courts shall continue after the second Monday of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three; and no suits shall be commenced in said two first mentioned courts, after the second Monday in February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two; nor in said last mentioned court, after the second Monday in August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two; and all business in either of said courts, not disposed of within the time limited for their continuance as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the court of common pleas.
- Sec. 7. All county and township officers and justices of the peace, in office on the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, shall continue in office until their terms expire, respectively.
- SEC. 8. Vacancies in office, occurring after the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, shall be filled, as is now prescribed by law, and until officers are elected or appointed, and qualified, under this constitution.
- SEC. 9. This constitution shall take effect on the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one.

SEC. 10. All officers shall continue in office, until their successors shall be chosen and qualified.

SEC. II. Suits pending in the supreme court in bank, shall be transferred to the supreme court provided for in this constitution, and be proceeded in according to law.

SEC. 12. The district courts shall, in their respective counties, be the successors of the present supreme court; and all suits, prosecutions, judgments, records, and proceedings, pending and remaining in said supreme court, in the several counties of any district, shall be transferred to the respective district courts of such counties, and be proceeded in, as though no change had been made in said supreme court.

SEC. 13. The said courts of common pleas, shall be the successors of the present courts of common pleas in the several counties, except as to probate jurisdiction; and all suits, prosecutions, proceedings, records and judgments, pending or being in said last mentioned courts, except as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the courts of common pleas created by this constitution, and proceeded in, as though the same had been therein instituted.

SEC. 14. The probate courts provided for in this constitution, as to all matters within the jurisdiction conferred upon said courts, shall be the successors, in the several counties, of the present courts of common pleas; and the records, files and papers, business and proceedings, appertaining to said jurisdiction, shall be transferred to said courts of probate, and be there proceeded in, according to law.

SEC. 15. Until otherwise provided by law, elections for judges and clerks shall be held, and the poll-books returned, as is provided for governor, and the abstract therefrom, certified to the secretary of state, shall be by him opened, in the presence of the governor, who shall declare the result, and issue commissions to the persons elected.

SEC. 16. Where two or more counties are joined in a senatorial, representative, or judicial district, the returns of election shall be sent to the county, having the largest population.

SEC. 17. The foregoing constitution shall be submitted to the electors of the state, at an election to be held on the third Tuesday of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, in the several election districts of this state. The ballots at such election shall be written or printed as follows: Those in favor of the constitution, "New constitution, Yes;" those against the constitution, "New constitution, No." The polls at said election shall be opened between the hours of eight and ten o'clock A. M., and closed at six o'clock P. M.; and the said election shall be conducted, and the returns thereof made and certified, to the secretary of state, as provided by law for annual elections of state and county officers. Within twenty days after such election, the secretary of state shall open the returns thereof, in the presence of the governor; and, if it shall appear that a majority of all the votes, cast at such election, are in favor of the constitution, the governor shall issue his proclamation, stating that fact, and said constitution shall be the constitution of the state of Ohio, and not otherwise.

SEC. 18. At the time when the votes of the electors shall be taken for the adoption or rejection of this constitution, the additional section, in the words following, to-wit: "No license to traffic in intoxicating liquors shall hereafter be granted in this state; but the General Assembly may, by law, provide against evils resulting therefrom," shall be separately submitted to the electors for adoption or rejection, in form following, to-wit: A separate ballot may be given by every elector and deposited in a separate box. Upon the ballots given for said separate amendment shall be written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, the words: "License to sell intoxicating liquors, Yes;" and upon the ballots given against said amendment, in like manner, the words: "License to sell intoxicating liquors, No." If, at the said election, a majority of all the votes given for and against said amendment, shall contain the words: "License to sell intoxicating liquors, No," then the said amendment shall be a separate section of article fifteen of the constitution.

SEC. 19. The apportionment for the house of representatives, during the first decennial period under this constitution, shall be as follows:

The counties of Adams, Allen, Athens, Auglaize, Carroll, Champaign, Clark, Clinton, Crawford, Darke, Delaware, Erie, Fayette, Gallia, Geauga, Greene, Hancock, Harrison, Hocking, Holmes, Lake, Lawrence, Logan, Madison, Marion, Meigs, Morrow, Perry Pickaway, Pike, Preble, Sandusky, Scioto, Shelby, and Union, shall, severally, be entitled to one representative, in each session of the decennial period.

The counties of Franklin, Licking, Montgomery, and Stark, shall each be entitled to two representatives, in each session of the decennial period.

The counties of Ashland, Coshocton, Highland, Huron, Lorain, Mahoning, Medina, Miami, Portage, Seneca, Summit, and Warren, shall, severally, be entitled to one representative, in each session and one additional representative in the fifth session of the decennial period.

The counties of Ashtabula, Brown, Butler, Clermont, Fairfield, Guernsey, Jefferson, Knox, Monroe, Morgan, Richland, Trumbull, Tuscarawas, and Washington shall, severally, be entitled to one representative, in each session; and two additional representatives, one in the third, and one in the fourth session of the decennial period.

The counties of Belmont, Columbiana, Ross and Wayne, shall, severally, be entitled to one representative, in each session; and three additional representatives, one in the first, one in the second, and one in the third session of the decennial period.

The county of Muskingum shall be entitled to two representatives, in each session; and one additional representative, in the fifth session, of the decennial period.

The county of Cuyaloga shall be entitled to two representatives, in each session; and two additional representatives, one in the third, and one in the fourth session of the decennial period.

The county of Hamilton shall be entitled to seven representatives, in each session; and four additional representatives, one in the first, one in the second, one in the third, and one in the fourth session, of the decennial period.

The following counties, until they shall have acquired a sufficient population to entitle them to elect, separately, under the fourth section of the eleventh article, shall form districts in manner following, to-wit: The counties of Jackson and Vinton, one district; the counties of Lucas and Fulton, one district; the counties of Wyandot and Hardin, one district; the counties of Mercer and Van Wert, one district; the counties of Paulding, Defiance, and Williams, one district; the counties of Putnam and Henry, one district; and the counties of Wood and Ottawa, one district; each of which districts shall be entitled to one representative, in every session of the decennial period.

Done in convention, at Cincinnati, the tenth day of March, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and of the independence of the United States, the seventy-fifth.

WILLIAM MEDILL, President.

Attest: Wm. H. Gill, Secretary.

INTRODUCTORY.

REFERENCE to the Ordinance of 1787, which is reproduced in Part One of this volume, will discover to the reader that the legislative function of the territorial government in its first stage of development, and until there should be five thousand free male inhabitants of full age in the district, was lodged in the Governor of the Territory and the judges of the General (or Territorial) Court, or, any two of the Judges and the Governor.

The power of this legislative body is specifically declared in these words of the third paragraph of the Ordinance:

"The governor and judges, or a majority of them, shall adopt and publish in the district, such laws of the original states, criminal and civil, as may be necessary and best suited to the circumstances of the district, and report them to Congress from time to time, which laws shall be in force in the district until the organization of the general assembly therein, unless disapproved of by Congress; but afterward the legislature shall have authority to alter them as they shall think fit."

THE FIRST LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF THE NORTHWEST TERRITORY.

THE Ordinance was adopted by the Congress, July 13, 1787, and the first officers for the territory northwest of the River Ohio were elected by the same body in October. They were: Governor, Major General Arthur St. Clair, elected October 5 (Pennsylvania); Secretary, Major Winthrop Sargent, elected October 5; Judges, General Samuel Holden Parsons, elected October 17 (Connecticut); General James Mitchell Varnum, elected October 17 (Rhode Island); Colonel John Armstrong, elected October 17 (Pennsylvania); Lieutenant Colonel Return Jonathan Meigs, Jr., elected February 19, 1788.

Colonel Armstrong declined the post tendered to him by the Congress and did not come to Ohio. Judge Meigs was elected to fill the vacancy.

Although these officers were appointed in the fall and winter of 1787-8, there was no settlement of the new country until the arrival of the Mayflower with a party of forty-six New England emigrants, at the mouth of the Muskingum river, on the seventh day of April, 1788. In the absence of the constituted authority, Colonel Return Jonathan Meigs, father of the judge of that name, drew up a code of rules on a sheet of ordinary foolscap, which he published by tacking them to the trunk of a large oak tree on the site of the infant settlement. This was the first legislation in the territory, and it is said that the code was rigidly adhered to by the pioneers of that country. The late General Manning F. Force, in an historical sketch in "Bench and Bar of Ohio" (1897), is authority for the statement that "history has recorded no infraction of these regulations which were read and approved by all."

Governor St. Clair, who had been occupied since his appointment in continuous efforts to conciliate the Indians of the territory, and in preparing for the needs of the infant settlement, arrived at Marietta with his official family on Wednesday, July 9, and on Tuesday, July 15, in public ceremonies held in the three-months-old town of Marietta, entered upon the discharge of his official duties. The Ordinance of 1787 was read to the settlers by Secretary Winthrop Sargent, after which the commissions of the Governor, Secretary and Judges were publicly read, and the Governor addressed the people briefly.

The territorial government thus set up consisted of the following officers who were present and participated in the ceremony: Governor, Arthur St. Clair; Secretary, Winthrop Sargent; Judges, Parsons and Varnum.

The First Legislative Council of the Northwest Territory (1788).

This group of officers comprised the First Legislative Council of the Northwest Territory, and during the summer and fall of the year published at Marietta laws on the following subjects:

(1788), July 25-Regulating and establishing the Militia.

(1788), August 23—Establishing General Courts of Quarter Sessions, Common Pleas, and for the appointment of Sheriffs.

(1788), August 30—Establishing a Court of Probate.

(1788), August 30-Fixing the terms of the General Court.

(1788), September 2—Prescribing the forms of oaths of office.

(1788), September 6-Respecting crimes and punishments.

(1788), November 23—Regulating marriages (age for male 17, female 14, with consent of fathers of parties).

(1788), November 23—Fixing monthly fines for failure of recruit in militia to provide himself with the proper equipment.

(1788), December 21—Creating the office of Coroner.

(1788), December 28—Limiting the times of civil actions and for instituting criminal prosecutions.

Each of the above laws was undersigned by Messrs. St. Clair, Parsons, and Varnum, on the dates given, the signature of Judge John Cleves Symmes appearing on the law of August 30—establishing a Court of Probate—but on no other. His arrival in the colony is thus fixed at a much earlier day than that given in most authorities.—(Territorial Laws.)

Governor St. Clair withheld his approval to a proposed law relating to estates held in common; he also, on July 30, called the attention of the judges to the provision of the ordinance which empowered them to "adopt" the laws of the older states, and expressed it as his opinion that they were overstepping their authority in forming new laws in any case; "And when we do," he adds, "the necessity of the case only can be our justification." This opinion of the Governor was fully borne out, when, at a later period, the council found it wise to repeal by wholesale laws of their own making which had no foundation in the code of the older states, and adopt others which conformed to this requirement in their stead.—(St. Clair Papers.)

Judge Varnum died in 1789.

THE SECOND LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

HE ratification of the Constitution of the United States by a sufficient number of states having occurred during the latter part of the year 1784, and President Washington having assumed the reins of government thereunder, it was construed to be the duty of the Executive to appoint such officers whose commissions, having been issued by the Congress under the old form of government, were held to have expired with that government. In pursuance of this conception of his duty, the President, in a letter dated New York, August 18, 1789, nominated for the officers of the Northwest Territory: Arthur St. Clair, for Governor, and Messrs. Samuel Holden Parsons, John Cleves Symmes, and William Barton (vice Varnum, deceased), Judges. The nominations were confirmed by the Senate of the United States, but Mr. Barton declining the appointment, the President nominated Mr. George Turner, who was confirmed on the eighth day of September.

There is no public record of the acts of the council during the year 1789. In November of this year, Judge Parsons, who was the Chief Justice of the court, was drowned in a ford in the Muskingum valley, while returning to the seat of government from a treaty council with the Indians of the Western Reserve.

THE THIRD LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

(1790.)

THE year 1790 was marked by the sitting of the Council in the farther west, at the town of Vincennes (more generally known at that day by the name of "au Post"). Winthrop Sargent, Secretary and acting Governor, sat with Messrs. Symmes and Turner, Governor St. Clair being absent in the eastern states, and no successor sitting in the room of Judge Parsons, who had been succeeded by General Rufus Putnam, Jr., of Marietta. This council, in its meeting at Vincennes, published the following laws, which were afterwards disapproved and ordered to be repealed by the Congress, as having no foundation in the older laws to which the territorial council was confined by the Ordinance of 1787.

July 19—An act prohibiting the giving or selling of intoxicating liquors to Indians.

July 26.—An act restricting the sale of intoxicating liquors to soldiers, and to prevent the pawning or selling of arms, ammunition, clothing and accountrements.

August 4—An act suppressing gambling and making void all contracts and payments made in consequence thereof.

Removing to the town of Cincinnati, the council passed, in November—Governor St. Clair having resumed his attendance with the body, and Secretary Winthrop Sargent retiring—the following laws:

November 4—An act to alter the terms of the General Court.

November 5—An act to augment the terms of the County Courts.

November 6—An act to authorize the Courts of Quarter Sessions to divide the counties into townships, and to appoint constables, overseers of the poor, and township clerks.

THE LAWS OF 1791.

HE body to which has been given in this volume the designation of the Third Legislative Council, was permitted to serve until no change in its official membership, except that in the absence of the Governor his seat was occupied by the Secretary as Acting Governor, from the appointment of Judge Putnam in the winter of 1790 to 1796, when Judge Putnam resigned his seat on the bench and in the council to accept the office of Surveyor General of the United States, to which he had been appointed by President Washington.

Messrs. St. Clair, Symmes and Turner affixed their signatures to the following laws in the year 1791, and caused the same to be published at Cincinnati:

June 22—An act supplementary to the act of September 6, 1798, respecting crimes.

June 22—An act for the punishment of persons who deface publications set up by authority.

June 22—An act creating the office of clerk of the legislature.

June 22—An act making the records of the courts of the United States evidence in the courts of this territory.

June 22—An act abolishing the distinction between murder and petit treason.

June 29—An act regulating the enclosures of ground; and on July 2—An act to amend the militia laws of 1788 as to days of muster, and fines for disobedience.

THE LAWS OF 1792.

THE session of the council for the year 1792 seems to have been held in Cincinnati prior to the first day of August, and including that day, Messrs. Winthrop Sargent (acting Governor), Symmes, and Putnam signing and publishing the following bills:

August I—Granting licenses to merchants, traders, and tavern-keepers.

August I—An act creating the office of Treasurer General and of county treasurers.

August I—An act directing the manner of raising money to defray the expenses of the several counties.

August I—An act regulating the opening and care of Highways.

August I—An act directing the building of a court house, jail, pillory, whipping post and stocks in every county.

August I-An act regulating prisons.

August I—An act regulating strays.

August I—An act repealing so much of the law creating the office of clerk of the legislature, as required him to furnish certain public officers with manuscript copies of all acts of the territorial council. (Congress having provided for the printing of the territorial laws in Philadelphia.)

August I—An act supplementary to the law of November 23, 1788, regulating marriages.

August I-An act to regulate the admission of attorneys.

August I—An act to empower the judge of the Probate Court to appoint guardians to minors.

August I—An act prescribing forms of writs and mode of procedure in civil cases.

August I—An act establishing the fee of judges of the Probate Court, of the Common Pleas Court, clerk of the Common Pleas, Probate, Orphans' and Sessions' Courts, of the Court of Quarter Sessions, General or Supreme Court, clerk of the same, attorneys, attorneys for the United States, witnesses, constables, coroners, sheriffs, criers, jailers, grand jurors, etc.

These laws are found in a published volume of the date of 1792, Philadelphia, and certified by Winthrop Sargent, Secretary.

THE LAWS OF 1795.

THE council sitting in 1795, in the town of Cincinnati, devoted the months of June, July and August to a careful revision of the code laws then in use in the territory, and by an act of repeal (See law of July 14 in list below) eliminated those laws to which, as exceeding the authority of the council, the Congress had objected, at the same time putting into operation new laws in their stead, which, by careful citation of the authority of some one of the original states, attested the propriety of such act by council.

The sitting members of the council at this time were Governor St. Clair and Judges Symmes and Turner, who certified, and caused to be published at Cincinnati, on the dates mentioned in each case, the following, which, being printed by William Maxwell, printer of Cincinnati, came to be known as "The Maxwell Code:"

Cincinnati, June 1, 1795—An act subjecting real estate to execution for debt. Effective August 15. Signatures: St. Clair, Symmes and Turner.

Same day and same signers—An act allowing domestic attachments. Effective August 15. An act regulating domestic attachments. Effective August 15.

June 3—A law for the easy and speedy recovery of small debts. Effective October 1.

June 3-A law concerning defalcation. Effective October 1.

June 5—A law for the trial and punishment of larceny under a dollar and a half. Effective August 15.

June 5—An act to prevent unnecessary delays in causes, after issue is joined. Effective August 15.

June 6—Establishing courts of judicature. Effective August 15. June 10—For the limitation of actions. Effective October 1.

June 11—Prescribing form of affirmation for those opposed to the common form of oath. Effective October 1.

June 11—For the recovery of fines and forfeitures. Effective August 25.

June 16—Ascertaining and regulating fees of the officers and persons named. (From New York and Pennsylvania Codes.) Effective October 1.

June 16—A law for establishing orphans' courts (Pennsylvania). Effective October 1.

June 16—A law for the settlement of intestates' estates (Pennsylvania). Effective August 15.

Laws of 1795.

June 17—A law to license and regulate taverns (Pennsylvania). Effective August 15.

June 18—Establishing the recorder's office (Pennsylvania). Effective August 1.

June 19—Raising county rates and levies (Pennsylvania). Effective October 1.

June 19—For the relief of the poor (Pennsylvania). Effective October 1.

June 19—Concerning the probate of wills (Pennsylvania). Effective October 1.

June 25—Regulating enclosures (Pennsylvania). Effective October 1.

June 26—As to the order of paying the debts of persons deceased (Pennsylvania). Effective one year from date.

June 26—Concerning trespassing animals (Pennsylvania). Effective in one year.

June 26—Directing how husband and wife may convey their estates (Pennsylvania). Effective August 15.

July 14—For the speedy assignment of dower (Massachusetts). Effective in one year.

July 14—Giving remedies in equity (Massachusetts). Effective October 1.

July 14—Against forcible entry and detainer (Massachusetts). Effective September 1.

July 14—Annulling the distinction between petit treason and murder (Massachusetts). Effective in one year.

July 14—Declaring what laws shall be in force (Virginia). Effective October 1.

"Common law of England, acts of Parliament prior to the fourth year of King James I," not local in character, etc.

(This led to endless confusion in the territory, from the fact that no one had the English acts, and all were at sea as to the real nature of the laws put in force by this enactment.)

July 14—To prevent trespass in the cutting of timber (Pennsylvania). Effective August 15.

July 14—An act of general repeal of earlier territorial laws. Effective August 14.

This law repeals so much of the militia law as required the assembling on Sunday with arms, at the usual place of worship; the law respecting clerk of probate; fixing terms of the General Court; for the trial of larceny under a dollar and a half; appointing coroners; limiting the times of commencing civil actions; the acts of 1790 at Vincennes; to alter the terms of the General Court; to augment the terms of the county Courts of Common Pleas, relating to the appointment of township clerks; creating the office of clerk of the legislature; abolishing the distinction between the crimes of murder and petit treason; enclosures of grounds; granting licenses to merchants, etc.; creating the office of treasurer general; directing the manner of raising money to defray the charges in the counties; so much of the act regulating and opening highways as relates to bridges; for the disposition of strays; amending the clerk of the legislature act; to regulate the admission of attorneys; empowering the judges of probate to appoint guardians for minors; prescribing the forms of writs and the mode of procedure in civil cases, and the act establishing the fees of the several officers and persons named therein.

Laws of 1795.

July 15—A law respecting divorce (Massachusetts). Effective October 1.

July 17—A law for the partition of lands (New York). Effective October 1.

July 15—A law allowing foreign attachments (New Jersey). Effective October 1.

July 16—Concerning the duties and powers of coroners (Massachusetts). Effective August 15.

July 18—For continuing suits if judge is unable to attend, in the General and Circuit Courts (Virginia). Effective October 1.

July 16—A law to suppress gambling (Virginia). Effective October 1.

July 17—As to proceedings in ejectment, etc. (Pennsylvania). Effective October 1.

August 15—Limiting imprisonment for debt, etc. (Pennsylvania). Effective October 1.

RESOLUTIONS BY THE GOVERNOR AND JUDGES.

August 7—Ordering certain printing.

August 13—Authorizing the Governor to establish ferries, in the Territory, at his discretion.

August 18—Declaring that commissions issued by the Governor to Judges of the Court of Common Pleas, are subject to revocation at his pleasure.

August 20—Directing the Governor to dissolve the District of Prairie du Rocher, and divide the said district between the district of Kahokia and the district of Kaskaskia.

THE FOURTH LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

(1797.)

N December, 1796, Judge Putnam, who had been appointed a brigadier general by President Washington in May, 1792, while a member of the territorial court, was again honored by the President and nominated for surveyor general of the United States. This appointment led to the resignation of Judge Putnam, who was succeeded on the bench by Joseph Gilman, of Point Harmar.

This council has left no record of new legislation in this year.

(1798.)

JUDGE TURNER, who had served the territory with distinguished zeal since his appointment (September 8, 1797) to succeed to the chair made vacant by the death of Chief Justice Parsons, resigned in the winter of 1797-8 and was succeeded by Return Jonathan Meigs, Jr., of Marietta. The council, as thus formed, met in Cincinnati, April 23, 1798, and on the first day of May published the following new laws for the territory:

May I—A law concerning corporations of bodies politic (Pennsylvania).

May I—A law for the punishment of maiming or disfiguring (Kentucky).

May I—Vesting certain powers in justices of the peace, in criminal cases (Massachusetts).

May I—For the equal division and distribution of insolvent estates (Connecticut).

May I—To provide for the improvement of the breed of horses (Kentucky).

May I—Directing the mode of proceeding in civil cases (Massachusetts).

May 1—An addition to the law ascertaining the fees of certain officers.

May —Method of taxing all unsettled and unimproved parcels of land (Kentucky).

May I—Rendering the acknowledgment of deeds more easy (Connecticut).

May 1—Establishing a land office (Kentucky).

May I—Repealing the 28th section of the law regulating fees; and so much of the law raising county rates and levies as relates to the duties of justices as to wild animals killed.

These laws are severally signed by Winthrop Sargent, acting Governor; John Cleves Symmes, Joseph Gilman, Return Jonathan Meigs, Junior, and their correctness attested by Winthrop Sargent, Secretary.

This was the last legislative act of the Territorial Council.

THE FIRST SESSION OF THE FIRST TERRITORIAL LEGISLATURE.

TN the year 1798, Governor St. Clair, having by personal visits to the several settlements become satisfied of the presence of the necessary five thousand white male inhabitants in the territory, issued a proclamation to the people calling for the election of representatives to a general assembly to be convened at Cincinnati on the fourth day of February, 1799. This general assembly, under the ordinance of 1787, must consist of a House of Representatives, together with a Legislative Council of five members to be appointed by the President of the United States, from a list of ten names to be submitted to him by the House of Representatives when so elected. The representatives were chosen in accordance with the proclamation of the Governor, and on assembling at Cincinnati on the day named in the proclamation, February 4, nominated the members of council and adjourned to meet in Cincinnati on the sixteenth of the following September, in order that the President would have an opportunity to act. Of the ten names submitted for his inspection and approval, the President nominated to the United States Senate as members of the Territorial Council (or upper house): Jacob Burnet and James Findlay of Cincinnati; Henry Vanderburgh of Vincennes; Robert Oliver of Marietta, and David Vance of Vanceville.

These nominations were promptly confirmed by the Senate and transmitted to Cincinnati, where they were announced to the people by proclamation of the Governor.

On the sixteenth day of September, 1799, the First Territorial Legislature met in Cincinnati, the two houses being composed of the following gentlemen:

IN THE COUNCIL (APPOINTED).

Jacob Burnett, of Cincinnati.

James Findlay, of Cincinnati.

Henry Vanderburgh, of Vincennes.

Robert Oliver, of Marietta.

David Vance, of Vanceville.

Mr. Vanderburgh was elected President of the Council.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (ELECTED).

Benham, Robert, of Hamilton County (Cincinnati). Bond, Shadrack, of St. Clair County. Chobert de Joncaire, Charles F., of Wayne County (Detroit).

Caldwell, Aaron, of Hamilton County (Cincinnati). Darlington, Joseph, of Adams County. Edgar, John, of Randolph County. Fearing, Paul, of Washington County (Marietta). Findlay, Samuel, of Ross County (Chillicothe). Goforth, William, of Hamilton County (Cincinnati). Ludlow, John, of Hamilton County (Cincinnati). Langham, Elias, of Ross County (Chillicothe). McMillan, William, of Hamilton County (Cincinnati). Martin, Isaac, of Hamilton County (Cincinnati). Massie, Nathaniel, of Ross County (Chillicothe). Meigs, Return Jonathan, Jr., of Washington County (Marietta). Pritchard, James, of Jefferson County. Sibley, Solomon, of Wayne County (Detroit). Small, John, of Knox County (Vincennes). Smith, John, of Hamilton County (Cincinnati). Tiffin, Edward, of Ross County (Chillicothe). Viscar, Jacob, of Wayne County (Detroit). Worthington, Thomas, of Ross County (Chillicothe).

The two houses having met and organized by the election of their officers, on the sixteenth day of September, on the following day Governor St. Clair addressed the legislature in eloquent terms, congratulating the body and the Territory on the new form of legislative government in which the people now had a direct voice in the conduct of affairs. Jacob Burnet, a member of the council, writing after the lapse of a half a century, says in his "Notes on the Northwest Territory" (Cincinnati, 1847):

"He laid before them a full and faithful view of the condition and the wants of the Territory, and recommended to their attention such measures as he believed were proper to advance the prosperity and happiness of the people" (p. 300).

Governor St. Clair had been in active discharge of the duties of the chief executive of the Territory continuously since he had supervised the dispatch of the first settlers to the then unsettled west in 1788; he had joined the first colony at Marietta within three months of its arrival (July, 1788), and had been one of the legislators for the colonies up to the time of the meeting of this first territorial assembly; out of the experience of over eleven pioneer years, the Governor spoke to the legislators of the work before them, as no better equipped man could speak, for there was no man of better equipment for the duty. Of Governor St. Clair's influence at this time Mr. Burnet says (p. 378): "And it may be said with great truth, that at the time he addressed the First Territorial Legislature in 1799, he possessed as great, if not a greater share of the confidence and respect of the people of the Territory than any other individual residing in it."

This being the first session of any representative legislative body in the Territory, the transition from the first to the second grade of government involved a general revision of the laws in force; new laws to meet the changed conditions; new officers and new duties for those already established; and a plan must be conceived by which to meet the increased expenditures of a semi-independent government. Many of the members being inexperienced in legislative matters, the active work of the session fell on a few of the men who had been most closely identified with the previous history of the settlements.

On the third of October the two houses in joint session elected William Henry Harrison as delegate from the Territory in the Congress of the United States, his election being contested by Arthur St. Clair, Jr., who was beaten by one vote. Captain Harrison was secretary of the Territory at the time of his election, Mr. St. Clair, son of the Governor, being its attorney. Mr. Harrison resigned his position as secretary and at once proceeded to his duties in the Congress.

It is hard to present the history of this session of the legislature in the limits allowed in a publication of this nature. The existing laws were a poor apology for a code; the Ordinance of 1787 formed a broad and liberal basis for the government which has since grown up under its provisions, but there was much legislation needed to supplement and make practical its several declarations. The governor and the judges had selected or made laws, from time to time, neglecting many important interests, and imperfectly providing for others which were touched upon; one of the statutes of Virginia had been adopted which put in operation the English common law and certain English statutes of a date prior to the fourth year of the reign of James 1.; statutes from the original states had been called upon to supply, in whole or in part, contributions to the code of statute law in the Territory, and there fell upon the legislature at this first session the duty of "repealing, amending, enacting and supplementing," in such manner as appealed to the best judgment of the pioneers who composed the body, until on their adjournment on the nineteenth day of December, 1799, there had been laid the foundation for much of the subsequent public law in the Territory and in those states which have been carved out of it.

Following is a summary of the acts of this assembly:

ACTS OF THE FIRST SESSION OF THE FIRST TERRITORIAL LEGISLATURE (1799).

1. An act to confirm and give force to certain laws enacted by the Governor and Judges of the Territory. (Their validity having been called in question on divers occasions.) *October 28, 1799.

  - 25. An act levying a territorial tax on land. December 19, 1799.
  - 26. An act to regulate county levies. December 19, 1799.
- 27. An act for the appointment of county treasurers. December 19, 1799.
- 28. An act allowing compensation to the members of the territorial legislature. December 19, 1799.
- 29. An act to regulate the enclosing and cultivation of common fields. December 19, 1799.
- 30. An act regulating the fees of the constables in the several counties within this territory. December 19, 1799. (Repealed February 21, 1805.)
- 31. An act to encourage the killing of wolves. December 19, 1799. (Repealed January 9, 1802.)
  - 32. An act for the punishment of arson. December 19, 1799.
- 33. An act to alter the boundary line between the counties of Jefferson and Washington. December 19, 1799.
- 34. An act allowing the compensation to the attorney-general of the Territory, and to the persons prosecuting pleas in behalf of the Territory in the several counties. December 19, 1799.
- 35. An act to authorize the freeholders of Marietta township to levy a certain tax for religious purposes. December 19, 1799.
- 36. An act supplementary to the act entitled "an act for the relief of the poor." (Paupers, when and how to be farmed out.) December 19, 1799. (Repealed February 22, 1805.)
- 37. An act appropriating monies and making appropriations for the ensuing year. December 19, 1799.
- 38. An act repealing certain laws and parts of laws. December 19, 1799.

The above was taken from the printed laws of the territorial legislature, as printed by Carpenter & Findlay at Cincinnati, 1800. The book is now in possession of the Supreme Court Library in Columbus. The clerk of the House certifies in this book that Solomon Sibley was appointed a committee to superintend the printing of the laws of the session, on December 5. Mr. Sibley certifies, May 7 following, that he has carefully compared the printed laws with the original enrolled bills, and finds them to agree. The act bears the signatures of Edward Tiffin, Speaker of the House of Representatives; H. Vanderburgh, President of the Council, and are approved by Ar. St. Clair, Governor.

THE SECOND SESSION OF THE FIRST TERRITORIAL LEGISLATURE.

(CHILLICOTHE, NOVEMBER 3, 1800.)

T was in connection with the work of this first session of the legislature that the signs of approaching disagreement with the governor made their appearance. Governor St. Clair assumed that he was a branch of the assembly and that he had an absolute right to veto the acts of the two houses. He claimed the right, as governor, to lay out and change the boundaries of counties under the Ordinance of 1787, regardless of the expressions from the legislature, and was no doubt sincere in his efforts to perform that which he looked upon as his sworn duty. The result of his action was, however, to bring about a strained relation which only grew in force as time went on. Judge Burnet says, in the book already quoted: "The effect of the construction he gave of his own power may be seen in the fact that of thirty bills passed by the two houses during the first session, and sent to him for his approval, he refused assent to eleven, some of which were supposed to be of much importance, and all of them calculated, more or less, to advance the public interest. Some of them he rejected because they related to the establishment of new counties; others because he thought they were unnecessary or inexpedient. Thus, more than a third of the fruits of the labor of that entire session was lost by the exercise of the arbitrary discretion of one man." (p. 376.)

In this connection it may be well to add that the governor was not sustained in his position when he submitted to the Senate of the United States his report of new counties laid out after the legislature of the territory had come into existence. It was held that the governor of the Territory had exhausted his authority when he had once laid out the whole territory into counties (which Governor St. Clair had done early in his administration) and that subsequent rearrangements or divisions vested solely in the territorial legislature. This decision was not reached in time to prevent a recurrence of the differences between the governor and the legislature at its second session in 1800, but was gratifying to those members who had been engaged on the legislative side of the question during the first two sessions.

The legislature stood prorogued to meet at Cincinnati on the first Monday in November, 1800. By reference to an act of Congress of the United States May 7 of that year (See Part One), it will be noticed that after the adjournment of the first session of the legislature, the Northwest Territory was divided by a line running due north from the mouth of the Kentucky River, into an eastern part which retained the old name and government, and a western part which was given the name of THE TERRITORY OF INDIANA, and a new government of the first grade established therein, the officers of which were to be appointed by the President. This act of Congress was acquiesced in by the Governor and legislature of the territory with great reluctance, and was regarded by the best men in the Territory to be an unwarranted assumption of legislative power on the part of Congress. President Vanderburgh of the council was thus legislated out of office and became a citizen of the new territory. Representatives Shadrack Bond, of St. Clair County; John Edgar, of Randolph County, and John Small, of Knox County, also lost their seats in the House of Representatives for the same reason, and the constituents of these gentlemen were summarily deprived of a voice and a membership in that local territorial government, for which they had but recently voted. The seat of government for the new territory was fixed by Congress at Vincennes, and the same act named the village of Chillicothe, instead of the already established capital at Cincinnati, as the seat of government for the old territory. It was charged that this act of Congress was urged by two or three ardent and aggressive spirits who hoped to bring about an early state government in Ohio, and were already planning to accomplish the removal of Governor St. Clair and his administration.

Pursuant to the call issued by the Governor under the new order, the members of the legislature met in Chillicothe on the third day of November, 1800. This was almost exactly one hundred years ago, it being an interesting fact that the editor writes these lines on the twenty-sixth of October, 1900. The council met in the house of Joseph Tiffin, the council chamber in the new capitol not being ready for occupancy. As there is no record to the contrary, it is probable that the representatives were better provided for. The composition of the legislature at this second session was as follows:

IN THE COUNCIL.

Jacob Burnet, of Hamilton County (Cincinnati). Robert Oliver, of Washington County (Marietta). David Vance, of Jefferson County (Vanceville). James Findlay, of Hamilton County (Cincinnati).

Mr. Vanderburg, of Vincennes, having for reasons already given, lost his seat in the council, Mr. Oliver was elected president of that body, Mr. William C. Schenck (secretary of the Territory) acting as secretary to the council, and William Rutledge being elected doorkeeper. To fill the vacancy in council the Governor requested the House of Representatives to nominate to the President of the United States two names from which to make a selection, and on the ninth of November the names of Solomon Sibley, of Detroit, and Samuel Findlay (Finley?), of Cincinnati, were chosen. The seat remained vacant until the session of 1801, owing to the time necessarily consumed in forwarding the nominations to the national capitol and in returning the appointment to the Territory.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The following members were present or took their seats at a later day: Benham, Robert, of Hamilton County.

Chobert de Joncaire, Charles F., of Wayne County (Detroit).

Darlington, Joseph, of Adams County.

Fearing, Paul, of Washington County.

Findlay, Samuel, of Ross County.

Goforth, William, of Hamilton County.

Kimberly, Zenas, of Jefferson County.

Langham, Elias, of Ross County (contested seat).

Ludlow, John, of Hamilton County (Vice Caldwell, removed from the Territory).

Lytle, William, of Hamilton County.

McMillan, William, of Hamilton County.

Martin, Isaac, of Hamilton County.

Massie, Nathaniel, of Adams County (Seated November 10).

Meigs, Return J., Jr., of Washington County.

Pritchard, James, of Jefferson County.

Sibley, Solomon, of Wayne County (Detroit).

Smith, John, of Hamilton County.

Tiffin, Edward, of Ross County.

Visgar, Jacob, of Wayne County (Detroit).

Worthington, Thomas, of Ross County.

Edward Tiffin was elected Speaker of the House.

One of the first duties devolving on the legislature was the election of a delegate to Congress to succeed Captain William Henry Harrison, who had resigned to accept the appointment as governor of the territory of Indiana, and also to elect a delegate for the long term beginning on the fifth day of March, 1801. On the sixth day of November the two houses met in joint session in accordance with a previous resolution to that effect, and elected as delegates to Congress: William McMillan, of Hamilton County, for the unexpired term ending March 4, 1801, and Paul Fearing, of Washington County, for the term ending on the fourth day of March, 1803.

As will be noticed, the selections were made from the members of the House of Representatives.

Mr. McMillan at once resigned from the House and proceeded to his new duties.

The work of legislation was begun with mutual expressions of regard between the Governor and the members of the assembly, notwithstanding the differences of the preceding winter. On November 5, the Governor visited the joint assembly and delivered an annual message of kindly tone in which he spoke of the near approach of the end of his term of office and of their own. He mentioned the efforts of his adversaries only to remark: "The remorse of their own consciences will one day be punishment sufficient. Their acts may, however, succeed. Be that as it may, this I am certain, that, be my successor who he may, he can never have the interests of the people of this Territory more truly at heart than I have had for them, nor labor more assiduously for their good than I have done; and I am not conscious that any one act of my administration has been influenced by any other motive than a sincere desire to promote their welfare and happiness."

To this the assembly drafted its formal reply and asked the Governor to fix an hour when he could receive the committee and hear the same. On receiving an intimation of his convenience, the committee formally waited on him in the executive chamber at 10 o'clock a. m., Monday, November 17, and afterward returned to their respective houses bearing with them the formal reply of his excellency to their address. This second communication from St. Clair is a feeling response to the expressions of confidence in which the House had clothed its message to him.

Governor St. Clair, in a message to the House December 2, 1800, calls to their attention the fact that, as his term of office expires in one week from that day, it will be necessary that the session must end on that day, and therefore any business of importance to be transacted should not be too long postponed. He says in this case the Secretary of the Territory cannot supply to the Assembly the place of a Governor.

French inhabitants of the County of Wayne presented to the House, December 4, a petition in French language which was referred to Messrs. Kimberly and Visger for translation. (p. 95.) This committee reported later in the day that the petition was for a redress of certain grievances, and it was referred to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

A proposition was submitted that the assembly should hold its sessions in rotation as follows: The first session to be held in the town of Marietta, the second in the town of Cincinnati, and the third in the town of Chillicothe. This was agreed to by the House, 10 to 8.

A motion to hold the sessions in Cincinnati was lost, 4 to 14. The bill was finally defeated by striking out the enacting clause, on a vote not given. (p. 109.)

Adjourned by the Governor December 9, 1800. (S. J., p. 77.)

To John Reily, for transporting the papers belonging to the House of Representatives from Cincinnati to Chillicothe and for traveling expenses, forty dollars.

The above recited acts were signed by Edward Tiffin, Speaker of the House of Representatives; Robert Oliver, President of the Council; and approved by Ar. St. Clair, Governor, on the date named.

Winship & Willis, Chillicothe, printers.

Authenticity vouched for by Zenas Kimberly, Committee, February 4, 1801.

THE FIRST SESSION OF THE SECOND TERRITORIAL GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

(Convened at Chillicothe on Monday, the twenty-third day of November, 1801, being the day appointed by proclamation of Governor St. Clair.)

MEMBERSHIP.

THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL (SENATE.)

ROBERT OLIVER, who appeared on the twenty-third, and on the twenty-fourth, to find no other member in attendance.

David Vance, who appeared on the twenty-fifth, with his colleague, Mr. Jacob Burnet.

Solomon Sibley, from Detroit, in the County of Wayne (now Michigan), presented his commission to succeed Mr. Vanderburgh (see notes of previous year) and was sworn and seated.

THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Chobert, Françoise Joncaire, of Wayne County (now Detroit, Michigan).

Cutler, Ephraim, of Washington County.

Darlington, Joseph, of Adams County.

Dunlavy, Francis, of Hamilton County.

Kimberly, Zenas, of Jefferson County.

Langham, Elias, of Ross County (Seated November 26).

Ludlow, John, of Hamilton County.

Massie, Nathaniel, of Adams County.

McCune, Thomas, of Jefferson County.

McDougal, George, of Wayne County (Detroit).

Miller, Moses, of Hamilton County.

Milligan, John, of Jefferson County.

Morrow, Jeremiah, of Hamilton County.

Paine, Edward, of Trumbull County.

Putnam, William Rufus, of Washington County.

Reeder, Daniel, of Hamilton County.

Schiefflein, Jonathan, of Wayne County (Detroit).

Smith, John, of Hamilton County. (Seated December 1.)

Tiffin, Edward, of Ross County.

White, Jacob, of Hamilton County.

Worthington, Thomas, of Ross County.

The House organized on the twenty-fourth of November by the election of the following officers: Edward Tiffin, Speaker; John Reilly, Clerk.

The seats of Messrs. Scheifflin and McDougall, of Wayne County, were contested, but they were declared to be entitled to their seats.

The finances of the Territory were in such condition that the governor, who had been reappointed during the adjournment of the assembly, in his address at a joint session of the two houses called to be held in "Mr. Gregg's Hall" for the purpose said: "The Territory is in debt in the sum of $5,419 beyond the whole revenue for the present year. A new emission of bills (of credit) must be made, even to meet the expenses of the present session. A wretched expedient, it is true, because the bills suffer a depreciation in the hands they pass through, and the public pays the full interest."

During this session of the General Assembly, a bill was passed transferring the seat of government to Cincinnati, from which city it had been removed by a provision in the territorial act of 1800, and as an expression of feeling on the part of the local inhabitants, a number of the members of the legislature, and also the governor, were set upon in Chillicothe on the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth of December. The matter was made a subject for official investigation.

At 12 o'clock noon, on January twenty-third, the Council attended the chamber of the House of Representatives in a body, where the joint assembly was addressed by Governor St. Clair, and adjourned by him to meet in second session in Cincinnati on the fourth Monday of the following November (1802). It should be noted here that this proposed second session of the second and last territorial legislature was never held. The reason is given in the following interesting extract from the memoirs of a member of the Council speaking of the first constitutional convention:

"As the territorial legislature was in existence, and stood adjourned, to meet at Cincinnati on the fourth Monday in November, three weeks after the opening of the convention, a resolution was passed, directing their president to request the governor to dissolve or prorogue that body. Such a precaution was altogether unnecessary, as no disposition existed among the members, either to embarrass, or in any way interfere with the movements of the convention. That such a disposition did not exist was verified by the fact that the day for the meeting of the legislature came and passed: the members remaining at home as by common consent. No attempt was made by the governor, or by any of the members, to convene that body, till its existence was terminated, and it was succeeded by the General Assembly, under the State Constitution." (Notes on the Northwestern Territory, 1847, by Judge Jacob Burnett, a member of the Territorial Council.)

ACTS OF THE FIRST SESSION OF THE SECOND TERRITORIAL LEGISLATURE. (1801-2.)

- 27. An act to postpone the sale of land for taxes in the counties of Trumbull, Jefferson and Wayne. December 12, 1801.
- 28. An act authorizing the town of Marietta to preserve the banks of the rivers in said town. December 23, 1801.
- 29. An act repealing that part of a former act which allowed the judges of the General Court two dollars per day. January 20, 1802.
- 30. An act appointing trustees for the town of Manchester, Adams County. January 1, 1802.
- 31. An act fixing the compensation for attorneys commissioned to practice in the Counties of Washington and Trumbull. January 20, 1802.
- 32. An act defining and regulating the duties of the Secretary of the territory. January 1, 1802.
- 33. An act to incorporate the town of Chillicothe. January 4, 1802.
- 34. An act to incorporate the town of Cincinnati, January 1, 1802.
  - 35. An act to incorporate the town of Detroit. January 18, 1802.
- 36. An act authorizing Zacheus Biggs and Zacheus A. Beatty to erect a bridge over Will's Creek. (On the road leading from Chillicothe to Wheeling in Washington County.) January 9, 1802.
- 37. An act authorizing Jonathan Zane and others to erect a toll bridge over the Muskingum river (near the mouth of Licking Creek). January 23, 1802.
- 38. An act for the relief of Sally Mills. (Divorce.) December 19, 1802.
- 39. An act for the relief of Jean Wilson. (Divorce.) January 9, 1802.
  - 40. An act making appropriations. January 23, 1802.

The salaries of the governor and territorial judges were paid by the general government until the adoption of the Constitution of Ohio, but the other expenses of the local government were paid by the Territory. This bill appropriates the sum of twelve thousand dollars for what is called a contingent fund, and then provides for its disbursement in detail. Some of the items are interesting as conveying information as to the nature and amount of the territorial expenses a hundred years ago.

The governor is allowed fifty dollars for postage "upon letters of a public nature."

The treasurer is allowed ten dollars for stationery for his office and fifty dollars for the purchase of "an iron chest for the territory."

The private secretary to the governor is allowed three dollars per day for time actually employed, but is not allowed more than thirty days' pay in the year.

The legislature is allowed a total sum of eight thousand five hundred dollars.

From the general fund, the following allowances were ordered:

To Arthur St. Clair, Jr., attorney-general, a salary of $400.

To the auditor of public accounts, a salary of $750.

To the auditor of public accounts, postage for two years, $75.41.

To auditor of public accounts, extra clerk hire, $95.

To the territorial treasurer, a salary of $400.

To Daniel McAllister, fire-wood, $26.

To William Rutledge, repairs two houses, $4.

To James Phillips, three dozen chairs for the legislature, $72.

For repairs to court house for reception of legislature, etc., $16.10.

RESOLUTIONS.

- I. Requesting the governor to appoint a day of Thanksgiving. December 5, 1801.
  - 2. Appointing two trustees to fill certain vacancies. December 5.
- 3. Directing the auditor to sell the furniture provided for the present and last session of the legislature. January 23, 1801.
- 4. Extending the election laws to Clermont, Fairfield and Belmont Counties and to such counties as may hereafter be laid out. January 23, 1802.
- 5. Directing the disposition of reports on the Cincinnati and Marietta public road. January 23, 1802.
- 6. Directing certain laws to be reprinted in the appendix to the volume of laws for this session.

The above acts and resolutions were attested by Edward Tiffin, Speaker of the House of Representatives; Robert Oliver, President of the Council; and were approved on the dates above given by Arthur St. Clair, Governor of the Northwest Territory.

The volume from which the above abstract was made was printed by N. Willis, Chillicothe, 1802, and is in possession of the Supreme Court Library, Columbus.

THE QUESTION OF THE BOUNDARY OF THE STATE.

HE question of boundary, though not expressly referred to the convention (The Constitutional Convention of 1802) was one of greater importance than would appear at first view. It is generally known to those who have consulted the maps of the western country extant at the time the Ordinance of 1787 was passed, that Lake Michigan was represented as being very far north of the position which it has since been ascertained to occupy. On a map in the Department of State (at Washington) which was before the Committee of Congress who formed the ordinance for the government of the Territory, the southern boundary of that lake was laid down as being near the forty-second degree of north latitude, and there was a pencil line passing through the southern bend of the lake, to the Canada line, which intersected the strait between the River Raisin and the town of Detroit. The line was manifestly intended by the committee, and by Congress, to be the northern boundary of this state: and that map, and the line marked on it, should have been taken as conclusive evidence of the boundary, without reference to the actual position of the southern extreme of the lake.

When the Convention was in session in 1802, it was the prevailing opinion that the old maps were correct; and that the line, as defined in the ordinance, would terminate at some point on the strait far above the Maumee Bay; but, while that subject was under discussion, a man who had hunted many years on Lake Michigan and was well acquainted with its position, happened to be in Chillicothe, and in conversation with some of the members, mentioned to them that the lake extended much farther south than was generally supposed; and that a map he had seen placed its southern bend many miles north of its true position. His statement produced some apprehension and excitement on the subject, and induced the convention to change the line prescribed in the act of Congress, so far as to provide that if it should be found to strike Lake Erie below the Maumee River, as the hunter informed them it would, then the boundary of the state should be a line drawn from the point where the prescribed line intersected the west boundary of the state, direct to the most northern cape of Maumee Bay. That provision saved to the State of Ohio the valuable ports and harbors on the Maumee River and bay, which were the prize contended for in the "Michigan war of Governor Lucas." "Yet some of the members (of the Convention) hesitated in making the provision, lest it might cause delay; but fortunately it was adopted and its object is now secure." (Burnett's "Notes on the Northwestern Territory," 1847, p. 360.) (See also the language of the Acts of Congress, 1800, 1802-1812, quoted in Part I of this publication.—Editor.)

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO.

THE third legislative body to come into power in the territory comprised in the present state was the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, which, following the adopt on of the State Constitution and the admission of the state into the Union of States, was organized for its first session, on the first day of March, 1803.

The legislative body thus inaugurated has been an enormous factor for good in the onward and forward progress of Ohio during the past hundred years. No group of men have served the state with so little personal gain as have her legislators. No body of public men has done so much to encourage morality, industry and patriotism. The wonder of it is-not that legislators have occasionally made personal mistakes-but that in no matter what strait or dilemma, Ohio has always had in her service, practically without compensation, so many men who were not only patriots, but men who exhibited the wisdom and had the courage to handle the affairs of state with honor to themselves, to their constituents and the name of an Ohioan. When the enormous power of a General Assembly is fairly understood, the more honor is found to be due those men who, since the first settler landed on the western bank of the Ohio, in 1788, have never used that power as a body, except to advance the state in dignity and in prosperity, and in evidences of fealty in every hour of danger to the general government. More or less acquaintance with members of recent assemblies, and a quite studious attention to the records of the past century in Ohio, gives point to these observations.

Gen. James A. Garfield was elected United States Senator to succeed Hon. Allen G. Thurman, whose term of office expired March 4, 1881. By reason of his election to the presidency of the United States he declined to accept said election. January 18, 1880, the two Houses voted separately to fill the vacancy. Hon. John Sherman having received a majority in each House was declared elected.

JAMES M. WILLIAMS, of CLEVELAND.

President Pro Tem. of the Senate.

WAS born in Plainfield, Coshocton County, Ohio, July 22, 1850. His father, Heslip Williams, a leading physician of Coshocton County, was a native of Ohio, and a member of the House of Representatives of this State in 1845 and 1846, and of the Senate in 1854 and 1855. His grandfather, Levi Williams, was a native of Staunton, Virginia. He came to this State with General Wayne's army at the time of the establishment of the Greenville treaty line. He was a captain in the service, and on their march West the army encamped where the public square of Cleveland is now located. His great-grandfather, David Williams, and his great-grandfather, Richard Williams, were both in the Colonial Army during the War of the Revolution, and were in General Washington's army at the surrender of Yorktown. His ancestors on the paternal side came originally from England, settling in Virginia. His mother, Charlotte Miskimen, was also a native of Ohio. Her father, James Miskimen, came to Ohio in 1803, from Washington County, Maryland. Mr. Williams' education was obtained in the common schools of his native county, at the Newcomerstown, Ohio, high school, and at Allegheny College, Meadville, Pennsylvania, where he graduated in the class of 1873. He studied law in the office of Judge J. C. Pomerene, of Coshocton, and was admitted to the bar in September, 1875. He practiced law at Coshocton until 1888, when he removed to Cleveland. He enlisted as a private soldier in Company C, 3rd United States Cavalry, during the late Civil War, when he was only thirteen years old, and served in campaigns in Tennessee, Mississippi and Arkansas.

In 1883, Mr. Williams edited the Revised Statutes of Ohio, in three volumes, which was afterward adopted by the General Assembly and furnished to the judiciary and all other State and County officers. In 1885, he was elected a member of the House of Representatives of this State, as a Democrat, serving for two years. While in the Legislature he was a member of the Committees on Judiciary, Revision of the Laws, and Public Works, and was chairman of the special committee which prepared a code of parliamentary law for the Ohio House of Representatives. He drafted the statute passed in 1885, providing for the organization and jurisdiction of the Circuit Courts of the State, and the constitutional amendment adopted in the same year changing the time of holding the State elections from October to November; also the proposed constitutional amendments submitted in 1889, providing for biennial elections and for single legislative districts. He is the author of the laws, passed in 1887, defining the rights and liabilities of husband and wife; how a married person may sue and be sued in courts of record; and exempting every honorably discharged soldier from the two days' labor, then required, on the public highways. Mr. Williams is well known as a practitioner before the Supreme Court of Ohio. He has appeared frequently before that court in causes involving important constitutional questions. His arguments have always been characterized by clear and forcible statement, searching analysis, and great argumentative power. In the notable case of Cope vs. Foraker, governor, the issue was the adoption or rejection of the biennial elections amendment to the Constitution; and the plaintiff applied for a writ of mandamus to compel the governor to declare by proclamation the amendment adopted, because it received a majority of the votes cast directly on the question, though not a majority of all the votes cast at the election. The utmost interest was felt in the decision, and few abler and more ingenious arguments were ever made before the Supreme Court of Ohio than that of Mr. Williams in behalf of the adoption of the amendment. Equal praise was elicited by his argument before that court in the application for a mandamus in State vs. Sawyer, sheriff of Cuyahoga County. The points made by Mr. Williams, in a masterly argument, were sustained, and the unanimous decision of the court was, that proclamation must issue, and four judges of the Common Pleas Court be elected for Cuyahoga County, with the other county officials, in November, 1889, instead of 1890.

He was the nominee of his party for Judge of the Common Pleas Court in 1888 and 1894, but was not elected. He was chosen at the November election, 1905, one of the Senators from the Cleveland District by a majority of 10,002, and on the organization of the General Assembly, he was chosen President protem. of the Senate.

Besides his duties as President pro tem, of the Senate, he is chairman of the Committees on Commercial Corporations and Rules, and is also a member of the Committees on Judiciary, Taxation, County Affairs and Fees and Salaries.

Mr. Williams was married in 1879 to Miss Mary S. Brockway, only daughter of Hon. Charles B. Brockway of Ripley, Chautauqua County, New York, by which union he has one child, a daughter, born in 1882. Mrs. Williams died in 1897. His home is at 2127 East 100th St., Cleveland.

BERT S. BARTLOW, OF HAMILTON.

Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate.

BERT S. BARTLOW was born in Franklin County, Indiana, July 10th, 1869. In 1876 he came with his parents to Butler County. Ohio, where he has since resided. He passed his boyhood days attending the public schools and during his vacations worked on the farm. In September, 1888, he was matriculated in the preparatory department of Miami University, at Oxford, and in the autumn of the following year he became a member of the freshman class. He was graduated with honors on the 14th of June, 1893, having given special attention to economic and collateral subjects. He received the degree of Bachelor of Arts, and special honors in the department of political science. After his graduation, Mr. Bartlow studied law for several months in Hamilton, Ohio, where he now resides, and later became a special newspaper correspondent. In 1901, he was editor of the Butler County Press, and the next year, for several months after its founding, served as city editor of the Hamilton Evening Sun.

Mr. Bartlow manifests great interest in the success of the principles of the Democratic party, and has proved a most able and successful campaign worker, having delivered numerous political addresses and represented his party in county, district, state and national conventions. In August, 1897, he was nominated as Representative of Butler County in the State Legislature. securing a plurality of six hundred and thirty-four votes over eight competitors in the primary election, while in the following November election he received a majority of three thousand one hundred and fifty-one votes. He was chosen as his own successor in 1899, thus serving four consecutive years and being a member of the 73rd and 74th General Assemblies. His career as a legislator was marked by its sincerity and its usefulness, especially in the conservation of economy in public expenditures. In July, 1903, he was appointed a member of the Board of Deputy State Supervisors of Elections, for Butler County, in which he had previously served for four years as clerk, and he still retains this incumbency, being chief deputy of the board. January 1st, 1906, on the organization of the Senate of the 77th General Assembly, Mr. Bartlow was elected Sergeant-at-Arms.

Mr. Bartlow is especially active in connection with fraternal society work, being a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias, Knights of the Ancient Essenic Order, Tribe of Ben Hur and the Fraternal Censer. The latter society, of which he is the Supreme President, is an insurance order organized under the laws of Ohio, with its supreme office located at Dayton. Mr. Bartlow was elected Supreme President of the order in the meeting of the Supreme Council at Dayton, in June, 1903, and was re-elected in July, 1904, for a further term of three years.

JOHN W. HARPER, Cincinnati.

HE senior Senator from Hamilton County was born in Indianapolis, Indiana, February 11, 1830, educated in private schools and came to Cincinnati in 1852. For thirty-four years he was a wholesale clothier; since 1886 he has been engaged chiefly in fire insurance. He was on the Council and School Board of Avondale, the largest village in Ohio, since incorporated in Cincinnati. He was aid-de-camp on Gov. Hoadley's staff with rank of Colonel and rendered faithful service in the memorable Cincinnati riot, receiving special praise from the Governor. He was appointed by Gov. Foraker a trustee of the Central Insane Asylum at Columbus, and re-appointed by Gov. Campbell; was on the Board of Supervisors, Cincinnati, two years, appointed without his knowledge by Mayor Mosby, a Republican; was one of the Decennial Board of Equalization, 1890; represented the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce several times in the National Board of Trade, Washington, D. C.; and was a projector of the Dramatic Festival of 1883-84. Senator Harper's grandfather was a private in the Maryland Line and was with Washington at Valley Forge. He was president of Ohio Society Sons of American Revolution. He is a Democrat, and as Chairman of Insurance and member of several important committees has rendered efficient service. He is genial of address and his reputation for probity and honor is unquestioned. He is liberal in his religious belief, being a Unitarian. His wife, whom he married in 1860, was Miss Jennie Ellis, of Lafayette, Indiana; they have three children and eight grandchildren. He has taken a prominent part in the affairs of Hamilton County and was one of the earliest and warmest advocates of the Cincinnati & Southern Railroad and supported it from the first inception.

Mr. Harper introduced and secured the passage of the bill providing a home for deformed and crippled children, and also their treatment and schooling. As a philanthropist and humanitarian Mr. Harper has always been active in promoting the welfare of his fellowmen.

Composed of Hamilton County.

THOMAS HUNT, Cincinnati.

HOMAS HUNT is a native of Belmont County, Ohio. His father was Samuel P. Hunt, who studied medicine with Dr. Hoover in Barnesville, and who after he had finished his studies removed with his family to Cambridge, Guernsey County, when his son Thomas was two years of age.

Here the family remained until the boy was nine years old, when Dr. Hunt removed again to Morrow, Warren County.

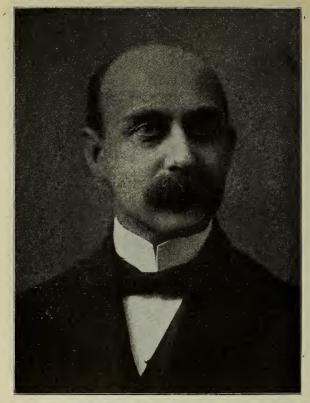

Thomas Hunt attended the academy of Robert Way, near that place, and was later sent to St. Xavier's College at Cincinnati. Soon after returning home he learned the telegraphic art and was given charge of the office at Morrow along with that of the agency of the Little Miami Railroad at that place, which he held for twelve years, resigning then to take charge of a flour mill which he bought at Sterling, Illinois. Five years were spent there, making and shipping flour to the Chicago market, when he sold the business and was offered the agency of the L. C. & L. R. at Lexington, Ky. After two years was transferred to Danville, Ky., and after four years there resigned on account of ill health and after a few months' rest accepted a position in the office of his ill health and after a few months' rest accepted a position in the office of his brother who was superintendent of a division of the East Tenn., Va. & Ga. R. R., with headquarters at Atlanta, Ga. After two years' service there the brothers went to Winfield, Kansas, where the younger brother, Samuel, was given charge of the construction of a branch of the Mo. Pacific R. R. After the same was finished he was made superintendent, with his brother Thomas as assistant in his office. After three years Thomas followed his brother to Ohio and was elected secretary and treasurer of the Cincinnati, Portsmouth & Va. R. R. Co., which he held until the sale of that road to the Norfolk & Western R. R., and then returned to work for his health and to study the science of political economy.

He was elected to the Ohio Senate in 1905 on the Democratic ticket. He had been a Republican in the days of Abraham Lincoln, but could not stand for that dreadful system of taxation called the tariff, which later became one of the tenets of the Republican party.

SECOND—FOURTH DISTRICT.

Composed of the counties of Butler, Warren, Clermont and Brown.

ISAAC E. HUFFMAN, Oxford.

I SAAC E. HUFFMAN, Democrat, of Butler County, Ohio, Senator from 2d-4th District, who also served in the 75th and 76th General Assemblies. He served on the following committees in the Senate: Privileges and Elections, Claims, Colleges and Universities, Military Affairs, Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home, Mines and Mining, and Chairman Public Works. Amended the election laws so as to take power of Secretary of State away in filling vacancies in boards of supervisors of elections, and in case of contesting committees the State Central Committee settles the disputes and determines the lawful committee to be recognized. Made strong fight for primary election law; succeeded in passing his bill twice in the Senate, but it met its fate in the House.

Mr. Huffman graduated from Ohio Normal University, Lebanon. Ohio, 1890; taught school until 1898, when he entered the Cincinnati School of Law, which profession he now practices. He is an enthusiastic lodge man, being a Mason, K. of P., Odd Fellow and Elk.

Mr. Huffman has made himself thoroughly familiar with legislative practice and parliamentary rules, which materially adds to his usefulness as a legislator.

THIRD DISTRICT

Composed of the counties of Montgomery and Preble.

WILLIAM H. MECK, Dayton.

PROF. MECK HIGHLY HONORED BY SCHOOL COMMISSIONER BONEBRAKE.

Efficient High School Instructor Now a Member of the State Board of School Examiners.

M. WILLIAM H. MECK, of the Steele High School, was appointed today by State School Commissioner Bonebrake, a member of the State Board of School Examiners, to succeed Superintendent Sharkey of Eaton, for a term of five years.

The intelligence will be received by his many friends here and elsewhere with genuine gratification, and they will undoubtedly give him their heartiest felicitations on this deserved compliment to his worth.

Mr. Meck's career is worthy of note. In his boyhood, as in his manhood, he realized that labor was the only talisman of success. When a mere lad he taught in the rural schools of Crawford County for four years. Immediately after he was elected to the principalship of the Wapakoneta High School which position he held for three years. He closed his school relations there not without many evidences of regret and affectionate regard on the part of pupils and friends, to attend the Ohio Normal University, graduating in 1888. Subsequently, for two years he held the principalship of the Kent High School, relinquishing it to enter the Ohio Wesleyan University. While pursuing his studies there he was employed as a tutor in mathematics. He graduated in 1894 in the classical course with high honors, they being given on the basis of scholarship. When he left the threshold of his alma mater, Dr. Bashford, the president, said: "Upon the whole I do not think that we have sent our for some years, a man better suited for the principalship of a high school, or the superintendency of schools than is Mr. Meck."

When called to the Dayton High School he was principal of the Sidney High School, the Board of Education there accepting his resignation with much reluctance, and only in consequence of his receiving an advanced salary to what they were able to pay. For the past three years he has been one of the most popular and efficient instructors in the Steele High School. Colonel W. J. White, late superintendent of instruction, pays him this tribute: "His work with us has been uniformly successful and eminently satisfactory, and he has shown those qualities of mind and heart which endear him to his pupils and render his work a pleasure as well as a profit to those under his instruction and to those in authority over him. His reputation as a disciplinarian is unexcelled, and in all lines of school work he shows great strength."

Miami University, famed for its eminent alumni and high scholarship, conferred on him last June the degree of Master of Arts, in view of his professional attainments and services. He was further honored at Put-in-Bay in July by being unanimously elected president of the high school section of the State Teachers' Association.

As a teacher Mr. Meck has been eminently successful. He pursues the work of teaching with his whole heart. He possesses in a rare degree the gift of knowing how to impart knowledge to youthful minds. In the class room he lays aside all perfunctory austerities and puts every pupil in his presence at confiding ease. His manners are attractive, blending the urbanity of the gentleman with the cordiality of a friend.

Mr. Meck is the first High School teacher appointed to the State Board of School Examiners—a fitting recognition of the High Schools of the state.—

Dayton (Ohio) Daily Press, August 31, 1898.

PROF. MECK.

Reappointed on the State Board of Examiners.

First to succeed himself since the enactment of Five-Year Law.

Selection regarded as a high tribute to his conscientious efforts as well as the personal worth of Mr. Meck as an instructor.

The reappointment of Prof. William H. Meck, of the Steele High School, Dayton, to succeed himself for another term of five years on the State Board of Examiners, comes as a high tribute to the conscientious and efficient efforts as well as to the personal worth of Mr. Meck in his official capacity.

Mr. Meck is a typical Buckeye—born, reared and educated in Ohio. He embodies besides the highest intellectual and moral traits and qualities, that honest aggressiveness long since identified with her sons; his prominent connection with her representative schools of the state has kept him in close touch with its system of education, enabling him to conserve the best interests of pupils, teachers, officers and patrons.

His advancement in his professional career is but natural and legitimate when his broad preparation by education, training and experience is considered. Naturally of scholarly instincts, he early took advantage of the best facilities, and in 1888 was graduated from the Ohio Normal University; later entering the Ohio Wesleyan University, he graduated from that splendid old institution in 1894, with high honors and the degree of Bachelor of Arts. Continuing his scholastic pursuits, Mr. Meck has won recognition from the Miami University, which in 1898 conferred on him the degree of Master of Arts. In addition he holds High School life certificates from Ohio and Michigan. He has frequently been called upon to address teachers' associations and to lecture before institutes. In 1898 he was chosen president of the High School section of the Ohio State Teachers' Association.

Mr. Meck combines in a marked degree the attainments of a scholar and the rare qualities of a true teacher; his eight years' work in the Steele High School is of itself an enviable record, and a fitting testimonial of his superior qualifications as an instructor. He is also fortunate in an intimate knowledge of men and affairs, and his genial social qualities are evidenced by his wide acquaintance with the leading men in the educational and business world. Mr. Meck is prominent in fraternal circles, being a 32d degree Mason.

His reappointment for another term of five years is the first instance of the kind since the five-year law went into effect fifteen years ago. He is the only High School man ever accorded the honor of a place on the State Board of Examiners, which is a gracious compliment to his broad culture, a test of the rare good judgment on the part of State School Commissioner Bonebrake, and a matter of sincere congratulation to the patrons of the schools of Ohio.—Dayton Journal, August 31, 1903.

Admitted to the bar December, 1904. Elected to the State Senate November, 1905 (3d District, Montgomery and Preble Counties). Married Thanksgiv-

FIFTH—SIXTH DISTRICT

Composed of the counties of Greene, Clinton, Fayette, Highland and Ross.

F. C. ARBENZ, Chillicothe.

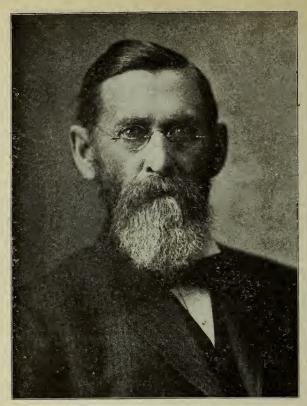

RED C. ARBENZ is of German parentage, was born in Wheeling, W. Va., May 3, 1856, After receiving what education was attainable in the common schools of Wheeling he went to work in his father's factory and store, where he acquired a thorough business education. Concluding to study law he attended the law school at Ann Arbor, Mich., from which he graduated, and was admitted to the bar in 1879. He practiced law for several years, but having become interested in manufacturing enterprises he gradually withdrew from the practice and for some years has given his entire attention to his business interests now located mainly in Chillicothe, Ohio, where he has made his home since 1889.

He has been a member of the Chillicothe Board of Trade ever since coming to that city, and has in turn served as Director, Vice President and President of that organization.

As a Republican, who had worked in the ranks for years, he was in 1897 elected to represent Ross County in the House of the 73d General Assembly, and in 1905 he was elected to represent the 5th-6th Districts in the State Senate.

SEVENTH DISTRICT.

Composed of the counties of Scioto, Adams, Pike and Jackson.

GORDON F. LAUMAN, Lucasville.

GORDON F. LAUMAN, Republican, from the Seventh District, was born in Fleming County, Kentucky, November 17, 1840; moved to Aberdeen, Brown County, Ohio, in about 1845; lived in Chillicothe in 1846, in Waverly in 1847. In 1850 worked for James Emmitt for three years at milling and distilling. Worked in the store of Emmitt, Myers & Co., and continued in their employ until the war broke out. Enlisted on the 17th of April, 1861, in Company G, 1st O. V. I., from Portsmouth, Ohio; was wounded on the 17th of June at Vienna, Virginia; was discharged at E Street Hospital, Washington, D. C., at the expiration of three months. Mr. Lauman was in the merchandise business since 1872, and at the same time interested in farming. He was married twice, being married first to Miss Mary L. Watkins, October 6, 1864, who died October 22, 1892. Was married to Mary E. Dever, November 28, 1895. He has held several township offices.

Mr. Lauman was elected to the 76th and re-elected to the 77th General Assemblies. He is conservative in his views, and seldom gives his approval to any measure that he is not absolutely sure is for the best interests of all concerned.

EIGHTH DISTRICT

Composed of the counties of Lawrence, Gallia, Meigs and Vinton.

MILTON E. RATHBURN, Rutland.

MILTON E. RATHBURN, member of the Senate from Meigs county, was born at Rutland, Ohio, December 1st, 1861. After finishing his education he engaged in mercantile business at Rutland under the firm name of J. N. Rathburn & Sons. The business rapidly grew until at the present time he is one of the proprietors of two of the largest department stores of southern Ohio, located at Rutland and Middleport.

From boyhood he took a lively interest in politics, and although solicited many times by his friends to become a candidate for office he refused until 1905, when he was elected to represent the Eighth Senatorial District in the General Assembly. He is a staunch Republican, and has served as chairman of the Meigs County Republican Executive Committee. In the spring of 1904

Governor Herrick appointed him trustee of the Athens State Hospital.

He was married October 30th, 1902, to Miss Bertha E. Bean. Mr. Rathburn's extensive business experience makes him a practical legislator, which combined with his social qualities make him one of the prominent members of the Senate.

NINTH—FOURTEENTH DISTRICTS

Composed of the counties of Athens, Hocking, Fairfield, Morgan, Washington, parts of Monroe and Noble.

ISAIAH R. ROSE, Marietta.

I SAIAH R. ROSE was born in Belmont County in 1844. He came to Washington County in 1851. He enlisted in the army, and served almost four years in the war of the Rebellion as a private soldier. For seven months he was a prisoner in Andersonville prison. In 1884 he was elected sheriff of Washington County, and re-elected in 1886. He was one of the Presidential Electors from the Fifteenth Congressional District, and voted in the Electoral College for Benj. Harrison. He was appointed as one of the Board of Managers of the Ohio Penitentiary by Governor Asa S. Bushnell and served as such four years. In 1905 he was elected Senator, along with his colleague, Joseph S. Sites, from the Ninth-Fourteenth District. Mr. Rose took an active part and did effective work in shaping the legislation of the 77th General Assembly. He was a member of the following Committees: Commercial Corporations, Military Affairs, Mines and Mining, Prison and Prison Reforms, Public Works, Roads and Highways. He introduced the much discussed County Local Option Bill and earnestly advocated its passage.

NINTH—FOURTEENTH DISTRICTS

Composed of the counties of Athens, Hocking, Fairfield, Morgan, Washington, parts of Monroe and Noble.

JOSEPH SWARTZ SITES, Lancaster.

He received his preparatory course of schooling in the Pleasant Township Seminary and the Fairfield Union Academy, afterwards entering the Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware, from which institution he graduated in 1872. During his early career he was a successful teacher in the common schools, serving two years as superintendent of the public schools of Dresden, Ohio.

Mr. Sites studied law under the tutorage of Daugherty and Hunter of Lancaster, Ohio, was admitted to the bar in 1874, and has been in the active and successful practice of his profession ever since.

Mr. Sites served eight consecutive years as member of the City Council of his native city, a part of the time being president of that body. He also was elected two successive terms as member of the City Board of Education and acted as a city school examiner. He has been for a number of years actively engaged in the management of the Lancaster Assembly and Camp Meeting Association, and a number of other business enterprises.

In 1905 Mr. Sites was nominated and elected to the office of State Senator, representing the 9-14th Senatorial District in the 77th General Assembly of Ohio. In the matter of legislation Mr. Sites was conservative. His ability as a lawyer being recognized by his colleagues, his counsel was heeded in the framing and enactment of many important bills. He was a hard worker, giving most of his time to the duties of his office. He made himself familiar with the merits of every bill before his vote was cast for or against it.

Politically, Mr. Sites is and always has been a staunch Republican, serving in different capacities in the organizations of, and has always stood high in the councils of his party.

In 1874 he was married to Miss Anna Pence, and they are the parents of five children, all of whom are living. (369)

J. P. MAHAFFEY was born in Cambridge, Ohio, April 16th, 1845, and practically his entire life has been spent there. From young manhood he has been identified with the printing business, first as a printer, and later as a publisher. Mr. Mahaffey is a member of the M. E. church. He enlisted in the army during the Civil war, and is a member of the G. A. R. He is a prominent Elk, and a member of the Masonic, K. of P. and I. O. O. F. orders. He has always been a Democrat, and for years has taken an active part in local and state politics. In the late seventies he was elected clerk of the courts of Guernsey County, a strong Republican County, and served one term, 1879 to 1882. He was elected on the Democratic national ticket when Hon. W. J. Bryan was a candidate for president in 1900. In 1904, he was a candidate for clerk of the Supreme Court, but was defeated with his party in the Republican landslide of that year. In 1905, he was made the nominee of his party for State Senator in the 18th-19th District and elected.

D. W. CRIST, Moultrie,

THE subject of this sketch was born November 28, 1857, in Columbiana County, Ohio, near where he now resides. His youth was spent on a farm, attending the common schools in the winter; after he became of age he educated himself, graduating at N. W. O. N. U., Ada, Ohio, in 1882. Gave his attention to school teaching until his health broke down, when he turned his attention to music. As a composer he has a national reputation, being the author of many works on music besides the author of over 100 piano compositions, many of which have proven very popular, and he now enjoys the honor of being the proprietor of one of the largest music publishing houses in Ohio. Has always been an ardent Republican, and as such was elected to the 75th General Assembly to represent Columbiana County. He was re-elected to the 76th General Assembly by an increased majority, and now represents the 20th-22d joint senatorial district in the Ohio State Senate of the 77th General Assembly. He is a member of the standing committees on Taxation, Fees and Salaries, Public Printing, Insurance and Library (Chairman).

Mr. Crist's eminent social and genial qualities are often commented upon by his many friends. His constitutents have full confidence and faith in him

THOMAS KINSMAN, Kinsman.

THOMAS KINSMAN, Senator from the 23d District, has represented Trumbull County in the 74th and 75th General Assemblies, and the District in the 76th and 77th. He was born at Kinsman, Trumbull County, Ohio, on May 21, 1857; was educated in the Kinsman public schools and Western Reserve College, then at Hudson, Ohio. The sudden death of his father, Thomas Kinsman, Sr., abruptly ended his college course; for the need that the extensive farm lands should have his care was imperative.

His farming has been of a general character, but dairying and the raising of cattle and the trotting bred horse have been especially prominent.

He is president of the Kinsman National Bank, and has been secretary of the Kinsman Stock and Agricultural Society for the past ten years.

In politics Mr. Kinsman is of the Republican stock found on the Western Reserve who are never known to waver in their principles. While not an orator on the floor of the Senate he is a willing and strong working member orator on the floor of the Senate he is a willing and strong working member in committees, and his suggestions in various matters are carefully considered.

He was married on November 16, 1904, to Mrs. Bertha Wilson Smith, of Columbus, Ohio, eldest daughter of ex-Congressman George W. Wilson, of London, Madison County, Ohio.

His genial nature makes him many friends. His address is Kinsman, CHARLES LAWYER, Jefferson.

CHARLES LAWYER was born in Crawford County, Pa., 1858. His education was obtained in the common and high schools of Ashtabula County and at the University of Michigan, graduating from the law department at Ann Arbor in 1883. He was admitted to the practice of law in Ohio in the same year. Thrown upon his own resources early in life he taught school. Soon after being admitted to the bar he began the practice of law at Jefferson, Ohio, where he has ever since been located. In 1889 he was elected prosecuting attorney of Ashtabula County, holding the position for two terms. Mr. Lawyer has been an active and earnest worker in the Republican ranks of his county, inheriting the love of politics from his mother's family, which was identified with the political history of Pennsylvania, his grandfather at one time representing Crawford County in the General Assembly of that state. Mr. Lawyer was elected to represent the Twenty-fourth-Twenty-sixth Districts in the 77th General Assembly.

He was married in 1886, and has one daughter.

TWENTY-FIFTH DISTRICT

Composed of Cuyahoga County.

P. W. WARD, Cleveland.

PETER W. WARD, son of James and Mary Ward, and one of a family of twelve, was born at Olmsted Falls, Ohio, June 29, 1852. Received common school education. Came to Cleveland when 17 years of age. Was married in 1874. Studied law and was admitted to practice in 1878. Engaged in the insurance business in 1891, as an attorney and adjuster for an insurance company.

Senator Ward has always taken a deep interest in public affairs. In 1903 was appointed a member of the Board of Health for one year by Mayor Johnson. In 1905 was reappointed for five years, and elected president of the board. During the term of office as president the Health Department of Cleveland was revolutionized, and today is considered one of the best in the country. In 1905 he was elected a member of the Senate from Cuyahoga County. Mr. Ward ranks high among the members of the Senate, who consider him wise in council and conservative in action. His social attainments, keen observation and business experience pre-eminently qualify him for public service.

servation and business experience pre-eminently qualify him for public service. He is a member of several important committees, his chosen field being insurance affairs. He is chairman of the Senate Insurance Committee and secretary of the Joint Insurance Committee specially appointed by the Legislature to investigate insurance laws of other states, and to recommend needed and proper legislation for the State of Ohio.

TWENTY-FIFTH DISTRICT

THOMAS P. SCHMIDT, Cleveland.

THOMAS P. SCHMIDT, Cleveland, Ohio, 31 years old. Graduate of Cleveland Public Schools and Cleveland West High School. Graduate of University of Michigan. Attorney at law. Comes from the German stock that fled to this country in 1848, owing to the revolution prevalent in Germany at that time. Grandfather, C. W. Schmidt, was one of the originators of said revolution, which was in the interests of liberty and public welfare for the German people. His uncle was ex-Lieutenant Governor Jacob Mueller, with whom his father, Gustav Schmidt, former mayor of West Cleveland, was associated in the practice of law at Cleveland, Ohio. At present associated with E. L. Hessenmueller in the practice of law at Cleveland, Ohio, Member of the committee selected by the Senate for the investigation at Cincinnati. Inherited a spirit for politics. Has endeavored to act in the capacity of a representative of the people for the people's good, and trusts that his record has been established in this particular. Has one son, Thomas L.

Mr. Schmidt is greatly interested in the study of municipal government and other economical questions. He is a Democrat. While he is one of the youngest members of the Senate, yet his strong personality makes him a potent member of that body.

FREDERICK C. HOWE, Cleveland.

REDERICK C. HOWE was born in Meadville, Pa., in 1867. He received his education in the public schools and subsequently graduated from Allegheny College in 1889, with a degree of A. B. Upon graduation he entered Johns Hopkins University, from which institution he received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in 1892 in political economy, history and jurisprudence. He later entered the University of Maryland Law School, and completed his law course at the New York Law School, after spending a semester at the University of Berlin.

During his university career Mr. Howe devoted his attention to journalistic work in Pittsburg, Baltimore and New York. He was later appointed Secretary of the Pennsylvania Tax Conference, in which capacity he served for two years. He was admitted to the bar at Pittsburg, Pa., and later moved to Cleveland, where he subsequently became identified with the firm of Garfield, Garfield & Howe, which firm has subsequently been changed to Garfield, Howe & Westenhaver.

In 1901 he was offered the post of Secretary of the Treasury in Porto Rico, which he declined. Prior to this time he was elected to the City Council of Cleveland, and was later chosen president of the Board of Sinking Fund Trustees. In 1903 he was nominated for the State Senate on the Democratic ticket and defeated.

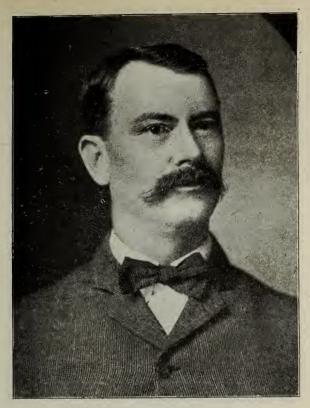

Mr. Howe was a professor in the Cleveland Law School for some years, and a lecturer at the University of Wisconsin and Western Reserve University. In 1905 he was commissioned by the Bureau of Commerce and Labor to make an investigation of municipal ownership in Great Britain, which report has just been published.

Mr. Howe is a frequent contributor to the World's Work, the Atlantic Monthly, Scribner's Monthly, the Cosmopolitan, Outlook and Collier's Weekly. He is the author of a book entitled, "The City, the Hope of Democracy," which has run through several editions; as well as a work on taxation entitled, "Taxation and Taxes in the United States Under the Internal Revenue System." He is also the author of a fanciful story entitled, "The Confessions of a Monopolist." Mr. Howe is a deep student of social and economic questions. He is the author of several important bills considered by the 77th General Assembly.

TWENTY-SEVENTH-TWENTY-NINTH DISTRICTS

Composed of the counties of Medina, Lorain, Ashland and Richland.

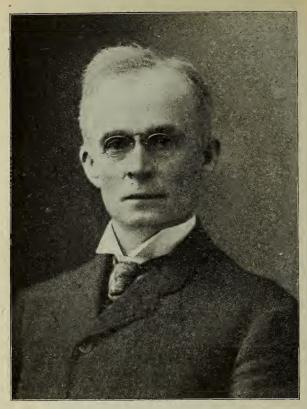

FRANK N. PATTERSON, Ashland.

FRANK N. PATTERSON, Republican, was born in Hayesville, Ohio, December 28, 1863; attended the University of Wooster, but did not graduate; began the practice of law in 1890; in 1894 was elected prosecuting attorney of Ashland County. Mr. Patterson was married in 1892 to Miss Mary Shanwecker. He has one child, Miss Ada Patterson. Mr. Patterson was one of the most active and earnest members of the Senate. His experience and standing as a lawyer made his advice and counsel valuable in the enactment of important legislation.

THIRTIETH DISTRICT

Composed of the counties of Huron, Erie, Sandusky and Ottawa.

JOHN C. DRAKE, Kimball.

JOHN C. DRAKE was born December 13, 1860, near North Monroeville, Erie County, Ohio. The early years of his life were spent at home on the farm. In the summer of 1880 he entered the employ of the Nickel Plate Railroad as a bridge carpenter. In 1882 he received permanent injuries caused by falling thirty feet from a railroad bridge. In 1886 he engaged in the general merchandise and grain business at Kimball, Erie County, in which place he still resides.

In politics always a Democrat. In 1899 he was defeated for representative by M. J. Love, the Republican candidate, by 137 votes. In 1901 he was renominated and again defeated by W. E. Guerin by only 10 votes in one of the hottest campaigns ever waged in Eric County. It has since been said that the liquor interests spent ten thousand dollars to defeat him. In that memorable campaign Mr. Drake's home township gave him 250 votes and his opponent only 27.

In 1905 Mr. Drake was nominated and elected Senator from his district by a majority of 1,361 votes. Mr. Drake has the confidence and respect of all his fellow senators. Because of his sterling qualities he was made Chairman of the Drake Investigating Committee appointed by the Senate to probe municipal and county affairs at Cincinnati. Mr. Drake is also Chairman of the Temperance Committee, as well as member of other important committees of the Senate.

THIRTY-FIRST DISTRICT

Composed of the counties of Seneca, Crawford and Wyandot.

ELZA CARTER, Upper Sandusky.

ELZA CARTER, Democrat, of the Thirty-first Senatorial District, is a native of Wyandot County, Ohio, was educated in the sub-district schools, the Upper Sandusky public schools and Baldwin University. He began his official career as township clerk, and held the office for four years. Mr. Carter removed from Tymochtee township to Upper Sandusky in 1881, and was admitted to the bar the same year; soon thereafter he acquired a large practice, which he has since retained, and is now a member of the law firm of Carter & Goodrich. In addition to his work in his chosen profession, he is interested in agriculture and stock raising.

Mr. Carter was a member of the Wyandot County Board of School Examiners for six years; at present he is president of the Upper Sandusky School Board, and for six years has been a member thereof.

He was elected prosecuting attorney of Wyandot County in 1892, and again 1895. He has always been a Democrat, and without opposition was elected to the School in Newthern 1992. In his profession of well-ag in religious he to the Senate in November, 1903. In his profession, as well as in politics, he is well and favorably known throughout his district. He believes the Legislature should be untrammeled in the exercise of its functions. In 1905 he was re-elected as member of Ohio Senate, and took active part in all the important legislation considered by that body.

THIRTY-SECOND DISTRICT

Composed of the counties of Allen, Auglaize, Defiance, Mercer, Paulding, Van Wert and Williams.

W. M. DENMAN, West Unity.

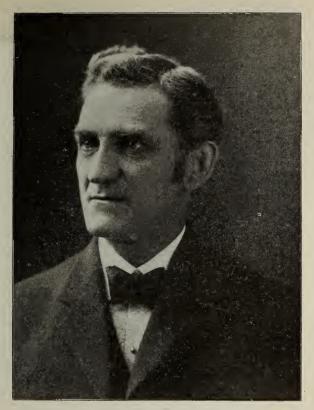

DR. W. M. DENMAN, who, with his colleague, Hon. T. M. Berry of Van Wert, represents the Thirty-second Senatorial District, comprising Allen, Auglaize, Mercer, Van Wert, Paulding, Defiance and Williams Counties, lives at West Unity, and is engaged in the practice of his profession in conjunction with various business enterprises. Is President of the West Unity Banking Company, President of the Brady Fire Insurance Company, both of which positions he has held for a period of over ten years; is propietor and sole owner of the West Unity Brick and Tile Manufacturing plant; is very much interested in agriculture, having two good farms on which he is raising good horses and other stock of good grade.

In politics a Democrat. Represented Williams County in the 74th General Assembly, but refused the second nomination, which was made by acclamation. Was elected to the present position without opposition. As a member of the Senate is Chairman of Committee of Claims, and member of the following committees: Bank and Banking, Finance, Public Works, Privileges and Elections, Commercial Corporations, Medical Colleges and Library. Is a member of the Masonic fraternity, a Knight Templar and life member of Ohio Consistory at Cincinnati, and charter member of Zenobia Temple Mystic Shrine at Toledo. Is married, and keeps house, where he is glad to have his friends visit him. No man in Northwestern Ohio has a wider circle of friends than Dr. Denman. He and Mrs. Denman are clever entertainers.

THIRTY-SECOND DISTRICT

Composed of the counties of Allen, Auglaize, Defiance, Mercer, Paulding, Van Wert and Williams.

THOMAS M. BERRY, Spencerville.

T HOMAS M. BERRY, the junior member from the 32d Senatorial District of Ohio, was born July 29, 1859, on the homestead farm which he now owns in Jennings township, Van Wert County, Ohio. He resided almost continuously for thirty-eight years on this farm. He obtained his education in the common schools of this township. Mr. Berry was honored by the citizens of his township by election to positions of trust. He was a member of the School Board for many years and township clerk for five years. He was elected on the Democratic ticket in 1896 to the office of County Auditor in his county by a majority of 23 votes; was re-elected in 1899 by a majority of 264 votes. Mr. Berry was nominated for State Senator at Wapakoneta, Ohio, on April 28, 1903, after a two days' convention, on the 92d ballot and was elected without opposition.

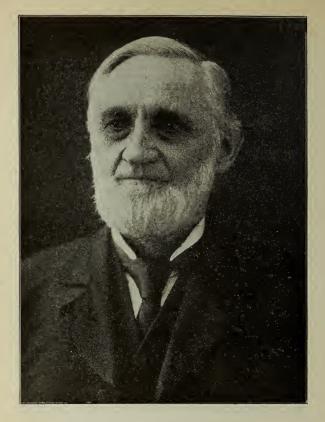

Senator Berry was united in marriage in 1880 to Miss Minnie L. Wolford, of Allen County; this union has been blessed with thirteen children, twelve of whom are living, ten girls and two boys.

He was re-elected without opposition to the 77th General Assembly. No more babies have been born to his family. In the 77th Senator Berry was one of the strong leaders, serving on several important committees. He was appointed a member of the Insurance Investigating Committee. In public and private life he has many warm friends.

THIRTY-THIRD DISTRICT

Composed of the counties of Fulton, Hancock, Henry, Putnam and Wood.

AMOS BOEHMER, Ottawa.

A MOS BOEHMER was born at Fort Jennings, Putnam County, Ohio, 1838, and has lived in the county all his life. He is of German parentage, his father, Hon. H. J. Boehmer, being a pioneer citizen who settled in the county in 1832, and represented the counties of Putnam and Henry in the Ohio Legislature in 1856 and 1857, and also Putnam County in 1864 and 1865.

His early days were spent upon a farm. His education was received in the public schools of Fort Jennings and Findlay, and afterwards in St. Xavier's College at Cincinnati. He was admitted to the bar in 1862, having studied law in the office of Nichols and Cunningham at Lima, Ohio, where he practiced for a short time, and then engaged in a general merchandise business at Fort Jennings.

In 1884 he was elected to the Ohio Legislature and re-elected in 1886. In 1896 he was elected Probate Judge, and served as such for six years.

His has been a busy useful life. He has the confidence and respect of all who know him. In 1905, along with Senator Beatty, he received the nomination by acclamation for State Senator of the 33d District. He was elected. As a member of the Senate he fills the position with intelligence and fidelity, occupying a high position in this body on account of his excellent judgment and correct conclusions on matters considered by it.

THIRTY-THIRD DISTRICT

Composed of the counties of Fulton, Hancock, Henry, Putnam and Wood.

RICHARD A. BEATTY, Bowling Green.

R ICHARD A. BEATTY was born February 23, 1859, on a farm near White Oak Springs, Butler County, Pa. He is of Scotch-Irish descent. He attended public schools until he was thirteen years old, and graduated from Harrisville High School at seventeen, married at 19. Left home without a dollar and worked in oil fields as a pumper at $60 per month for three months. Went to Big Shanty, McKean County, Pa., and engaged in grocery business with $10 capital. He built a cheap store room, and stocked up on credit in 1880. After being in this business for eighteen months he took an interest in an oil lease, and made money for two years. He then engaged in the drug business at Bradford, Pa., up to 1886, when he devoted all his time to oil interests until he sold his holdings in 1890.

He traveled extensively for one year when he made contract to sell goods on the road for a wholesale stationery house of Rochester, N. Y.

In 1893 he again entered the oil fields, operating in Ohio, Indiana, and West Virginia, but was not successful, and lost all he had. In 1894 he moved to Browling Green, where he now resides, and again made money in oil fields. In 1896 he went broke a second time and for three months had nothing. In 1897 he started again, this time as an oil broker and producer. In this he was most successful. Became a stock broker, and did business in all parts of the United States. Became a manufacturer of Safety Steel Derricks at Deshler, Ohio. Is now one of the directors of the First National Bank, of Bowling Green, Ohio. He promoted the L. E. and B. G. Electric Railway, and is one of its principal stockholders.

Mr. Beatty is a lifelong Democrat, casting his first vote for Grover Cleveland in 1884, and has voted for all Democrats since that time. Mr. Beatty was never a candidate for public office until 1905, when he was elected to the Ohio Senate from a Republican District. He has always been a generous contributor in political campaigns, even though not a candidate. His wife, one daughter and himself constitute his family. As Senator Mr. Beatty has had much to do with the important legislation enacted. He was chiefly intrumental in grouning the propel of the inheritance tax law.

strumental in securing the repeal of the inheritance tax law.

FREEMAN T. EAGLESON.

REEMAN T. EAGLESON, Republican, was born in Guernsey County, Ohio, October 4, 1876. Attended common schools, graduated under the Boxwell law; attended Washington High School and Muskingum College. Taught school six years. Began the study of law in 1901 with the firm of Locke & Turnbaugh, Cambridge, Ohio, finishing his law course at the Ohio State University. Was admitted to the bar in December, 1904. After the death of Mr. Locke, his former instructor, he formed a partnership for the practice of law with Mr. Turnbaugh, and is the junior member of the well known law firm of Turnbaugh & Eagleson, Cambridge, Ohio.

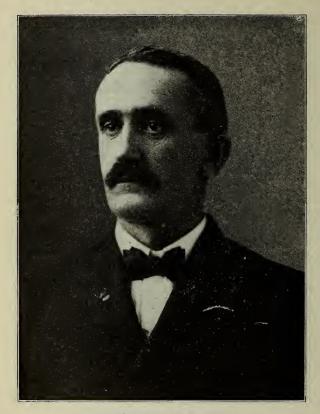

Mr. Eagleson was a member of the 76th General Assembly and is Speaker pro tem. of the House of Representatives of the 77th General Assembly.

HON. E. W. DOTY.

W: DOTY was re-elected Clerk of the House of Representatives of the 77th General Assembly, January 1st, 1906, having served as Clerk of the 76th General Assembly. He was born in St. Lawrence County, N. Y., in 1863; lived in Cleveland since 1868; educated in the public schools of Cleveland; was reporter and editorial writer on the Cleveland World; elected to the House of Representatives of the 70th General Assmbly, in which he was chairman of the Committee on Prisons and Prison Reform; and of the 71st General Assembly, of which he was chairman of the Committee on Finance; was chosen secretary of the school directors of Cleveland in 1898; was secretary of the Cleveland Citizens' Grand Army Committee of 1901. Mr. Doty was married in 1888 to Bertha Grace Bissell, and has two children.

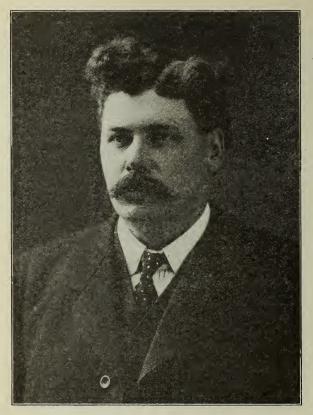

RICHARD GILSON,

Sergeant-at-Arms.

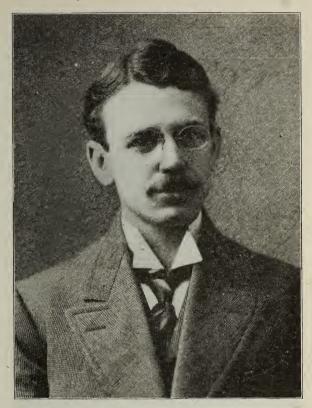

HON, FREDERICK BLANKNER.

FREDERICK BLANKNER, Third Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms, was born in Germany, July 28, 1836. One year later his parents moved to America and settled in Columbus, Ohio, where he has since resided. For two years he served in Company A, Fifth Battalion, O. V. I. In 1856 he was appointed porter in the House of Representatives and twice was reappointed to that position, after which he was elected Third Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms, which office he has held continuously to the present time, his valuable services being recognized by both political parties.

W. W. ACKLEY.

W. ACKLEY, Democrat, Representative from Noble County, was born January 24, 1869. Early life spent on a farm, and attending the district schools in Noble County. Entered the preparatory department of Buchtel College in 1886, and graduated from the collegiate department of that institution with the class of '91. Afterward returned to Noble County, and was elected Clerk of Courts in the year 1892. Since leaving the Clerk's office has been active in business life. Residence, Caldwell, Ohio, Member of standing committees on Claims and Insurance.

EUGENE ADLER.

EUGENE ADLER, Democrat, one of the Representatives of Hamilton County, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Leopold Adler, and was born in Montgomery, Ala., on the first day of March, 1874. At the age of seven he left his native city in companionship with his parents for a sojourn to Germany, and returned, locating in Cincinnati at the age of nine.

At an early age he left school, and began to shift for himself. He was married to Miss Nancy Weil, of Cincinnati, on the 12th day of April, 1896, and they have a beautiful home at 1844 Kinney avenue, Walnut Hills. They have two children, Sylvia C., aged nine, and Sidney F., aged five.

Mr. Adler is a graduate of the University Law School of Cincinnati, and was admitted to the bar in June, 1898. He is one of Cincinnati's self-made attorneys, and for ten years has been associated with the law firm of Cohen & Mack.

Mr. Adler is identified with a number of fraternal organizations. He is Past Noble Grand of Franklin Lodge, No. 4, I. O. O. F., Past Regent of Gem Council, Royal Arcanum, Past Commander of Queen City Lodge No. 17, Knights of Insenh and a member of Oueen City Lodge No. 563. Knights of Pythias.

of Joseph, and a member of Queen City Lodge No. 563, Knights of Pythias.

He is a staunch Democrat, and has many friends who enjoy the sincerity of his friendship. He was elected in November, 1905, on a platform of reform, and is a strong advocate of clean and honest politics. He is also a member of the Duckworth Club and the Cincinnati Democratic Club.

DOW AIKIN.

DOW AIKIN is chairman of the Committee on Corporations, a member of the Judiciary Committee, of the Railroads and Telegraphs Committee, and of the Committee on Military Affairs. The most notable piece of legislation with which he was connected, perhaps, was the introducing and urging to passage the Aikin law increasing the tax on retail dealers in intoxicating liquors to one thousand dollars.

RANDALL H. ANDERSON.

RANDALL H. ANDERSON, born 1877. Republican. Received education in the common schools of Youngstown. Occupation farmer. Member of Elks, I. O. O. F. and F. O. E.

WILLIAM A. ASHBROOK.

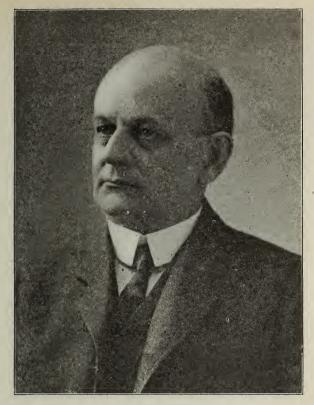

WILLIAM A. ASHBROOK was born at Johnstown, O., July 1, 1867. When seventeen years of age he became the editor and proprietor of the Johnstown Independent, and has ever since continued to edit and publish this paper, which ranks well with papers of its class. He assisted in organizing The Johnstown Building Association Company in 1889; was elected its first secretary and has ever since so served, the assets of this institution now amounting to a half million dollars. He is the cashier of the Citizens' Bank, Johnstown, cashier of the Alexandria Bank, and cashier of the Croton Bank. He has built up the largest fire and life insurance agencies in Licking County.

Mr. Ashbrook is a member of the Buckeye, Ohio & Hocking Valley Editorial Associations, and is secretary of the National Editorial Association of the U.S., and has charge of the annual outings of the N.E. A. Last year he had charge of a party of 700 editors on a thirty-two days' trip, traveling over 9,000 miles.

CHARLES A. BURCKHARDT.

MR. CHAS. A. BURCKHARDT was born in Cincinnati at Liberty and Vine Streets in 1860, and is the son of German pioneers. He received his education at St. Francis School, and later spent a year at St. Joseph's College. As a boy he held positions with several business houses with credit to himself and satisfaction to his employers. He was one of the organization. He has been a Democrat in all kinds of weather and his loyalty to his party has never been questioned. When the Duckworth Club was organized he was one of the original seventeen members, and during the quarter of a century which has elapsed since then, he has been unwavering in the pledge made then by that gallant band of men who stood for the principles annunciated by Thomas Jefferson.

Mr. Burckhardt served two years as a member of council of St. Bernard. For four years he was a member of the Board of Health of that municipality, and stands out clear and sharp as one of the leading citizens of the thriving municipality. His first venture in politics was when he was appointed Superintendent of Markets by Mayor Stevens, a position which he filled well, and from which he retired with the best wishes of the business men with whom he had been thrown in contact during his term of office.

Mr. Burckhardt is at present Superintendent of Streets and Public Buildings of St. Bernard, and resides there with his family.

W. H. BURNETT.

W. H. BURNETT, member of the 77th General Assembly, was born and raised in Highland County. His education was received in the country schools.

Graduated from the law department at the University of Michigan, at Ann Arbor, Michigan, in 1900, was admitted to practice law in Ohio in June of the same year, and has been engaged in practice of his chosen profession ever since. Was married October 17, 1900, to Leota Bowman. Was nominated and elected State Representative November 7, 1905, as a member of the 77th General Assembly. Served during the first session of the 77th General Assembly and is now engaged in the law practice at 925-6 Reibold Building, Dayton, Ohio.

JOSEPH WILLIAM CONROY.

JOSEPH WILLIAM CONROY, Democratic Representative from Hamilton County, was born on the 10th day of May, 1877, in the City of Cincinnati. He received his early education in the public schools and graduated in classics from St. Joseph's College in June, 1893.

In 1894, Mr. Conroy took service with the C. C. C. & St. L. Railway Company in a clerical capacity; in 1900 he entered Law School and was admitted to the bar in June, 1903.

On the first day of January, 1904, he entered the practice of law, in which he has been very successful.

Mr. Conroy is prominent in various organizations and President of the Federation of Catholic Societies in Hamilton County, having an indirect membership of 5,000.

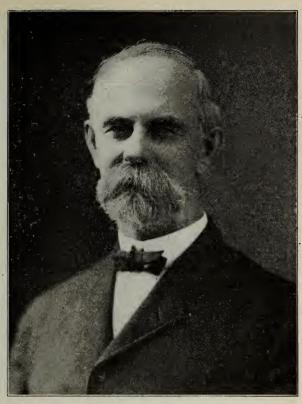

He is a member of Committees on Public Works and Villages.

ALVAH R. CORLETT.

A LVAH R. CORLETT, Democrat, Representative from Cuyahoga County, was born at Warrensville, Cuyahoga County, Ohio, March 6th, 1882. He received his education in the public schools of Warrensville, and after graduating from the High School entered Western Reserve Academy where he spent two years, graduating with the class of 1902. He then attended Adelbert College of Western Reserve University.

Mr. Corlett entered upon his political career before he had barely reached his majority, having been elected committee man and president of his ward club when but a few days past his twenty-first year. He is also the youngest member of the 77th General Assembly. He was married June 20th, 1905, and has one daughter. He is a member of the committees on Manufactures and Commerce, and Common Schools, being secretary of both committees.

WILLIAM BROWER COSGRAVE.

WILLIAM BROWER COSGRAVE was born April 15, 1848, at Cosgrave Hall, Union County, Pa. In March, 1853, the family came to Ohio, locating at Cumberland, Guernsey County. Here he attended the public schools and grew to manhood, securing his first legislative experience as a page in the House of Representatives during the sessions of 1863-4. He was employed as clerk in a general store at Cumberland for seven years, and then purchased a hardware and grocery business, continuing the same for three years. Upon selling out, he removed to Cambridge, purchasing the wholesale grocery of E. E. Reed & Co., and continuing the business for ten years under the name of W. B. Cosgrave & Co. In January, 1878, he was married at Cambridge to Mary V. Lofland. In 1885 he purchased the interest of F. C. Dietz, of Dietz & Harper, wholesale grocers, Zanesville, Ohio, changing the firm name to Harper & Cosgrave, and continuing until 1897, when he disposed of his interest. He held the office of vice-president of the Union National Bank, of Zanesville, and in 1902 succeeded John Hage as president, which position he still holds. Mr. Cosgrave is also connected with several other Zanesville concerns, being president of the Mercantile Co., the W. B. Cosgrave Shoe Co., the Young Hardware Co., and the Model Laundry. Always taking an interest in public affairs, he has served in the City Council, connected with the Board of Trade and Chamber of Commerce, and a director of the Masonic Temple Co., although not a member of the order. He was elected to the 77th General Assembly as a Democrat by a majority of 572, although Muskingum County went for Roosevelt the previous year by 2,200.

DR. A. J. CRAWFORD.

PR. A. J. CRAWFORD, an able member of the medical fraternity, was elected a member of the 76th General Assembly, and returned as a member of the 77th General Assembly. Dr. Crawford is a gentleman in every sense of the word; broad minded and liberal, a true friend and an able legislator; elected by the Republicans of his county to his present seat. He has made an enviable record. He is on the committees of Taxation, Dairy and Food and Medical Colleges.

Was born in Perry County, near New Straitsville, March 6, 1862. He was reared on a farm. After completing his literary education, he read medicine with Dr. H. C. Allen, of New Straitsville, and later attended the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Baltimore, Maryland, taking a special course in surgery and graduating from the institution in March, 1887. He immediately began the practice of his profession in Glouster, and in seventeen years of residence there has built up a large practice and thoroughly established himself in the confidence of the public.

He was married February 14, 1889, to Miss Ella Jones, of Glouster. They have one daughter, Helen.

Dr. Crawford is surgeon for the Toledo and Ohio Central Bailroad, Kanawha and Michigan Railroad, and Columbus, Sandusky and Hocking Railroad. He is a Mason, Knight of Pythias, Odd Fellow and Elk.

HARRY W. CRIST.

HARRY W. CRIST, Republican, Representative from Delaware County, was born in that county November 19th, 1875, and has lived there the greater part of his life, having spent thirteen years, however, in Morrow County, and a year in Cleveland, Ohio. He graduated from the High School at Ostrander, Ohio, and from the University of Wooster, and was admitted to the bar in 1900, since which time he has practiced law at Delaware, Ohio. In 1904 he was appointed Referee in Bankruptcy by Judge Thompson, resigning the position to take his seat in the 77th General Assembly.

He is a member of the standing committees on Railroads and Telegraphs, Banks and Banking, Manufactures and Commerce, and Institution for the Deaf and Dumb.

DR. JOHN H. CRISWELL.

DR. JOHN H. CRISWELL was born December 22, 1850, in Morrow County, Ohio, near Mt. Gilead. Was educated in the district and high school of Mt. Gilead. Studied medicine with Dr. N. Tucker in Mt. Gilead, and graduated from the Cincinnati College of Medicine and Surgery, and located the same year in Caledonia, Marion County, Ohio. Practiced there until the fall of 1884, when he was elected Probate Judge and served two terms, after which he resumed the practice of medicine. He was elected as a Democrat to the 76th General Assembly, and re-elected to the 77th. Married in 1874 in Mt. Gilead to Miss Cassie E. Barton.

Is a member of the following committees: Cities and Medical Juris-prudence.

F. F. DEMUTH.

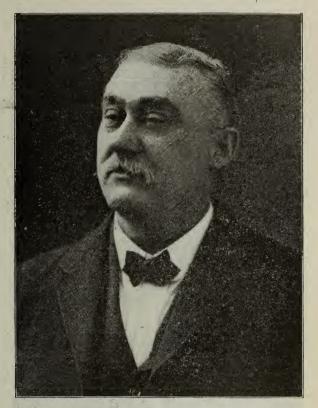

B<sup>ORN</sup> on a farm in Lucas County in 1856. Received common school education. Started out as just an ordinary fellow and has continued the same for fifty years. Never considered very religious, but always had a good appetite. United in marriage to Miss Margaret L. Crosby, who is considered the religious partner of the firm, and rightly, too. Four sons help to complete the family, and were also great factors in depleting the exchequer in going through the different colleges in the past fifteen years. Commenced the study of medicine in 1876. Graduated in 1882. Practiced for twenty-five years and would be still at it were it not for the fact that the patrons are either dead or moved away.

After the close of the Legislature I expect to go into special work; my cards will read like this: F. F. Demuth, M. D. Special work. The treatment of men, women and children a specialty. Office hours from 4 A. M. to 11:30 P. M. Come early and avoid the rush.

NOAH J. DEVER.

NOAH J. DEVER, of Portsmouth, was born August 17th, 1850, on a farm in Scioto County, Ohio. He attended the district schools, the Jackson High School, Lebanon University, the Iron City College, and taught school. In 1873 he was graduated from The Cincinnati Law School and admitted to practice in the State and Federal Courts, and has ever since been engaged in the practice of his profession. He served twelve years from 1873 as school examiner of Scioto County, served five years from 1879 as Prosecuting Attorney of that County, served ten years from 1887 as Common Pleas Judge, of the Seventh Judicial District, Ohio. For five years he has been, and still is, a member of the Board of Education of Portsmouth. He was elected Representative to the Seventy-seventh General Assembly from Scioto County. He has always been a Republican.

NICHOLAS DIEHL.

NICHOLAS DIEHL, Democrat, Representative from Hamilton County, was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, October 18th, 1849, where he has resided all his life. He received his education in St. John's Parochial Schools. Mr. Diehl is in the true sense of the word "a self-made man," for early in his life he was compelled to earn his own living by hard work. He learned the trade of machine moulding, and became a successful commission merchant, retiring from business in 1898. His parents were George Diehl and Anna Marie Diehl, nee Becker. He was married in 1873 to Miss Josephine Butscha, who departed this life leaving no children. His second marriage was consummated when he married Miss Josephine Ervent in 1897. Four children, two boys and two girls, are the issue of this marriage.

He has always been a Democrat, having been a delegate to many Democratic conventions, but was never an offensive partisan. He is a man of sterling integrity and has won the respect of all who know him. He is the treasurer of the Findlay Market No. 2 Loan and Building Company, of the Unity Banking and Savings Company, and of St. John's Congregation, and is a member, and for a number of years served as one of the Trustees of the St. Aloysius Orphan Society, one of the most prominent charitable societies of the City of Cincinnati.

WILLIAM DOUGLAS DITMARS.

WILLIAM DOUGLAS DITMARS.

I WAS born same as others. Ever since Monday morning of the week the Civil war broke out, I have been getting older. I came in time for the war but didn't go. I kept the war going, however, as long as I could. My father was of Holland descent and my mother full Irish. They were both good people. They gave me good raising on the farm in Holmes County, where I was produced, educating me in the district school, the High School of Shreve, and in the Baldwin University at Berea, Ohio. They gave me all my brothers and sisters before I was born. They taught me to work and they set before me their lives full of noble and Christian examples. They lived to be ripe with age, and I shall never forget the two sad days when I stood with breaking heart at the open grave of each of them, and saw them returned to Mother Earth; but my grief has been lessened day by day until their graves have become to me a place of peace, and a comfort to my soul. My, but they were good people.

I am a farmer and a member of the House of Representatives from the County of Holmes, where Democracy stands for as high citizenship, as broad culture and as pure government as anywhere else in the world. For a term of six years I had the marriage ceremony in my office to use, and all those I glued together with it are united yet. I had this glue used on me once, and as a result, Grace Elenor Greenwalt, of Ft. Wayne, Indiana, is my wife, and Douglas Doyle, a lad of ten years, is our child. I can recommend this paste to those of my fellow members of the House who wear the bare brow of bachelors.

Am on the committee of Common Schools and Public Highways and Turnpikes. Am not cranky to make speeches nor to introduce bills; but the Dutch and Irish in me stand sentinel over my vote that it be directed aright, and not miss the object for which it was given me by good, old Father Washington and my parental ancestors of his day. I prize it highly. The lobby has found it too high priced for them, and when I want to realize fully the true value of my vote I go to my room at home where I have safely stored away a Revolutionary gun that one of my parental ancestors carried in the army of New Jersey under Washington, and as I look upon that dear old relic I can realize quite fully the value of my vote. God bless that old gun!

The lobbyists here are, some good, some bad, and some worse. The worse are a bane to good legislation, who would misdirect a vote, the most sacred gift man ever fell heir to. Begone from the State house, you dare-devil you.

My desire is to serve my constituents' will; and, as I have been asked to drop a few biographical words under my portrait, I am now at liberty to thank you for your attention as you pass on to the next.

DAVID ELEY.

DAVID ELEY, Democrat, Representative from Ashland County, was born at Lake Fork, Ohio, July 29, 1860. His ancestors fought for freedom in the Revolutionary war. His youth was spent on the farm where he now lives, attending school in the winter and working on the farm in the summer. He attended the college at Smithville, and also at the Mansfield Normal School, fitting himself for a civil engineer.

He was married in 1882 to Stella Riffle, and to them were born two children, Pearl and Josephine. In 1892 Pearl's health began to fail and in hope of restoring her health, her husband, parents and sister went with her to Colorado Springs, Colorado, where she died July 30 of the same year.

to Colorado Springs, Colorado, where she died July 30 of the same year.

While in Colorado in company with John Aber and T. R. Garn he walked from Manitou to the top of Pike's Peak, a distance of nine miles, going up at night in order to be at the summit at sunrise.

He has been president of the School Board, Justice of the Peace, and in the spring of 1903 was one of the candidates for the nomination for Reresentative for the joint district composed of Ashland and Holmes Counties, for which he was nominated and elected with practically no opposition.

Was elected from Ashland County in 1905. Is a member of the committees

Served on the Judiciary and Committee on Claims; was the author of the "Harlan Bill," which cut down the county auditors' double fees, and saved a large sum of money to the school funds of the State.

DR. E. B. HARPER.

R. E. B. HARPER of Clinton, Summit County, is serving his second term in the General Assembly of Ohio, having led the Republican legislative ticket at a time when Gov. Pattison carried Summit County by nearly a thousand votes, a condition without precedent.

Dr. Harper asserted his independence in the 76th and 77th General Assemblies, and has never failed to be guided by his best judgment, rather than that of the lobbyist; he knows what his people want and so far as he is able, is determined they shall have it.

He took an important part in the shaping of all temperance measures, the two-cent fare bill, the county salary bill, the compulsory depository law for public funds, the bill giving Summit County a second Common Pleas Judge, and many other bills, never missed a roll call and took an active part in all of the deliberations of the House.

DR. JAS. O. HAWKINS.

DR. JAS. O. HAWKINS.

DURING the eighteen years of Dr. J. O. Hawkins' residence in Wellston, he has gone steadily to the front in his profession and in the estimation of the people. Born on a farm in Hocking County, Ohio, he was brought up as the son of a farmer until he was 16 years of age, attending the country district school during the winter months and assisting in the farm work during the summer. At this age he entered the public schools of Nelsonville for one year. About 1872 his parents sold their mineral land holdings in the Hocking Valley and removed to Vinton County, near McArthur. The next two years of the Doctor's life was spent in district schools of the neighborhood and in the public schools of McArthur. Following these came four years of teaching, the intervals between terms being spent in college. He took a special course in anatomy and physiology at the Ohio State University at Columbus, Ohio, and begun the study of dentistry in 1880 while teaching school. In the spring of 1881 he entered the office of Dr. A. M. Wright of McArthur, Ohio, where he continued his studies almost continually until July, 1883, at which time he succeeded to Dr. Wright's practice by purchase. Dr. Hawkins determined to seek larger fields, however, and in August, 1884, he sold his business in McArthur and came to Wellston, where he has since resided, enjoying a continually increasing practice extending to all the surrounding towns and villages.

A few weeks after coming to Wellston, Dr. Hawkins took a special course at the Post-Graduate School of Prosthetic Dentistry of Chicago, covering metal plate, porcelain, crown, bridge work and all the advanced methods. Dr. Hawkins has twice married, his first wife being Miss Lucy F. Holland, daughter of Dr. Holland of McArthur. She died in this city November 1st, 1889. The present Mrs. Hawkins was Miss Nellie Hoop, daughter of the late Peter Hoop of this city. To this union one child has been born, Florence May, a winsome little miss of 13 years. He has one of the most attractive homes in the city, at the corner of Broadway and Pennsylvania avenue, adjacent to which is his office. This office building was built only about two years ago and is an attractive cottage building of modern architectural design containing reception room, operating room and laboratories. They are all elegantly furnished and thoroughly equipped with all the modern appliances for the practice of dentistry; in fact, there are few if any more up-to-date dental parlors in any of the larger cities, and the Doctor is a practitioner equal to the best.

Wellston.

While wedded to his profession, the Doctor recognizes his duty as a citizen and finds some time to devote to public affairs. He was elected a member of the Board of Water Works in 1889 for a term of three years and was re-elected for a second term at the recent spring election. He has given much time to the study of water conditions and plans for their betterment, always keeping in mind the best interests of the public. He is a member of the Ohio Dental Society, a Third Degree Mason, a member of the Knights of Pythias, Red Men and Modern Woodmen of America. He is a Republican in politics and a member of the M. E. church. By his own ability, energies and integrity, Dr. Hawkins has made for himself an enviable place in his profession and is an honored and respected citizen of the city of

ELIJAH W. HILL.

ELIJAH W. HILL, Republican member from Columbiana County, was born near Salineville, Columbiana County, on February 19, 1870. His parents were of Pennsylvania origin, whose antecedents on the paternal side descended from one of the Hill families who emigrated to this country from England in the early part of the seventeenth century and settled in Massachusetts; on the maternal side from one of the Cowan families, of English origin also, who came to this country and settled in Pennsylvania just after the middle of the eighteenth century. Representative Hill's parents came to Ohio in 1861, and resided near and in Salineville for nearly thirty years. His residence is at East Liverpool, where he is engaged in the business of dealing in real estate.

Educated in the common schools, energetic, hard working and public spirited, his constituents honored him to the extent of sending him to the 76th General Assembly and re-elected him to the 77th General Assembly by an increased majority. Liverpool Township, which embraces the city of East Liverpool within its limits, in 1897 elected him to the office of Justice of the Peace. As such he was one of the leading ones in the township and though sitting upon hundreds of cases, contested and otherwise, he neither had a case appealed from his court to any higher court nor carried up on error.

appealed from his court to any higher court nor carried up on error.

Mr. Hill is married, his wife's maiden name having been Cora Ellen Rogers, daughter of Francis Rogers, a prominent business man of Salineville.

He has two children, Janet Frances and Roger Cowan.

Mr. Hill is a member of East Liverpool Lodge, No. 379, I. O. O. F.; is an Elk and also a K. of P. In religion he is a Methodist.

· FRANK HILLENKAMP.

RANK HILLENKAMP was born in Heschede, Westphalia, November 5th, 1849, left the high school in the fall of 1865 and served four years in a dry goods store in Loest, Westphalia. Had two brothers serving in the Prussian army in 1869; being opposed to serving in the army and unable to procure a pass, he skipped across Belgium to the United States in August, 1869.

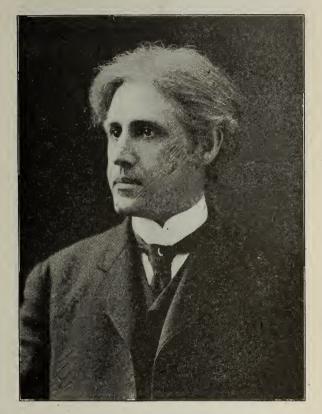

After clerking nearly two years in a dry goods store in Port Huron, Michigan, he came to Toledo, Ohio, in July, 1871, where he clerked in different capacities until he established the firm of Schunk, Hillenkamp & Co. in March, 1886, which firm incorporated in 1893 as the Star Hardware Co. Owing to nervous prostration he sold out his interest in the company during the winter of 1898 and opened a furniture and housefurnishing store in September, 1898.

Was appointed a member of the Toledo Fire Commissioners in 1894, reappointed in 1898, and 1902, in the independent movement, and was elected to the 77th General Assembly as an independent.

FRANK A. HOILES.

FRANK A. HOILES, of Alliance, Republican, Representative from Stark County, was born on a farm in that county in 1866. He was elected by a plurality of 3,889, exactly the plurality of Governor Herrick in Stark County. Mr. Hoiles was educated in the country schools and Mt. Union College; taught in district and city schools seven years; published an arithmetic and history that reached a sale of 10,000 copies; learned the printer's trade and purchased an interest in the Alliance Daily Review, of which he served on the following committees: Federal Relations, Finance, Public Printing and Taxation (chairman).

R. C. HUEY.

C. HUEY, Republican, Representative from Mahoning County. Member of the 76th and 77th General Assemblies. Mr. Huey was a member of the Standing Committees on Rules, Cities, and Corporations and was chairman of the Fees and Salaries Committee.

He is an attorney-at-law located at Youngstown, Ohio.

HENRY T. HUNT.

ENRY T. HUNT, born Cincinnati, Ohio, April 29, 1878. Parents, Samuel Hunt and Martha Trotter Hunt. Father's business, railroad superintendent, later president. From 1881 to 1888, resided, Kentucky, Georgia, Missouri and Kansas, but since 1888 in Cincinnati, Ohio. Educated, common schools of these several states. Admitted Yale College, September, 1896; was one of the eight Ten Eyck prize winners, junior year, and one of six Townsend prize winners, senior year. Nature of prizes, literary. Graduated 1900. Entered Cincinnati Law School, October, 1900; admitted Ohio bar, June, 1903. Elected member executive committee Citizens' Municipal party, January, 1904. Believer in complete separation of municipal from national party politics. Nominated and elected member House of Representatives, November, 1905, on the Democratic ticket. Active worker for Australian ballot and election law reform generally. Helped to bring about repeal of Dana law. Believer in home rule for cities; in national politics, Democratic; advocates free trade, opposes imperialism and centralization of power in Federal government.

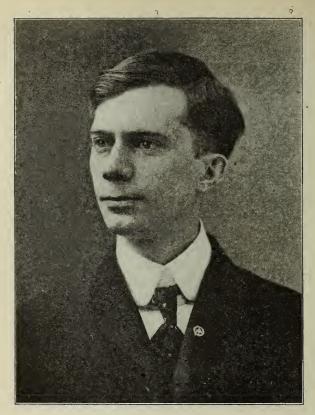

Member of Committees on Election and Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans'

Home.

ROBERT E. HUTCHISON.

ROBERT E HUTCHISON was born in Butler County, Pennsylvania, June 29th, 1871, his father being a United Presbyterian minister. When two years of age he moved with his parents to Ottawa, Franklin County, Kansas, where he was educated in the public schools. In 1889 he came to Ohio and entered Savannah Academy, graduating therefrom in 1892. In 1896 he graduated from the law department of the University of Michigan, receiving the degree of LL. B. In March, 1897, he was admitted to the bar of Ohio, and has since been practicing his profession at Mansfield, Richland County. Mr. Hutchison comes of a patriotic ancestry. His paternal greatgrandfather was a soldier in the Revolutionary War, having crossed the Delaware and spent the winter at Valley Forge with Washington's army; and his father was captain of Company A, Pennsylvania Heavy Artillery, in the great Civil War. EARL H. IRVIN.

EARL H. IRVIN was born at New Paris, Ohio, May 9, 1877. His father and mother both died during his infancy, and thus his future destinies were placed in the hands of strangers. At the age of 16 he began to learn the printing business in the office of the New Paris Mirror, where he was employed for three years. In the fall of 1896 he made a trip south, and was employed in printing offices in Nashville and Chattanooga, Tenn. Later he returned to Richmond, Ind., and in 1897 he purchased an interest in the New Madison (Ohio) Herald, where he remained until January 1, 1898, at which time he sold out his interests and returned to New Paris, where he re-entered the Mirror office as foreman. During this time he served as councilman and mayor of the village and his administration was marked because of its vigorous policy of local improvement.

On April 26, 1899, he was married to Miss Jennie Boatman, of Seven Mile, Ohio, and their home is now blessed with three interesting little daughters.

On March 1, 1902, he purchased the Eaton Democrat, an old established journal, since which time he has been the sole editor and proprietor. In 1905 he established the West Alexandria Record, and both papers are now on a good and sound footing.

WILLIAM JESSUP.

WILLIAM JESSUP.

RIOGRAPHY of William Jessup, from Hamilton County, member of the 77th General Assembly. The grandfather of the above named was a native of Scotland (Inverness). He emigrated to America about 1774 or 1775, served through the Revolutionary War and then settled in the state of New York. He married a native of New York of Holland descent. The father of Mr. Jessup was born on December 4th, 1798, in Dutchess County, New York; came west in 1819, and after residing for several years in Indiana permanently settled (about 1833) in Whitewater township, Hamilton County, Ohio (where Mr. Jessup was born); in 1853 he removed to Harrison township, Hamilton County, O. He held many public offices; he was a member of the General Assembly of Ohio in 1860 and 1861 at the breaking out of the Civil War. He died in 1876.

The mother of Mr. Jessup was a native of old Virginia in the vicinity of Petersburg, and was of English parentage.

William Jessup, of whom this is written, was born in Whitewater township, Hamilton County, Ohio, on the 22d day of April, 1841. He attended the district schools and Harrison Institute, and during vacations mastered the arduous vocation of farming; in 1859 entered Miami University at Oxford. At the breaking out of the Civil War he quite the university, and enlisted in Caption of the Civil War he quite the university Guards." three tain McFarland's company, known then as the "University Guards," three months' service. On account of an accident he was unable to go with them and was not mustered; on his recovery from the injury in August, 1861, he joined Captain Charles S. Hayes' company, which became Company D, 5th Ohio Volunteer Cavalry; he was elected second lieutenant at the organization of the company September 11, 1861, and was promoted successively to first lieutenant and captain, in which position he served until discharged at the expiration of his term on January 31, 1865, at Sisters Ferry, Ga. His services in the war were with the Army of the Tennessee; he participated in the battles of Shiloh, Corinth, Metamora (or Davis' Bridge), Lagrange, and innumerable fights and skirmishes, scouts and raids along the Memphis and Charleston R. R. from Memphis to Chattanooga, and the battles of Chattahoochie, Holly Springs, Water Valley and Coffeeville, in what is called "Grant's retrograde movement," while pursuing rebel General Pemberton toward Vicksburg. In April, 1864, he was detailed as additional aid de camp on the staff of Major General John A. Logan commanding the 15th army corps, and acted as such through the Atlanta campaign, and participated in all battles in which the 15th corps was engaged. On the death of General McPherson, July 22, 1864, he served a short time as an A. A. D. C. to General Morgan L. Smith until the fall of Atlanta and subsequent battle of Jonesboro, the last stand of Confederate General Hood. In the fall of 1864 he rejoined his regiment attached to Major General Judson Kilpatrick's cavalry division, which took the advance of the march to the sea.

After his return from the army in the fall of 1865, he was nominated for Representative, was defeated with the whole Democratic ticket. He followed for many years the vocation of farming; learned bookkeeping and followed it for a while. In 1877 he was elected a Representative to the 63d General Assembly. He has held the office of justice of the peace, councilman, school board director, deputy county clerk, deputy county treasurer and U.S. government storekeeper. He resided and was in business in Kentucky for severage. eral years. Has always been a staunch and true Democrat of the Jeffersonian type; believes those principles carried into effect is all that is needed to insure equal and exact justice to all and prevent graft and dishonesty in public affairs.

AVERY C. JONES.

A VERY C. JONES, Republican, Representative from Jefferson County, who also served in the 76th General Assembly. He has lived nearly all of his life upon the farm, and at the present time is actively engaged in agriculture. Residence, Yorkville, Ohio. He is a member of the standing committees on Finance, Library, Temperance and chairman of the Dairy and Food Products, and is the author of the Jones Residence Local Option Bill.

A. H. JUDY.

At the Democratic state convention held in 1905, Mr. Judy appeared before the Committee on Resolutions and submitted a plank for their consideration and an outline for the party's platform. Strange to say, the results of the deliberations of that committee included Mr. Judy's plank without change, and the outline was followed almost without deviation. He was appointed by Governor Herrick as a member of the committee to secure a location for a new hospital for the insane, and which is said to be the finest and cheapest site ever purchased for a state institution. It is located at Lima. His coolness and foresight helped in a great measure to solve the university muddle and bring about the adjustment reached. No member of either branch did more to promulgate the agricultural interests and secure the liberal appropriations for this branch of our state's interests than he. Keen and sincere, using his own judgment in determining matters, acting perfectly free and unprejudiced on all questions. Having had a large experience in agriculture, shipping, transportation and mercantile lines, and having been a close student of conditions and people his record can only show him to be squarely on the side of his constituency at all times. In all the heated sessions wherever he is found, the same genteel, courteous manner is extended to friend and foe, which only adds to his strength among his fellows and associates.

JOSEPH JUSTICE.

JOSEPH JUSTICE.

THE subject of this sketch is one of the Democratic members of the 77th General Assembly of Ohio, serving his first term as a Representative from Putnam County. He was born near Waldo in Marion County, Ohio, January 27, 1846. He is a son of John and Jane (Lloyd) Justice; was reared on the farm to manhood, receiving a good common school education. When nineteen he began teaching school and taught for five years. In the spring of 1872 he moved to Putnam County, and located at Columbus Grove, where he entered the mercantile business. On October 14, 1875, he was married to Miss C. Irene, daughter of Eli and Melissa (Hall) Henderson. To this union were born three sons, two of whom are living, Charles L., an attorney-at-law at Marion, Ohio, and Joseph M. at Ottawa, engaged with his father in the grain and elevator business.

In politics Mr. Justice is and always has been solidly Democratic. firmly advocating the principles of his chosen party, fully believing that said principles are just and right, but always granting to his opponents the same rights to their opinions that he claims for himself.

He was elected mayor of the village of Ottawa in 1882, and re-elected in 1884. Was elected Recorder of Putnam County in 1889 and again in 1892. serving two full terms. August 5, 1905, he was nominated for Representative by the Democrats of Putnam County in a red hot primary, winning out by only 13 votes over his nearest competitor in a field of four candidates, and elected to his present position November 7, 1905. He is serving as a member of the standing committee on Railroads and Telegraphs, also on Committee of Girls' Industrial Home. In his legislative actions he is controlled by the Jeffersonian principle of "equal and exact justice to all," and special privileges to none, a principle in which he is a firm believer.

In fraternal life Mr. Justice is a Mason only, in which order he has been an active worker for many years; was initiated in Marion Lodge, No. 70. F. and A. M., April 23d, 1869. Has served as Worshipful Master for twelve years; High Priest for six years, also thrice Illustrious Master of his council for nine years; is still a regular attendant of all the meetings and nothing affords him more pleasure than to gather with those who "meet upon the level and part upon the square."

JOSEPH P. KEALY.

JOSEPH P. KEALY.

JOSEPH P. KEALY, Democrat, was elected to represent the people of Hamilton County on November 7, 1905. He participated largely in the remarkable movement to overthrow the political machine built by George B. Cox in Cincinnati, which had controlled the affairs of Hamilton County and Cincinnati for a quarter of a century.

Mr. Kealy, in company with the candidate for mayor—Judge Dempsey—canvassed the entire city and county, delivering over fifty speeches. He fear-lessly and uncompromisingly denounced "gang rule," and exposed the reprehensible methods and the enormous grafting of the "Cox gang." Although the county of Hamilton had given Roosevelt over 40,000 majority the fall previous, Kealy was elected by almost 1,700 majority. This was Mr. Kealy's first experience in public life, and his first outdoor speeches were made in his canvass for election.

During the regular session of the 77th General Assembly he was unusually active for a new member. He was not placed on any important committees, but he introduced a resolution into the House increasing the number of the Committee on Cities by one, and he was placed upon that important committee by the Speaker when the resolution carried. Mr. Kealy introduced the resolution to investigate the public affairs of Cincinnati and Hamilton County, which, with slight amendment, was subsequently passed by the Senate. The results of that investigation are now matters of history.

Representative Kealy also introduced the bill providing for the repeal of the infamous Dana law, which passed both houses. Kealy's vote went for all reform measures, and in all matters where the people's interests and that of corporations clashed he was for the people. At the opening of the session he was selected by the Democrats as vice-leader, and he was not a disappointment.

Mr. Kealy was born in Cincinnati on March 23, 1854, and was educated in the Cathedral school and in the Queen City Commercial College of Cincinnati. He is a journalist, and has written many children's stories.

WILLIAM A. KEHNAST.

WILLIAM A. KEHNAST.

WILLIAM A. KEHNAST, Democratic Representative from Defiance County, Ohio, was born in the village of Moehrenbach, Thuringia, near the city of Erfurt, Germany. At the age of 13 he emigrated to America, landing in New York City, in June, 1860. Thence he went to Tonawanda, Erie County, New York, where he attended an English school. During the month of March, 1861, he migrated west to Henry County, Ohio, and a year later eame to his present home, Defiance County, where he accepted a position as clerk in a grocery store. The following winter he attended school. In 1863, Mr. Kehnast enlisted in Company E, Ninth Ohio Cavalry, and at Athens, Ala., was detailed as orderly on the staff of General Dodge, then commanding the left wing of the Sixteenth Army Corps. He was mustered out July 26, 1865, took the train for home, and on the morning after his arrival there resumed the clerkship he had resigned at the time of his enlistment. In 1870 he engaged in the hardware business, which is still his occupation.

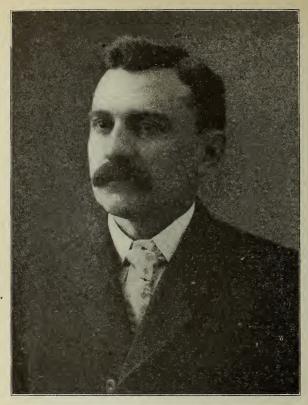

Socially Mr. Kehnast is an active working member of the Grand Army of the Republic, a Past Commander of the local Bishop Post No. 22, G. A. R. He has the same interest in the Masonic order, being a thirty-second degree Mason, a Shriner and Past Commander of Defiance Commandery, No. 30. He has been elected to and has served in local offices of honor and trust, such as member, treasurer and president of the city school board and member of the city council.

Mr. Kehnast has been an extensive and observant traveler through Canada, from the upper lakes to New Orleans, Florida and the Gulf of Mexico, and from the prominent cities of the Atlantic coast to the far West, including Washington, California and the National Yellowstone Park. He enjoyed one month's travel through Old Mexico, a six weeks' cruise through the West Indies to Bermuda, Saint Croix, Antigua, Dominica, Martinique, St. Lucia, Barbados, Georgetown, British Guiana, St. Thomas, Porto Ricô, Santiago de Cuba and Havana, at which point he boarded the hull of the ill-fated Maine still lying in the harbor and secured a piece of her armor plate. He has crossed the Atlantic seven times, and in his travels abroad visited Liverpool, London, Paris, various cities in Switzerland, Mainz, going down the Rhine to Cologne; Strassburg, Leipzig, Berlin and other cities in Germany. On his last visit abroad he was accompanied by his wife. They have two daughters, Nellie and Minnie.

Mr. Kehnast was re-elected as a member of the 77th General Assembly by a largely increased majority, and he is a member of the Committees on Taxation and Board of Public Works.

RUDOLPH KELLER.

R UDOLPH KELLER, Representative from Seneca County, was born September 11, 1856, in Attica, Seneca County, where he has ever since resided. By occupation he is a clothing and shoe merchant; in politics he has always been a Democrat, and has been a member of both the County Executive and Central Committees. He has held township and village offices for a number of years. In 1886 he was married to Miss Blanche Huffman, to which union two sons were born, Ralph Huffman and Bruce Vincent. He is a Past Master of Attica Lodge No. 367, F. and A. M.

ABRAHAM KOLINSKY.

A BRAHAM KOLINSKY was born in Russia in 1881; came over to this country at an early age, and settled in Cleveland, where he has resided ever since; was educated in the Cleveland grammar and high schools. While he was attending the public schools he earned some money by tutoring foreigners in the English language. He has also taught in the Cleveland public night schools. During the years 1900-1902, he was employed in the City Auditor's office in Cleveland.

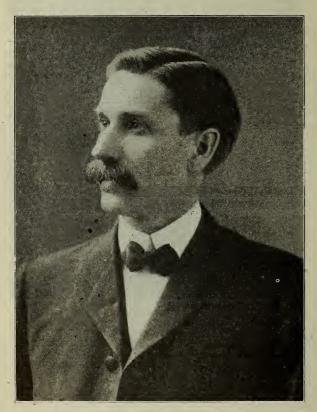

He received his legal education in the law department of the Western Reserve University and the Cleveland Law School of the Baldwin University, from which he received in 1902 the degree of LL. B., summa cum laude.

He has always taken a great interest in civic matters and is a student of political science. In 1903 he was elected the first president of the Civic Club of Cleveland, from which office he resigned in September, 1905, in compliance with the constitution of the club, which requires that no public official or nominee for office shall hold office therein. The Civic Club is a non-partisan organization which strives for honest and progressive administration of municipal government.

He was the author of a stringent anti-pass bill which the committee to which it was referred refused to report, and a motion by him to relieve the committee from further consideration of the same was lost by a vote of 31 to 48, in spite of his earnest efforts in its behalf. He was elected as a Democrat..

JOHN J. LEHMANN.

JOHN J. LEHMANN.

OHN J. LEHMANN, Representative from Sandusky County, was born October 4, 1863, on a farm in the county which he represents. He worked for his parents until he was 21 years old, and during his boyhood days experienced many of the hardships incident to early farm life. While on the farm he attended the public school, and at the age of 21 began attending school at Ada, Ohio, in the spring, farming in summer and teaching in the winter. While living on the farm he was elected township clerk of his township and served two terms. He was also principal of the Rising Sun, Ohio, schools for two years. He was admitted to the bar October 4, 1894, and immediately began the practice of law, first at Fostoria and afterward at Fremont, Ohio, where he is now located and engaged mostly in prosecuting pension and patent claims.

Mr. Lehmann has always been a staunch Democrat, and a hard worker for his party. In the year 1901 he was nominated by his party for Representative, but was defeated in the landslide of that year by the Hon. E. R. Tyler, by the small plurality of 31 votes. He was renominated in the year 1903, and was elected, receiving a plurality of 1,015 votes over his opponent who had defeated him two years previous. He was renominated in the year 1905, and re-elected by a plurality of 1,532 votes.

Mr. Lehmann's principal object in the 76th General Assembly was to secure legislation to prevent the American Strawboard Company from polluting the Sandusky river. This much sought legislation was secured by him after others had failed for the previous 14 to 16 years. He also is the author of the new line fence law, which revolutionized the line fence laws of Ohio, and which law was unanimously endorsed by the Ohio State Grange at its meeting of the same year. Other laws secured by him are as follows: A law limiting the time of the committee to examine the commissioners' report to thirty days. This law saves the taxpayers of his own county over $400 per A law authorizing county commissioners of adjoining counties to act jointly under the Gehrett Road law in building or improving county line roads. A law authorizing a township and a village to join in improving or building a public building. As a member of the 77th General Assembly he introduced House bills Nos. 33, 34, 35, 36, 127, 201, 220 and 586.

He was married October 16, 1894, to Miss Lillian B. Fry of Sandusky County, and they have four children, Lester L. (page in the House of the 77th General Assembly), Ruth E., Wm. Elbert D. and John.

Mr. Lehmann is a prominent Modern Woodman of America, and also belongs to the Maccabees, Woodmen of the World, Knights of Columbus, Catholic Mutual Benefit Association and Home Guards of America. In the 76th General Assembly he was a member of the following standing committees: Judiciary, Federal Relations and Institution for the Blind.

In the 77th General Assembly he was a member of the Judiciary and Elections Committees.

From 1872 to 1904 he was in the newspaper business as editor or editor and publisher in Columbiana county. In 1905 he was given the Republican nomination without opposition for Representative in the 77th General Assembly, and elected with a plurality of almost 4,000. He served on the committees on Common Schools, Military Affairs, Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home and as chairman of Public Printing.

Mr. McCord was married November 6, 1872, to Helen Lydia, daughter of Philip F. Geisse. She, with three children, William R., Mrs. Edith F. Morse and Philip F., were still living in 1906.

DR. L. M. McFADDEN.

DR. L. M. McFADDEN, Republican, Representative from Fayette County, was born on a farm near New Antioch, Clinton County, June 6, 1368. Received his early education in the common schools, working on the farm in the summer, attending school during the winter.

Dr. McFadden is in the true sense a self-made man; since he was sixteen years of age, at which time his father died, he has battled with life, and by earnest toil succeeded in obtaining an education.

At the age of nineteen he began the study of medicine with Dr. John McFadden at Lees Creek, Ohio, and later entered the University of Louisville, from which he received the degree of Doctor of Medicine in 1892. He immediately began the practice of his profession in Staunton, and in fourteen years of residence there has built up a large practice and thoroughly established himself in the confidence of the public. He was married June 16, 1895, to Miss Sarepta Luttrell, of Clinton County. They have three children, one boy and two girls.

Dr. McFadden has been an active worker for his party, and has served on the Central and Executive Committees for a number of years. He was active in the organization of the County Medical Society of which he has since been a member; is a Mason, being a Knight Templar, Garfield Commandery,

No. 28.

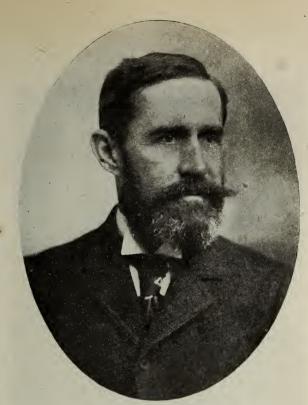

CLIFF E. McGINNIS.

Admitted to the bar in 1901, and is engaged in the practice at Sidney. Member of B. P. O. E., K. of P., D. O. K. K., I. O. O. F. and I. O. R. M. Member of the Finance and Soldiers' and Sailors' Home Committees in the House.

JASPER J. McLAUGHLIN.

JASPER J. McLAUGHLIN, Democrat, member from Mercer County, is serving his second term, and after fifty-six years of experience with the ambitions, vagaries and egotisms of human nature, believes that valuable service as a statesman is demonstrated by preventing obnoxious laws from being enacted, more than by loading down the statutes with voluminous matter that is not practical, and can never be enforced.

EDWIN STANTON MARTIN.

EDWIN STANTON MARTIN, son of John D. Martin and Mary Jane Herman, was born in 1855 at Lancaster, O., and educated there in the public schools. He went to New Straitsville in 1871 shortly after its founding, clerked in the Martin and Irving store, and worked about the coal mines, becoming superintendent of the Straitsville Coal Company's mine in 1873. From 1876-1884 (excepting a year's absence in a business enterprise in Brazil), he was engaged in the coal shipping business in Cleveland. Returning to New Straits-ville in 1884, at the beginning of the great Hocking Valley miners' strike he organized the Straitsville Co-operative Coal Co., opening up a new coal mine. This was succeeded in 1886 by the firm of Martin & Roan.

He has always been active in the improvement of his home town and the development of the Hocking Valley; was one of the organizers of the Martin Bank Company, and of the Social and Athletic Club, whose commodious building and fine equipment would serve as a model for similar enterprises in much larger towns.

He has served on the Board of Education and Town Council and for four years as a township trustee was actively engaged in building turnpikes in Coal township, which now has the best roads in Perry County. This came about after a series of unsuccessful attempts for several years to get the county to pike its main thoroughfares, during which time he twice failed of the nomination for county commissioner, and the third time was beaten at the polls on the good roads issue.

He was elected to the 77th General Assembly as a Republican in November, 1905. He was a candidate for the nomination to Congress from the 11th District in February, 1906, with success conceded, when a breakdown in health from overwork compelled him to retire from the contest a few days before the convention.

mittee on County Affairs and Public Ways and Turnpikes.

D. D. SPANGLER.

D. SPANGLER, the Representative of Henry County, was born in Marion township, Henry County, Ohio, May 19, 1868. Till he was eighteen he worked exclusively on the farm, attending a few months each winter the district school. So determined was he to secure an education that it is said of him in his younger years when sent out in the fields by himself he would frequently be found with a book or a newspaper; but the gratification of his desires for a number of years seemed very far distant. However, in the summer of 1886 prospects became brighter. An uncle from St. Paul, Kansas, who is a professor, and spent his vacation in Ohio, became interested in his nephew. In August, 1886, the subject of this sketch accompanied his uncle to St. Paul, Kansas, where for two years he applied himself closely and diligently to his books. He always was a model student, and in the monthly tests which were always rewarded by prizes he frequently carried all of them.

The course of studies prescribed by the institution, which was conducted by the Jesuits, embraced four years; but circumstances at home became such by the Jesuits, embraced four years; but circumstances at nome became such that with only one year yet to complete the course, he had to abandon his beloved professors and fellow students and return to Ohio.

Upon his return to Ohio he took the county examination, passed it successfully, and for four terms taught the school where he had been a pupil. Not being satisfied with his education, at the age of twenty-two he resumed his studies again at Pio Nono College, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, where he graduated in June, 1893, as valedictorian of his class. In the fall of 1893 he accented a position as principal in the schools at Decatur Indiana, where he cepted a position as principal in the schools at Decatur, Indiana, where he labored successfully for years.

Returning to Ohio, he purchased a farm on which he has since resided, dividing his time between farming and teaching in the South Ridge special school district as principal and superintendent for a number of years.

Being politically inclined, he entered the field for Representative of Henry County in 1899, against the Hon. T. M. Gehrett and James Anderson, and came out of the convention as second man. As a man who strictly attends to his own business he was practically unknown in the greater part of the county. Making an honorable and clean campaign, and by his telling and timely talks before conventions he made such an impression upon the people that at this time he became their choice for Representative by acclama-Neither did his constituents desert him at the election. was best known, people, regardless of party, supported him at the election.

He is a firm and ardent believer and supporter in the principles of Democracy, and never lets an opportunity pass in public or private to let himself be heard and felt, and is a staunch friend of labor. The Democratic Ex-ecutive Committee of Henry County invited him to take the stump, which he cheerfully did, and by the close of the campaign he was known as the silver tongued orator of Henry County.

As a member of the 76th General Assembly he served on the important committees of Common Schools, Boys' Industrial School and Elections.

After the expiration of his first term he was a candidate for a second term, nominated by primary without opposition and elected by an increased majority. As a member of the 77th General Assembly he served on the committees of Institution for the Blind, Library and Dairy and Food. He introduced the following bills: A bill relating to the qualification of members of county board of school examiners, which never came from the hands of the committee. Anti-treating bill was defeated on the floor of the House after a vigorous fight of two hours. Quoting from the Ohio State Journal: "The discussion on this bill was concluded by Representative Spangler, who made an earnest, sincere and eloquent plea for its passage, but in vain."

The Township Ditch Supervisor bill was the cause of a mirthful session. On March 14, 1906, this bill was up for passage after it had been defeated on March 14, 1906, this bill was up for passage after it had been deteated some days before. Quoting from the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune of March 15, 1906, it says: "At no time since the Assembly began its labors has there been more rollicking jollity. The cause of this hilarity was a pretentious set speech made by Mr. Spangler from Henry County. His efforts showed the results of great labor. It was fanciful; it was poesy in prose. The ancients gave up their orators, who loosed their tongues in favor for the drainage system of the northwestern part of the state, the garden spot of Ohio. A week ago the bill was defeated after the author had delivered the same flowers speech with which he again amused the House today. The author secured ery speech with which he again amused the House today. The author secured the reconsideration of the bill, to which the members unanimously consented, as a sort of encore for his oratorical effort.

ORATES FOR AN HOUR.

"The wags of the House patted the new Demosthenese on the back and for an hour he plucked bright flowers from the bouquets of language given to posterity by the Greek orators. Amidst shouts and applause of approval, Spangler burnished the brilliance of Cicero and Demosthenese with the result that the bill was passed almost unanimously in recompense for his exertion."

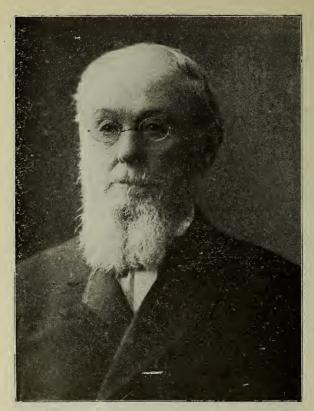

HOWARD C. SPICER.

HOWARD C. SPICER was born in Copley township, Summit County, Ohio, February 25, 1875. His early boyhood days were spent on the farm. He attended the district school in his neighborhood until he was 16, when attended the district school in his heighborhood until he was 16, when he entered the High School at Copley Center, which he attended for two years. He then took up the work of teaching, which he followed until 1896, when he took up the study of law in the office of the law firm of Voris & Pardee in Akron, Ohio. He taught one year after he commenced the study of law to secure funds with which to defray his expenses while preparing for his chosen profession. He took a short course in the law department of the O. N. U., and was admitted to the bar in December, 1900, since which time he has been actively engaged in the practice of law in Akron, Summit County, Ohio. He was nominated by the Republican party as one of the two candidates

J. M. STEWARD.

M. STEWARD, member of the 76th and 77th General Assemblies, was born March 15, 1841, in Fairfield County. His father of Scotch-Irish and his mother of German descent. They were born and raised in Pennsylvania. They moved to Ohio about the year 1837, and lived on a rented farm one year in Pickaway County, then moved to Fairfield County, purchased a farm one which they received the remainder of the interest of the county. on which they spent the remainder of their days, engaged in general farm-They had fifteen children, seven boys and eight girls, of which they raised eleven, six boys and five girls, to manhood and womanhood, the others dying in infancy before they moved to Ohio. The subject of this sketch was the twelfth in line, and spent his minority years with his father and mother on the farm, attending district school a few months each year when the weather was too inclement for general farm work. When of age he went to Shelby County, Ill., and worked on a farm for two years. Saving his means he returned to the old homestead, entered district school, but soon the same year entered the Fairfield Union Academy, where he completed the regular classical course, which admitted him to the junior year of the O. W. U., Delaware, Ohio. Here he completed the classical course in two years, earning his own means and paying his own expenses for his entire academic and collegiate course. For several years while yet a student, he was employed as assistant teacher of mathematics in F. U. A., which aided him much in securing means to continue his course of study. After completing his collegiate course, he engaged in educational work for about fifteen years in the capacity of principal and superintendent of various schools, after which he purchased a farm on which he now resides, and with his oldest son is engaged in general farming and raising pure bred stock, Shorthorn cattle, Poland China hogs and Shropshire sheep. After completing his collegiate course he took to himself a helpmeet, Miss Amelia Dunnuck. This union was blessed with seven children, three boys and four girls, six of which are yet living, the first daughter dying in infancy.

J. S. STUCKEY, of Van Wert County.

J. S. STUCKEY, Republican, member of the 77th General Assembly from Van Wert County, was born in Auglaize County, Ohio, October 21, 1841, from which place his parents soon thereafter removed to Van Wert County, which has ever since been the home of Mr. Stuckey. His opportunities for attending school were very limited, the only chance being that of a few weeks at the country school during mid-winter, when no work could be done on the farm.

Notwithstanding these disadvantages, Mr. Stuckey has, by diligent and earnest effort, acquired that which many so-called educated men lack, viz., a practical general business education.

Mr. Stuckey enlisted July 26, 1861, as a private in Company I, 27th O. V. I., and after four years' constant service in this regiment, was mustered out by reason of the expiration of the war First Lieutenant of Company F.

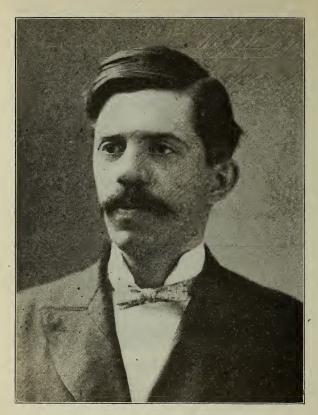

Mr. Stuckey was married to Miss Mary F. Gilliland, of Van Wert County, September 14, 1865. To them have been born eleven children, eight of whom are yet living, viz., five sons and three daughters. Immediately after marriage he located on his farm near Van Wert, where he has ever since resided. Mr. Stuckey for many years has been closely identified with the agricultural affairs of his state and county, serving in the most important duties and positions connected with both state and county boards of agriculture.

For many years he has served as president of the Van Wert Mutual Insurance Company, besides having filled many local places of trust and honor conferred upon him by the people of his county. In the Republican county convention of 1903 he was nominated for state representative to the 76th General Asembly and elected November, 1903, over his opponent, J. M. Dull, by 252 majority, a good majority for Van Wert County.

Mr. Stuckey is a member of the following standing committees: Ditches and Drains, Military Affairs (chairman), Soldiers' and Sailors' Home and Temperance.

R. L. WOODBURN, Republican, Representative from Union County, born November 26, 1843. Enlisted June 20, 1863, in Company B, 86th Regiment, O. V. I. Discharged by expiration of time February 10, 1864. Graduated at the Ohio Wesleyan University June 25, 1869. Admitted to the practice of the law, November, 1871.

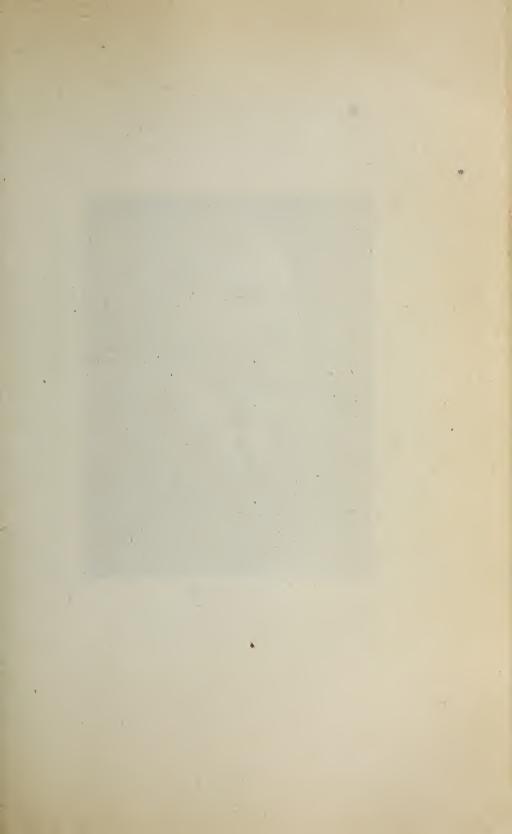

F. W. WOODS.

W. WOODS was born in Chatham township, Medina County, Ohio, August 5, 1871. The following year his parents moved to Litchfield township, where they lived on a farm. He attended the country school and finally the High School at Litchfield until he obtained a teachers' certificate. He later taught school, and in 1892 was appointed a railway postal clerk on the Pennsylvania railroad between Pittsburg and Chicago, and was finally transferred to the Wabash railroad between Toledo and St. Louis. While a railway postal clerk his spare time was spent under the instructions of Hon. W. S. Kerr at Mansfield, Ohio, in digesting his first lessons in the law. He finally resigned his position in the railway mail service, and entered Boston University Law School at Boston, Mass., where he received the degree of LL. B. in June of 1897, and the same month was admitted to the bar in Ohio. In 1898 he was nominated by the Republicans of Medina County as their candidate for Prosecuting Attorney, and was elected and re-elected in 1901. He filled this office for six years, and in 1905 was nominated and elected as Medina County's member of the House of Representatives in the 77th General Assembly.

MICHAEL WYNNE.

M ICHAEL WYNNE was born June 6, 1861, Hamilton County, State of Ohio. Attended St. Xavier parochial school eight years, and apprenticed to metal trade, 1876, which he has followed both as journeyman and in business, until elected to the 77th General Assembly of Ohio at November election, 1905,

DAVID E. YOST.

DAVID E. YOST, Democrat, Representative from Monroe County, Ohio, in the 77th General Assembly, who is serving on his second term, having been a member of the 76th General Assembly, was born on a farm near Antioch, Perry township, Monroe County, Ohio, February 15, 1868. His ancestors came from Ireland and Germany before the Revolutionary War, and settled in the state of New Jersey, emigrating from thence into the Northwest Territory, while it was yet an unbroken wilderness.

Mr. Yost received his education in the common schools of his native county, attending High School at Sistersville, W. Va., and New Matamoras, Ohio; the National Normal University, Lebanon, Ohio, and Franklin College, New Athens, Ohio. He taught in the common schools of his native county from 1886 to 1894, during which time he resided at Centerview, Ohio. Was admitted to the bar December 6, 1894, at Columbus, Ohio. and removed to Woodsfield, the county seat of his native county, March 20, 1896, and engaged in the practice of law. Was married to Miss Margery M. McElroy, May 2, 1897, and to this union was born one daughter, Eurylee Josephine Yost, on April 29, 1904. He is member of the Church of Christ, an Odd Fellow and a Mason. Mr. Yost has held a number of positions of trust and confidence in his native county. He has been a lifelong Democrat, and was elected to the 76th General Assembly of Ohio as a Democrat by a majority of 649 votes over Samuel F. Rose, Republican.

He was re-elected to the 77th General Assembly of Ohio by a majority of 971 votes over Dr. F. W. Murray, Republican.

He is a member of the Standing Committee on Finance, Universities and Colleges and Rules.

In the 76th General Assembly his speech nominating Hon. John H. Clarke for U. S. Senator fully established his reputation as a brilliant orator and the wit of the House.

In the organization of the 77th General Assembly, Mr. Yost received the solid support of the Democratic and independent members of the House for Speaker and was chosen minority leader.

In matters of legislation Mr. Yost has shown himself to be a humanitarian and economist. He is also noted for his honesty and unswerving devotion to the reforms promised in the last Democratic state platform. As an author and poet he gives promise of ranking among the great thinkers of his time.

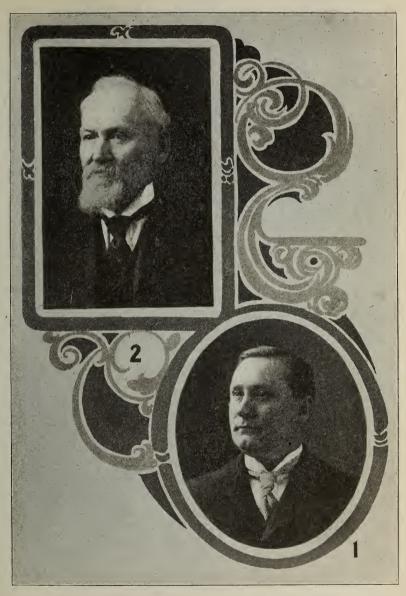

"Each struggled wildly to obtain A place within the fold, Where mammon's rites and greed of gain Were wonders to behold."

GOVERNOR ANDREW L. HARRIS.

GOVERNOR ANDREW L. HARRIS

A MONG the distinguished men who have held the office of chief executive of Ohio, Governor Harris holds a place peculiarly his own. Few have been closer to the people, and none have rendered more worthy service in the varied fields of honorable endeavor that constitute the distinctive opportunity of the typical Ohioan. Descended from parents and grandparents who were pioneers of the state, and never residing far from his ancestral home, he is by birth and the molding influence of environment emphatically a Buckeye, and his successful career is an inspiration to the youth who would rise from his humble estate to places of trust and power. A plain, unassuming man, dignified, but genial, and modest in the extreme, he craves not display or fulsome eulogy. He needs neither. Achievement in the line of duty is his fittest meed of praise. The simple story of his life is a tribute most eloquent.

Andrew Lintner Harris was born in Butler county, Ohio, November 17, 1835, and was reared on a farm in Dixon township, Preble County. His grandfather, Joseph Harris, was a native of Ireland, and in 1797 crossed the Atlantic to America, taking up his abode in Cincinnati. Soon after the close of the War of 1812 he moved to Butler County, Ohio. His son, Benjamin Harris, the father of the subject of this sketch, was born in Cincinnati, March 3, 1803, and was married on the 3d of April, 1829, to Miss Nancy Lintner, of Butler County. To them were born seven children, of whom Governor Harris is the only survivor. His father passed away in 1872, and his mother's death occurred in 1881.

Governor Harris spent his early boyhood days on the home farm, and attended the district school through the winter season. Availing himself of the opportunity to acquire a college education, he entered Miami University in 1857, and was graduated from that institution in 1860. He returned to the farm and soon afterward commenced the study of law.

At the outbreak of the Civil War he suspended the study of law, and enlisted as a private in Company C, 20th O. V. I., April 17, 1861, and was gradually advanced until he became captain of the company. At the close of this enlistment, he recruited Company C for the 75th O. V. I., and was commissioned captain in 1861, major in 1863, colonel in the same year and brevet brigadier-general in 1865. Within the period of his service, he participated in many important engagements, among which were the battles of Monterey, Shaw's Ridge, McDowell, Franklin, Cedar Mountain, Bull Run (second battle), Chancellorsville and Gettysburg. In the last named battle he led a brigade. His command was the first to enter the town. He was severely wounded at McDowell and Gettysburg.

At the close of the war, Governor Harris returned to his farm in Preble County, but his wounds disabled him and he completed the study of law. In 1865 he was admitted to the bar. He continued diligently in the practice of the legal profession until 1875. In the autumn of 1865 he was elected to represent Preble and Montgomery counties in the state senate. He was chosen probate judge of his county in 1875, and re-elected in 1878. Later he served in the House of Representatives in the 67th and 68th General Assemblies.

In 1891, a strong candidate was sought to make the race for lieutenant governor with William McKinley. In the previous gubernatorial election the Republican party had suffered defeat, and it was the desire to present a ticket that should appeal strongly to the voters of Ohio. The ticket was triumphantly elected in November of that year and re-elected by increased majorities in 1893. In 1894 Governor Harris was a candidate for Congress, and reduced the normal Democratic majority of his district from 4,000 to 202.

Governor Harris has given much attention to the study of labor conditions and agricultural interests. This fact was recognized by President McKinley who, in September, 1898, appointed him one of the members of the National Industrial Commission, with headquarters in Washington, D. C. He was honored with the position of chairman of the sub-commission on agriculture and agricultural labor. The results of his work are found on the pages of the nineteen volumes that constitute the report of the commission. This voluminous report is a standard reference work on the industrial conditions in the United States.

In 1905, Governor Harris was nominated for a third time for lieutenant governor, and although in the election following the head of the Republican ticket was defeated by a plurality of 42,647, Governor Harris had 29,179 more votes than his Democratic opponent. He discharged the duties of his office with the skill of a master parliamentarian. His experience through previous general assemblies had made him thoroughly familiar with the rules of legislative procedure, and as president of the Senate he has had few equals in his native state. On the death of Governor Pattison, June 18, 1906, Governor Harris took up the duties of chief executive of Ohio.

Mingled with the deep regret at the demise of Governor Pattison were expressions of confidence in the ability and the integrity of his successor. To the discharge of his new duties, made somewhat delicate and difficult by the sad circumstances under which they were assumed, Governor Harris brought his good judgment and ripe experience. The success of his administration has raised him in the esteem of the people of the state, and has called forth expressions of approval from the press, regardless of party.

Governor Harris was united in marriage to Miss Caroline Conger, October 17, 1865. They have one son, Walter C., who was graduated from Miami University and Ohio State University, and is now an artist and photographer on the New York World.

Governor Harris retains his interest in military affairs through his connection with the Grand Army of the Republic and the Loyal Legion. No man more thoroughly enjoys association with his comrades.

In politics he has always been a Republican. He cast his first vote for Abraham Lincoln.

Farmer boy, college student, soldier, lawyer, legislator, parliamentarian, statesman—Ohio is fortunate in her popular and patriotic governor, Andrew L. Harris.

The Governor.

THE OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR.

The Constitution of Ohio provides that "The supreme executive power of the state shall be vested in the Governor."

He is elected by the people for a term of two years. He must be an elector and not hold any other office under the authority of the State or the United States. In case of death, removal or other disability, the Lieutenant-Governor shall execute the office of Governor. The Governor must see that the laws are faithfully executed and may request of the executive officials reports of their respective departments.

At every session of the General Assembly he must report the condition of the state by message, recommending therein such legislation as may to him seem proper. He may convene the General Assembly upon extraordinary occasions. He may adjourn it in case of disagreement upon this subject between the two branches thereof.

The Governor is Commander-in-Chief of the army and navy and custodian of the Great Seal of the State.

He may grant reprieves, commutations and pardons.

Must approve or disapprove all bills of the General Assembly.

Such, briefly, are the constitutional provisions relating to the Chief Executive.

In addition to the powers conferred and duties imposed upon the Governor by the Constitution, are those which the General Assembly has seen fit to provide by statute, and it is through these that the greater portion of the actual duties of this office arise, as well as most of the appointive power of the Governor. As Commander-in-Chief of the army and navy, it seems appropriate that he should appoint the Adjutant-General, and the twelve other members of his military staff.

There are certain state offices not created by the Constitution whose chief incumbents are nominated by the Governor, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate appointed. Such are the Commissioner of Insurance, Railroad Commission, Labor Statistics, Inspector of Workshops and Factories, Chief Mine Inspector, State Fire Marshal, Chief Examiner of Stationary Engineers, State Pension Claim Agent, and Chief Engineer of Public Works.

Numerous commissions, such as the Canal Commission, Shiloh Battlefield Commission, and Fish and Game Commission, containing from two to seven members each, with terms varying from one to five years, have been created by law. Here vacancies are constantly occurring, which are filled by the Governor, and frequently he is called upon, when the General Assembly provides for some new commission, to appoint an entire board.

The Governor.

The Governor is ex-officio the President of the State Board of Charities, composed of six members, who are appointed for a term of three years. This Board exercises a general supervision of the public institutions, and is of valuable aid to the Governor in overseeing the numerous large state properties. There are thirteen benevolent, two penal and two corrective institutions in this state. Each of these is managed by a board of trustees composed of six members appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, for a term of five years.

Recurring to the duties of this office, we find the Governor, of necessity, a busy man. The actual duties of the office occupy much of his time, while the constant and pressing demands made by the general public leave him few spare moments.

He must examine and approve or veto all bills passed by the General Assembly, issue requisition papers, investigate applications for pardons, commutations and reprieves, certify under the Great Seal of the State as to the official character of numerous state and county officials; upon application commission notaries public and commissioners of deeds, and, with few exceptions, commission all elective officers, both civil and military. He must attend board meetings, counsel heads of departments, maintain a general supervision of all great state institutions, examine, approve and sign numerous state papers, hear and dispose of complaints against individuals and institutions, and keep a constant watch over the affairs of state. All of this entails the keeping of numerous records, the assorting and filing of many papers and constant attention to a large correspondence. To aid him in his work the Governor has a Private Secretary, three clerks and a messenger.

GOVERNOR JOHN M. PATTISON.

GOVERNOR JOHN N. PATTISON.

TOHN M. PATTISON was born near Boston, Clermont County, Ohio, June 13, 1847, being the son of a tenant farmer. The father was a just and upright man who loved the truth and hated iniquity. It was from this source of righteousness and from a Christian mother that Governor Pattison drew the character that distinguished him throughout the career that ended all too soon for his native state. Leaving the farm with his father as a youth, he went into business with him, owning and managing a country store. When he reached his sixteenth year he enlisted, a pure and delicate figure, in the Federal army, and faithfully discharged the dangerous duty of a soldier. war ended, he returned to Ohio and began the finishing of the education founded earlier in the little country school. Earning his own funds by teaching, and working as a field hand in harvest time, he was able to pay for a collegiate course at Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware. He graduated in the class of 1869, and directly thereafter he went into the Middle West, remaining three years. While engaged in other business he studied law with such success that he was admitted to practice at Cincinnati in 1872. following year witnessed his election as a member of the House of Representatives from Hamilton County, his vote being the greatest of all the candidates. It was while a member of this body that he displayed the militant opposition to organized corruption in public office and a manly impatience with the lax administration of law: There was a condition in Cincinnat that called for the combined protest of the good men of all parties. A committee of twenty-five was named to fight the men who were responsible and drive them from office. It fell to Governor Pattison's lot to be chosen as the attorney for this committee. How well he performed his duty and how fearlessly, is a matter of history. After ten years of practice, which were marked by honesty to his clients, the young lawyer was invited to become one of the directors of the Union Central Life Insurance Company, of which he was elected vice-president and general manager. Henceforth the development and upbuilding of this institution became his life work. Notwithstanding this he never failed to respond to the call of duty as a citizen. In 1890 the death of Thomas Q. Ashburn left a vacancy in the Clermont-Brown senatorial district. Much depended upon the political complexion of his successor, as the loss of the seat to the Democrats meant also loss of control in the Senate, before which many important party matters were pending. Called upon to lead the fight, Governor Pattison responded, and won a great victory. As a member of that body he gained fame for his eloquent struggle against the repeal of the Sunday laws, standing apart from his colleagues with inflexible determination. His demand that the people of Ohio, and not the office holders, be given the authority to decide this great question, finally resulted in the defeat of the bill. His reward, though unsought, came quickly, for he was nominated for Congress in the Sixth District in 1891, and was elected by a striking majority. As a congressman he offered the first bill appropriating funds to establish rural free mail delivery. He also made a vigorous fight against permitting the World's Fair at Chicago to remain open on Sunday, and his efforts were again as successful as they were in 1890. Leaving Congress he again returned to the task of conducting the affairs of the insurance company of which he later became president, and he had the satisfaction of witnessing its promotion to the front rank of the great concerns of its kind. Conditions in 1905 once more called him, like Cincinnatus, from the plow. Nominated for Governor over a field of splendid candidates by what was best in the state convention, he was chosen to lead a historic movement in the commonwealth's affairs. After one of the most notable campaigns in Ohio, he converted a Republican majority of 256,000 of the year before into a plurality of 43,000 for himself, for he was the only Democrat elected on the state ticket. It was a signal tribute to his high personal character, and his stand for moral principles as against mere partyism. Fate decreed that he should not live long to enjoy the fruits of his remarkable triumph. His health gave way after the campaign, and he had barely strength enough to withstand the ordeal of inauguration. Returning from the capitol that night he never returned again to the executive office. Lingering until the following June, he passed away at his country home, "Prowmont," near Milford.

From his deathbed he directed the affairs of government until his weak body refused longer to respond to his indomitable will. His only message to the General Assembly, written within the shadow of the valley of death, of itself is an epitome of his life history. It is an appeal for all that should make men and governments better, and the world a finer place in which to live.

S. J. FLICKINGER.

Secretary to the Governor.

BORN on a farm in Butler County, Ohio, February 14, 1849; worked on the farm until twenty-eight years of age. He is a son of Rev. Dr. Daniel Kumler Flickinger and Mary Lintner Flickinger. His father is a United Brethren minister, and at the age of 83 is still active, after having made twelve trips to Africa as a missionary. Mr. Flickinger's mother died when he was but four years of age, and he was reared by his grandparents on the Lintner farm.

Mr. Flickinger graduated at Otterbein University in 1872. He then taught school for three years, and afterwards took a postgraduate course at Cornell, and began newspaper work on the Dayton Journal in 1876. Two years later he was connected with the Ohio State Journal, passed through all the editorial departments, and was managing editor from 1884 to 1893. He was then connected with the Associated Press from 1893 to 1904, and then became the editor of the Dayton Journal, where he remained until July, 1906, when he was appointed secretary to the governor by Governor Harris.

SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNOR.

The duties of the Secretary to the Governor are of a personal rather than a public character. The official compensation of $800.00 per annum is but a partial compensation. Prior to 1904 the title of this office was "Private Secretary to the Governor." The following list of private secretaries is apparently incomplete, as no sufficient record exists prior to 1867 of the gentlemen who acted in this capacity.

C. A. THOMPSON.

A. THOMPSON was born in Wayne County, W. Va., on the 4th day of September, 1870. When about three years of age he moved with his parents to Ironton, Ohio, where he has since resided. He graduated in the Ironton High School in the spring of 1886, and at the Ohio State University with the class of 1892, with the degree of Bachelor of Philosophy. The following year he took charge of the High School at Bement, Illinois, where he taught two years, returning to the Ohio State University and graduating in the law class of 1895, with the degree of Bachelor of Laws, since which time he has practiced his profession at Ironton. He was appointed to the position of City Solicitor of the city of Ironton to fill out the unexpired term of C. O. Rea, resigned, during the fall of 1896, and served in that capacity until the first Monday in May, 1903, being elected three times in succession. He was elected to represent Lawrence County in the 76th General Assembly, and re-elected to the 77th. In the organization of that body he was elected to the office of Speaker of the House, and served in that capacity during its first session. During the Spanish-American war, he was captain of Company I of the 7th O. U. S. V. I. He was colonel of the 7th Regiment, O. N. G., from 1901 to 1906. At the Republican state convention held at Dayton, Ohio, September 11-12, 1906, he was nominated for Secretary of State and elected to that office in November of that year. He was appointed January 1st to serve out the unexpired term of Hon. L. C. Laylin, resigned, and began his regular elective term January 14, 1907.

The Secretary of State.

The Department of State is one of the most important divisions of the executive branch of the state government.

Under the Constitution of 1802, the Secretary of State was appointed by the General Assembly, and the duties of the office consisted mainly, to use the words of the old Constitution, in keeping a "register of all official acts and proceedings of the Governor."

The office, however, under the Constitution of 1851, was made elective, and elevated to the dignity of a department; and by virtue of that Constitution, and subsequent legislation thereunder, some of the most important executive and administrative functions of the state government are devolved upon this office.

The Secretary of State is made by law the custodian of the acts of the General Assembly, and under his supervision the same are printed and published, and by him all exemplifications of the same are required to be authenticated, and all commissions issued by the Governor to be countersigned.

In this office also, under general statutes, all incorporations are required to be created. Recent legislation, requiring domestic and foreign corporations to file annual reports and imposing a franchise tax based upon capital stock, which the Secretary of State is required to collect and pay into the state treasury, makes this department one of great consequence and importance to the state.

The Secretary of State, by virtue of his office, is a member and the Secretary of the State Sinking Fund Commissioners, President of the Board of Printing Commissioners, member of the Decennial Board of Apportionment for legislative purposes, member of the State Board of Appraisers and Assessors, and of the State Building Commission.

He is also, by virtue of his office, made State Supervisor of Elections, and State Supervisor and Inspector of Elections, and as such has the power of appointment and removal of the members of the boards of Deputy State Supervisors of Elections in the various counties; is required to collate and publish the election laws of the state; to determine the arrangement of the ballot, and prepare and furnish forms and instructions to the various county boards of elections; to receive and file certificates of nominations, or nomination papers for presidential electors and state officers; to hear and determine objections or other questions as to the validity of such papers; to decide upon the validity of all nomination papers of a county, district, sub-division of the district or circuit, when the county, district or circuit board, authorized to pass upon these papers, fails to decide; and a decision of the Secretary of State upon these questions is final.

WALTER D. GUILBERT.

WALTER D. GUILBERT was born in Guernsey County, Ohio, of French-Irish ancestors, and was reared on a farm. His great-grandfather on the maternal side settled in Maryland about 1750 and played an active part in the Revolutionary War. He was wounded several times, and at the battle of Brandywine only escaped capture by the thoughtfulness of his comrades, who carried the wounded man to a swamp and securely hid him until the British had withdrawn. The father of Mr. Guilbert came to this country from France when a youth and settled in Guernsey County. The subject of this sketch was educated in the public schools and at Wenona Academy, Illinois. He was twice elected auditor of Noble County, Ohio, and proved himself a most capable official. In 1888 he became chief clerk in the Auditor of State's office, continuing in that position until 1896, when he succeeded to the important office of Auditor of State, having been nominated by the Republican party and elected in the fall of 1895. In his career as a public officer, Mr. Guilbert is a genial, patient and painstaking official, combining with these virtues an earnest intention to perform his duties in such a manner as to insure the best results for the people of Ohio. It is no flattery to say that his manner of transacting the business of his department has made him one of the most popular men who ever occupied a position in the state capitol. He was renominated unanimously in 1899 and elected by an increased plurality for a second term. In 1903 Mr. Guilbert was unanimously chosen by his party, and was elected by an increased majority for a third term, on which he entered in January, 1904. Mr. Guilbert has been active in the affairs of his party, having served as chairman of his county committee for a number of years, and as a member of the State Executive Committee. He was a delegate to the national Republican convention in 1888 and also in 1904. Mr. Guilbert was married February 5, 1868, to Miss Mary L. Jordan, of Noble county. They have a family of three children, two sons and one daugh-He is connected with a number of secret and social organizations, being a Mason, a Knight Templar, a 32d degree Mason, a member of the Mystic Shrine, of the I. O. O. F., of the K. of P., and I. O. R. M.

DUTIES OF THE AUDITOR.

The Auditor of State is elected every four years, and is the chief accounting officer of the state. No money can be paid into or out of the State Treasury except upon his warrant. He is custodian of all field notes, maps, records, documents, papers and implements of every description relating to or used in the survey of the public lands within the state, and is required by law to keep a record of deeds executed by the Governor. He is required to prepare all forms and instructions for county officers, and county officials are required, by law, to use such blanks and obey such instructions. He is required to audit all requisitions, vouchers and claims against the state, and pass upon the validity and correctness of the same before issuing his warrant on the State Treasury for payment. He is required to direct suit to be brought against delinquent revenue officials, and look after and see to the collection of all claims in favor of the state. He may remit illegal taxes or penalties and direct that tax duplicates be corrected.

The work in the office has been greatly increased since the present auditor went into office as chief clerk in 1888 by reason of the determination to add to the revenues of the state by traffic and excise taxes, which should meet the growing needs of the state government, and forever prevent an increase in the common burden of taxation upon private individuals and small property holders. The work of putting various revenue acts in operation fell upon this department as follows:

In 1889 the liquor traffic tax act giving the state a portion of the tax was passed and put in operation. In 1896 this act was amended, increasing the tax, which now yields as the state's portion over one million dollars annually.

In 1893 what is known as the Nichols law, taxing express, telegraph and telephone companies, was passed and put in operation, which yields to the state and counties annually more than $30,000.00.

In 1894 an act levying an excise tax on gross receipts of express companies, was passed, and put in operation, which brings into the state treasury about $12,000 annually. In 1902 this law was repealed and express companies included in the excise law of 1003 included in the excise law of 1902.

In 1894 an act taxing sleeping car companies was passed and put in operation, which brings into the state treasury $5,500 annually.

In 1896 a law was passed taxing freight line companies, which brings into the state $8,000 annually.

In 1896 an act levying an excise tax on the gross receipts of all public corporations (electric light, gas, natural gas, pipe line, water works, street railroads, railroads and messenger or signal companies). In 1902 this law was amended so as to include suburban or interurban railroad, telegraph, telephone, express and union depot companies, and the tax increased to one per cent. on the gross receipts, which yielded last year for state purposes the sum of $1,432,000. In 1904 this law was amended to include water transportation companies and heating or cooling companies.

In 1902 an act was passed creating a Bureau of Inspection and Supervision of Public Offices, of which the Auditor of State is chief inspector and supervisor.

In 1904 an act was passed, known as the "Direct Inheritance Tax Law," providing for a tax of two per cent. on legacies in excess of three thousand dollars. It is made the duty of the Auditor of State to collect this tax.

The Auditor of State, in addition to the duties pertaining to his office, is under the law, a member of the following executive bodies which make constant demands upon his time and energy:

- 1. Sinking Fund Commission, composed of Auditor of State, President; Secretary of State, Secretary; and the Attorney-General. Duties: Have charge of disposing of bonds for state revenues and for the payment of principal and interest of the state debt.
- 2. Board of Equalization for Banks, composed of Governor, President; Auditor of State and Attorney-General. Duties: Equalizing valuation for taxation of national and incorporated banks, as returned by the county auditors to the Auditor of State.

COMPTROLLERS OF THE TREASURY.

THE office of Comptroller of the Treasury was established in 1859, as an intermediate check between the Anditor of State and the State Treasury. Warrants issued by the Auditor were not payable at the Treasury until countersigned by the Comptroller or his proper representative, whose books were practically duplicates of the books kept in the office of the Auditor and Treasurer. The office was abolished in 1877, General Wilson being then in charge. The following list gives the names and terms of service of the several incumbents:

W. B. Thrall, 1859-1862; Joseph H. Riley, 1862-1865; Moses R. Brailey, 1865-1871; William T. Wilson, 1871-1877.

WADE H. ELLIS.

W ADE H. ELLIS was born in Covington, Kentucky, both his paternal and maternal ancestors coming from Virginia; his father's grandfather, William Ellis, from Fauquier County, and his mother's father, Christopher Blackburn, from Caroline County. Christopher Blackburn's maternal grandfather was Captain James McPike, who served under Col. Howard and Gen. Little and later under the command of Gen. Lafayette in the Revolutionary war

Mr. Ellis attended the public schools of Covington, Hughes High School and Chickering Institute in Cincinnati, and later graduated from Washington and Lee University at Lexington, Va. Here he studied law, receiving the debater's medal, the law scholarship and the honors of his class. He began the practice of law in Cincinnati, but in 1894 discontinued for a time his professional work to become the managing editor of the Cincinnati Tribune, an independent Republican newspaper. In 1896 the Tribune being consolidated with the Commercial Tribune, Mr. Ellis was made managing editor of the new paper, and continued in that capacity throughout the memorable campaign of 1896, and until July, 1897, when he resigned to return to the practice of law, having been appointed First Assistant Corporation Counsel of the city of Cincinnati. In this latter capacity he served nearly six years, with two administrations, resigning January 1, 1903, to resume private practice.

When Governor Nash called the extraordinary session of the 75th General Assembly in the summer of 1902, to pass a uniform municipal code, made necessary by the sweeping decisions of the Supreme Court of Ohio against special legislation, he invited Mr. Ellis to draft the law, which was presented to the legislature and subsequently passed October 22, 1902. Later, Mr. Ellis published the "Annotated Edition of the Ohio Municipal Code." On June 17, 1903, he was unanimously nominated by the Republican state convention for Attorney General, and elected in November of that year by the overwhelming majority which the whole ticket received.

When the tax commission was appointed by Governor Harris in September, 1906, for the purpose of securing an investigation of the tax laws of Ohio and recommendations for amendments, constitutional or otherwise, Mr. Ellis was made a member of the commission, and upon its organization was elected chairman.

In 1894 Mr. Ellis was married to Miss Dessie Corwin Chase, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Chase, of Cincinnati.

The Attorney-General.

THE OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

THE 76th General Assembly passed an act making many and important changes in the organization, powers and duties of the Attorney General's Department, greatly increasing its usefulness and influence. The Attorney General, by this act, is now made the chief law officer of the state and no state officer or the head of any department is authorized to employ any other counsel. The Attorney General is empowered to appoint a First Assistant, who may act in his place during his absence, a Second Assistant, a Chief Clerk, (in addition to the stenographer, and messenger in the office) and such special counsel in State cases as he may deem necessary for the conduct of the legal business of the State.

The work of the Attorney General's office has greatly increased since the first Attorney General, Henry Stanbery, was chosen in 1846, until it is now one of the busiest and most important departments of the State. sides representing the State in all cases before the Supreme Court, where the docket shows a rapidly increasing number of such cases, as well as before the Circuit and Common Pleas Courts throughout the State, the Attorney General is the legal adviser of all the State officers, departments and institutions. In addition to this he is a member of numerous state boards established at various times by the General Assembly which require continuous attention. Among these boards are the following: I, State Board of Appraisers and Assessors for Express, Telegraph and Telephone Companies; 2, State Board of Appraisers for Sleeping Car Companies; 3, State Board of Appraisers for Freight Line Companies; 4, State Board of Appraisers and Assessors for Electric Light, Gas, etc.; 5, State Board of Appraisers and Assessors for Appointing Boards of Review; 6, Board of Equalization for Railroads; 7, Annual State Board of Equalization for Banks; 8, State Board of Tax Remission; 9, Sinking Fund; 10, Emergency Board; 11, Printing Commission; 12, Paper Commission; 13, Fee Commission; 14, Board of University Lands; 15, Board to Appoint Agents to Prosecute Claims vs. U. #### THE STATE BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS.

HE State of Ohio, in 1827, opened for public use a system of canals which connected the waters of Lake Erie on the north, with those of the Ohio River on the south, by two inland waterways which traversed the State in its eastern and western divisions. The eastern system was generally known as the "Ohio" canal, and extended from the Cuyahoga River at Cleveland to the Ohio River at Portsmouth, tapping in its route directly or by branches, the valleys of the Cuyahoga, Tuscarawas, Muskingum, Licking, Hocking, and Scioto Rivers, and forming waterways between the cities of central and eastern Ohio. This canal system necessitated the building of 308 miles of public works, over a route which varied in height above the lake level from 395 feet at Akron locks, only 35 miles from Cleveland, to 317 feet at Licking Summit, and falling 96 feet below the level of the lake as the canal enters Portsmouth, 308 miles to the south.

The western system known as the "Miami and Erie" canal, is 245 miles long, extending from Toledo to Cincinnati, and piercing the western tier of counties.

The act to provide for navigable canals was passed by the Twenty-third General Assembly, February 4, 1825. Work was begun in the same year, and was continued until the reservoirs were completed in 1842. The following figures are of interest.

LAND GRANTS MADE BY CONGRESS TO AID IN THE CONSTRUCTION OF CANALS IN THE STATE OF OHIO.

Ist. Date of grant, March 2, 1827. Object—To aid in opening canal to unite at navigable points the Wabash River with Lake Erie (so far as the same is in the State of Ohio.) Extent—A quantity of land equal to one-half of five sections in width on each side of canal. Grantee—State of Indiana, thence to State of Ohio, by joint resolution of State of Indiana approved February 1, 1834. Number of acres—292,-223.51.

2d. Date of grant, May 24, 1828. Object—To aid in extending Miami Canal from Dayton to Maumee River. Extent—Quantity equal to one-half of five sections in width on each side of said canal. Grantee—State of Ohio. Acres—438,301.32.

3d. Date of grant, May 24, 1828. Object—To aid in the construction of Canals in the State of Ohio. Extent—Five hundred thousand acres, to be selected from land subject to private entry. Grantee—State of Ohio. Acres—499,997.12. Total number of acres—1,230,-521.95.

MIAMI AND ERIE CANAL.

The distance from the Ohio River to the Loramie Summit is 100 miles, and the lift 512 feet. There were formerly 53 locks south of the Summit, but in 1863 ten were cut off at Cincinnati. From the north end of Loramie Summit to level of Lake Erie the distance is 123 miles, the number of locks 52, and fall 395 feet. Cost of contruction, $5,920,200.41.

The distance from Lewiston Reservoir to State Dam across great Miami River at Port Jefferson is 23¾ miles. Between this point and Lockington, the Sidney Feeder, 13¼ miles in length, was constructed at a cost of $392,258.32.

The St. Mary's Feeder and Loramie Feeder are 21/2 miles, 3,361 feet in length respectively.

The total cost of construction of the Miami and Erie Canal system was $8,062,680.80.

OHIO AND ERIE CANAL.

The north end of Portage Summit is 35 miles from lake level in Cuyahoga River and has 42 locks.

The Summit level is 9 miles long, 395 feet above Lake Erie, 491 feet above Ohio River at Portsmouth, and 968 feet above the Atlantic Ocean.

Distance from south end of Summit to Dresden side-cut 102 miles, number of locks, 29; fall, 238 feet; from Dresden Junction to mouth of Muskingum River at Marietta, 91 miles, fall, 154 feet; from Dresden Junction to Licking Summit, 31 miles, locks 19, rise 160 feet; from south end of Licking Summit to Ohio River at Portsmouth 116 miles, locks, 53, fall, 413 feet. Cost of construction, $4,695,203.69.

The Walhonding Canal extends from Rochester to Roscoe, distance

25 miles, locks 12. Cost $607,268.99.

The Columbus Feeder extends from Columbus to Ohio Canal at Lockbourne, distance 11 miles, locks 2, fall 14 feet. Cost, $61,483.00.

RESERVOIRS.

St. Marys—Number of acres (original), 17,603, cost, $528,222.07. Lewistown—Number of acres (original), 7,200, cost, $600,000.00. Licking—Number of acres (original), 4,200, cost, $200.000.00. Portage, Summit County—Number of acres (original), 2,000, cost, $80,000.00.

Loramie—Number of acres (original), 1,900, cost, $22,000.00.

The State Board of Public Works.

SIZE OF CANALS.

The Ohio, Hocking, Walhonding, and Miami and Erie Canal from Cincinnati to Dayton, were constructed 40 feet in width on top water line, bottom 26 feet, depth 4 feet; Miami and Erie Canal from Dayton to Junction 50 feet top, 26 feet bottom, depth 5 feet; Junction to Toledo 60 feet top water line, 46 feet bottom, depth 6 feet.

The size of locks is 90 feet in length of chambers, with 15 feet clear width between walls, as originally built.

COST OF CONSTRUCTION.

The entire cost of construction of the canals, including reservoirs and feeders, was $14.340,572.59, besides material aid from private individuals and corporations in donations of land, right of way, and moneys. The state has received by sale of the lands granted by the general government for canal purposes, $2,257,487.32. The expenditures for the maintenance of the Ohio canals in repairs and cost of collections up to July 1, 1904, has amounted to $12,066,686.13. The receipts from actual earnings for the same time have amounted to $18,003,352.34, leaving a net credit to the canal of receipts over expenditures for maintenance account of $5,936,666.21.

The Public Works at present comprises 581 82-100 miles of navigable canals, about 30,000 acres of reservoir area, besides their feeders, and the navigable rivers of the state.

ABANDONMENT.

In 1894 the General Assembly ordered the abandonment of that part of the eastern system which was known as the Hocking Canal, 56 miles, and in 1896, 19 miles of the "Walhonding" Canal.

LEASE OF THE PUBLIC WORKS.

On the second day of June, 1861, the Public Works of Ohio were leased by the act of the Legislature, passed May 9, 1861, for twenty thousand and seventy-five dollars ($20,075.00) per annum. Said lease continued in force until December 1, 1877, at which time the lessees abandoned the Public Works and by appointment of the Superior Court of Montgomery County they were placed in the hands of a receiver until May 15, 1878, at which time the State Board again took possession of the Public Works of Ohio.

Total amount received and included in above table......$401,003 09

The State Board of Public Works.

The expenditures by the Board of Public Works for superintendence and repairs ceased with the transfer of the canals to the lessees. All expenditures during that time were for the settlement of prior claims, awards of damages, expenses of the office of the Board, expenses incurred in the appraisement of personal property sold to the lessees, and the payment of outstanding indebtedness provided for by the act "making appropriations for the maintenance of the Public Works," passed May 13, 1861.

Under the law authorizing the lease of the Public Works of the State, C. S. Hamilton was appointed by the Governor, Paul Weatherby by the Board of Public Works, and John J. Isham by the lessees, to appraise the personal property of the state, which the lessees were required by said act to purchase. The value of the property appraised by them and transferred to the lessees amounted to fourteen thousand one hundred and seventy-three and sixty-four hundredth dollars ($14,173.64.)

CANAL COMMISSION HAVING EXPIRED BY LIMITATION DUTIES CONFERRED BY STATUTES MADE APPLICABLE TO THE BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS.

The 77th General Assembly passed an act on the 2nd day of April, 1906, whereby all the powers and duties conferred on the Ohio Canal Commission by statutes are conferred upon and vested in the Board of Public Works, and all sections of the statutes of Ohio relating to the Ohio Canal Commission are made applicable to the Board of Public Works.

EDMUND A. JONES.

HON. EDMUND A. JONES, State Commissioner of Common Schools, is a typical New Englander. He was born at Rockville, Mass., February 11, 1842. His ancestors were natives of the same state, his great-grand-father having been born at Medway, Mass., about the middle of the eighteenth century. His father and grandfather were both teachers in their native State of Massachusetts, the former reaching the age of eighty-four years at the time of his death in 1899.

Mr. Jones received his early education in the common schools, and after further preparation at Mt. Hollis Academy, in 1860, entered Amherst College. After completing his sophomore year in that institution he offered his services in defense of his country and was assigned to Company B, Forty-Second Massachusetts Regiment of Infantry. His regiment was sent at once to join Gen. Banks' command at New Orleans. In the first battle in which he was engaged, at Bayou La Fourche, In June, 1863, he was seriously wounded. In the following month, after his colonel had recommended him for promotion because of meritorious service, he was honorably discharged. In the fall of the same year, 1863, he re-entered Amherst College, from which institution he received the degree of A. B. in 1865, and the degree of Master of Arts in 1868. Both before and after his military service, he was president of his class in college, having this honor at the time of his graduation.

Mr. Jones's career as a teacher began in Illinois in 1865, where he taught in an academy, to the principalship of which he had been promoted before leaving for Ohio in 1869.

In October, 1869, he accepted the superintendency of the city schools at Massillon, which position he occupied for four years. He then assumed control of the schools at Marietta for a period of two years. His work at Massillon had been so satisfactory to the people of that city that they induced him to return. Faithfully and efficiently, for the last twenty-nine years he served that city, whose people were only willing to release him to accept the honors of the office to which he had been elected by the people of the State. For when the city of Cleveland, 1889, offered him increased salary to come to that city, Massillon promptly met the offer and retained him in the position he had filled so long and so acceptably to the patrons of her schools.

On the second Monday of July, 1904, Mr. Jones entered upon the duties

On the second Monday of July, 1904, Mr. Jones entered upon the duties of the office of State Commissioner of Common Schools, with the confidence and respect of the entire teaching force of the State. This high esteem he had merited through his successful experience as an institute instructor throughout the State, and his excellent service as a member of the State Board of School Examiners.

In 1906 he was re-elected Commissioner of Schools and entered upon his second term on the 8th day of July, 1907. His services in the office he now holds have given universal satisfaction to all interested in the public schools and have been exceedingly helpful to the educational interests of the State.

THE DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL COMMISSIONER.

The office of the State Commissioner of Common Schools is a statutory and not a constitutional office, the act of March 12, 1836, being the virtual formation of the present school system of the state. Laws previously enacted had not been so broad or liberal in their treatment of education as this act, which created the office of Superintendent of Common Schools and provided that the officer should be elected by joint resolution of the General Assembly. The term was fixed at one year and the salary at $500.00. On April 1, 1837, Samuel Lewis of Hamilton County was duly elected. He filed his first report at the convening of the General Assembly, and on January 16, 1838, that body ordered 10,500 volumes of it printed. On March 7, 1838, an act reorganizing the school laws of the state was passed and under section eight thereof the term of the state superintendent was fixed at five years unless the incumbent was removed by joint resolution. The salary was placed at $1,200.00. Two days later Mr. Lewis was elected for the term of five years. On March 23, 1840, the office of state superintendent was abolished and the duties which he had performed devolved upon the Secretary of State, who was authorized to employ a clerk to do the work at a salary of $400.00. The law continued in force until March 14, 1853, when the office of State Commissioner of Common Schools was again created.

This law provided that the officer should be chosen at the general election, and the term was fixed at three years, the salary being placed at $1,500.00. The duties of the commissioner were plainly prescribed and provision made that while he was absent on official visits to the various counties of the state the State Librarian was to act in his stead and be his secretary.

The "New Code," adopted April 25, 1904, provided that, after September 1, 1904, the questions for all county teachers' examination throughout the state should be prepared, printed and distributed under the direction of the State Commissioner of Common Schools, and the rules and regulations of all county boards of examiners should be subject to his approval.

By the same code each board of education was required to prescribe a graded course of study for the elementary schools under its control, subject to the approval of the school commissioner.

On March 27, 1884, a law was passed providing that the term of the commissioner would begin on the second Monday of July following his election instead of the second Monday of January. This change was made in order that the commissioner's term might terminate, approximately, with the school year.

On April 2, 1906, in order to meet the requirements of the law providing for biennial state elections the tenure of office was changed from three to two years.

On the same date a general state salary law was passed in which the salary of the State Commissioner of Common Schools was fixed at $4,000 per annum.

OHIO'S EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM.

The educational system of Ohio has, from its inception, been strictly democratic in its nature, the management and support of the schools being left almost entirely in the hands of the residents of the various school districts.

The state is divided into districts, classified as city school districts, village school districts, special school districts and township school districts. The schools are governed by boards of education, selected by the electors of the various districts. In 1894 the electoral franchise for the election of school officers was conferred upon women and this law still continues in force. The number of members in boards of education in city school districts is now fixed at not less than two nor more than seven elected at large, and in cities in which the population reaches 50,000 or more, not less than two nor more than thirty elected from subdistricts, and in village, special and township school districts the boards consist of five members elected at large. Prior to 1892 the sub-district schools were in reality governed by a board of sub-directors consisting of three members, one of whom was elected as member of the township board, but in that year the board of sub-directors was abolished and the entire authority conferred upon the township board. This did not give entire satisfaction, consequently, in 1898, the board of sub-directors was re-established, but with the power of recommendation only, final action by the township board being necessary. In 1904, by the passage of the Harrison school code, the present system was brought into operation.

The school funds are derived from the income from school lands set apart by the National and State governments for educational purposes and by state and local taxes, the state contributing about one-eighth of the total amount.

The State Commissioner of Common Schools has supervision of the school funds to the extent of appointing examiners in cases where misapplication or fraud in the management of the same make it necessary.

The following statistics from the annual report of the state commissioner for the year ending August 31, 1906, will give some idea of the magnitude of the educational work being accomplished in this state at the present time.

The expenditures of the public schools for the year 1854 were from the State School Fund $1,113,089.02; from the School and Trust Funds $112,463.65; from the School District Library Fund $55,904.45; from Local Levies $980,000.00—in all $2,266,457.12. For the year ending August 31, 1906, the expenditures of the public schools aggregated $20,971,041.15. In 1854 the enumeration of youth of school age was 816,408; for 1906 it reached 1,252,724.

The value of school property in the state in 1854 was estimated at $3,704,720.90. The total valuation of school property for 1906 is reported at $57,448.817.00.

In 1854, according to the commissioner's report, there were 57 high schools in the state, employing 71 male and 63 female teachers, there being 4,611 pupils enrolled. In 1906 the number of high schools had increased to nine hundred and thirty, employing 1,572 male and 941 female teachers, with 64,166 pupils enrolled.

STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

There have been a number of changes in the law relating to the State Board of School Examiners. When first enacted in 1864 the board consisted of three members who were appointed by the state commissioner. Since 1883 the number has been fixed at five. The term is five years and ends on August 31. The following have served on the board since its creation: Marcellus F. Cowdery, Thomas W. Harvey, Eli T. Tappan, Israel W. Andrews, William Mitchell, Theodore Sterling, John Hancock, Thomas C. Mendenhall, Andrew J. Rickoff, Alston Ellis, Henry B. Furness, John B. Peaslee, William W. Ross, Charles R. Shreve, Charles L. Loos, A. B. Johnson, Henry M. Parker, William G. Williams, Elmer S. Cox, Charles C. Davidson, Marcellus Manley, Charles E. Mc-Vay, Thomas A. Pollock, E. E. White, W. J. White, E. A. Jones, R. W. Stevenson, Edward T. Nelson, James W. Knott, J. C. Hartzler, L. D. Bonebrake, J. P. Sharkey, Charles Haupert, C. W. Bennett, J. D. Simkins, W. W. Boyd, M. E. Hard, W. H. Mitchell, C. C. Miller, Arthur Powell, H. P. Williams, S. P. Humphrey, H. H. Helter, W. H. Kirk and W. H. Meck. The last five named are the present members of the board.

SCHOOL-BOOK LAWS.

The first law relating to the use of text books in the schools of Ohio was passed April 22, 1885. It required boards of education to adopt text books and prohibited any change in the same within five years, except by a three-fourths vote. A provision was also made authorizing boards to provide free text books.

On the 28th day of April, 1890, an amendment to this law was passed providing for a school book board, composed of the Governor, State Commissioner of Common Schools, Supervisor of Public Printing, and two persons to be appointed by the Governor. This board was authorized to pass upon all books used in the schools and to fix a price upon the same not to exceed eighty per cent. of the publisher's wholesale list price, and in case no satisfactory books could be secured the board was authorized to receive bids from publishers and authors for furnishing text books, and report the result of the same to the next session of the General Assembly for action thereon.

On May 14, 1891, the last mentioned law was repealed, and a new law enacted changing the membership of the "State School Book Board" to the Governor and Secretary of State with the State Commissioner of Common Schools as secretary. The principal provisions of the former law were retained, with further provisions in regard to publication of text books by the state and a reduction in the maximum price to seventy-five per cent. of the wholesale list price. The law now in force was passed April 22, 1896, making the State Commissioner of Common Schools a member of the State School Book Commission together with the Governor and Secretary of State. The main provisions of the former law were retained, the method of enforcing the law and carrying the same into effect being simplified.

Under this law the schools of Ohio are provided with good text books at a reasonable price and boards of education have the power of providing free text books if they so desire.

RENICK W. DUNLAP.

RENICK W. DUNLAP, son of Nelson J. Dunlap and Elizabeth (Bell) Dunlap, was born near Kingston, in Pickaway Township, Pickaway County, Ohio, on October 25, 1872. The Dunlap and Renick families are pioneers in that part of the State, his great-grandfather, John Dunlap, and his maternal great-grandfather, George Renick, emigrating from Virginia to the neighborhood of Chillicothe when it was a wilderness.

Mr. Dunlap passed his boyhood on his father's farm, attending the district school until he was fifteen years old, later entering the public school at Kingston. In 1890 he entered the Ohio State University in the second year of the preparatory course, and graduated therefrom in 1895 with the degree of Bachelor of Science in Agriculture, later taking three months of post graduate work in the animal mechanics. During his college career he was a member of the University Senate and President of the Townsend Literary Society, Major of the University Military Battalion, Captain and then later Manager of the foot ball team. Since graduation he has been actively engaged in farming.

Mr. Dunlap was tendered a position in one of the State Agricultural Colleges, but declined the offer. For three years he was secretary and president of farmers' institutes in his county and was selected by the State Board of Agriculture in 1900 as lecturer for the farmers' institutes throughout the State, and he continued such work to the time of taking charge of his present office.

He was a candidate for Representative from Pickaway County on the Republican ticket in 1901, but was defeated by a reduced Democratic majority; elected State Senator from the Tenth Senatorial District in the fall of 1903 by a large majority, being the first Republican ever elected in this district from Pickaway County. He was author of several important bills, among which was the law regulating the sale, etc., of commercial feed stuffs. He is a Knight Templar Mason. He was married June 9, 1897, to Maxie E. Cummins, a daughter of Edward W. Cummins, of Columbus, Ohio.. They have one son, Nelson H., born February 16, 1902.

HE department of the Adjutant-General is, as its name implies, the headquarters of the National Guard of Ohio, of which the Governor is Commander-in-Chief. Under the law, the Adjutant-General is appointed by the Governor for a term of two years, with the grade of Brigadier-General, and upon him also devolve the duties of Quartermaster-General. He has two assistants, each with the rank of Colonel—the Assistant Adjutant-General and the Assistant Quartermaster-General. To the Assistant Adjutant-General is assigned the supervision of all affairs of the department pertaining to organization, inspection, discipline, and all similar work pertaining to the Adjutant-General's department proper. The Assistant Ouartermaster-General has chage of all ordnance and quartermaster's stores and of the military property of the State, and supervises the affairs of the department pertaining to property, transportation and annual returns to the War Department. Both assistants operate under the immediate direction of the Adjutant-General, who is in control of the military department of the State.

The Adjutant-General is also Superintendent of the State Capitol buildings and grounds.

THE STATE INSURANCE DEPARTMENT.

THE State Insurance Department was established by the Act of March 12, 1872. Prior to that time, Insurance companies were regulated by the Department of the State Auditor, under the Act of April 15, 1867. The Bureau of Building and Loan companies was added to the department May 1, 1891, and subsequently Bond Investment companies. All Insurance companies, operating in Ohio, are required to annually submit statements, reporting their financial condition on December 31, and other information required by law and the regulations of the department. No Insurance company and no agent of non-Ohio companies is permitted to transact business, unless duly licensed by the department. Licenses expire annually, and if compliance with the law is shown, the licenses are usually renewed

As a comparative statement of general interest, the following figures disclose the extent of the business transacted in Ohio and supervised the first year of the department, 1872, and the last year, 1903, viz:

In 1872, sixty-seven Life Insurance companies and associations wrote in Ohio risks aggregating $30,187,044.00, receiving premiums of $4,493,260.70, and paid losses of $1,481,538.87. One hundred and thirty-eight Insurance companies and associations, other than life, wrote risks aggregating $378,690,031.37, receiving premiums of $4,530,743.75, paying in losses, $1,609,295.81.

In 1906, fifty-three regular Life Insurance companies wrote risks in Ohio aggregating $114,636,264.00, receiving premiums therefor aggregating $26,781,220.96, and paying losses amounting to $8,174,047.00. Sixty-three fraternal beneficiary associations wrote risks in Ohio aggregating $46,082,100.00, and paid losses amounting to $2,969,701.00. Three hundred and sixty-four Insurance companies and assessment associations, other than life, wrote risks in Ohio aggregating $1,284,759,670 (not including amount written by stock miscellaneous associations doing casualty, fidelity, surety, liability and credit business); receiving premiums and assessments therefor aggregating $17,898,443.20, and paying losses amounting to $7,335,174.39.

In 1873 the receipts of the department were fees aggregating $26,-246.76, and the expenses, including salaries, were $9,974.71, while in 1906, the fees paid amounted to $89,972.40, taxes $913,571.67, fire marshal tax $60,467.08, surplus line tax $1,124.87; total received by the department $1,065,136.02, and the total expenses of the department were $36,218.43, including printing, binding, stationery, and supplies procured through the Supervisor of Public Printing and the Secretary of State, and not including disbursements in the Bureau of Building and Loan Associations.

This Bureau originated with those who were connected with building associations and who most thoroughly appreciated the necessity of state supervision.

The work of the Bureau is largely that of auditing the annual reports of the associations, pointing out to such associations such practices as may contravene the law and requiring their abandonment; furnishing legal and other advice to such associations; examining such associations as may seem to need it and as the resources of the office admit.

If any association fails to abandon any illegal practice within thirty days after being so notified by the inspector, or if any association is found to be in an unsound condition and the interests of the public demand its dissolution, such facts are communicated to the Attorney-General, whose duty it is to institute the proper proceedings to revoke the charter of such associations and wind up its business.

The building association interests of Ohio now amount to more than a hundred million dollars.

The Deputy Inspector, by virtue of an act passed in April, 1898, is also supervisor of bond investment companies.

JOHN W. JOHNSON.

JOHN W. JOHNSON, Supervisor of Public Printing, was born on a farm in Jackson County, Ohio, December 6, 1853. He was educated, for the most part, in the country schools of his native county, working the farm in summer and attending school in winter. At about eighteen years of age he began teaching school, teaching in winter and attending academies and colleges in summer. About a dozen years were thus spent when he was appointed to the position of deputy county treasurer of Jackson County. In 1885, in a partnership with Mr. S. V. Hinkle, a purchase of the Jackson Herald from Mr. W. C. Gould was made and Mr. Johnson became the editor of that paper. In the early part of 1889, the Herald, five or six months in advance of any other paper in the State, announced and strongly urged the candidacy of Hon. James E. Campbell as the most suitable standard-bearer of the Democracy, for Governor. Mr. Campbell was nominated and in the fall of 1889 defeated Mr. Foraker. As a result of Mr. Campbell's victory and the part played in his nomination, the Herald came to be in line for an appointment under the new administration. In 1890, Mr. Hinkle was appointed Supervisor of Public Printing, Mr. Johnson ultimately succeeding to the same appointment, sixteen years later, under Mr. Pattison, the only Democratic Governor since the administration of Mr. Campbell. Late in the fall of 1889, he removed, with his family, to Waverly, Pike County, where he established a new paper, The Waverly Courier. In 1896, the old established paper of the county, The Waverly Watchman, was consolidated with the Courier, Mr. Johnson, with the exception of one year, being since the active head of the paper. In 1906, the name of the paper was changed to The Waverly Democrat.

In August, 1879, he was married to Serelda A. McLaughlin, daughter of a prominent farmer and stock raiser in the southern part of his native county. There have been born to them five children, four living, two sons and two daughters.

For twenty-five years, Mr. Johnson has been an active Democrat. The only office of consequence he has ever held is the present one of Supervisor of Public Printing, he being one of three appointees made by the late Governor John M. Pattison. His chief clerk is Mr. Ed. S. Nichols, formerly publisher of the Paulding Democrat and more recently of the Auglaize County Democrat.

DEPARTMENT OF THE SUPERVISOR OF PUBLIC PRINTING.

THE Department of Public Printing has come to be one of the important state departments. It is composed of a Board of Commissioners of Public Printing, consisting of the State Auditor, Secretary of State, the Attorney-General and a supervisory department, consisting at this time, respectively, of Hon. Walter D. Guilbert, Hon. Carmi A. Thompson, Hon. Wade H. Ellis and J. W. Johnson, the latter being designated as the Supervisor of Public Printing.

There has been a Supervisor of Public Printing since 1860, Hon. L. L. Rice being the first to occupy that position.

The following department roster supplies present and past information relative to Supervisors and their tenure of office:

NAMES OF SUPERVISORS WITH TERM OF SERVICE.

Name.	Term of Service.
L. L. Rice Wm. O. Blake W. H. Foster L. L. Rice Chas. B. Flood Wm. W. Bond Wm. J. Elliott Joshua K. Brown W. C. H. De la Court Leo. Hirsch S. V. Hinkle Leo. Hirsch Mark Slater. J. W. Johnson	1864—1867 1867—1875 1875—1877 1877—1879 1879—1881 1881—1885 1885—1887 1887—1891 1891—1892 1892—1901

The state printing is divided into seven classes. These contracts are let by the Commissioners of Public Printing every two years. These contracts are as follows:

First Contract—All bills for the General Assembly and such resolutions and other matters as it may order printed in bill form.

Second Contract—Journals of the Senate and House of Representatives.

Third Contract—All reports, communications, etc., printed in pamphlet form, except bulletins of the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station.

Fourth Contract—General and Local laws and Joint Resolutions.

Fifth Contract—All blanks, circulars, etc., for the executive departments not printed in pamphlet form.

Department of the Supervisor of Public Printing.

Sixth Contract—Reports of the Secretary of State, Inspector of Building and Loan Associations and Commissioner of Labor Statistics.

Seventh—Reports of the Auditor of State, Commissioner of Common Schools, Superintendent of Insurance (Life and Fire) and State Board of Agriculture.

What has now come to be the State Bindery was not originally intended as such. Its organization back in 1867 appears to have been prompted by charity on behalf of the unfortunates of the Deaf and Dumb Institution. Gradually, however, it has outgrown the apprentice idea and at present is a recognized state institution, commanding the appropriation of thousands of dollars annually for its maintenance.

The Supervisor has direct and almost absolute control of the bindery. He is responsible for the purchase of all supplies and the character and quality of the work turned out for the state. He is, as well, measurably responsible for the promptness of the contracting printers and the character and quality of their work. The following is the present department roster of the State Bindery:

DEPARTMENT ROSTER-1907.

RAILROAD COMMISSION OF OHIO.

HE act under which the Railroad Commission of Ohio was created was passed by the General Assembly April 2, 1906, and was entitled: "An act to regulate railroads and other common carriers in this State, create a board of railroad commissioners, prevent the imposition of unreasonable rates, prevent unjust discriminations and insure an adequate railway service." The members of the Commission were appointed by Governor Harris on July 18, 1906. The board met for organization on August 1st, following, when the following organization was effected: James C. Morris, chairman; Oliver H. Hughes, vice-chairman, with Oliver P. Gothlin as the third member of the Commission. D. Manington was elected secretary, and the following staff of employes was appointed: E. H. Hanna, statistician; W. W. Daniel, tariff clerk; D. S. Archer, stenographer; W. O. Jackson, chief inspector; O. F. Mc-Junkin and J. B. Dugan, inspectors; D. F. Johnson, inspector of automatic couplers and air brakes, and Louie E. Carlisle and Lenora Stubbs, clerks.

The statute requires that one of the members shall have a general knowledge of railroad law, and that each of the others shall have a general understanding of matters relating to railroad transportation, but that at no time shall there be more than two of said commissioners members of the same political party. In accordance with this statutory requirement the Governor appointed Oliver H. Hughes as the Democratic member and lawyer, and Messrs. Morris and Gothlin as the two Republican members "having a general understanding of matters relating to railroad transportation." Mr. Morris had been Commissioner of Railroads and Telegraphs for five years and had served for many years in the operating department of the railroad business. Mr. Gothlin had wide experience in traffic matters connected with railroads in the general offices of the Wisconsin Central and Northwestern Railroad Companies and as traffic manager of the National Cash Register Company of Dayton.

The Ohio Commission act is regarded as one of the strongest regulative acts and as such confers great powers upon the Commission. The Commission nor the State does not make freight rates or classifications, but the Commission has power to change any rate or regulation which may be found to be unreasonable or unjustly discriminatory. The statute provides for complaints being filed with the Commission, hearing thereon, the order of the Commission in respect thereto, and that such order shall take effect of its own force within thirty days after its promulgation. The statute further provides that appeals from the finding of the Commission may be taken by any party dissatisfied with any order of the Commission fixing any rate, fare, charges, classification, regulation, etc., and provides that "no injunction shall issue suspending or setting aside any order of the Commission except upon application to the Court of Common Pleas or judge thereof, notice to the Commission having been given and hearing having been had thereon."

Railroad Commission of Ohio.

Notwithstanding the Commission has been organized but a few months, it has decided many important questions affecting transportation within the State of Ohio, some of which decisions have attracted widespread attention throughout the country in transportation circles; notably, its decision in the complaint of certain coal operators against The Wheeling & Lake Erie Railroad Company, in which the Commission held that foreign and private cars upon the rails of a common carrier should be treated as its own equipment in the allotment and distribution of equipment. The recent promulgation by the Commission of a new set of rules governing car service (demurrage) has received the endorsement of the Ohio Shippers' Association as fair and impartial and it is expected that these rules will mitigate the friction that has heretofore existed between carriers and shippers in the matter of car service.

MICHAEL D. RATCHFORD.

OMMISSIONER OF LABOR STATISTICS MICHAEL D. RATCHFORD is a native of Clare, Ireland, where he was born in 1860. In 1872, he migrated with his parents to Stark County, Ohio, where he attended the public schools for a short time before entering the coal mines, in which he labored consecutively for more than twenty years. His education, however, was principally acquired by attending evening school in the mining village, and by careful home study during the earlier years of his mining career.

Mr. Ratchford, though mainly conservative in his views upon the labor question, was a strong adherent of active trade union principles. He was prominent in the movement that resulted in the organization of the United Mine Workers of America in 1890, and in 1892 he was appointed as general organizer. During the same year he was elected member of the Executive Council of that association. In 1895 he was elected president of the Ohio district, and re-elected in 1896. In 1897 he was elected president of the United Mine Workers of America, and was re-elected unanimously in 1898.

It was while serving in the chief executive office (April 1, 1898) that he established and put into practice a working day of eight hours for all mine workers; instituted mutual relations and founded a contract system known as the "Joint movement" between miners and operators through which general strikes have since been averted, and the conditions of mining throughout the bituminous coal fields made uniformly fair and satisfactory.

He was appointed by President McKinley September 7th, 1898, as member of the National Industrial Commission created by Congress, where he served for nearly two years, resigning the same to accept the office of Commissioner of Labor Statistics of Ohio, to which he was appointed by Governor George K. Nash, April 25, 1900, and to which he has since been reappointed for three successive terms of two years each.

Mr. Ratchford is unswerving in his devotion to the Republican party, and has ably discussed the issues for which his party stands in many states of the Union during national and state campaigns.

THE BUREAU OF LABOR STATISTICS.

THE Commissioner of Labor Statistics is appointed by the Governor by and with the advice and consent of the Senate for a term of two years. The Chief Clerk and office force of the Bureau are appointed by the Commissioner with the consent of the Governor. The superintendents and clerks of the five Free Public Employment Offices, Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati, Dayton and Toledo, which are under the direction and supervision of the Bureau, are also appointed by the Commissioner, with consent of the Governor, in the same manner for a term of two years.

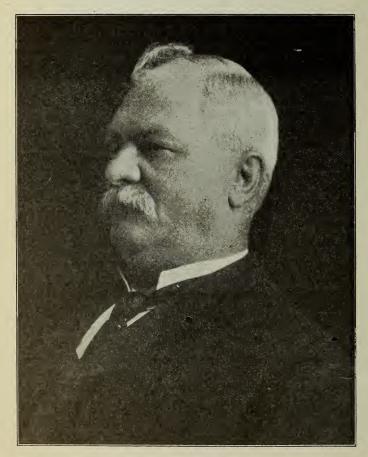

The Bureau, under the law—Section 308 of the Revised Statutes—collects, arranges and systematizes all statistics relating to the various branches of labor in the state, and especially those relating to the commercial, industrial, social, educational and sanitary conditions of the laboring classes.

GEORGE HARRISON.

SEORGE HARRISON, Chief Inspector of Mines, was born in Greenhead, Northumberland County, England, April 30, 1846, and went to work in the mines at the age of eight years and passed through all the stages of labor connected with mines from trapper boy up to superintendent and manager. Was a trade unionist from boyhood, and having removed to Durham County in 1863, was an active worker in the establishment and maintenance of the Durham Mines Union, and for many years was one of its representatives and a member of its Executive Board in the seventies. Came to America in 1880, and located in Byesville, Guernsey County, Ohio, and has resided in the state ever since. During these years he was connected with the practical mine workers and since 1887, has had charge of the management of mines located in Guernsey, Portage, Mahoning, Jefferson, Jackson and Perry Counties. He was president of the Miners' Union in the Cambridge District for a number of years and a state organizer and secretary of the Miners' State Executive Board, and was one of the fearless advocates of conciliation and arbitration in the councils of the miners in the eighties, when the National Federation first assumed great powers. He has always been an active worker in mining matters, and his admonitions were always listened to by that organization which is so powerful in the coal-producing districts of the United States.

From April, 1895, to August, 1903, he was in charge of mining properties in Jackson County, owned by the Wainwright Coal Company, and is still a resident of Wellston of that county. From July, 1903, up to the time he was appointed Chief Inspector of Mines, by Governor Myron T. Herrick, on May 25, 1904, he was associated with W. A. Gosline & Co., of Toledo, Ohio, opening up mining property in Perry County.

Since assuming the office of Chief Inspector of Mines Mr. Harrison has conducted the affairs of his department without fear or favor, devoting his whole time and attention to his duties, and seeing that the mining laws are strictly observed and the health and lives of the miners protected as provided for by statutory law.

THE INSPECTOR OF MINES.

A REVIEW OF THE OHIO STATE MINING DEPARTMENT.

In the year 1871, owing to a catastrophe occurring in the Avondale Mine, located in the anthracite region of Pennsylvania, in which one hundred and nine persons lost their lives for the want of a second opening, the miners of this State held meetings and signed petitions requesting that laws be enacted to regulate and ventilate mines, and that an authorized official supervisor be appointed. These petitions were presented to the Senate by Senator Woodworth, of Mahoning County, and were referred to a select committee of seven senators from the mining regions of the State. This committee authorized Senator Daugherty to prepare a bill on the subject. Six of the seven senators recommended the passage of the bill, but it was met with persistent opposition from interested parties.

Senator Woodworth thereupon introduced a joint resolution in the Senate, authorizing the Governor to appoint a commission of three competent persons, one or more of whom should be practical miners, to inspect the leading coal mines of the State in regard to ventilation, means of ingress and egress, and all other matters affecting the lives and health of the miners; and also to inquire into the cause of strikes and report to the Governor, for the use of the Legislature, the facts found in the premises, recommending such legislation as in the judgment of the commission the facts might demand. Governor Haves appointed a board composed of the following members: Charles Reemelin, of Cincinnati; B. F. Skinner, of Pomeroy; and Andrew Roy, of Glen Roy, Ohio. This board was on duty four months. In the month of January of the following year (1872) the report of the commissioners was laid before the Legislature. Senator Jones, of Trumbull County, chairman of the Committee on Mines and Mining in the Senate, introduced the bill for the ventilation and inspection of mines at this session, which, although passing the Senate by a unanimous vote, failed to secure a constitutional majority in the House, and a substitute by Representative Conrad, of Portage County, was made a law. This substitute contained all the provisions of the Senate bill, except as to the official supervision of the mines by the State. Owing to the fact that it failed to provide for the inspection of mines, its precepts and provisions were disregarded by nearly every mine owner in the State. Accordingly Governor Hayes, in his next annual message to the Legislature, called attention to its defects, and urged the Legislature to so amend the law as to provide for authorized official supervision; otherwise it would continue to be for the most part inoperative. Mr. Sterling, of the House, introduced a bill supplementary to and amendatory of the law, as enacted, providing for a State inspector of mines, and prescribing his duties, but this failed to become a law.

The Inspector of Mines.

However, during the early part of the session of the Legislature, two bills were introduced in the House of Representatives for the inspection of mines, one by Mr. McLain, of Trumbull County, the other by Mr. Baker, of Perry County. The McLain bill was amendatory to the act in force, and had the same object in view as the bill introduced by Mr. Baker, but the Baker bill, containing the whole act, was adopted in committee as being simpler than the other, and it became a law.

On April 6, 1874, Wm. Allen, Governor of Ohio, appointed Andrew Roy, Dell Roy, Ohio, to be the first Inspector of Mines. On April 18, 1881, a law was enacted by the General Assembly providing for the appointment of an assistant Inspector of Mines, and on June 4, of the same year, Jacob I. Klein, of Stark County, was appointed to fill that position by State Mine Inspector Andrew Roy, by and with the approval of the Governor.

On April 11, 1884, a bill was introduced in the House, which was subsequently amended by the Senate, and passed in its amended form, creating the office of Chief Inspector of Mines, with an assistant designated as a District Inspector in each district. The State was divided into three districts and three District Inspectors appointed. This was due to the rapid growth of the mining industry, and the great increase in the number of mines, which in turn increased the amount of work to be done in the office, making it impossible for the Inspector, with one assistant, to perform these duties in a satisfactory manner.

On March 24, 1888, the General Assembly amended Section 290 of the Revised Statutes, providing for the appointment of five District Inspectors instead of three. Again on April 18, 1892, Section 290 of the Revised Statutes was revised and supplemented by an additional section, by the General Assembly, which provided for the appointment of seven District Inspectors. This number has been maintained up to the present time. The following is a list of the Chief Inspector of Mines, and the term of office served by each, since the creation of the department, together with a list of the Deputy Mine Inspectors, and the time served by each:

It might be of interest in connection with the history of the Mining Department to note the following facts: When the Department was first created there were in operation about two hundred mines. The statistics received for the year 1903 disclose the following: Nine hundred and eleven mines in operation, employing forty-one thousand three hundred and ninety-six men; amount of coal produced, twenty-four million five hundred and seventy-three thousand two hundred and sixty-six tons; number of mining machines in use, seven hundred and seventy-four; amount of coal produced by mining machines, fourteen million five hundred and sixty thousand nine hundred and thirty-one tons; tons of fire clay mined, one million five hundred and sixty-seven thousand six hundred and three.

SAM HUSTON.

SAM HUSTON, the present State Highway Commissioner, was born in Island Creek township, Jefferson County, Ohio, February 28th, 1850, and spent his early years upon a farm. He was educated in common schools, academy and college, graduating and receiving his diploma in the Scientific and Engineering Course. Served as a member of Board of Education and as Township Clerk. Was elected County Surveyor of Jefferson County in 1885, and re-elected in 1888, 1391, 1894 and 1897, serving from January, 1886, to September, 1901, a period of fifteen years and eight months. The Legislature, during his incumbency, changed the beginning of the official year of the office of County Surveyor from January to September, causing an interim of eight months to which he was appointed by the County Commissioners.

During his service as County Surveyor and Engineer he had charge of the construction of a large number of miles of improved roads in Jefferson County, costing in the aggregate upward of $800,000. One system included 78 miles. Included in the work under his charge was about 120 miles of stone and brick surfaced roads, together with about 30 miles which were graded without surfacing. Mr. Huston has studied, investigated and promoted good roads for thirty-three years, beginning his work of promotion of good roads in 1874, and in doing so has visited forty-one states and territories, traveling from Maine to California.

Mr. Huston was appointed State Highway Commissioner June 30th, 1904, by Governor Herrick, for the term ending June 30th, 1908.

STATE HIGHWAY COMMISSION.

HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT.

THE Highway Department was created by the 76th General Assembly of the State of Ohio, at its regular session, the act being entitled "An act to establish a state highway department by the appointment of a state highway commissioner and assistants, and defining the duties of the office, and to provide for a system of state, county and township co-operation in the permanent improvement of public highways." The act was passed April 18, 1904. On the same day another act was passed "Providing for the operations of the State Highway Department and providing for investigating the chemical and physical character of road making material, etc." The intention of the department is indicated in Bulletin No. 1, issued March 14, 1905.

Section 2 of the bill "To establish a state highway department" provides, that the Highway Commissioner may make inquiries in regard to the best methods of road making throughout the United States. This recognizes that the science of road building is one of advancement, and that the Department of Highways is to be a progressive one, and that it shall keep in touch with whatever is new in road building, and make it available for the benefit of the State. Along the same line is the provision that the Commissioner may "make investigations and experiments in regard to the best methods of road making and the best kinds of road material and investigate the chemical and physical character of road materials."

The Department is to be a school for the dissemination of information to the people of the State as to the needs and developments in the science and practice of road building, and in carrying out the evident intent of the Legislature, the Commissioner of Highways expects to take part in meetings and conventions in the interest of good roads throughout the state, and aid local authorities to the economical and effective expenditure of the funds at their command for road construction and maintenance.

The work of the Department will not in any manner interfere with, nor supersede the local authorities in their work of road construction and maintenance under former laws, but hopes to co-operate in a friendly way and to mutual benefit.

The second purpose of the acts of the Seventy-sixth General Assembly is to provide that the State Highway Department should have the direction of the construction and future maintenance of such roads as might be built under any State appropriation for aid, or from any appropriation from the federal government.

The Department is organized as follows:

Commissioner	Sam Houston	Jefferson County.
Assistant Commissioner	D. W. Seitz	Putnam County.
Chief Clerk	L. A. Alcock	Lucas County.
		Franklin County.

J. H. MORGAN, present Chief Inspector of the Department of Workshops and Factories, was born in Wales, February 14, 1862. With his parents he came to this country in 1869, locating at Newark, Ohio. Attended the public schools until fourteen years of age, when he went to work in the glass factory. Two years later removed to Cleveland, where he worked in the sheet rolling department of the Cleveland Rolling Mill Co.; removed to Bridgeport in the autumn of 1885, and in 1890 removed to Cambridge, where he still resides.

A sheet and tin roller by occupation, he always took an active interest in labor organizations; has been national vice-president and national trustee of the A. A. of S. l. and T. W. In 1895 he was elected State Senator to represent the 19th District in the Seventy-second General Assembly. On December 1, 1901, was appointed Chief Inspector of Workshops and Factories.

THE department originated from the urgent appeals of organized labor throughout the State to the General Assembly, and its purpose is to save life and limb by ordering safeguards to be thrown around all dangerous machinery and looking after sanitary conditions in workshops and factories and ordering fire escapes on such shops where necessary, and causing all owners of buildings used for the assemblage of people to supply them with proper means of egress and fire protection.

The act of 1884 creating the Department of Workshops and Factories, provided for the appointment of one inspector by the Governor, but did not specify the term of office or make any provisions for office room. Henry Dorn, of Cleveland, was appointed Inspector, and entered on the duties of his office April 14, 1884, establishing headquarters at Cleveland. April 29, 1885, the act was amended creating the office of Chief Inspector, and providing for the appointment of three District Inspectors, and locating the department in the State Capitol. Henry Dorn was appointed Chief Inspector, serving from April 29, 1885, to April 29, 1889.

W. Z. McDonald, of Akron, was appointed Chief Inspector April 29, 1889, and served one full term to April 29, 1893. March 23, 1892, the law was amended empowering the Chief Inspector to appoint eight additional District Inspectors. Mr. McDonald was reappointed for a second term and served until June 12, 1893, when removed.

E. M. Slack, of Columbus, the chief clerk, was placed in charge of the department, as acting Chief Inspector, June 12, 1893, and served until December 7, 1893, in that capacity.

The Inspector of Workshops and Factories.

J. W. Knaub, of Dayton, was appointed Chief Inspector to fill the vacancy occasioned by removal of W. Z. McDonald, December 7, 1893, and served until April 29, 1897; reappointed for a term of four years, term ending April 29, 1901, and served until December 1, 1901, when the present incumbent was appointed.

April 27, 1896, a law was enacted providing for the inspection of bakeshops and empowering the Chief Inspector to appoint two Bakeshop Inspectors, making total number of District Inspectors thirteen.

The act creating and governing the department makes it the duty of the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to appoint the Chief Inspector, whose term is four years.

The act also empowers the Chief Inspector, with the approval of the Governor, to appoint all District Inspectors, whose term of office is three years.

It is the duty of the Chief Inspector to give his entire time and attention to the duties of his office, to direct and supervise the work of his District Inspectors, and to make such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the law, as will be for the best interest of the service.

It is the duty of the District Inspectors to give their entire time and attention to the duties of their office; to visit all shops and factories in their respective districts; to inspect all manufacturing, mechanical, electrical, mercantile art and laundering establishments, printing, telegraph and telephone offices, railroad depots, hotels, memorial buildings, tenement and apartment houses, halls, school houses, colleges, academies, seminaries, churches, theatres, opera houses, hospitals, medical institutes, asylums, infirmaries, sanitariums and children's homes, for which purpose the State is divided into thirteen inspection districts, equalized as nearly as possible.

It is the duty of the two Bakeshop Inspectors to inspect all bakeshops in the State as to their sanitary condition, etc., the State being divided into two districts for that purpose, known as the Northern and Southern.

The present working force now consists of one chief inspector, thirteen district inspectors, two bakeshop inspectors and four clerks, as follows:

THE INSPECTOR OF OILS.

WILLIAM L. FINLEY, State Inspector of Oils, was born at Sarahsville, Noble County, Ohio, on February 22, 1868. In 1830 he removed with his parents to the farm on which they yet reside near Summerfield, in Marion township, Noble County, Ohio. He was reared on a farm, taught in the common schools for several years, and in 1887 removed to the county seat of his native county, and became editor and publisher of the Caldwell Press. In 1893 he disposed of his newspaper, and was appointed a deputy collector of internal revenue, which position he resigned early in 1897, and removed to Kenton, Ohio, to re-engage in the newspaper business. In 1906 he disposed of his newspaper property in Kenton, and on May 15th of that year entered upon the discharge of his duties as State Inspector of Oils of Ohio, to which position he had been appointed by Governor Pattison.

WM. E. KENNEDY.

WILLIAM E. KENNEDY, Chief Examiner of Steam Engineers, is an Ohio boy, born in Cincinnati, Ohio, Hamilton County, in 1862, and has always been a resident of that city. He attended the public schools of Cincinnati. At a very early age he left school, and found employment in one of the largest machine shops in Cincinnati, where he worked for years. He has held some very important positions in one of the largest ice manufacturing concerns in the country, and for ten years was Chief Engineer at the Hunt Street Pumping Station, Cincinnati Water Works, which very responsible and lucrative position he resigned September 26, 1903, to accept the position of Chief Examiner of Steam Engineers for the State of Ohio, tendered him by Governor Nash.

Mr. Kennedy has a large circle of friends throughout the state, and is a member of several engineering organizations, and as such had much to do with the securing of necessary legislation for the amending of the Engineer's License Law, during the last session of the General Assembly. He is a member of the Young Men's Blaine Club, of Cincinnati, and takes an active interest in the affairs of his home city.

HE law creating this department was passed March 1, 1900, and amended March 12 and April 20 provides for better protection of life and property against injury or damage resulting from the operation of steam boilers and engines by incompetent engineers and others; and provides that it shall be unlawful for any person to operate, or cause to be operated, a stationary steam boiler or engine, in the State of Ohio, of more than thirty horsepower, without a duly licensed engineer in charge. Any person who desires to act as a stationary engineer is required to make application to the district examiner for a license so to act, upon a blank furnished by the examiner, providing he has had not less than one year's experience as a fireman or oiler, and if he passes the required examination upon the construction and operation of steam engines, boilers, pumps and hydraulics, a license is granted him to have charge of, or operate, any steam plant. The fee for license is $2.00, and licenses are renewed yearly at a cost of $2.00, providing they are not sooner revoked for intoxication or other sufficient cause. Any person dissatisfied with the action of any district examiner in refusing or revoking a license, may appeal to the chief examiner, who immediately investigates.

The Governor, with and by the advice and consent of the Senate appoints a Chief Examiner; and the Chief Examiner, with the approval of the Governor, appoints one clerk and eight district examiners, not more than four of whom shall belong to any one of the political parties. All the examiners are required to be competent and practical steam engineers, and hold their offices for a term of three years from the date of their appointments, and until their successors are appointed and qualified. The Chief Examiner has his office in the State House, where all the records are kept, and he issues such instructions, and makes such rules and regulations as will secure a uniformity of action throughout the different districts. In order to facilitate a thorough and efficient examination of the engineers, the State is divided into eight districts by the Chief Examiner.

It is the duty of the district examiners to notify every person operating a steam boiler or engine, to apply for a license, and to give such person a reasonable opportunity to take the required examination; and any owner, steam user, or engineer, who, after being duly notified, violates any of the provisions of this law, is liable to a fine of not more than $100 nor less than $10. And any engineer who fails to exhibit his license under glass in a conspicuous place in his engine-room is liable to a fine of $5.00. The examiners have authority to visit any and all engine or boiler-rooms of the state, at all reasonable hours.

D. S. CREAMER.

DAVID S. CREAMER was born on a farm in Mead township, Belmont County, September 3d, 1858. He has held many places of public trust. He was elected township clerk of Mead township in 1886, and was elected Recorder of Belmont County in 1892, and it was at that time that he moved to St. Clairsville, the county seat. He served two terms as member of the City Council at St. Clairsville, and was three times elected president of the Board of Managers of the Belmont County Agricultural Society. Mr. Creamer was at one time half owner of the St. Clairsville Gazette, which was one of the oldest papers in southeastern Ohio, being established in 1812. When he retired from the Recorder's office he engaged in the fire insurance and real estate business in St. Clairsville, and continued in this occupation until he was appointed State Fire Marshal by the late Governor Pattison on June 1, 1906, which office he now holds.

STATE FIRE MARSHAL.

DUTIES OF THE STATE FIRE MARSHAL.

THE act which established the office of the State Fire Marshal was passed by the Seventy-fourth General Assembly on the 16th day of April, 1900, and on June 1, 1906, Governor Pattison, by the authority given him under this act, appointed D. S. Creamer, of St. Clairsville, Ohio, to be the third State Fire Marshal.

Under the provisions of the act it becomes the duty of the Fire Marshal to cause an investigation of all fires which occur in the State, with the object in view of reducing, if possible, the enormous fire waste. It is also his duty to make an investigation of inflammable and other conditions from which fires are liable to originate, and have the same remedied or removed. For many years, on account of the difficulty connected with establishing the crime of arson, very few incendiaries have been punished in the State, the total average per year not exceeding two. Estimating the loss caused by incendiary fires upon the best information to be obtained, the total loss to the people of the state resulting from such fires will amount to from twenty to forty per cent of the total fire waste of the state each year. The wisdom of the legislature in providing some means of reducing this waste is therefore apparent. Fire Marshal in carrying out the object of the act, the state was divided by him into twelve districts and a division assistant to the Fire Marshal was appointed for each district, to whom, under the provisions of the law, township clerks, mayors of villages and chiefs of fire departments report all fires occurring in their respective territories. All fires reported as suspicious are investigated by the assistant, and where necessity requires one of the two deputies appointed by the Fire Marshal goes to the scene of the fire and holds an inquest. The testimony of all witnesses who have knowledge of the fire, is taken in writing under oath. If the facts warrant, an arrest is made and the guilty party bound over to the grand jury, indicted and tried for arson. The office is provided with a corresponding clerk and a statistician, whose duties are to keep a complete and classified record of all fires and their causes. The office has already met with unexpected success in the prosecution of incendiaries' and a goodly number of fire-bugs who, through the efforts of the office are now in the "Pen," will be prevented for some time from carrying out their nefarious calling of setting fire to buildings for the purpose of securing insurance or for any other motive. Below will be found a complete roster of the employes of the department, together with their postoffice addresses:

THE BOARD OF LIBRARY COMMISSIONERS.

THE Ohio State Library was established by Governor Thomas Worthington in the year 1817. The General Assembly which met December 2, 1816, appropriated $3,500.00 as a contingent fund for the Governor of 1817. In the summer of that year Governor Worthington visited eastern cities to investigate the management of state institutions. While in Philadelphia he determined to purchase a collection of books for the establishment of a state library. On his return he authorized the fitting up of a room above the auditor's office, in the south end of the old state office building, then on High Street, immediately south of the avenue to the west entrance of the State House. He deposited therein the books he had selected—509 volumes—the beginning of the State Library. Most of these books are still in the library.

John L. Harper was the first librarian. Changes in this office were frequent till 1824, when Zachariah Mills was appointed. He served eighteen years.

In 1844, the library was placed under a commission consisting of the Governor, the Secretary of State and the State Librarian. The latter was appointed by the Governor. In April, 1896, the law was again changed and the entire management of the library was vested in a board of commissioners appointed by the Governor for a term of six years. They elect the librarian and all the assistants.

The State Library was open originally only to state officers and members of the General Assembly. The regulations provided that "the librarian shall open accounts with the Governor, Secretary, Treasurer and Auditor of State, the Judges of the Supreme Court, and the members of the General Assembly and their clerks." The privilege of drawing books did not extend beyond the period the legislature was actually in session. As late as 1895 books were loaned only to "members and officers, and ex-members and ex-officers of the General Assembly; State officers, and clerks in the several departments of the State government at Columbus, and ex-officers of the same; the Judges of the Supreme Court, of the Supreme Court Commission, of the Circuit Court and the Common Pleas Court; officers and teachers of the benevolent institutions of the State, and of the State University; officers of the Penitentiary; widows of ex-members and ex-officers of the General Assembly and of ex-state officers; and clergymen resident of Columbus."

Under such regulations the circulation of the library was, of course, quite limited. In the long period since it was founded many valuable works have been placed on the shelves that were accessible to the general public only for purposes of reference in the reading room of the library. These were sought by those who were engaged in the preparation of some literary work or in the study of some "special science or subject of art." The newspaper files were frequently consulted by editors and reporters. The books had a limited circulation among State officers and their families. Members of the legislature, as a rule, found themselves too busy to read. They made frequent use of the state documents kept in the library.

The first board of library commissioners under the Garfield Act of 1896 was appointed by the Governor in April of that year. The members were Rutherford B. Hayes, J. F. McGrew and Charles A. Reynolds. One of the first acts of this board was to open the library to citizens of the State. The old distinctions in favor of state officials were in large measure removed. Citizens of the State who desire to draw books now do so by furnishing the library board a satisfactory guarantee, or by making application through their local library. Those living in distant parts of the State may borrow books by paying transportation both ways. The books are not sent out indiscriminately. Rare and valuable works are not issued for use outside of the library. Those in the circulating department, however, are issued freely on the same conditions to all citizens.

While it contains works in almost every department of literature, the library is strongest in State publications, government documents, history and its related branches, bound periodicals, and newspaper files. In recent years a systematic effort has been made to add to the early literature relating to the State. The work of collecting has necessarily been slow, but the very substantial progress already made warrants the hope that this may soon become the best reference library in the country in all things pertaining to Ohio.

There are at present (November 15, 1906) 112,735 bound volumes in the State Library.

TRAVELING LIBRARY DEPARTMENT.

This department was organized in the summer of 1896. A traveling library is a collection of from twenty-five to forty books sent out by the State Library to a reading club, an association of citizens, a board of education or a public library, to be kept four months, with privilege of renewal.

The objects of the department are: 1. To furnish good literature to patrons. 2. To strengthen small libraries. 3. To create an interest in the establishment of new libraries.

On receipt of a request on the forms furnished by the State Library, properly filled and signed by the members of the club, the officers of a free public library, board of education, or other associations, the books will be shipped. The parties receiving the books must pay transportation both ways.

The conditions under which these libraries are issued are very simple. The organizations to which they are sent obligate themselves for their proper use and safe return. The system has proven very popular. Traveling libraries have been sent out as follows:

*Libraries issued within the year ending November 15, 1906, were sent to 796 communities.

Note—Detailed history of the State Library has been written by William T. Coggeshall, John C. Tuthill and C. B. Galbreath.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

The State Library will be open, except Sunday and holidays, from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. During the months of July and August the library will close at 4 p. m. During sessions of the Legislature the library will be open, except Saturday, till 9 p. m.

All citizens of the State over twenty-one years of age will be permitted to draw books in accordance with the following rules:

All State officers elected by the people or appointed by the Governor may draw books by giving receipt.

Citizens who desire to draw books may do so on furnishing the Library Board a satisfactory guarantee or through the public library in their city.

No one shall keep from the library more than two volumes at one time, nor any volume more than two weeks without renewal.

One renewal will be allowed and the book may be kept for two weeks from the date of renewal.

No borrower shall keep a book more than three days after notice has been mailed to his address that it is wanted at the library or that the book is due.

Any book not returned after one week's notice may be sent for at the expense of the borrower.

Any book not returned after one month's notice may be considered lost, in which case the borrower shall pay its full value or the value of the set to which it belongs.

All expenses connected with the issue of the books or their return shall be paid by the borrower.

Any person failing to return a book within one week after notice has been mailed forfeits the privilege of the library until reinstated by the Board.

The Board will determine what books may not be taken from the library.

Traveling libraries, of from 25 to 40 volumes each, will be loaned for from three to five months. For particulars, address State Librarian, Columbus, Ohio.

LIBRARY COMMISSIONERS UNDER GARFIELD ACT OF 1896.

1896–1897—Charles A. Reynolds, President; Rutherford B. Hayes, J. F. McGrew.
1898 —J. F. McGrew, President; O. E. Niles, Chas. A. Reynolds.
1899–1901—J. F. McGrew, President; O. E. Niles, Chas. Orr.
1902 —J. F. McGrew, President; Chas. Orr, John McSweeney.
1904 —J. F. McGrew, President; Chas. Orr, John McSweeney.
1906 —J. F. McGrew, President; Chas. Orr; John McSweeney.

JOHN FRANKLIN McGREW was born in Steubenville, Ohio, April 3, 1854. He moved to Springfield in February, 1856. He graduated from Wittenberg College, Springfield, Ohio, in 1873; was admitted to the barn in 1877, and has been in practice since that time, with the exception of two years, during which time he was manager of the Republic Printing Company, of Springfield, publishers of The Republic. He was elected to the Sixty-ninth General Assembly in 1889 as a Republican and was re-elected to the Seventieth General Assembly. He was appointed Library Commissioner by Governor Bushnell April 22, 1896, for the term of four years and was reappointed by Governor Nash, in April, 1900, for the full term of six years.

Mr. McGrew has taken a very active interest in everything pertaining to the State Library and for a number of years has been President of the Board of Commissioners.

CHARLES ORR was born at Cedarville, Ohio, January 8, 1858. His parents, John and Henrietta Orr, later moved to Xenia, where he attended the city schools and graduated from the High School in 1875. Later he engaged in the book and stationery business, in connection with which he operated a book bindery and built up an extensive trade. From Xenia he went to New York City, where he was for a time employed in the famous Brentano book store. He then went to Ann Arbor, Michigan, from which city he was soon called to the Case Library, of Cleveland, Ohio, of which he has had charge for the past twelve years. In the spring of 1899 he was appointed on the Board of Library Commissioners to succeed Captain Charles A. Reynolds, who resigned to assume command of his company in the Philippines.

Mr. Orr has spent the greater part of his life in contact with books. He has been active in the Ohio Library Association, which he has served as Secretary and President.

JOHN McSWEENEY was born in Wooster, Ohio, August 1, 1854. He is the son of the late John McSweeney, the eloquent advocate, whose fame extended beyond the borders of Ohio. He was graduated from the Wooster High School, and at the age of twenty-two from the University of Wooster. Later he studied law in the Boston Law School, and was admitted to the bar in 1879. Soon afterward he was elected City Solicitor of Wooster and served in this position from 1879 to 1883. In the latter year he was elected Prosecuting Attorney of Wayne County, a position which he held until 1889. Since then he has applied himself to the practice of law and has built up a large practice. He was appointed by Governor McKinley a trustee of the Ohio Hospital for Epileptics, served through the two terms of Governor Bushnell's administration and was reappointed by Governor Nash. He was appointed Library Commissioner by Governor Nash in April, 1902, for the full term of six years.

Mr. McSweeney has been, not only a hard student, but an ardent lover of literature. He is an excellent judge of books and finds his new position very congenial to his tastes.

CHARLES BURLEIGH GALBREATH was born in Fairfield township, Columbiana County, February 15, 1858. His early life was spent on the farm. At the age of seventeen he began teaching school. In June of 1879 he completed a course in the Lisbon High School, and in September of the same year entered Mount Union College, from which he was graduated in 1883. One year later this institution conferred upon him the degree of A. M. He was superintendent of the Wilmot. Stark County, schools from 1883 to 1885, when he resigned to accept the superintendency of the East Palestine, Ohio, schools, where he remained eight years. Although unanimously re-elected for two years more, he resigned to accept a position in Mt. Hope College. While in East Palestine he was for two years editor of The Reveille, now The Reveille-Echo. He was school examiner of Columbiana County from 1885 to 1893. In 1896 he was elected State Librarian by the Library Commission created by the Seventy-second General Assembly. He is a member of the Ohio Library Association, the American Library Association and the National Association of State Librarians. Of the last named organization he was President in 1900.

THE STATE BOARD OF PARDONS.

THE Ohio State Board of Pardons was created by an act of the General Assembly of Ohio, April 11, 1888. The act provided the Governor should nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoint four suitable persons having the qualifications of electors, two of whom should be appointed from each of the two leading political parties. Two of the members thereof, appointed from the same political party, should serve for one and three years respectively, and two members thereof, appointed from the other political party, should serve for two and four years, respectively; and that thereafter the Governor in like manner should appoint a member of said board, of like qualifications and from the same political party as the member whom he succeeds, who shall serve for four years.

The act further provided that the Board should organize by electing one of their number president, and it was made the duty of the executive clerk of the Governor to act as Secretary.

The Board meets regularly on the first Thursday after the second Monday in January, and on the same day every third month thereafter, and at such other times as they may deem necessary.

The Board has formulated rules for the guidance of the applicants, which, together with other blanks, can be secured from the Secretary, at the Governor's office.

All cases presented to the Board are heard by the entire Board, and the cases separately referred to some member of the Board for investigation, who makes a written report to the entire Board at its next meeting, when the report is adopted or rejected, and together with all other papers is transmitted to the Governor for his consideration.

The Board makes an annual written report to the Governor on the first Monday in December of each year, of its actions during the last preceding year, its officers and members, and the names thereof, with a recommendation for such legislation as they think proper in order to carry out more fully the object and purpose of its creation.

Under the constitution and laws, the Governor cannot pass upon or grant a pardon until after the case has been submitted to the Board of Pardons, and passed upon by that body, except in cases specifically mentioned in the statutes.

The Board was created for the purpose of relieving the Governor of the task of examining manifold papers and documents, which consumed a large part of his time, to the detriment of other important public business.

The Board held its first meeting in Columbus on April 30, 1886, and organized by electing Dr. W., H. Cretcher President, and appointing Dr. G. C. Ashmun, the health officer of Cleveland, as Secretary.

Dr. Ashmun resigned this position in June, 1886, and Dr. Guy Case, of Cleveland, was appointed as his successor. Dr. Case tendered his resignation July 27, 1886, and Dr. C. O. Probst, of Columbus, was appointed Secretary on the same date. Dr. Probst has continuously filled the position since that time, and is the present Secretary.

The Board first directed its efforts to building up a complete health organization for the entire State. In 1886 the larger cities and a very few villages were the only municipalities that had availed themselves of the provisions of an act permitting them to establish a local board of health.

The Board at once took up the work of increasing the number and improving the efficiency of local boards of health. Within a few years it secured a board of health in all cities and villages.

In 1893 the townships, which up to that time had had practically no protection in health matters, were required to establish boards of health, so that provision is now made for a board of health or health officer in every city, village and township.

Sanitary legislation has been secured from time to time enlarging the powers and increasing the duties of both the State and local boards of health.

In furtherance of its work the Board began, in 1897, a systematic examination of the streams in Ohio. Each main stream, with its tributaries, has been carefully examined from source to outlet with a view to determining the source and character of its pollution. Monthly chemical and bacteriological examinations of the waters of these streams, taken at various places on each stream, have been made, and careful gaugings and measurements to determine their rates of flow at different seasons of the year. This work is completed for the main drainage system of the State. Five special reports of much value have been published upon this subject.

An act of 1898 authorized the Board to establish a Laboratory "for the examination of public water supplies, the diagnosis of diphtheria, typhoid fever, hydrophobia, glanders, etc., and for the examination of food suspected to be the cause of disease."

The Laboratory has been placed at the disposal of all local boards of health, and examinations are made free for any physician for the diagnosis of various communicable diseases.

The Board is frequently called upon to examine the sanitary condition of public institutions and school buildings, to investigate the causes of outbreaks of epidemic diseases, and to assist the local authorities in the abatement of nuisances injurious to health.

Beginning with a Secretary, the working force of the Board has been gradually increased until it now embraces a chief clerk, two assistant clerks, three stenographers, five engineers, a chemist and bacteriologist and three assistant chemists.

The State Board of Health.

The immense growth of public sentiment in the last ten years in favor of improved sanitary conditions and more stringent measures for the prevention of disease has been due in no small part to the progressive character of the work of the State Board of Health; and we may confidently hope that this enlightened sentiment will gradually lead to a more generous support of health measures, whereby the sum of human happiness and average duration of life may be materially increased.

The State Board has kept in close touch with the local boards and is constantly helping them by aid and advice.

In 1888 a monthly journal was established as a medium of frequent communication between the State and local boards of health. A summary of the weekly reports of contagious diseases, made to the State Board, by the local boards, is published therein, with other original and reprinted matter of interest or suitable for the guidance or instruction of health officers and members of boards of health.

In 1891 a call was issued for a meeting of the State Board of Health and representatives of local boards of health. About forty delegates were present at this meeting. Annual meetings have been held regularly since; the attendance at the late meetings has been nearly or quite four hundred. By an act of April 2, 1906, each city, village and township board of health is required to send a delegate to annual conferences called by the State Board of Health.

The State Board of Health has endeavored to disseminate among the people plain instructions for the prevention of the dangerous contagious diseases. Suitable pamphlets were prepared, and hundreds of thousands of copies have been distributed. Ail local boards of health have been supplied with copies of these, and when a contagious disease appears in any community they are urged to distribute the appropriate circular to families having the disease, and to their neighbors.

In 1893 an act was passed providing that plans for all proposed water works or sewerage systems or for changes or extensions thereof should be submitted to and approved by the State Board of Health. The Board has examined and passed upon nearly six hundred such plans. It has been able in this way to protect many communities against the introduction of an impure water supply, and to prevent what in some instances would have been dangerous pollution of sources of existing public water supplies. To this end it has encouraged the introduction of sewage purification plants, of which there are now thirty-seven in the State, and at the present time is especially endeavoring to secure the filtration of public water supplies where pollution is known to exist. A recent study has been made of all water and sewage purification plants in the State, which will be the subject of a special report.

OHIO FISH AND GAME COMMISSION.

THE Ohio Fish and Game Commission was created in 1886, and is composed of five members, appointed by the Governor, who serve for five years each without compensation, except their actual expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. The law defines the duties of the Commissioners as follows: "To examine the various rivers, lakes, ponds and streams in the State, or bordering thereon, and to ascertain whether they can be rendered more productive of fish and game, and what measures are required to effect this object, either in restoring the production of fish and game in and about them, or in protecting and propagating the fish which at present frequent and abound in them, or otherwise; and the Commissioners shall carry into effect all measures in this behalf, that they deem necessary, so far as means are placed at their disposal for these purposes; and they shall also inquire into the matter of artificial propagation of fish in the waters of the State, and adopt such plans to test the efficiency of this mode of increasing the quality of edible fish as they think best."

To carry into effect the laws providing for the protection and preservation of birds, fish and game the Commission appoints a force of wardens, deputy state wardens and special wardens, and by these a large number of arrests and convictions are made each year. Special wardens are appointed for some of the public lakes and reservoirs of the State, and there are also special wardens for Lake Erie.

In the matter of propagating fish the Commission maintains a fine hatchery near London, Ohio, where black bass, marble cat, and crappies are raised and at the proper time are distributed to the public streams and lakes throughout the State. A new hatchery for the artificial propagation of fish for Lake Erie is maintained at Put-in-Bay, Ohio. The lake fishing interests being of great magnitude and importance, the work of the Commission in respect to propagating these fish is one of vital necessity. The Commission has accomplished great good in its various endeavors, and there is every reason to believe that the future will be even more productive of satisfactory results.

The present personnel of the Commission is as follows: Paul North, president, Cleveland; D. W. Greene, Dayton; Thomas B. Paxton, Cincinnati; George W. McCooke, Steubenville, and J. F. Rankin, South Charleston. The secretary of the Commission is George C. Blanker, of Columbus. The active work of the Commission is under the charge of General John C. Speaks, of Columbus.

THE BOARD OF STATE CHARITIES.

THE Ohio Board of State Charities is composed of six members appointed by the Governor. The law requires that the membership shall be equally divided between the two leading political parties, and fixes the term of office at three years. The members receive no compensation for their services, but their actual expenses incurred in the discharge of their duties are paid by the State. The Board appoints its own secretary, who is not a member of the Board. It is required to hold quarterly meetings, but special meetings may be held at any time.

It was first established by an act of the legislature passed in 1867, Massachusetts being the only state to precede Ohio in the enactment of such a law. Its organization at that time was due to the efforts of a member of the House of Representatives from Cuyahoga County, Honorable D. A. Dangler, who had the support of the then Governor, Jacob D. Cox. The motive that actuated Mr. Dangler in the introduction of his measure is defined by him as follows: "I availed myself of the opportunity, as a member of the Ohio Legislature, of visiting the State institutions for the purpose of familiarizing myself, as far as possible, with their arrangement. It was after such a visit that I became impressed that the citizens of the great State of Ohio should have a more perfect knowledge of the management of these institutions than was gained by the annual visits of their representatives in the Legislature." In a speech advocating the passage of the bill introduced by him, Mr. Dangler said:

"My objects are, by the agency of a common center and common head, to crystallize those various suggestions tending towards reformation and economy in the present system of management and extend their application to all alike by the same agency; to extract from the systems in use in the European states and countries, such ideas as may be applicable to our peculiar wants and requirements; through the introduction of statistics and analytical records, to assist in the diminution of crime, suffering and sickness, by pointing out the causes, occasion and the source; by the adoption of similiar rules and regulations for institutions of a like character, to render their management uniform, harmonious and effective, and by a common standard of qualification for the various offices, prevent the appointment of any but those fully qualified to discharge the various duties with honesty and efficiency."

In 1872 the Board was abolished, but it was again organized in 1876 under the old law with the additional provision for a salaried secretary. On April 15, 1880, the law was so amended as to provide for a Board of six members, instead of five, the original number.

The Board of State Charities.

The Board is required to submit an annual report to the Legislature, setting forth the conditions of the institutions coming under its supervision, together with any suggestions or recommendations it may have to offer relative to their management. Its work is not executive, but is entirely supervisory over the whole system of public charitable and correctional institutions of the State, including those maintained by municipalities and counties. It has the authority to require such reports from all institutions supported in whole or in part, by public funds, as it may deem necessary. All of these institutions now make annual, and some of them quarterly reports to the office of the Board. One of the most important duties devolving upon it is that requiring the submission of all plans for State institutions, jails, children's homes, workhouses and infirmaries to the Board for criticism and approval. The Governor of the State is ex-officio president of the Board, and may, at any time, order an investigation by the Board, or a committee of its members, of any institution over which it has supervisory power.

SECRETARIES OF THE BOARD.

The Secretary of the Board, in addition to other duties, visits and inspects all the institutions coming under its supervision.

Since its organization in 1867 it has had four secretaries: Rev. Albert G. Byers, M. D., 1867 to 1890; John G. Doren, December, 1890, to April, 1892; Joseph Perkins Byers, son of the first Secretary, April, 1892, to November, 1902; H. H. Shirer, since December 1, 1902.

The present Secretary was born near Dayton in 1872. He graduated from the High School of that city and received the degree of A. B. at Heidelberg University at Tiffin in 1897. At the time of graduation he was elected an instructor at the University and continued in that work until his unanimous election as Secretary of the Board of State Charities.

W. L. CURRY.

W. L. CURRY.

L. CURRY was born in Union County, Ohio, June 25, 1839. He is the son of Stephenson Curry, and his gradfather, Colonel James Curry, was an officer of the "Continental Line" in the 4th and 8th Virginia during the War of the Revolution, and was granted, as part payment for his service, one thousand acres of land in Union County and the family settled in that county in the year 1811. Mr. Curry, the subject of this sketch, worked on his father's farm during his boyhood days until he arrived at the age of twenty-one. He was given a good education in the country schools and he also attended a private select school for two or three terms at the old academy in Marysville, the county seat, and taught school in the county four winters. In the fall of 1860 he entered the Otterbein College at Westerville, Ohio, intending to complete a scientific course in three years, and in January, 1861, commenced the study of law. The fall of 1860 ended his school days, as at the breaking out of the war of the rebellion he enlisted in an infantry company in April, 1861, for the first three months' service. At the organization of the company he was elected First Lieutenant and the company commenced drilling at once, but the quota of Ohio was filled before this company was mustered in. He then enlisted in the first call for three years' troops as a private in the First Ohio Volunteer Cavalry. At the organization of the company he was appointed Orderly Sergeant and was promoted successively to Second Lieutenant, First Lieutenant and to the Captaincy of his company, and also served several months as Regimental Quartermaster. Colonel Curry served through the war with his regiment, participating in all of the battles of the Army of the Cumberland, including the siege of Corinth, Miss., Perryville, Stone River, Chickamauga, Mission Ridge and the campaign of the "One hundred days under fire from Chattanooga to Atlanta."

He was at one time a prisoner of war and was discharged by reason of "injuries received in the line of duty," after a service of three and one-half years at the front.

After the war he engaged in the mercantile business in Union County, until the year 1875, and that year he was elected Auditor of Union County and served as County Auditor three successive terms. On retiring from that office he engaged in the lumber business, in which he still retains an interest. He served as Assistant Adjutant General of Ohio during both President Mc-Kinley's terms as Governor, and also served in the National Guard of Ohio five years as Lieutenant Colonel of the 14th Regiment, O. V. I.

His family has been engaged in all the wars in this country since the Revolution, and two brothers served through the War of the Rebellion, one of whom attained the rank of Captain. He has always taken a great interest in military affairs and has written and published the history of "Union County in the War," a history of the "First Ohio Cavalry," and a number of patriotic poems.

STATE COMMISSIONER OF SOLDIERS' CLAIMS.

PURPOSES OF THE DEPARTMENT.

THIS office was created by act of the Legislature of Ohio, passed April 12, 1900. W. L. Curry, the present Commissioner, was appointed immediately after the passage of the act and his commission bears date of April 12, 1900. The following extract from the law sets forth the duties required of the Commissioner:

"That for the purpose of preparing and collecting the claims of Ohio soldiers, and their legal representatives, against the government of the United States, growing out of military services, and for the protection and relief of Ohio soldiers, whether in the service or discharged, there be and is hereby established, at the seat of government of the State, an office of Ohio soldiers' claims.

"The chief of said office shall be styled the 'Commissioner of Soldiers' Claims,' and he shall be appointed by the Governor.

"It shall be the duty of the Commissioner, on demand, to furnish and give all necessary instructions and advice to soldiers and marines of Ohio, or their heirs, or legal representatives, respecting the claims of such soldiers and marines against the United States for pension, bounty, back pay, or otherwise by reason of military service, and to collect such claims and perform all other duties which the Governor may require of him appertaining to the duties of said office.

"The Commissioner shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations, he shall keep a seal of office, and his official certificate shall be received in evidence without further authentication.

"He is required to give a bond in the sum of $10,000 conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty and all claims prosecuted is without expense to the claimant."

The term of office is for two years and the Commissioner holds his office until his successor has been appointed and qualified.

THE BOARD OF MEDICAL REGISTRATION AND EXAMINATION.

THE law providing for the State Board of Medical Registration and Examination was passed on February 27, 1896 (Sections 4403c, d, e, f, and g, Revised Statutes of Ohio). The first Board was appointed by Governor Bushnell in March, 1896, and held its first session on March 25, 1896.

The Board consists of seven members representing the different schools of medicine in proportion to their numerical strength in the State, and the members are appointed by the Governor, each for a term of seven years.

The Secretary, who is made executive officer of the Board by the law, is not a member of the Board but is elected each year by the Board. The law requires that the Secretary shall be a physician in good standing.

The purpose of this department is to regulate the practice of medicine, surgery and midwifery in the State of Ohio, and to protect the people of the State from illegal practitioners of the same.

The duties of the department consist of the examination and registration of competent persons for the practice of medicine, surgery and midwifery, the regulation of medical colleges and the prosecution of illegal practitioners of medicine, surgery and midwifery.

The department is self-supporting, depending upon the fees collected from the examination and registration of physicians and midwives for its revenue.

The law of February 27, 1896, provided that the Board should issue certificates upon the basis of graduation from medical colleges recognized as in good standing by the Board. On April 14, 1900, an amendment to the law of February 27, 1896 (Sections 4403c-f, Revised Statutes of Ohio), was passed requiring that all applicants for registration in the State of Ohio shall appear before the Board and pass an examination in Anatomy, Physiology, Chemistry, Materia Medica and Therapeutics, Practice of Medicine, Practice of Surgery, Obstetrics, Pathology and such other subjects as the Board may require.

The fee for registration under the provisions of the law of February 27, 1896, was $5.00, and the fee for examination under the present law is $25.00.

The following facts are stated for the information of those desiring to practice medicine or surgery in the State of Ohio:

I. No person can lawfully practice medicine in the State of Ohio unless licensed to do so by the State Board of Medical Registration and Examination.

- 2. Certificates entitling the holder to practice medicine and surgery in Ohio are issued only after examination by the Board, except in the following cases:
- (a) Applicants who were matriculated on January 1, 1900, in any medical college in the State of Ohio, recognized by the State Board of Medical Registration and Examination, who have graduated since January 1, 1900, and who file their diplomas for registration prior to July 1, 1904, may receive certificates under the Act of February 27, 1896.
- (b) The board may in its discretion dispense with an examination, in the case of a physician or surgeon duly authorized to practice medicine or surgery in any state, territory or the District of Columbia, who may desire to change his residence to Ohio, and who makes application on a form to be prescribed by the Board, accompanied by a fee of fifty dollars, and presents a certificate, or license issued after an examination by the medical board of such state, territory, or the District of Columbia, accorded only to applicants from states, territories and districts whose laws demand qualifications of equal grade with those required in Ohio; but such examination shall not be dispensed with unless under the law and regulations of the state, territory or the District of Columbia, equal rights and privileges are accorded to physicians and surgeons of Ohio, holding the certificate of the Board, who may desire to move to, and practice in such state, territory or the District of Columbia.
- 3. Examinations will begin on the second Tuesday of June and December, and will continue for three days. Examinations will not be held at any other time except as stated above.
- 4. Completed applications must be filed with the Secretary of the Board at least ten days prior to the day set for the examination which the applicant desires to enter.
  - 5. A fee of twenty-five dollars must accompany each application.
- 6. Only graduates in medicine from colleges recognized by the State Board of Medical Registration and Examination are admitted to the examinations.
- 7. The examination is written and must be in the English language. It includes Anatomy, Physiology, Pathology, Chemistry, Materia Medica and Therapeutics, the Principles and Practice of Medicine, Surgery, Obstetrics and such other subjects as the Board shall require. The applicant is examined in the Materia Medica and Therapeutics and the Principles and Practice of Medicine, of the school of medicine in which he desires to practice.
- 8. Copies of questions which have been used in previous examinations will not be furnished under any circumstances.
- 9. Persons failing in one examination may be re-examined within one year without the payment of an additional fee.

- 10. Blanks for application will be furnished by the Secretary upon request.
- 11. The applicant's diploma must in every case accompany his application papers. After verifying the diploma the Secretary will return it by express at once.
- 12. All correspondence should be addressed to Dr. D. N. Kinsman, Secretary, Columbus, Ohio.

Postage stamps should be enclosed for answer.

THE STATE BOARD OF DENTAL EXAMINERS.

THE Seventy-fifth General Assembly amended the law regulating the practice of dentistry in Ohio. The wholesale registration permitted by the former law is restricted, and only graduates of Ohio colleges up to June meeting of the Board, 1905, and proprietors of dental offices continuously since January 1, 1893, are permitted to register without examination.

The clause in law admitting an under-graduate "to examination during the years 1902 and 1903 who is a legal resident of this State and has been a student of dentistry, under a preceptor, for twelve months prior to the passage of this act" has eliminated its effect, by expiration of stated period; therefore, no under-graduate is eligible to examination.

After 1905, June meeting, everyone who desires to practice dentistry in Ohio must be a graduate of a reputable dental college and pass the State Board of Dental Examiners before a certificate of registration will be issued; therefore, our law eventually works into a very effective one.

The registration fee is $10.00; the examination fee $20.00. There have been 3,534 certificates of registration issued since the passage of the former law, which took effect July 4, 1892; however, a great many of these were issued to persons having no intention of practicing in Ohio, but registered because the law was so lax—a diploma and fee of $2.00 were all that was required.

At last meeting of Board the Secretary was authorized to prepare and publish a list giving location of all registered dentists in Ohio, mailing copy to each, which will very materially assist in eradicating an illegal element.

Judge Marcus G. Evans rendered a very able opinion sustaining Board in case of Glenn vs. State Board of Dental Examiners. Glenn had brought mandamus proceedings to compel Board to register him under provisions of former law.

The members of the Board are as follows, and their terms expire May 31, 1905:

THE BOARD OF PHARMACY.

RIGINALLY created by act of the General Assembly, March 1884. Object, to regulate the practice of pharmacy in the State of Ohio. Board composed of five members. Term five years. The term of one member expires each year (March or April).

Appointment by the Governor with consent of the Senate. The Ohio Pharmaceutical Association recommends each year five persons from which the Governor may appoint one for the vacancy.

The principal executive officer is the secretary, whose office is at the capitol.

This officer is a member of the board and is elected annually by the Board.

All persons engaged in the practice of pharmacy in Ohio as proprietors or managers of retail drug stores were registered without examination as pharmacists and received certificates of such registration by reason of their being in such practice when the law was enacted. Those engaged as clerks or assistants under the same conditions were likewise registered and received certificates as assistant pharmacists.

The limit within which any person could take advantage of this provision was three months, and that limit expired in July, 1884. Subsequent to that date all persons are required to pass an examination in order to secure a certificate of registration entitling them to practice pharmacy in Ohio.

Certificates are issued for a period of three years and renewable triennially so long as the holder continues to practice phramacy in this State.

The renewal fee is two dollars for pharmacist and one dollar for an assistant pharmacist. Examinations are held on the second Tuesdays and Wednesdays of the months of January, May and October, all in Columbus. The requirements for pharmacists' examination are four years' experience in the business of a retail apothecary, and for an assistant pharmacist two years' like experience. Credit on this requirement is given for time spent in receiving instruction in a recognized college of pharmacy, but undergraduates do not receive credit for college work on pharmacists' examination. For the first grade the applicant must be 21 years of age, and for the second, 18 years of age.

The examination fee for pharmacist is five dollars, and for an assistant two dollars. No additional charge for registration or certificate. Original certificates issued for three years.

Every pharmacy, or retail drug or chemical store must be under the immediate supervision of a registered pharmacist. Assistant pharmacists may sell or compound drugs, medicines or poisons only in a store which is in charge of a registered pharmacist. The Board is charged with the duty of enforcing the statute.

The Board of Pharmacy.

The act of 1884 was repealed April 21, 1898, and a new one enacted in its place. The provisions of examination and registration (as outlined above) are those embodied in the later act. The status of the Board was not changed.

The expenses of the Board are paid from the fees and penalties arising from renewal fees, examination fees, and the penalties arising from fines in prosecutions. Receipts are paid into the state treasury and expenses paid on warrant issued by the Auditor of State.

THE BOARD OF LIVE STOCK COMMISSIONERS.

T. L. CALVERT, SECRETARY.

DR. PAUL FISCHER, VETERINARIAN.

A CCORDING to a law passed May 7, 1902, the Ohio State Board of Agriculture constitutes the State Board of Live Stock Commissioners. This Board appoints a veterinarian, who is subject to its rules and regulations, and, in certain cases, when deemed advisable, additional veterinarians may be temporarily appointed.

This Board is delegated with power to prescribe rules for carrying into effect and enforcing all the laws of the State with reference to protecting live stock and exterminating disease, and is authorized to, and does, co-operate with the Bureau of Animal Industry of the United States Department of Agriculture. The scope of the Board's work is entirely administrative in character, the object being not to treat disease, but to prevent its spread and provide means for eradication. Prevention is brought about, as far as possible, by enforcing the laws forbidding the transportation of diseased animals through the State, and by regulating the sanitary condition of stock-yards and railway cars and other conveyances used for transporting animals; and also the condition of buildings and public and private premises where live stock may be quartered.

The shipments of Southern cattle infested with ticks, the carriers of Southern cattle fever, are carefully guarded and regulated. Under the rules and regulations of this Board, Southern cattle, which are liable to convey Southern cattle fever (Texas fever) to native cattle, must be shipped in distinctly placarded cars and unloaded in special pens provided for that purpose. Cars and other conveyances used for transporting such cattle must be thoroughly disinfected, according to prescribed methods, before they can again be used for transporting other animals or merchandise of any kind. In this way the spread of Southern cattle fever has been kept under absolute control.

When dangerously infectious or contagious diseases break out, their further spread is checked by enforcing strict quarantine regulations. In enforcing these regulations and in receiving information regarding outbreaks of dangerous diseases the co-operation of live stock owners and transportation companies is of the greatest value, in fact without such co-operation no effective work can be done.

Certain widespread diseases and others of a very malignant nature receive particular attention. The introduction of diseases at present not existing in the United States, but which might at any time be introduced with imported animals, such diseases, for instance, as contagious pleuropneumonia in cattle and foot and mouth diseases in cattle, swine and other animals, are guarded with the greatest caution, since their introduction would mean incalculable losses to individuals and their extermination an enormous cost to the country. When in the opinion of the Board of Live Stock Commissioners it is necessary to prevent the further spread of any dangerous, contagious, or infectious disease, to destroy certain affected or exposed animals, such animals, after being examined by the state veterinarian and pronounced affected with the disease in question, may be ordered destroyed. For animals thus destroyed the owner receives a certain compensation from the State. Claims under this provision must be approved by the Board of Live Stock Commissioners, reported by this Board to the Governor, and by him communicated to the legislature with the recommendation, if the matter is approved by him, that the proper appropriation be made to pay such claims. Thus far this provision has been applied to glanders in horses and mules, rabies (hydrophobia) in swine, and tuberculosis in cattle.

The Board of Live Stock Commissioners.

Animals affected with rabies, Southern cattle fever, sheep-pox, mange, or any other dangerous, infectious or contagious disease, the spread of which can be controlled by isolation of the infected animals, are strictly quarantined until all danger of communicating the disease has passed. The cost of the quarantine is always borne by the owner of the quarantined animals.

Shipments of live stock into the State and cars or other conveyances carrying such live stock, are subject to inspection by the State Veterinarian whenever this is necessary to enforce any of the rules and regulations of the Board. The State Veterinarian is the authorized person to issue certificates of health for animals intended to be shipped to other states requiring such certificates.

Special plans for controlling tuberculosis in cattle and swine and for reducing the losses occasioned by hog cholera are being introduced; literature relating to these subjects is from time to time issued by the State Veterinarian and distributed to all applicants who may be interested.

THE BOARD OF VETERINARY EXAMINERS.

THE law creating the State Board of Veterinary Examiners was passed by the General Assembly May 21, 1894. The Board consists of five members; the Secretary of the State Board of Agriculture and the Secretary of the State Board of Health are made ex officio members by the law, while the Governor has the appointment of the other members. A list of the officers, from the organization of the Board to date, is given below:

SELWYN N. OWEN.

Member State Board of Arbitration.

SELWYN N. OWEN was admitted to the bar in 1862, and began practice in Fremont, Ohio. In 1863 he removed to Bryan, Ohio, where he soon entered upon a large and remunerative practice in Northwestern Ohio. In 1876 he was elected to the Common Pleas bench and re-elected in 1881. In 1883 he was elected to the Supreme Court of Ohio, where he served for nearly six years, four years of which time he was Chief Justice of that court, retiring in 1889. He at once entered upon a successful practice and in 1893 he was appointed to a membership of the State Board of Arbitration and was made its chairman, in which capacity he is still serving. In 1897 he was appointed by Mayor Samuel L. Black, Director of Law of the city of Columbus, and served for two years. He is a Democrat in politics and will be 72 years old on July 5, 1908.

NOAH H. SWAYNE.

Member State Poard of Arbitration.

GOVERNOR CHARLES FOSTER was succeeded by Noah Haynes Swayne, a son of Judge Noah H. Swayne of the United States Supreme Court and Sarah Ann Wager of Harper's Ferry, Virginia. He was born in Columbus, Ohio, November 30, 1847. He prepared for college at Phillips Academy, Andover. Massachusetts, and graduated from Yale in the class of 1870. He is a member of the bar of the State of Ohio and is senior member of the firm of Swayne, Haynes, Fuller and Tyler, of Toledo, Ohio. He served one term in the Legislature, having been a member of the 65th General Assembly. In 1900 he was Presidential Elector and in 1903 he was nominated as Elector at Large from the State of Ohio, by the Republican convention, held in the summer of that year. He is President of the Toledo City Library Board and has occupied a number of similar positions. He was married March 16, 1886, to Miss Frances, daughter of the late J. B. Sickles, of St. Louis, Missouri.

JOSEPH BISHOP.

Member State Board of Arbitration.

JOSEPH BISHOP was appointed by Governor McKinley to represent labor on the State Board of Arbitration, and upon the organization of the Board, May 29, 1893, he was elected Secretary and has filled that postition ever since. He is the acting member of the Board and the only one who devotes his entire time to the work. All routine business passes through his hands and the policy pursued in labor controversies is in the initatory stage left to his judgment.

Mr. Bishop was born at Buford, South Wales, June 9, 1839. His father was an iron worker and emigrated to America in 1840, locating at Pittsburg, Pa. Here, Joseph attended the public schools until he was thirteen years old at which age he started to work in the rolling mill. In 1859, he took an active part in organizing the United Sons of Vulcan, or Puddler's Union, the first organization of iron workers in this country. He continued to work at his trade of puddling and his activity in the union until the breaking out of the Civil War, when he enlisted in Company B, 13th Pennsylvania Volunteers. At the close of the three months' service he re-enlisted in Company B, 102nd Pennsylvania Regiment, and was commissioned First Lieutenant. At the close of the war he returned to Pittsburg and resumed his vocation. At the National Convention of the United Sons of Vulcan, held at Philadelphia, in August, 1874, Mr. Bishop was elected National President, which office he held for three years, and during which time he established the first yearly scale of wages for the iron workers of America. He formed the plan of consolidating the various iron workers' unions into one organization. The result of this effort was the formation on August 4, 1876, of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers of the United States. He served as its President until 1881, when he retired from office and again went to work in a rolling mill continuing there until 1885, when he removed to Columbus.

Mr. Bishop was appointed a member of the State Board of Arbitration by Governor McKinley in April, 1893, re-appointed by Governor Bushnell in 1896 and 1899, and again re-appointed by Governor Nash in 1902.

THE STATE BOARD OF ARBITRATION.

THE State Board of Arbitration was organized May 29, 1893, under an act of the previous session of the General Assembly of Ohio. Governor McKinley having appointed as members of such Board the Hon. John Little, ex-member of Congress, from Greene County; the Hon. Selwyn N. Owen, ex-Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Ohio, and Joseph Bishop, a representative of the Trades Unions, both of the latter from Franklin County. Mr. Owen was elected chairman of the Board and Mr. Bishop secretary, and these officers have served uninterruptedly by re-appointment and re-election. Mr. Little died October 18, 1900, and in his stead the Governor appointed Mr. R. G. Richards, of Steubenville, a former Lieutenant-Governor of Ohio. On February 20. 1002. Mr. Richards tendered his resignation, having previously been elected to the Common Pleas bench. The vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Richards was filled on May 10th, when the Governor appointed George W. Crouse, of Akron, to serve the unexpired term. Mr. Crouse served until the end of the term, April 9, 1903, when he was succeeded by ex-Governor Charles Foster, of Fostoria. Mr. Foster died January 9, 1904. The vacancy thus caused was filled by the appointment of Hon, Noah H. Swayne, of Toledo. There have been no other changes in the Board since its creation in 1803. It has acted as arbitrator in a number of serious difficulties between employers and workmen. Its most important work, however, has been along the line of mediation and conciliation. In many instances what might have been serious trouble has been checked in it's incipiency through the prompt and conciliatory offices of the Board.

STATE GEOLOGISTS.

THE First Geological Survey of Ohio was authorized in 1837, and work was begun in that year by W. W. Mather, who published in 1838 the results of the field work done by himself and assistants in 1837 and 1838. From 1839 to 1869 the work stood in abeyance.

The second Geological Survey was undertaken during the year 1869 by legislative authority with Prof. John S. Newberry in charge, and was prosecuted by him till 1882, by which time seven volumes had been published. These volumes were devoted chiefly to the scientific side of the subject; the economic side on which the popular interest chiefly centered was delayed.

Partly owing to this delay Professor Edward Orton, who had been working on the Geological corps since 1869, was promoted to the position of State Geologist. He immediately took up the economic reports, bringing them out in three principal volumes and a number of smaller publications.

In 1889, at the request of Professor Orton, a third organization of the Survey was made by which it became a permanent bureau with instructions to present annual reports. But one report was submitted strictly according to the terms of this law. From 1893 to 1899 the work stood in abeyance, no appropriations being made, though the office existed at least by title.

In 1899 on the death of Edward Orton, his son Edward Orton, Jr., was appointed, and is still in office. A fourth series of publications has been begun, and one volume distributed.

The roster of State Geologist is therefore:

THE ARCHAEOLOGICAL AND HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

A BRIEF HISTORY.

URING the year 1875, an archæological society was formed at General Brinkerhoff's home, in Mansfield, Ohio. The society, through the efforts of General Brinkerhoff, received an appropriation from the Legislature of two thousand five hundred dollars, to be expended in making an exhibit at the Centennial Exposition at Philadelphia. Prof. John T. Short, of the Ohio State University, was secretary of the society, and it flourished under his secretaryship until his untimely death (November 11, 1883), when the society became dormant and practically inoperative. Governor Hoadley, who took an active interest in all matters pertaining to the archæology and history of the State, upon his accession to office conferred with Mr. A. A. Graham and suggested a revival of the old society. A meeting for the purpose of carrying into effect this suggestion was convened at the Secretary of State's office, on the twelfth day of February, 1885, and it was decided to extend to all persons in the State interested in the formation of such a society, an invitation to meet on the twelfth day of March following, at Columbus, Ohio. In response to the circulars sent out some sixty gentlemen, from all parts of Ohio, representing the various departments of scholarship, convened on the day specified, in the Library Room of the State Capitol. The meeting having been called to order by Hon. S. S. Rickley, the Hon. Allen G. Thurman was made president, and Mr. A. A. Graham elected secretary. This convention continued in session for two days, and resulted in perfecting an organization known as The Ohio , State Archaeological and Historical Society, which was duly incorporated on the 13th day of March, 1885. The articles of incorporation succinctly set forth the purposes and aims of the society, as follows:

- I. The name of such corporation shall be The Ohio State Archaeological and Historical Society.
- 2. Said corporation shall be located and its principal business transacted at the City of Columbus, County of Franklin, and State of Ohio.
- 3. Said society is formed for the purpose of promoting a knowledge of Archæology and History, especially of Ohio, by establishing and maintaining a library of books, manuscripts, maps, charts, etc., properly pertaining thereto; a museum of prehistoric relics and natural or other curiosities or specimens of art or nature promotive of the objects of the Association—said library and museum to be open to the public on reasonable terms—and by courses of lectures and publication of books, papers, and documents touching the subjects so specified, with power to receive and hold gifts and devises of real and personal estate for the benefit of such Society, and generally to exercise all the powers legally and properly pertaining thereto.

4. Said Society has no capital stock.

The Articles of Incorporation were signed by twenty-eight persons.

Mr. A. A. Graham occupied the office of secretary from the organization of the society, March 13, 1885, until December, 1893, when ill health compelled him to remove West. He died in Albuquerque, N. M., in February, 1896.

Mr. E. O. Randall was elected assistant secretary in December, 1893, to act as secretary in the absence of Mr. Graham. At the annual meeting of the trustees February 20, 1894, Mr. Randall was elected associate secretary, and February 19, 1895, was elected secretary, which office he has since held.

WORK OF THE SOCIETY.

The Society has an Archæological Museum in Orton Hall, Ohio State University, in which there is a collection of 50,000 specimens of the relics and antiquities of the Mound Builders and later Indians. It has a valuable library numbering hundreds of volumes pertaining mainly to the history of Ohio. The Society publishes each year an annual volume of material concerning the history, archæology and biography of the State. It has published fifteen such volumes, averaging 400 pages to the volume, also an Archæological History of Ohio, History of Ohio Canals, History of Serpent Mound, etc. The Society is the custodian of Ft. Ancient, Warren County, and Serpent Mound in Adams County. Each summer it sends out a corps of explorers for the purpose of examining the prehistoric mounds and making permanent record of the discoveries made therein.

A TRIBUTE TO THE JUDICIARY OF OHIO.

WHILE engaged in a search through the legislative journals of Ohio for data for the Ohio Hundred Year Book (1901) of which this publication is a continuation, the following expressive paragraph was found in the annual address of Governor Joseph Vance to the General Assembly of Ohio, December 13, 1836:

"I have again and again, whilst on business in the eastern cities, heard our judiciary spoken of in terms that made me proud that I was a citizen of Ohio. 'No collusion or fraud, sir,' says an eminent merchant of one of our eastern cities, 'can stand before your judiciary.' This is the character, gentlemen, that causes capital to seek employment here; this is the character that gives security to our rights, and value to our property; and to these combined causes, are to be attributed a large portion of that flowing prosperity that is felt throughout every portion of our commonwealth."

In the years since 1836 Ohio has continued to owe to the judiciary of the State, the security and character which attracted attention in the early years of statehood.

ORGANIZATION.

THE Supreme Court of the State of Ohio consists of six judges, two of whom are elected each alternate year, for terms of six years each. This court is divided into two divisions of three judges each, the first division consisting of the Chief Justice and the third and fifth judge in the order of the expiration of their terms, and the second division consists of the remaining three. The judge second in rank in the court is Chief Justice of the second division.

PRACTICE.

When the judges comprising either division divide as to the decision in a cause before it, the cause shall be reserved for decision by the full court; and when different causes involving the same question are before the respective divisions at the same time, such causes shall also be reserved for decision by the full court. If the whole court be divided evenly as to the decision in any cause, the judgment of the lower court shall be entered as affirmed, and such decision shall be held to be the law as to all such questions in other causes until overruled by a majority of all the judges. And when the members of the court, in any matter of original jurisdiction, divide evenly on any question or questions therein, the determination of the members with whom the Chief Justice votes shall be held to be the judgment of the court.

LOCATION.

The department of the Supreme Court occupies the entire second floor of the judiciary building of the State Capitol, with the court rooms,

The Supreme Court of the State of Ohio.

consultation rooms and other rooms used in the business of the court, and the north half of the first floor of the building with the Supreme Court Law Library, one of the largest and best equipped law libraries in the Middle West.

WEEKLY COURT CALENDAR.

For the mutual convenience of the court and of parties in suit before it, the following rule in practice is observed:

Mondays—Reserved for consultation.

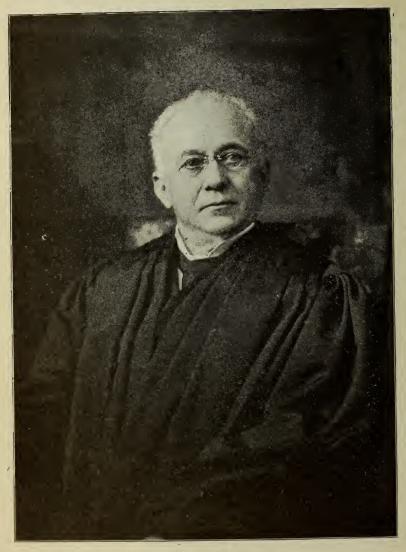

Tuesdays—Decision day.

Wednesdays—Hearing of oral arguments.

Thursdays-Motion day.

Fridays—Hearing of oral arguments.

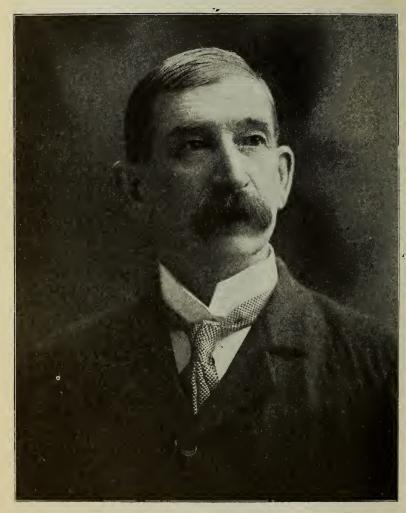

Saturdays—Reserved for consultation.

JOHN A. SHAUCK.

JOHN A. SHAUCK.

JOHN A. SHAUCK was born on a farm near Johnsville, Richland County, Ohio, March 26, 1841; descendant from German stock; ancestors on his father's side emigrating from the fatherland and settling in America before the American Revolution. He obtained his early education in a private school and the public schools of Johnsville. In 1866 he graduated in the classical course from Otterbein University, Westerville, Ohio. He attended the law school of the University of Michigan, graduating from the same in 1867. He entered upon the general practice of the law at Dayton, Ohio, continuing the same until 1884 when he was elected upon the Republican ticket to the Second Circuit Court. He was re-elected Judge of the Circuit Court in 1889. At the Republican convention held in Columbus, June, 1894, Judge Shauck was nominated for the office of Supreme Judge. He was elected in the following fall and took his seat February 9, 1895, to serve for a full term of six years. Judge Shauck was Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Ohio in 1900, during which year he was re-elected for the full term of six years ending February 9, 1907. He became Chief Justice for the second time February 9, 1906, and by reason of the adoption of the Constitutional Amendment which provides for holding State elections every second year, his term both as Judge and as Chief Justice has been extended until December 31, 1908.

JAMES L. PRICE.

JAMES L. PRICE.

James L. Price is a native of Carroll County, where he was born near the village of New Hagerstown. He is the son of Benjamin and Nancy Price, who lived to a ripe old age. His early years were spent on the farm. After the advantages of the common schools he acquired a thorough academic education, and while preparing for the study of law, taught one term of common school in Harrison County, near Adena, and a second term at New Hagerstown, after which his law studies were pursued in the office of Eckley & Shober, at Carrollton, O. Mr. Price was admitted to the bar at Cadiz, and opened an office in Carrollton, where he practiced his profession until the spring of 1865. He was elected and served one term as Prosecuting Attorney and at its close moved to Van Wert, a thriving county seat in the then new northwestern section of Ohio, where he formed a partnership with Judge I. D. Clark, which relation continued for about two years.

In 1868 he was elected Prosecuting Attorney of Van Wert County, and served three terms in succession. In the rising northwest, which was then

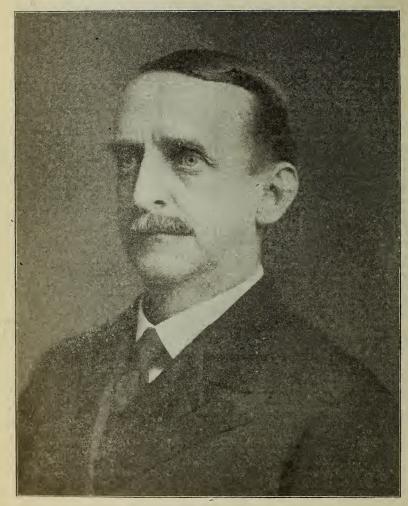

In 1868 he was elected Prosecuting Attorney of Van Wert County, and served three terms in succession. In the rising northwest, which was then in its transient stage, he acquired a large practice, extending into the surrounding counties. Seeing the rapid growth of Lima, its fine railroad facilities, and its promise of a great business future, Mr. Price removed to that city in the year 1883, where he has since resided.

In 1894 the Republicans of the Third Judicial circuit ventured to nominate a candidate for judge of the circuit court, and while it was then and always since has been, strongly Democratic, they succeeded in electing Judge Price by over 3,900 plurality.

The six years' service on the circuit bench was a large contributing factor in his nomination for Judge of the Supreme Court. He was elected on the Republican state ticket in November, 1901, and took his seat in the court February 9, 1902, succeeding Thad. A. Minshall, whose term expired on that day. On February 9, 1906, he became Chief Justice of the Second Division of the Supreme Court, sitting in the north court room in the Judiciary building.

WILLIAM B. CREW.

WILLIAM B. CREW.

JUDGE WILLIAM B. CREW was born at Chesterfield, Morgan Couty, Ohio, April 1, 1852; educated in public schools and at Westtown College, Penna. (a college under the management of the Society of Friends); admitted to the bar by Supreme Court of Ohio, 1873; graduated from the Ohio State and Union Law College, Cleveland, Ohio, in 1874; elected Prosecuting Attorney of Morgan County, 1876; elected member of Ohio Legislature, 1889; elected judge of Court of Common Pleas for the 1st Subdivision of the 8th judicial district of Ohio 1891; re-elected 1896 and again re-elected 1901; nominated for Judge of Supreme Court of Ohio by Republican state convention held at Cleveland in May, 1902; appointed by Governor Nash July 19, 1902, to fill vacancy on Supreme Court bench caused by death of Judge Marshall J. Williams. He was elected both for the long and short terms, in November, 1902.

AUGUSTUS N. SUMMERS.

AUGUSTUS N. SUMMERS.

A UGUSTUS NEANDER SUMMERS was born in Shelby, Richland County, Ohio, June 13, 1856. He is one of nine children born to the Rev. Daniel Summers and Louisa Hine, his wife. He graduated from Wittenberg College, at Springfield, in 1879; was admitted to the bar in 1881; elected city solicitor of Springfield in 1885, and re-elected in 1887 and 1889; was elected one of the judges of the Circuit Court for the Second Circuit, in 1894, and re-elected in 1900; was elected one of the judges of the Supreme Court in 1903 and entered upon the discharge of the duties of the office February 9, 1904. Judge Summers was married to Miss Nellie Thomas, daughter of the Hon. John H. Thomas, of Springfield, in 1887. They have three children, two sons and a daughter.

WILLIAM T. SPEAR.

WILLIAM T. SPEAR.

WILLIAM T. SPEAR, Judge of the Supreme Court, was born June 3, 1834, in Warren, Ohio, from whence came several of Ohio's distinguished judges. His father, Edward Spear, also a judge, was a native of Pennsylvania, of Scotch descent; his mother, whose lineage is traced back to colonial times, came from Norwich, Connecticut. His parents came to Ohio, settling at Warren in the year 1819.

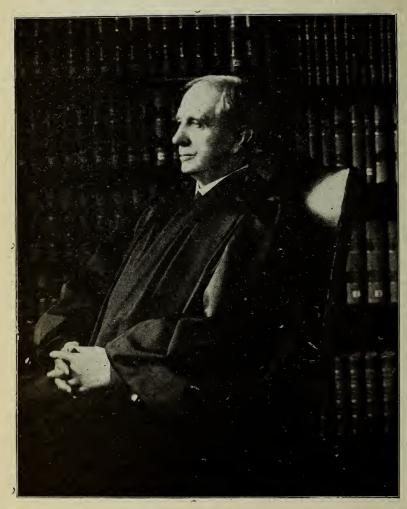

Mr. Spear received a common school education in the excellent union schools of Ohio, supplemented by a most valuable experience at the printer's trade. After serving an apprenticeship upon the "Trumbull Whig and Transcript," published at Warren, he went to New York City, where he was employed in the office of the New York "Herald," and thereafter became a compositor, and later a proofreader, in the publishing house of the Appletons.

The value of the practical lessons thus derived, laying as they did a solid foundation for important duties which he was called upon to perform in after life, can hardly be estimated. Perhaps no pursuit quickens the powers of conception more than the craft of the printer, and especially has the experience herein outlined been of service to the judge in the preparation of judicial opinions. Says one distinguished in the craft: "Herne has uttered a sneer at the husk and shell of learning, but the best bread is made from the whole meal, and includes the 'shorts' and the 'middlings' as well as the fine flour. If every lawyer, physician, and clergyman were to spend six months at the 'case' before entering upon his profession, he would find, even in that short time of labor, a useful and fitting preparation for such literary tasks as may afterwards

The young printer appreciated his calling, but growing tired of the confinement of the printing office, and having imbibed an ambition for the law, he returned to Warren, and at once began to learn something of the practical side of the profession of his choice, by serving as deputy clerk of the Probate and Common Pleas Courts of Trumbull County. He served in these capacities for several years, devoting his spare hours, in the meantime, to the study of law under the direction of Hon. Jacob D. Cox, since Governor of Ohio, but then of the Trumbull County bar, later Dean of the Cincinnati Law School, and father of many lawyers. This preparation was followed by a course in Harvard Law School, where Mr. Spear was graduated in 1859, and, returning to Warren, was admitted to the bar at that place by the District Court. Being thus equipped by reason of his practical and theoretical training, and ready to enter the field of contest, he at once became a member of the firm of Cox & Ratliff. Later he was associated in practice with Hon. John C. Hutchins, recently of the Court of Common Pleas of Cuyahoga County. In 1871 he was elected Prosecuting Attorney for Trumbull County, serving two terms, and Solicitor of his native city for two terms; and for several years he was engaged in the practice with C. A. Harrington, Esq., the firm enjoying a lucrative business. Soon after laying down the duties of those minor positions, Mr. Spear was elected Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, the duties of which office he entered upon in 1878. He was re-elected at the expiration of his first term, but did not complete the second term, because of his election to the Supreme Court, which occurred in 1885. He has since been repeatedly elected to succeed himself as a member of the Supreme Court, became Chief Justice in 1892, 1897 and 1904, and was renominated to succeed himself upon the Supreme Bench, for the fourth time by the Republican state convention in May, 1904, and overwhelmingly elected at the November election of that year.

WILLIAM Z. DAVIS.

WILLIAM Z. DAVIS.

WILLIAM Z. DAVIS was born in the village of Loydsville, Belmont County, Ohio, June 10, 1839. He is of Virginia descent. His father, Dr. Bushrod Washington Davis, was a native of Loudon County, Virginia, and descendant of the Revolutionary stock in the Old Dominion. His mother, nee Miss Harriet Hatcher, of Belmont County, was also a member of a Virginia family. He was educated in the public schools and in private academy; has been a life-long student, and was for many years a member of the American Microscopical Society, withdrawing only because pressure of business duties interfered with scientific experiment; served out a three months' enlistment in the 4th Ohio Regiment, during the Civil War, and afterwards served in the 96th Ohio Regiment, until physically disabled and honorably discharged during the Vicksburg campaign; in the meantime was admitted to the bar; and after coming out of the military service, and upon regaining his health he entered upon the practice of the law; almost from the beginning was recognized as a leader at the bar, and enjoyed a large practice, extending into all the state and federal courts. The suggestion of his name for the office of Judge of the Supreme Court of Ohio was received with remarkable enthusiasm by lawyers of all political parties throughout the state; was nominated by the Republican party in June, 1899, as its candidate for that office, and was elected in November of that year, up to which time he had never held an elective office. On the 10th day of January, 1900, he was appointed by Governor Nash to fill a vacancy on the Supreme bench caused by the resignation of Judge Joseph P. Bradbury, who had resigned the day before; on February 9, 1900, he entered upon the regular term for which he had been elected in the preceding November. Previous to his election to the Supreme Court Judge Davis never served upon the bench; but he was very soon after that event accredited high rank among the Supreme Judges of Ohio. His opinions are conspicuous for their conciseness and clearness of statement, and their legal ability and soundness. He served as Chief Justice of the court from February 9th, 1905, to February 9th, 1906; and at the November election, 1905, he was re-elected for a term of six years from February 9th, 1906.

HISTORICAL SKETCH OF THE SUPREME COURT.

PRELIMINARY ORGANIZATION.

THE JUDGES OF THE TERRITORIAL COURTS OF THE NORTHWEST TERRITORY. (1787-1802.)

HE first judicial system to be inaugurated in that part of the United States which is now known as the State of Ohio was that put in operation by the "Ordinance of 1787" by which the "territory northwest of the River Ohio" was set apart as a separate governmental unit, and a form of local government provided for it by the Congress. By a reference to Section 4 of the ordinance, which is printed in Part One of this volume, it will be seen that it was provided that there should be "appointed a court, to consist of three judges, any two of whom to form a court, who shall have a common law jurisdiction, and reside in the district, and have therein a freehold estate, in five hundred acres of land, while in the exercise of their offices; and their commission shall continue in force during good behavior." These judges, with the Governor, were to select from the civil and criminal laws of the original states such laws as they deemed suitable for the territory, and were given the power to promulgate such laws, and to enforce them, until they should be amended or repealed by a general assembly to be later organized according to the provisions of the ordinance under which they were appointed.

In accordance with this provision of the Ordinance, Congress did, on the 16th day of October, 1787, elect as judges for the Northwest Territory: Samuel Holden Parsons, John Armstrong and James Mitchell Varnum.

In the place of Mr. Armstrong, who declined the appointment, Congress appointed on the 19th day of February, 1788, Mr. John Cleves Symmes.

The first Territorial Judges (in 1787-8) were therefore, Samuel Holden Parsons, James Mitchell Varnum, John Cleves Symmes.

The salaries of the judges were fixed by Congress in an act bearing the date October 8, 1787, at $800 per annum.

President George Washington, in a message to the Senate of the United States, bearing the date of New York, August 18, 1789, nominates to be judges of the Northwest Territory "in accordance with the law reestablishing the government of the Northwest Territory," Samuel Holden Parsons, John Cleves Symmes and William Barton.

Mr. Barton, who was appointed vice Judge Varnum, who had died the preceding February, himself declined the appointment, and on the 8th of September the Senate completed the reorganization of the court by confirming the nomination of George Turner, an associate justice. The court thus constituted in 1789, and acting under the Constitution of the United States, consisted of the Honorable Judges Samuel Holden Parsons, John Cleves Symmes, George Turner

Judge Parsons, then Chief Justice, was drowned in November, 1789, while returning from a treaty with the Indians of the Western Reserve, and the President nominated as his successor on the bench, Rufus Putnam, of Marietta, whose nomination was promptly confirmed.

The court as thus organized with Judges John Cleves Symmes, George Turner, Rufus Putnam, served from 1790 to 1796, when Judge Putnam was appointed to the office of Surveyor General by President Washington, who, in the same message to the Senate, nominated Joseph Gilman to the judgeship thus made vacant. The nominations were confirmed.

In 1798 Judge Turner resigned and was succeeded by Return Jonathan Meigs, Jr., whose appointment was confirmed February 12, 1798. The court as thus constituted, consisting of Judge John Cleves Symmes, Joseph Gilman and Return J. Meigs, Jr., continued to serve until the admission of the State into the Union in 1803, and therefore, until the organization of the Supreme Court of Ohio. This court (of the Northwest Territory) held its sessions alternately at Detroit, Vincennes, Cincinnati and Marietta.

Note 1.—It is worthy of notice in this connection that the Territorial Government was set up by Congress in October, 1787, but that the first settlement in Ohio occurred on the site of the city of Marietta in the following April (1788). In the absence of the Governor, and Judges, who were to form the law-giving power, and until their arrival, Col. Return J. Meigs, Sr., drafted a code of regulations on common foolscap, which he tacked to the blazed trunk of a large oak, where it was read and endorsed by all the settlers. History does not record a single infraction of those rules. The Governor, with a majority of the court, arrived at Marietta two months later, and set up the official government of the Territory.

Note 2.—Upon the admission of the state into the Union in 1803, and the dissolution of the Territorial Court, Congress by an act passed in February, 1803, provided that a District Court for the District of Ohio, to consist of one judge, should be established at Chillicothe.

Note 3.—By an act of May, 1800, the original Northwest Territory had been divided into eastern and western divisions, and an additional court created for the Indiana or western division, at Saint Vincennes, the court for the eastern division remaining at Chillicothe.

JUDGES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF OHIO UNDER THE FIRST CONSTITUTION (1802-1851).

NDER the Constitution of 1802 the number of Supreme Court judges was the same as under the Territorial form of government, three, with the power vested in the General Assembly to authorize the selection of an additional judge at its discretion.

The tenure of office was fixed at seven years, or such part thereof as the judge was well behaved. 'The salaries of the judges were fixed at not to exceed one thousand dollars per annum.

Under these provisions of the constitution and the laws, the General Assembly elected on April 2, 1803, as the First Supreme Court of the State of Ohio, Samuel Huntington (then the Senator from Trumbull County), Return Jonathan Meigs, Jr. (then a member of the Territorial Court), and William Spriggs (of Jefferson County).

With this establishment of a Supreme Court in Ohio, a search of official records discloses the following to have been the personnel of that court which has reflected a lasting honor on the judiciary whose representatives they were, and on the State to whom they paid affectionate fealty.

1803—Samuel Huntington, Return Jonathan Meigs, Jr., William Spriggs.

1804—Samuel Huntington, Return Jonathan Meigs, Jr., William Spriggs.

Judge Meigs resigned December, 1804, to accept commission in the U. S. Army as Colonel and Commander of the Department of the Missouri.

1805—Samuel Huntington, Daniel Symmes (vice Meigs), William Spriggs.

1806—Samuel Huntington, Daniel Symmes, William Spriggs (to April).

Judge Spriggs resigned in April and was succeeded by Senator George Tod, of Trumbull County, who was appointed to the vacancy by Governor Tiffin—and was afterward elected to the seat by the General Assembly, January 1, 1807.

In 1807 the Supreme Court consisted of Judges Samuel Huntington, Daniel Symmes and George Tod.

In 1808 Judge Symmes resigned (January 9) and was succeeded by William Spriggs (February 13). Return Jonathan Meigs, Jr., having been declared ineligible to the office of the Governor of Ohio, to which he had been elected the previous October, was elected an additional Judge of the Supreme Court on the 13th of February by the joint session of the General Assembly which also elected his colleague, Mr. Spriggs, to succeed Judge Symmes, who had resigned to accept the presidential appointment of Registrar of Land at Cincinnati. Owing to these changes the court, after February 13, was composed of Judges Samuel Huntington, William Spriggs, George Tod, R. J. Meigs, Jr.

The membership of the court remained as above until in December, when Judge Huntington resigned to become Governor of Ohio. He was inaugurated December 12. The House of Representatives had preferred charges early in the same month (December) against Judges Huntington and Tod, of the Supreme Court and Judge Calvin Pease, presiding judge of the Common Pleas Court of the Third District, for having, by certain decisions, set aside the act extending the jurisdiction of justices of the peace. Governor Huntington was not tried on these charges, but his associates were brought before the Senate, sitting as a High Court of Impeachment, and were acquitted.

In 1809, Judge Huntington having become Governor, and Judge Meigs having resigned to become United States Senator from Ohio, the Governor, in the message announcing these vacancies on the bench (January 31) recommends the abolishment of the fourth judgeship for the reason that it creates two courts of two judges each, which sitting at different parts of the State in riding the circuit, tend to disagreement in decisions, and consequent confusion. Despite this recommendation of the Governor, the Legislature elected (February 17) Thomas Scott (Chief Clerk of the Senate) to succeed Judge Huntington, and Thomas Morris (a member of the House of Representatives) to succeed Judge Meigs as an additional judge. This created a court of four members, including Judges William Spriggs, George Tod, Thomas Scott and Thomas Morris.

Judge Morris failing to qualify as judge, the General Assembly abolished the additional judgeship the following session (1810).

In 1810, the first period of seven years having expired under the State constitution of 1802, the General Assembly, on February 10, met in joint session of the two houses and elected a new Supreme Court which served without interruption until 1815. This court consisted of Thomas Scott (to succeed himself); William W. Irwin, of Fairfield County; and Ethan Allen Brown, of Hamilton County.

In 1816 the General Assembly was called upon to elect successors to Judges Scott and Irwin, who had resigned, and accordingly met in joint session on the 17th day of February, and elected to the Supreme Court, Messrs. Jessup N. Couch, of Ross County; John McLean, of Warren County, and an additional judge in Calvin Pease, of Trumbull County.

The Supreme Court was thus increased to four members: Ethan Allen Brown, Jessup N. Couch, John McLean and Calvin Pease.

In 1817 the re-election of Judge Brown to succeed himself continued the membership of the court as constituted the previous year, and this membership was unbroken until the resignation of Judge Brown in December, 1818, to become Governor of Ohio. On the 30th day of January, 1819, the General Assembly elected Peter Hitchcock, of Geauga County, to the vacancy thus created.

From 1819 to 1821 the judges of the Supreme Court were: Jessup N.

Couch, John McLean, Calvin Pease and Peter Hitchcock.

In 1821, the death of Judge Couch led to the election of Jacob Burnett, of Hamilton County, one of the conspicuous figures in the Territorial Council and in the early history of Ohio, as his successor. The court thus constituted, being again changed in 1822 by the resignation of Judge McLean, Charles R. Sherman, of Fairfield County, was elected to succeed him on the 11th day of January, 1823, at which election the General Assembly also re-elected Judges Pease and Burnett.

From 1822 to 1829 the judges of the Supreme Court were: Calvin Pease, Peter Hitchcock, Jacob Burnett and Charles R. Sherman.

In 1828 Judge Burnett resigned (December 11), and as his successor the General Assembly elected (February 6, 1829) Joshua Collett, of Warren County. The judges for 1829 being Calvin Pease, Peter Hitchcock, Charles R. Sherman and Joshua Collett.

In 1830 the General Assembly elected the following judges of the Supreme Court: January 30, Elijah Hayward, vice Judge Pease, term expired; February 1, John Milton Goodenow, vice Judge Sherman, deceased; the court thus consisting of Judges Peter Hitchcock, Joshua Collett, Elijah Hayward and John Milton Goodenow.

During the summer of 1830 the court was divided into two sections, sitting in separate localities in the State (under an act of the previous winter), but the illness of Judges Goodenow and Hayward, who finally resigned before the close of the year, deprived the Miami River counties and those of central Ohio of the usual court. An attempt to hold a special session in Columbus, in October, resulted in the coming together of but two of the judges, who, deciding that they were not a quorum of the court and could neither sit as a court nor legally adjourn, agreed to "separate," which they did, and nothing was done with the fifty cases on the docket. (See Governor's Message.) Henry Brush was appointed by the Governor during the year 1830 to succeed Judge Goodenow, resigned; no appointment being made to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation (November 6) of Judge Hayward.

In December, 1830, the Supreme Court Judges were: Peter Hitchcock, Joshua Collett, Henry Brush, and one vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge Hayward.

On the 18th of December the General Assembly elected a successor to Judge Hayward in the person of Ebenezer Lane, of Huron County, and on the 20th of the month elected John C. Wright, of Jefferson County, to succeed Judge Brush, who was not a candidate before the General Assembly. Judge Lane took his seat at once; Judge Wright, on the adjournment of the Legislature.

In 1831 and 1832 the membership of the Supreme Court remained: Peter Hitchcock, Joshua Collett, Ebenezer Lane and John C. Wright.

Judge Hitchcock's term expiring on the 5th of February, 1833, there was a spirited contest in the General Assembly over the election of his successor. The election being ordered for the 16th of December (1832), on that day the assembly met in joint session, but after casting seven ballots, on all of which Reuben Wood, of Cuyahoga County, led, with Judge Hitchcock second and Benjamin Tappan third, the session dissolved without an election and the Senate returned to its chamber. The assembly was called together by another resolution on the next day (17th), and after twelve more ballots, Reuben Wood was declared to have been elected by a majority of one vote.

Several days later the correctness of the count was challenged by a joint resolution and an investigation of the count was ordered, but the title of Judge Wood to his seat was not disturbed by this agitation.

The court for 1833-1835 was composed of Judges Joshua Collett, Ebenezer Lane, John C. Wright and Reuben Wood.

On February 2, 1835, the Governor reported the resignation of Judge Joshua Collett, and the assembly, in joint session, then elected, on the fourth ballot, ex-Judge Hitchcock, at that time Senator from Geauga County and Speaker of the Senate, to succeed him. In this contest, Senator Anthony, of Clark County, was Judge Hitchcock's principal competitor for the Judgeship and was (March 6) elected to succeed him as Speaker of the Senate. Judge Hitchcock resigned as Speaker on that day.

From March, 1835, to February 10, 1836, the court consisted of Judges Lane, Wright, Wood and Hitchcock.

Frederick Grimke, of Ross County, was elected on January 30, 1836, to succeed Judge Collett, whose term expired on the 10th of February. By the re-election of Judge Lane for the period of seven years from the 18th day of December, 1837, and of Judge Wood, in 1839, the court as constituted in 1836 continued without interruption until 1842, viz.: Ebenezer Lane, Reuben Wood, Peter Hitchcock and Frederick Grimke.

Matthew Birchard, of Trumbull County, was elected by the General Assembly on January 15, 1842, to succeed Judge Hitchcock, whose term expired in February of that year, and Nathaniel C. Reed, of Hamilton County, was elected on the 5th of March, to succeed Judge Grimke, resigned. The court thus constituted, from March, 1842, to December, 1844, was composed of Judges Ebenezer Lane, Reuben Wood, Matthew Birchard and Nathaniel C. Reed.

In December, 1844, the term of Judge Lane expired. He was promptly re-elected by the General Assembly on the 5th of the month, but remained on the bench only during the session of the court in bank, when he resigned. His successor was elected on the 27th of the same month (December), in the person of ex-Judge Peter Hitchcock. The action of the General Assembly in re-electing Judge Lane to succeed himself in 1836 and 1844 was, with the exception of the re-election of Judge Wood, in 1839, contrary to the usual refusal of the assembly to grant consecutive terms to the members of the Supreme Court.

The members of the Supreme Court in the years 1845 and 1846 were Judges Reuben Wood, Matthew Birchard, Nathaniel C. Reed and Peter Hitchcock.

On the 15th day of January, 1847, the General Assembly elected Edward Avery, of Wayne County, to succeed Judge Wood (term expiring), aithough the Judge was a candidate for re-election. From February, 1847, to February, 1849, the membership of the court was: Judges Matthew Birchard, Nathaniel C. Reed, Peter Hitchcock and Edward Avery.

On the 22d day of February, 1849, the General Assembly elected as members of the Supreme Court: Rufus P. Spalding, of Summit County, for seven years from March 5, to succeed Judge Reed, resigned; and William B. Caldwell, of Hamilton County, for seven years from March 7, to succeed Judge Birchard, term expired.

The court for 1849-1850, consisted of Judges Hitchcock, Avery, Spalding and Caldwell.

The last change in the court prior to the enforcement of the present constitution of Ohio was occasioned by the resignation of Judge Avery, and the election of his successor in the person of Rufus P. Ranney, of Trumbull County, on the 17th of March, 1851. The court served as thus constituted until "the second Monday in February, 1852," when the official term of the new officers elected under the constitution began. The membership of the court from February, 1851, to February, 1852, was Judges Hitchcock, Spalding, Caldwell and Ranney.

JUDGES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF OHIO UNDER THE CONSTITUTION OF 1851.

The constitution of 1851 contains the following provisions for the continuance of the authority of the Supreme Court:

Sec. 11. Schedule. Suits pending in the Supreme Court in bank shall be transferred to the Supreme Court provided for in this Constitution, and be proceeded in according to law.

The personnel of the Supreme Court of Ohio has been, consecutively, as given below for the years named:

1852. On the 9th day of February, 1852, the then Supreme Court, which had been elected by the General Assembly under the old constitution, and consisting of Judges Peter Hitchcock, Rufus P. Spalding, William B. Caldwell, and Rufus P. Ranney, passed out of existence, and a new court, elected by the people of Ohio at the previous election in October, came on the bench in the persons of Judges William B. Caldwell, of Hamilton County (re-elected); Rufus P. Ranney, of Trumbull County (re-elected); Thomas W. Bartley, of Richland County; John A Corwin, of Champaign County; and Allen G. Thurman, of Ross County.

On the organization of the court, the judges drew lots for the length of their terms, the lot resulting: For one year, Judge Caldwell; for two years, Judge Bartley; for three years, Judge Corwin; for four years, Judge Thurman; and for five years (the length of the regular term under the new constitution), Judge Ranney. Judge Caldwell was reelected in 1852, and Judge Bartley was re-elected in 1853, so the court remained as installed in February, 1852, until December, 1854, with the following membership: Judges Caldwell, Ranney, Bartley, Corwin and Thurman.

1854-1855. Judge Corwin resigned in December, 1854, and was succeeded by Robert B. Warden, of Franklin County, who was appointed to the vacancy and served until February 9, 1855, when he was succeeded by Joseph R. Swan, of Franklin County, who was elected to the seat.

Judge Caldwell also resigned in the December term of 1854, and was succeeded by William Kennon, of Belmont County, who was appointed to fill the vacancy and then elected at the October election, 1854, to succeed himself.

The court for the year 1854 consisted of Judges Caldwell, Ranney, Corwin, Bartley, and Thurman, until the second division of the December term; and of Judges Ranney, Bartley, Thurman, Warden, and Kennon, from that time until February 9, 1855.

1855-1856. Judge Swan took his seat on the bench as the successor of Judge Warden and Judge Corwin (as explained above) on the 9th day of February, 1855, the court consisting of Judges Ranney, Bartley, Thurman, Kennon, and Swan.

1856. Judge Kennon served to the adjourned session in March, 1856, as did Judge Thurman; the terms of each expiring at that time. They were succeeded by Judges Jacob Brinkerhoff, of Richland County, and Charles C. Convers, of Muskingum County, who had been elected the previous October. Judge Convers resigned in May on account of ill health, never having taken his seat on the bench; he was succeeded by Ozias Bowen, of Marion County, who was appointed to fill the vacancy and elected to succeed himself in October following.

The court from February 9 to May 15, consisted of Judges Ranney, Bartley, Swan, Brinkerhoff, and Convers; and from May 15 to February 9, 1857, of Judges Ranney, Bartley, Swan, Brinkerhoff, and Bowen.

1857. Josiah Scott of Butler County, was elected to succeed Judge R. Ranney, in October, 1856, and took his seat February 15, 1857, the court being composed of Judges Bartley, Swan, Brinkerhoff, Bowen and Scott.

1858. Milton Sutliff, of Trumbull County, was elected in October, 1857, to succeed Judge Bowen, and took his seat February 9, 1858, the court consisting of Judges Bartley, Swan, Brinkerhoff, Scott, and Sutliff.

1859. William V. Peck, of Scioto County, was elected in October, 1858, to succeed Judge Bartley, and took his seat February 9, 1859, the court consisting of Judges Swan, Brinkerhoff, Scott, Sutliff, and Peck.

Judge Swan, then Chief Justice, resigned in November, and William Y. Gholson, of Hamilton County, who had been elected in October to a seat in the court, was appointed to succeed him. He took his seat November 8, and entered on his regular term the 9th of February, 1860.

The members of the court from November, 1859, to February, 1863, were Judges Brinkerhoff, Scott, Sutliff, Peck, and Gholson.

Judge Brinkerhoff was re-elected in 1860, and Judge Scott was re-elected in 1861.

1863. Ex-Judge Rufus P. Ranney was elected in October, 1862, to succeed Judge Sutliff, and took his seat on the 9th day of February, 1863; the court from this date to December 12th consisting of Judges Brinkerhoff, Scott, Peck, Gholson, and Ranney.

On the 11th of December, 1863, Judge Gholson resigned, and Horace Wilder, of Ashtabula County, was appointed for his unexpired term. Judge Wilder was elected to succeed himself in October, 1864. Hocking Hunter, of Fairfield County, was elected to succeed Judge Peck in October, 1863, and took his seat on February 9, 1864, only to resign the same day.

William White, of Clark County, was appointed to the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Judge Hunter and was elected in October, 1864, for the unexpired term.

Luther Day, of Portage County, was elected in October, 1864, to succeed Judge Wilder, and took his seat February 9, 1865.

The membership of the court during the years 1863-1865, was therefore:

December 12, 1863, to February 9, 1864: Judges Brinkerhoff, Scott, Peck, Ranney, and Wilder.

February 9, 1864: Judges Brinkerhoff, Scott, Ranney, Wilder, and Hunter.

February 10, 1864: Judges Brinkerhoff, Scott, Ranney, Wilder, and White.

February 9, 1865: Judges Brinkerhoff, Scott, Ranney, White, and Day.

Judge Ranney resigned on the 23d of February, 1865, and his successor was appointed in the person of John Welch, of Athens County, who was elected in October following for the unexpired term.

February 23, 1865, to February 9, 1871, the court was composed of Judges Brinkerhoff, Scott, White, Day and Welch.

February 9, 1871. George W. McIlvaine, of Tuscarawas County, who has been elected in October to succeed Judge Brinkerhoff, came upon the bench and the court was thus composed of Judges Scott, Welch, White, Day, McIlvaine, and West.

February 9, 1872. William H. West, of Logan County, elected to succeed Judge Scott, came upon the bench, the court then consisting of Judges Welch, White, Day, McIlvaine, and West.

Judge West resigned in 1873 and was succeeded by Walter F. Stone, of Eric County, who was appointed by the Governor, and elected in October to fill the unexpired term. He in turn resigned in September, 1874, and was succeeded by George Rex, of Wayne County, who was appointed by the Governor, and then elected by the people to fill the unexpired term of Judge West.

The re-election of Judge Welch in October, 1872, of Judge White in October, 1873, and the election of William J. Gillmore, of Preble County, to succeed Judge Day in October, 1874, led to the following changes in the personnel of the court in the years named:

In 1873 the court was composed of Judges White, Day, McIlvaine, West, Stone and Welch.

In 1874 of Judges Day, McIlvaine, Stone, Rex, Welch, and White. In 1875 of Judges McIlvaine, Rex, Welch, White, and Gillmore.

In 1876 of Judges Rex, Welch, White, Gillmore, and McIlvaine. Judge McIlvaine was re-elected in October, 1875.

In October, 1876, W. W. Boynton, of Lorain County, was elected to succeed Judge Rex, and took his seat February 9, 1877, and in October, 1877, John W. Okey, of Franklin County, was elected to succeed Judge Welch.

Judge White was re-elected in October, 1878, and in the following year William W. Johnson, of Lawrence County, was elected to succeed Judge Gillmore. Judge McIlvaine was re-elected in October, 1880, and in November, 1881, Judge Boynton resigned, the Governor appointing as his successor for the unexpired term until the next February, Nicholas Longworth, of Hamilton County, who had been elected for the full term of five years, a month before the resignation of Judge Boynton.

The personnel of the court from February 9, 1877, to February 9, 1882, was as follows:

February 9, 1877-1878: Judges Welch, White, Gillmore, McIlvaine, and Boynton.

February 9, 1878-1879: Judges White, Gillmore, McIlvaine, Boynton, and Okey.

February 9, 1879-1880: Judges Gillmore, McIlvaine, Boynton, Okey, and White.

February 9, 1880-1881: Judges McIlvaine, Boynton, Okey, White, and Johnson.

February 9, 1882-1883: Judges Okey, White, Johnson, McIlvaine, and Longworth.

Judge Okey was re-elected in October, 1882, but the resignation of Judge Longworth and the death of Judge White, both occurring in March, 1883, created a number of changes in the court in that year. John H. Doyle, of Lucas County, was appointed by the Governor to succeed Judge Longworth, and took his seat in the court on the 10th day of March. Martin D. Follett, of Washington County, was, however, elected to fill the vacancy in October, and qualified on the 8th day of December, Judge Doyle retiring. Judge White, who had served in the court for over 19 years, died on the 12th day of March in the same year, and William H. Upson, of Summit County, was appointed by the Governor as his successor. He took his seat on the 14th day of March, but Selwyn N. Owen, of Williams County, having been elected in October for the unexpired term, qualified on the 8th of December, Judge Upson retiring.

The court during this year (1883) was composed of the following membership:

February 9 to March 9: Judges White, Johnson, McIlvaine, Longworth and Okey.

March 10 to March 12: Judges White, Johnson, McIlvaine, Doyle, and Okey.

March 14 to December 7: Judges Upson, Johnson, McIlvaine, Doyle, and Okey.

December 8 to February 9, 1884: Judges Owen, Johnson, Mc-Ilvaine, Follett, and Okey.

February 9, 1884, to February 9, 1885: Judges Johnson, McIlvaine, Okey, Follett, and Owen.

February 9, to July 25, 1885: Judges McIlvaine, Okey, Follett, Owen, and Johnson (re-elected).

August 20 to December 15, 1885: Judges McIlvaine, Atherton, Follett, Owen and Johnson.

December 16, 1885, to February 9, 1886: Judges McIlvaine, Follett, Spear, Owen, and Johnson.

The death of Judge Okey on the 25th day of July, 1885, created a vacancy in the court which was filled by the appointment of Gibson Atherton, of Licking County, who took his seat on the 20th day of August. The October elections resulted in the election of William T. Spear, of Trumbull County, to fill the unexpired term of Judge Okey, and he qualified and took his seat on the 16th day of December, Judge Atherton retiring. At the same election Thaddeus A. Minshall, of Ross County, was elected for the full term of five years to succeed Judge McIlvaine, and these two members of the court have, by repeated re-elections by the people, been continued on the bench of the Supreme Court to the present time. Judge Johnson resigned November 9, 1886, and Franklin J. Dickman, of Cuyahoga County, was appointed to fill the vacancy until the next general election. He took his seat November 16. In October previous, Marshall J. Williams, of Fayette County, was elected to succeed Judge Follett. In 1887 Judge Spear was re-elected for a full term and in 1888 Joseph P. Bradbury, of Gallia County, was elected to succeed Judge Owen. Judge Dickman was re-elected in 1889, Judge Minshall was re-elected in 1890 and Judge Williams in 1891. In the elections of 1892, under a new law, by which the membership of the court was increased from five members to six, and the terms of office from five years to six, two members of the court were elected in the persons of Judge Spear for the long term of six years and Jacob F. Burket, of Hancock County, for five years. Judge Bradbury was re-elected in 1893; John A. Shauck, of Montgomery County, was elected in October, 1894, to succeed Judge Dickman. From 1894 to 1899 the sitting judges were reelected to succeed themselves without exception, and consequently no changes occurred in the personnel of the court. In November, 1899, William Z. Davis, of Marion County, was elected to succeed Judge Bradbury, who afterward resigned (January 10, 1900), a month before the expiration of his term. Judge-elect Davis was appointed to the vacancy thus created, and went on the bench a month earlier than the time for which he had been elected. In November, 1900, Judge Shauck was reelected and entered on his present term February 9, 1901. The personnel of the Supreme Court of Ohio for the period between February 9, 1886, and February 9, 1901, (a period of fifteen years) was, therefore:

February 9, to November 9, 1886: Judges Owen, C. J., Follett, Spear, Johnson, and Minshall.

November 10, 1886, to February 9, 1887: Judges Owen, C. J., Follett, Dickman, Spear and Minshall.

February 9, 1887, to February 9, 1888: Judges Owen, C. J., Dickman, Spear, Minshall, and Williams.

February 9, 1888, to February 9, 1889: Judges Owen, C. J., Dickman, Minshall, Spear, and Williams.

February 9, 1899, to February 9, 1890: Judges Minshall, C. J., Dickman, Spear, Williams and Bradbury.

February 9, 1890, to February 9, 1891: Judges Minshall, C. J., Williams, Spear, Bradbury, and Dickman.

February 9, 1891, to February 9, 1892: Judges Williams, C. J., Spear, Bradbury, Dickman, and Minshall.

February 9, 1892, to February 9, 1893: Judges Spear, C. J., Bradbury, Dickman, Minshall, and Williams.

February 9, 1893, to February 9, 1894: Judges Bradbury, C. J., Dickman, Minshall, Williams, Burket, and Spear.

February 9, 1894, to February 9, 1895: Judges Dickman, C. J., Minshall, Williams, Burket, Spear, and Bradbury.

February 9, 1895, to February 9, 1896: Judges Minshall, C. J., Williams, Burket, Spear, Bradbury, and Shauck.

February 9, 1896, to February 9, 1897: Judges Williams, C. J., Burket, Spear, Bradbury, Shauck, and Minshall.

February 9, 1897, to February 9, 1898: Judges Burket, C. J., Spear, Bradbury, Shauck, Minshall, and Williams.

February 9, 1898, to February 9, 1899: Judges Spear, C. J., Bradbury, Shauck, Minshall, Williams, and Burket.

February 9, 1899, to January 10, 1900: Judges Bradbury, C. J., Shauck, Minshall, Williams, Burket, and Spear.

January 10, 1900, to February 9, 1900: Judges Shauck, C. J., Minshall, Williams, Burket, Spear, and Davis (by appointment).

February 9, 1900, to February 9, 1901: Judges Shauck, C. J., Minshall, Williams, Burket, Spear, and Davis (by election).

February 9, 1901, to February 9, 1902: Judges Minshall, C. J., Williams, Burket, Spear, Davis, and Shauck.

In November, 1901, James L. Price, of Allen County, Chief Justice of the Circuit Courts of Ohio, was elected to the Supreme Court to succeed Judge Minshall, and took his seat February 9, 1902. Chief Justice Williams died in July, 1902, and on the 19th of the month Governor Nash appointed to the vacancy Judge William B. Crew, of Morgan County, who was the candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court on the Republican State ticket, and who was in November, 1902, elected to succeed himself for the full term. In November, 1903, Judge Augustus N. Summers of the Circuit Court was elected to succeed Judge Jacob F. Burket, who retired February 9, 1904. Judge Spear was re-elected in 1904, and Judge Davis in 1905. There was no election in 1906, and will be none in 1907, owing to the recent change from annual to biennial state elections in Ohio.

The personnel of the Supreme Court from February 9, 1901, to date of publication, has been as follows:

February 9, to July 7, 1902: Judges Williams, C. J., Burket, Spear, Davis, Shauck, and Price.

August 21, 1902, to February 9, 1904: Judges Burket, C. J., Spear, Davis, Shauck, Price, and Crew.

February 9, 1904, to February 9, 1905: Judges Spear, C. J., Davis, Shauck, Price, Crew, and Summers.

February 9, 1905, to February 9, 1906: Judges Davis, C. J., Shauck, Price, Crew, Summers, and Spear.

February 9, 1906, to ——— : Judges Shauck, C. J., Price, Crew, Summers, Spear, and Davis.

THE SUPREME COURT COMMISSIONS.

THE power of the General Assembly to assist in disposing of the work before the Supreme Court of Ohio by the formation of "Supreme Court Commissions" (Section 21, Article IV), has been invoked twice since the adoption of the present Constitution of Ohio. The appointment of the members of this commission has been vested in the Governor in both instances.

THE COMMISSION OF 1876.

On the 2d day of February, 1876, the Governor appointed as such Supreme Court Commission, to serve for three years, Josiah Scott, of Crawford County; William W. Johnson, of Lawrence County; D. Thew Wright, of Hamilton County; Richard A. Harrison, of Franklin County; Henry C. Whitman, of Hamilton County; and Luther Day, of Portage County. Mr. Harrison refused to accept the appointment and Thomas Q. Ashburn, of Clermont County, was appointed in his stead, and took his seat on the bench on the 16th of March, 1878.

This commission sat until the 2d day of February, 1879, as an auxiliary to the Supreme Court, and assisted in bringing up the docket which had fallen far behind the reasonable time for trial.

THE COMMISSION OF 1883.

In 1883, the Governor again appointed a commission of five members under an enabling act of the General Assembly, and this commission began its work on the 17th day of April, 1883, and continued on the bench for the period of two years. The commission of 1883 consisted of Moses M. Granger, of Muskingum County, C. J., Geo. K. Nash, of Franklin County; Franklin J. Dickman, of Cuyahoga County; Charles D. Martin, of Fairfield County; and John McCauley, of Seneca County. This commission adjourned April 16, 1885.

OFFICERS OF THE SUPREME COURT.

The Marshal of the Supreme Court is also librarian of the Law Library of the Supreme Court; he is the chief executive officer of the court, is under bond for the care and safekeeping of all the books, furniture and property of the department, and is the crier of the court and the officer in charge of all the rooms, halls and offices assigned to the department.

HISTORICAL SKETCH OF THE SUPREME COURT LAW LIBRARY.

The law books forming a part of the State Library were taken to the rooms assigned for the use of the Supreme Court and Law Library in the present Capitol building as soon as said rooms were ready for occupancy. There are no data obtainable showing just when this change was made, but it was about 1858. At this time the number of volumes could not have exceeded a couple of thousand. In 1866, a count showed about 2,500 volumes. The Library was first in charge of the messenger of the Supreme Court, who was assigned the duty of librarian.

At this time there were two officers of the Court—a crier and messenger. Owing to the illness of the messenger during the greater portion of the year of his service, the crier of the court acted as librarian, and furnished an assistant who was compensated under an arrangement with the messenger. In 1867, an act was passed providing for the appointment of a law librarian, taking effect February 9, 1867, and the positions of crier and messenger of the Supreme Court were abolished, the law librarian being made ex-officio crier of the court, said crier to furnish an assistant.

For a number of years the listing of the volumes being added to the Law Library were taken as part of the State Library, and the State Library figures given of the number of the volumes enrolled included all those which had been set apart as the Law Library of the Supreme Court and additions thereto. This was discontinued early in the seventies, and the first record kept, showing additions to the Law Library, were made in 1873. From this time on more attention was given the subject of books, and in 1875 the library had grown to nearly four thousand volumes. In 1880, when the first catalogue was made, the library contained about seven thousand five hundred volumes, and at the time of this writing (March 1, 1901) the library counts out a little over twenty thousand volumes.

The first Messenger and Librarian was Richard Riordan, who served about two years. He was succeeded by Herman Ruess, in 1860, who served until February 11, 1866. James H. Beebe was Acting Crier of the Supreme Court, appointed by the Supreme Court April 6, 1865, and re-appointed February 11, 1866, at which time he took charge substantially of the Law Library. On February 16, 1867, a law was passed creating the office of Law Librarian, who, ex-officio, should be the crier of the court. James H. Beebe served in this capacity until his death, July 12, 1880. Frank N. Beebe, who had been serving as an assistant to his father, was appointed Law Librarian, and succeeded his father in charge of the department, July 13, 1880, and served continuously until his death September 27, 1904.

The present incumbent was promoted from Assistant Librarian October 3, 1903, to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Beebe's death, and served out the unexpired term. He was re-elected and installed in charge of the department for the full term of three years, July 1, 1904.

ELLIOT HOWARD GILKEY.

Marshal of the Supreme Court and Law Librarian.

ELLIOT HOWARD GILKEY.

FLLIOT HOWARD GILKEY, of Franklin County, was elected by the Judges of the Supreme Court to be Marshal and Law Librarian, to succeed Mr. Frank N. Beebe, deceased, October 3rd, 1903. He was promoted from the position of first assistant librarian.

Mr. Gilkey was born in Warren, Trumbull County, Ohio, February 8, 1857, the son of Sheldon Elliot Gilkey and Emma Roberts-Gilkey, both of New England heritage. The father entered the Union army and was shot to death in the battle of the Wilderness, May, 1864, leaving the son as orphan at the age of seven years. From 1864 to 1868 the boy lived among relatives and then was placed with a farmer named Pearce in West Farmington, with whom he lived until the opening of the Ohio Soldiers' Orphans' Home at Xenia, in the winter of 1869-1870, led to his being sent to that institution. During his school days at the Orphan's Home, the boy was selected for duty as one of the pages of the Ohio Senate, twice in succession, on the friendly recommendation of the Superintendent of the Home. He was discharged from the Home in June, 1874, the law fixing the limit of attendance at the age of 17 years. He spent the summer of 1874 in private study, with the hope of entering the Law School at Ann Arbor.

He engaged in newspaper work in 1875, and in 1876, at the age of nineteen, was elected Journal Clerk of the Ohio Senate by the senators who had become acquainted with him when a page in that body. This brought him again to Columbus, and fixed that city as his future residence.

Mr. Gilkey has a good private library, and is a lover of books and book making. In 1900 he prepared a revised and recodified Manual of Legislative Practice, which was approved by the joint committee on rules, and adopted by the vote of both branches of the General Assembly as the rules of that body. He was selected to prepare the manuscript and supervise the publication of the centennial edition of the Ohio Hundred Year Book (1803-1902), the historical sketches and compilations of which are reprinted in this volume; he also revised and completed the manuscript for, and supervised the publication of Stewart's Citation Digest of Ohio Reports (1905), and in 1907 a new catalogue of the Law Library.

Mr. Gilkey was married to Miss Florence Virginia Reed of Springfield, Ohio, January 24, 1884. They have one son and two daughters.

THE REPORTER OF THE SUPREME COURT.

HISTORY OF THE OFFICF OF THE SUPREME COURT REPORTER.

EBRUARY 23, 1816, the State Legislature for the first time (14 O. L., 310) made recognition of the necessity on the part of the Supreme Court for putting in permanent form and properly preserving its opinions accompanying its decisions. January 20, 1823, the Legislature amended (21 O. L., 9) the previous act and provided "That the said judges shall appoint a Reporter who shall report all decisions made at said sessions in Columbus and such other important decisions as he may be directed by said judges to report, and cause the same to be published as soon as may be conveniently done after such sessions."

After the adoption of the new Constitution (1851) the General Assembly enacted, Section 8, Chapter 32 (S. & C., 379) that the Supreme Court should appoint a Reporter whose term of office should continue for three years, and giving special directions as to the reports of the briefs of counsel upon the points made and the authorities cited. From time to time thereafter acts were passed by the General Assembly regulating the methods of publications, sale and distribution of the reports. Under existing legislation the Reporter is appointed by the judges of the court for a term not to exceed three years, at a stipulated salary. The reports are published as a private enterprise by the publisher upon a contract made in behalf of the State by the reporter, form and style of the volume and retail maximum price to the public being determined by statute. Neither the State nor the Reporter has any pecuniary interest in the reports.

Since the creation of the office fourteen different appointees, including the present incumbent, have discharged the duties of Reporter for the court.

Up to the time of the adoption of the Constitution of 1851, the official Reporters of the Supreme Court were appointed by a joint resolution of the General Assembly notwithstanding Section 6 of the law enacted by the legislature January 20, 1823, which reads: "That the said judges (Supreme) shall appoint a Reporter, who shall report all decisions made at said sessions in Columbus and such other important decisions as may be directed by said judges to report, and cause the same to be published as soon as may conveniently be done after such session." (21 O. L., 9.) Under the present Constitution, the reporters have been appointed by the Supreme Court, and serve during the statutory term of three years.

The names of the reporters, together with their terms of service, and the "State or Ohio State Reports" issued by them is given in the following tabulated statement:

JOSEPH G. OBERMEYER.

JOSEPH G. OBERMEYER was born at Latrobe, Westmoreland County. Pennsylvania, September 27th, 1862. Was educated in the schools of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, and graduated from St. John's College. Was a teacher of languages at the Cincinnati Wesleyan College for seven years. In 1889 he graduated from the Cincinnati Law School and was admitted to practice in the same year. Was a member, for a time, of the law firm of Bundy, Obermeyer & Woods. On February 3rd, 1902, was appointed first deputy to the Clerk of the Supreme Court. On January 31st, 1907, was appointed Clerk pro tem. by the Court and on the same day Governor Harris appointed him Clerk of the Supreme Court to fill out the unexpired term of Lawson E. Emerson, who resigned.

CLERK OF THE SUPREME COURT.

DUTIES OF THE CLERK.

HE purpose of this department is to afford a place of record for all files, orders, judgments, proceedings, etc., of the Supreme Court and the Supreme Court Commission when in service. The Clerk's office is required to make and preserve these records, and the Clerk is the custodian of "all files, papers, orders, judgments and decrees, and all books pertaining thereto, and he shall make up all dockets and issue all needful writs and processes. He shall also keep a record of all applicants for admission to the bar, all admissions to practice law in Ohio, and shall be in charge of the semi-annual examinations of students for such admission and issue all certificates of admission. He shall also act as Clerk of the Supreme Court Commission."

The clerical force of the office February, 1907, consisted of:

Joseph G. Obermeyer. W. G. Barthalow. A. C. Taylor. S. H. Miller. Joseph Fossett.	Second Deputy	January 1, 1909. Pleasure of Clerk. Pleasure of Clerk. Pleasure of Clerk. Pleasure of Clerk.

SUPREME COURT CLERKS.

Prior to the enactment of March 30, 1805 (62 O. L., 69), the Clerk of the Courts of Franklin County, Ohio, was ex-officio clerk of the Supreme Court, being represented, as a rule, by a deputy. Pursuant to the act above referred to, Rodney Foos was elected Clerk of the Supreme Court in 1865, and served until 1875, nine years.

Arnold Green was Clerk for one term of three years, 1875-1878.

Richard J. Fanning was Clerk for one term of three years, 1878-1881.

Dwight Crowell was Clerk for one term of three years, 1881-1884.

J. W. Cruikshank was Clerk for one term of three years, 1884-1887.

Urban H. Hester was Clerk for two terms, six years, 1887-1893.

Josiah B. Allen was Clerk for three terms, nine years, 1893-1902.

Lawson E. Emerson was Clerk from February 3, 1902, to January 31, 1907, when he resigned.

Joseph G. Obermeyer was appointed Clerk by Governor Harris on January 31, 1907, for the unexpired term of L. E. Emerson, resigned.

THE CIRCUIT COURTS OF OHIO.

(CREATED IN 1883.)

HE Circuit Courts of Ohio were created by the following amended provisions in the Constitution of 1851:

Section 6, Article IV. The Circuit Court shall have like original jurisdiction with the Supreme Court, and such appellate jurisdiction as may be provided by law. Such courts shall be composed of such number of judges as may be provided by law, and shall be held in each county at least once in each year. The number of circuits and the boundaries thereof shall be prescribed by law. Such judges shall be elected in each circuit, by the electors thereof, and at such time and for such term as may be prescribed by law, and the same number shall be elected to each circuit. Each judge shall be competent to exercise his judicial powers in any circuit. The General Assembly may change, from time to time, the number of boundaries of the circuits. [As amended October 9, 1883; 80 v. 382.]

FIRST SUBDIVISION OF OHIO INTO CIRCUITS, 1884.

By an act passed by the General Assembly April 14, 1884, the Judicial Circuits were constituted of seven groups of counties:

FIRST JUDICIAL CIRCUIT.

Hamilton, Clermont, Butler, Warren and Clinton Counties.

SECOND JUDICIAL CIRCUIT.

Preble, Darke, Shelby, Miami, Montgomery, Champaign, Clark, Greene, Fayette, Madison and Franklin Counties.

THIRD JUDICIAL CIRCUIT.

Mercer, Van Wert, Paulding, Defiance, Williams, Fulton, Henry, Putnam, Allen, Auglaize, Wood, Hancock, Hardin, Logan, Union, Seneca, Marion, Wyandot and Crawford Counties.

FOURTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT.

FIFTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT.

Morrow, Richland, Ashland, Knox, Licking, Fairfield, Perry, Morgan, Muskingum, Coshocton, Holmes, Wayne, Stark, Tuscarawas and Delaware Counties.

SIXTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Lucas, Ottawa, Sandusky, Erie, Huron, Lorain, Medina, Summit and Cuyahoga Counties.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Lake, Ashtabula, Geauga, Trumbull, Portage, Mahoning, Columbiana, Carroll, Jefferson, Harrison, Guernsey, Belmont, and Noble Counties.

SECOND SUBDIVISION OF OHIO INTO CIRCUITS.

By an act of March 21, 1887, the state was redistricted by the General Assembly into eight Judicial Circuits, as follows:

FIRST JUDICIAL CIRCUIT.

SECOND JUDICIAL CIRCUIT.

Preble, Darke, Shelby, Miami, Montgomery, Champaign, Clarke, Greene, Fayette, Madison and Franklin Counties.

THIRD JUDICIAL CIRCUIT.

Mercer, Van Wert, Paulding, Defiance, Henry, Putnam, Allen, Auglaize, Hancock, Hardin, Logan, Union, Seneca, Marion, Wyandot and Crawford Counties.

FOURTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT.

THE COURTS OF COMMON PLEAS.

REGARDING these courts the Constitution of 1802 contained the following provision:

ARTICLE III, SECTION 3. The several Courts of Common Pleas shall consist of a President and Associate Judges. The state shall be divided, by law, into three circuits; there shall be appointed in each circuit a President of the courts, who, during his continuation in office, shall reside therein. There shall be appointed in each county not more than three nor less than two Associate Judges, who, during their continuance in office, shall reside therein. The President and Associate Judges in their respective counties, any three of whom shall be a quorum, shall compose the Court of Common Pleas; which court shall have common law and chancery jurisdiction in all such cases as shall be directed by law; provided, that nothing here contained shall be construed to prevent the Legislature from increasing the number of circuits and presidents after the term of five years (et seq.).

The Judges under this provision of the first Constitution were elected by the General Assembly, and, under the subsequent acts of that body, were as follows:

THE COURTS OF COMMON PLEAS SINCE 1851.

THE Constitution of 1851 contained the following provisions by which the state was permanently subdivided into Common Pleas Districts, and these again divided into three subdistricts each, and the election of the Judges of these courts vested in the people of the subdivision instead of in the General Assembly as heretofore.

Article 4, Section 3. The State shall be divided into nine Common Pleas Districts of which the county of Hamilton shall constitute one, of compact territory and bounded by county lines, and each of said districts, consisting of three or more counties, shall be subdivided into three parts of compact territory, and bounded by county lines, and as nearly equal in population as practicable; in each of which one Judge of the Court of Common Pleas for said district, and residing therein, shall be elected by the electors of said subdivision. Courts of Common Pleas shall be held by one or more of these judges in every county in the district, as often as may be provided by law, and more than one court, or sitting thereof, may be held at the same time in each district.

Article 4, Section 4. The jurisdiction of the Courts of Common Pleas, and of the Judges thereof, shall be fixed by law. (See Const. 1802, Art. III, §§ 3, 4, 5, 6.)

The first election for Judges under the new Constitution was held on the second Tuesday of October, 1851. The term of the old Judges and Clerks was extended by Section 4 of the Schedule, to the 2d Monday of February, 1852, at which the new Judges began their terms of office.

THE PRESIDENTS OF THE UNITED STATES FROM OHIO.

URING the first half century of her existence, the new state furnished but one President of the United States, but he a man typical of the "Ohio spirit" and a popular leader of civilizing influences throughout the new Northwest. In the latter half of the century or since the close of the civil war, every successful candidate for the Presidency upon the Republican ticket; in fact, every man save one, who has been elected to the Presidency from 1864 to 1901; every President since Lincoln, excepting only Grover Cleveland of New York, has been a resident or a former resident of Ohio. Two of the number died in office: Wiliam Henry Harrison and James A. Garfield. Every one of the illustrious group had won their spurs on the field of battle for the Union, and had sharpened their lances in the halls of the Congress of the United States and were men of wide statesmanship and national reputation prior to their elevation to the highest office in the gift of the American people.

The country has signally honored Ohio in selecting her sons to guide the destinies of the Great Republic; Ohio has given of her best and truest whenever and wherever possible to give. The name of him who now sits President of this Republic from Ohio, is not the least among the number of men thus elevated in public duty, conspicuous figures before the world. (See note.)

JUDGES OF THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT FROM OHIO.

Name.	Rank.	Term of Service.	Length of Service.
John McLean	Chief Justice	1829–1861 1861–1869 1864–1873 1874–1888 1881–1889 1903	9 years	Died 1873. Died 1888. Died 1889.

THE representation from Ohio in the Senate of the United States began with the election by the General Assembly, in joint session in the hall of the House of Representatives, Chillicothe, on the first day of April, 1803, of two senators from Ohio in the persons of John Smith of Hamilton County, and Thomas Worthington of Ross County. The term of Senator Worthington expired on the 4th of March, 1807, and to succeed him, the General Assembly in the January preceding, elected Governor Edward Tiffin. By a resolution of December 20, 1806, the Assembly requested Senator John Smith to "either resign his seat in the Senate of the United States, or to proceed at once to his post." The resignation followed in 1808, and Judge Return J. Meigs, Ir., of the Supreme Court, was elected to succeed him and was also re-elected to succeed himself, in a joint session of the two houses of the Assembly held on the 12th day of December, 1808. Senator Smith had served with distinction as a member of the territorial legislature, and is highly spoken of by the venerable Judge Burnett in his Notes on the Northwest Territory. His resignation was brought about by his supposed sympathy with the conspiracy of Aaran Burr.

Thomas Worthington was returned to the senate by the General Assembly in 1810 to succeed Senator Meigs, who had resigned to accept the office of the Governor of the State.

With this beginning of her representation in the councils of "the highest legislative body known in history," Ohio has since been represented in that body by men who have stood for the best and broadest type of aggressive Americanism. The membership in the Senate of the United States from Ohio has been as follows:

REPRESENTATIVES IN CONGRESS FROM OHIO.

THE representation from Ohio in the Congress is regulated as to localities by the action of the General Assembly, in apportioning the State into congressional districts from time to time on the ratio of population fixed by the Congress for that purpose. From 1803 to 1812 Ohio had but one congressional district and but one representative in the person of Jeremiah Morrow, afterward Governor of the State, and U. S. Senator. From 1813 to 1823 the State was divided into six congressional districts; from 1823 to 1833 there were 14 districts; from 1833 to 1843 there were 19 districts; from 1843 to 1903 the present number, 21. In the following tables which give the membership in the National House of Representatives from Ohio during the first hundred years of statehood, it will be noticed that in the several rearrangements of the districts which have occurred by legislative authority the numerical numbers have been held in succession by widely separated sections of the State, and that members of Congress who are well-known residents in one locality seem to have represented territory outside their supposed residence district. These apparent discrepancies are caused by the legislative rearrangement and renumbering of the several districts from time to time. With this borne in mind, the following tables will be found a convenient record of "the gentlemen from Ohio" who have played no insignificant part in the history of these United States, and many of whom are celebrated figures in general history.

From 1803 to 1812 Ohio had but one Representative in Congress—Jeremiah Morrow.

FIRST DISTRICT.

Hamilton County—First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh, Eighteenth, Twenty-sixth, Twenty-seventh and Thirty-first Wards of the city of Cincinnati, Anderson, Columbia, Spencer, Sycamore and Symmes townships, and Bond Hill, Carthage, East Carthage, West—Norwood, Ivanhoe, Norwood, West, St. Bernard, North and St. Bernard South, precincts of Mill Creek Township.

NICHOLAS LONGWORTH, of Cincinnati.

NICHOLAS LONGWORTH, Republican, was born November 5, 1869. He is a son of the late Judge Nicholas Longworth, grandson of the late Joseph Longworth, who endowed the Cincinnati Art School, and great-grandson of Nicholas Longworth, one of the early residents of Cincinnati. Was educated in Cincinnati, entered Harvard University, and was graduated therefrom in 1891. After spending a year at the Cincinnati Law School he studied for a year at the Harvard Law School, and the following year was graduated from the Cincinnati Law School and admitted to the bar.

He was candidate for the legislature in 1897, on the Republican ticket, and defeated with the rest of the ticket. Was again a candidate in 1899, and was elected, being one of the three Republicans who were elected to the legislature in that year, the other two being Harry M. Hoffheimer and the Lieutenant-Governor, Carl L. Nippert. Was a member of the Republican State Executive Committee in the last presidential campaign, and is now a member of that body. Is a member of the Blaine Club and of the Stamina Republican League. Elected to State Senate November, 1901, by 14,000 majority.

Was chairman of the Committee on Taxation, and a member of the standing committees on County Affairs, Judiciary, Municipal Corporations, Privileges and Elections, Public Expenditures, Soldiers' and Sailors' Home, and State Buildings.

Was author of the Bond Law to enable municipalities to issue bonds in conformity with the decisions of the Supreme Court relative to classification; of the law providing a method for voting on constitutional amendments and of a number of measures relating to taxation.

Shortly after the close of the regular session of the General Assembly was appointed by Governor Nash, together with the Honorable Wade H. Ellis, now Attorney General of Ohio, to draft the new municipal code and introduced that measure at the extraordinary session of the General Assembly called by the Governor. Was chairman of the conference committee to adjust differences between the House and the Senate; was nominated for Congress from the First District of Ohio during the extraordinary session and elected by 15,000 plurality; was a member of the Republican State Executive Committee the following year and chairman of the Speakers' Bureau. Is a member of the committee on Foreign Affairs and Pensions in the national House of Representatives; is the member from Ohio on the Republican Congressional Committee and a member of the Executive Committee of that body. He was re-elected to the 59th and 60th Congresses.

THIRD DISTRICT.

Composed of the Counties of Butler, Montgomery and Preble.

HON. J. E. HARDING, of Middletown, Ohio,

HON. J. E. HARDING, of Middletown, Ohio, was born in Excello, Ohio, on the 29th day of June, 1877. He is of English-German extraction. His father, A. E. Harding, was a native of Surrey, England, while his mother, Mrs. Christine (Bridge) Harding, was born in Pennsylvania of German parentage. The senior Harding died twenty-three years ago after having accumulated quite a fortune as a manufacturer of writing paper. He came to this country at the age of twenty-four and located in Middletown, Ohio, in the year 1854. He built the village of Excello (located three miles south of Middletown), where the family mansion was erected at the same time. The Harding family still resides there, Hon. J. E. Harding's business address being Middletown, Ohio. He was elected to the State Senate of the 76th General Assembly from the Second-Fourth Senatorial District, and served one term, and was the only Republican ever elected from this district. In 1906 he was elected as a member of Congress over James E. Campbell, and succeeds Hon. R. M. Nevin from this district, who served three terms. He received a thorough education at the Amanda public school, Pennsylvania Military College, at Chester, Pa., and the University of Michigan, at Ann Arbor, from which institution he graduated in 1900 with the degree of LL. D. He enjoyed the distinction of being the youngest member of the State Senate, and is now said to be the youngest member of the Sixtieth Congress. His affable disposition has made him exceedingly popular, and all the probabilities indicate that he will succeed himself as long as he desires as a member of Congress from the Third Ohio District.

ALBERT DOUGLAS.

A LBERT DOUGLAS was born April 25th, 1852, in the city of Chillicothe, Ohio, where his grandfather, Richard Douglas, had begun the practice of law in 1807. His grandfather was an officer in the First Regiment of Ohio Volunteers in the War of 1812. His great-grandfather served throughout the Revolutionary War as an officer of a Connecticut Regiment. His father, Albert Douglas, was born in Chillicothe, and resided there all his life.

He was graduated from Kenyon College in the class of 1872, and from the Harvard Law School in the class of 1874. In 1876 he was elected prosecuting attorney of Ross County, by a majority of five, the county being then largely Democratic, and in 1878 was re-elected by a majority of about 800. He has been in active practice of his profession in Chillicothe ever since. In 1896 he was chosen a Presidential Elector-at-Large on the state ticket, and when that body met was chosen its president. He is a trustee of Kenyon College and of the Ohio University, and each of these institutions has conferred upon him the honorary degree of LL. D. In 1906 he was elected a member of the 60th Congress from the Eleventh District of Ohio.

EDWARD LIVINGSTON TAYLOR, JR.

FDWARD LIVINGSTON TAYLOR, JR., Republican Representative in Congress from the 12th Ohio District, was born in the city of Columbus, Ohio, August 10, 1869. He attended the public schools, and was graduated from the Central High School of Columbus in 1887, after which he began the study of law and was admitted to the bar December 3, 1891.

After his admission to the bar he engaged in the practice of his profession as a member of the firm of Taylor, Taylor & Taylor, until his election as Prosecuting Attorney of Franklin County, Ohio, in November, 1899. He was re-elected to this office in 1902, but resigned in 1904 after his election to Congress. He was re-elected to the 60th Congress in 1906.

Mr. Taylor has been very successful as a practicing attorney, and has been engaged in many important cases in both the state and federal courts. He is now associated in practice with Curtis C. Williams and Henry A. Williams under the firm name of Williams, Williams & Taylor, at Columbus, Ohio. Mr. Taylor is a hard and conscientious worker, a man of pleasing personality and strong common sense.

On January 4, 1894, he was married to Miss Marie A. Firestone.

nating his time between teaching and attending school.

He was admitted to the bar in May, 1875. Was elected Justice of the Peace soon after becoming of age, and held several minor village offices. He moved to Norwalk, Ohio, in 1882 and has since resided there. Was a member of the City Council from 1884 to 1888. Was elected to the Ohio Senate in 1893 and 1895.

· He practiced law until 1885, and gradually changed his calling to that of a publisher. He has written and edited a number of law and historical works in use by the legal profession and as texts in the schools, among which is an entire series of Statutes, Digests and Annotated reports and local law treatise for Ohio; an Ohio Civics and an Ohio History.

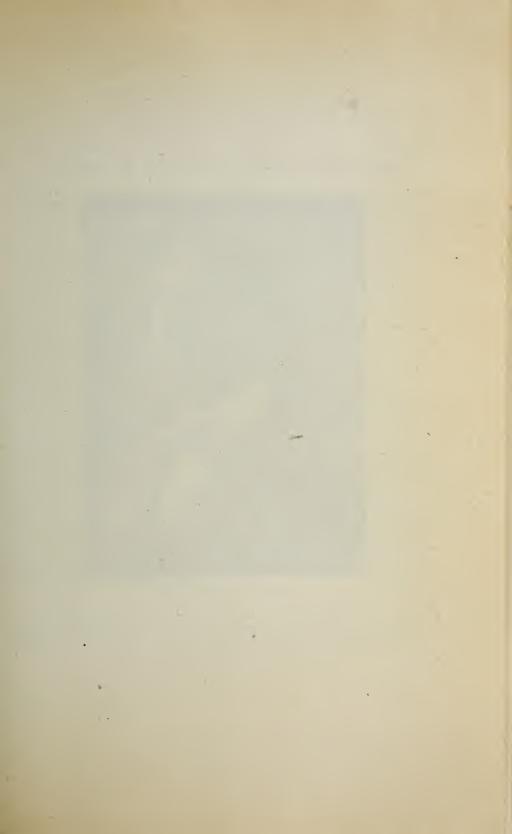

In 1895 he was given an A. M. degree by Baldwin University, and was subsequently elected as, and now is one of its trustees.

He was a delegate to the National Republican convention in Chicago in June, 1904. Was elected to Congress in 1906.

SEVENTEENTH DISTRICT.

Counties-Coshocton, Holmes, Licking, Tuscarawas and Wayne.

WILLIAM A. ASHBROOK.

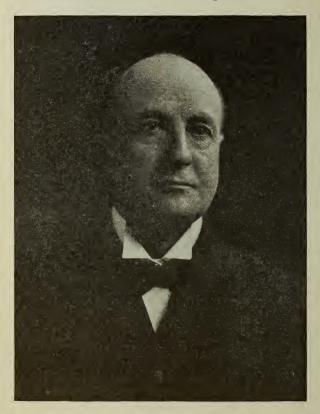

ILLIAM A. ASHBROOK was born on a farm near Johnstown, Licking County, Ohio, July 1, 1867. He is the youngest son of Wm. and Lucy Ashbrook, successful agriculturists. His grandfather was an old school Baptist preacher who traveled horseback for sixty years over Ohio, Virginia and Kentucky preaching the gospel. The subject of this sketch attended the village schools and after completing the same when but seventeen years of age, started a paper in his home town, The Johnstown Independent, which he has ever since published, making it one of the best small town papers in the State. He has long been prominently identified with editorial associations and for four years has been the Secretary of the National Editorial Association of the United States, filling the duties of this important position with distinction. He has been an extensive traveler, having visited every state in the Union. He is largely interested in numerous successful financial enterprises and for ten years was the cashier of three banks, recently resigning that position with one, but yet continues with a bank in his home town and in an adjacent town. His every effort has met with marked success. He was a Cleveland postmaster, but first entered politics in 1905, being elected a member of the 77th General Assembly of Ohio, defeating a strong opponent for his second term, and leading the ticket by nearly 1,000 votes. This victory encouraged his friends to have him make the race in 1906 for Congress in the 17th Ohio District, and after a three days' struggle was nominated on the 277th ballot and finally elected November 6th, defeating Judge Smyser for his second term by a narrow margin. He was married December 24, 1889, to Jennie B. Willison; has no children. He is a 32d degree Mason, Shriner, Elk, Knights of Pythias, Odd Fellow, Woodman, Eagle, etc. He is an indefatigable worker with seemingly limitless capacity to execute difficult duties.

WILLIAM AUBERY THOMAS.

AUBERY THOMAS, Republican, of Niles, is one of the best known young manufacturers of Ohio. He is 38 years old, a graduate of Niles High School, attended Mt. Union College two years preparatory for Rennselaer Polytechnic Institute at Troy, N. Y., where he took a course in chemistry and assaying especially as they apply to metallurgy of iron, steel and fuels. His first experience in the manufacturing world was as chemist for and later manager of the blast furnace of the Thomas Furnace Co., in Niles. Subsequently he became identified with other enterprises including Thomas Furnace Co., of Milwaukee, Wis., Niles Boiler Co., and Niles Fire Brick Co. He was nominated for short and long terms in Congress at the convention in Warren, May 11, 1904, and elected, being nominated and elected also in 1906 to the 60th Congress. Mr. Thomas, though a young man, has been active in Republican circles throughout the district for nearly twenty years.

POPULATION OF OHIO BY COUNTIES DURING AND AT THE CLOSE OF THE FIRST CENTURY OF STATE HISTORY.

(Compiled from the Twelfth Census of the United States.)

HE first census of that part of the United States which is now the State of Ohio was taken in 1800, under the government of the Northwest Territory. For purposes of comparison by decades, the census of 1800 is treated as though it was under the present government, but it should be remembered that the "Wayne County" of 1800 is not identical with the "Wayne County" of 1900, but was the early century name for Northwestern Ohio and the State of Michigan. It should also be remembered that in 1800 Hamilton County covered the whole western part of the present State up to the present site of the city of Lima; that Trumbull, Jefferson, and Washington Counties covered the territory from the present site of Ironton on the Ohio River up the Ohio River and almost to the lake; that the central part of Ohio from the river to Upper Sandusky comprised the counties of Adams, Ross, and Tuscarawas, with the northwestern quarter of the present State joined with Michigan, under the name of Wayne County. The State of Ohio was organized by the adoption of its first constitution at Chillicothe, November 29, 1802.

Population of Ohio by Counties, Etc.

The population of the state in 1900 is 4,157,545 as compared with the population in 1890 of 3,672,316, representing an increase during the last ten years of 485,229, or 13.2 per cent. This rate of increase is slightly less than that for the decade immediately preceding, when it was 14.8 per cent., although the numerical increase is somewhat greater. During the earlier decades of the century the State increased in population rapidly, but the greatest numerical increase (581,564) occurred in the decade from 1830 to 1840. Since 1850 the development of the State in population has been comparatively steady.

The population of Ohio in 1900 is more than ninety-one times as large as that given for 1800, the census taken two years before it became a state.

The total land surface of Ohio is, approximately, 40,760 square miles, the average number of persons to the square mile at the censuses of 1890 and 1900 being as follows: 1890, 90.1; 1900, 102.0.

Population of the Principal Cities of Ohio, 1810-1900.

All of the above named cities received marked accessions to their population during the last ten years, preceding the census of 1900, those having increased by the largest percentage being Toledo, 61.9 per cent.; Akron, 54.8 per cent.; Cleveland, 46.1 per cent.; and Columbus, 42.4 per cent. Largest numerical gains during the decade are found in Cleveland, Toledo and Columbus. With a single exception in one decade each of these cities has increased in population steadily, but the rate of growth has been irregular and has shown no uniform trend of change. For Cincinnati, Cleveland and Springfield, however, that rate since 1870 has steadily declined, a change in harmony with the usual tendency of large urban centers.

THE OHIO CAPITOL BUILDINGS.

THE Capitol Buildings of the State of Ohio stand in the principal square in the city of Columbus, in a park containing over ten acres of well cultivated lawns and native forestry, on land which was given to the State by the proprietors of the town site, in 1812. The name "Columbus" was selected for the town and bestowed upon it by the General Assembly at a later date.

The illustrations on the frontispiece give some idea of the style of building, but fall far short, in dignity and point of finish, of doing justice to either the old Capitol Building or the new Department of Justice.

The original "State House," erected by the grantors of the public grounds on condition that Columbus—then unsettled—should be chosen for the Capital of Ohio, was a series of row of brick buildings on High street, beginning at State street and running north along the present property to a point about half way to the present west entrance to the "State House yard." These structures were burned Sunday morning, February 1, 1852. The old Capitol Building, as it is now called, was begun in April, 1830, and was partially completed and dedicated in January, 1857. The corner stone was laid July 4, 1839. The building was finished in 1861 and was a useful rendezvous for troops gathering for service in the Union Army during the Civil War. The Department of Justice Building was built under an act of the 73rd General Assembly, adjoining the old Capitol at the terrace on the east. It thus occupies the Third street front of the Capitol grounds and, being of similar architecture to its predecessor, adds to, rather than detracts from the simple beauty of the structure.

As an illustration of the advance in structural science a comparison of the two methods of building is interesting. The original structure was begun in 1838, and finished in 1861. Deducting for time consumed in numberless interruptions, the time actually spent in the building of it was fifteen years; the cost $1,360,000; the labor was that of idle convicts from the Penitentiary; the material, dressed limestone from state quarries west of the city. The new building was authorized in 1898; corner stone was laid February 16, 1899, and on the 1st of September. 1901, the several departments assigned to this building are taking possession of their beautiful quarters. The exterior of the new building is of dressed limestone; the trusses are of steel. The actual time of building was three years, the cost $450,000, and the foot-space of public offices equal to about one-half that of the main building. The old building is 304 feet in its longest dimensions (north and south) and 184 feet wide (east and west), covering about two acres of ground. The height from the ground to outside pinnacle of the central dome is 128 feet; from floor of the rotunda to the eye of this dome is 120 feet; from floor of the rotunda to the upper skylight is 136 feet. The diameter of the rotunda floor is 64 feet 5 inches and the floor contains 4,892 pieces of marble. The cupola surrounding the dome (which was never completed as originally designed) is 75 feet in diameter. There are 53 rooms in the Capitol Build-The new Department of Justice or Law Building is 220 feet north and south by 100 feet east and west, and contains three full stories and a clear story on the east side. The rotunda is finished in marble and tastefully decorated, with an architectural effect said to be unequaled in the The building contains 55 rooms and was primarily intended, as the name implies, to house the Supreme Court, the Clerk of the Court, the Supreme Court Library, and the Attorney General's department. These departments occupy practically all of the second and third floors, the first story being devoted to the departments of Agriculture, Heatlh, Insurance and Public Works.

THE OHIO STATE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE.

HE Ohio State Board of Agriculture was created by an act of the General Assembly, passed February 27, 1846. The Board consists of ten members, two being elected each year for a period of five years. The office of the Board—Department of Agriculture—is in the State House, the secretary being the chief officer. The Secretary, Assistant Secretary, Veterinarians, Inspectors, Chemists, Statisticians, Librarian and clerks constitute an official force of more than twenty people, constantly on duty.

The department has an extensive agricultural library of about seven thousand volumes, and through regular exchanges, receipt of government documents, gifts, purchases, etc., it is rapidly growing. These books and documents are available for reference to all who wish to use them.

The annual Ohio State Fair is conducted under the management of the Board. The first fair was held in Cincinnati, October 5-7, 1850, and a fair has been held each year since that time, except 1888, when the Ohio Centennial took its place. From 1850 until 1874 the fair was held in the principal cities of the State, the cities offering the greatest inducements, in the way of financial aid, securing it. In 1874 the Board concluded to establish the fair permanently and centrally at the Capital of the State. The grounds of the Franklin County Agricultural Society (now Franklin Park) were rented until 1886, when the fair was transferred to grounds just north of the city, which the Board had purchased three years previously. These Fair Grounds, which contain one hundred and fifteen acres, have been beautifully ornamented by lakes, trees, shrubs, etc., and fine buildings have been erected for the various classes of exhibits, at a cost of several hundred thousand dollars.

The live stock buildings are the largest and best in the country. The horse building is three hundred and thirty-two feet square and will accommodate over five hundred horses; and in addition to this, there are barns provided for speed and fancy horses. The cattle, sheep, and swine buildings are a little smaller than the horse building, but are similar to it in all details and have ample accommodations for immense exhibits.

These structures are brick and stone, with slate roofs. Broad, clean walks extend through all the buildings, and visitors can view the animals in their stalls and pens, with the same degree of comfort that is experienced in passing through the buildings wherein are exhibited the displays of manufactured articles, merchandise, art, etc.

The State Fair has increased each year since being established on permanent grounds, until now it is recognized as a great Industrial Exposition, and important State Institution. To meet the annually increasing demands of exhibitors, additional buildings have been required and supplied, and many new departments have been created to systematize the exhibits and give ample educational facilities. The annual exhibitions are conducted strictly along educational lines, and the people are thus benefited and the various industries of the State increased and strengthened.

In 1880 the system of crop reporting was inaugurated by the Board, with a corps of about eight hundred volunteer reporters, reports being made quarterly; since that time the number of correspondents has about doubled, the scope of the work has been enlarged and for a number of years the publication has been issued monthly.

In 1881 a law was passed by the General Assembly charging the Secretary of the Board with the duty of licensing the sale of commercial fertilizers in the State, and also sampling and analyzing the same, and publishing the results for general distribution. This work has been successfully pursued by the secretary and the results have been very satisfactory, both to consumers of commercial fertilizers and to manufacturers of the same. The work has grown gradually, from small beginnings, until now a very large business is done and a considerable force is employed in the inspection, chemical analyses, etc.

In the winter of 1880-81 the Board entered upon the work of holding farmers' institutes, and twenty-seven successful meetings were held that winter. The number increased gradually until 1889-90, when sixty-two meetings were held. During the winter of 1890-91 the General Assembly, recognizing the value of farmers' institutes to the agriculturists of the State, passed a law making liberal provision for their support, thus enabling the Board to largely increase its work in this direction. In 1890-91 one hundred and twenty-four institutes were established and held by the Board; each season since the demand for institutes has increased quite beyond the means provided. During the winter of 1906-07, two hundred and ninety-eight institutes were held under the auspices of the Board.

On May 7, 1902, the General Assembly passed an act creating the Ohio State Board of Agriculture the Board of Live Stock Commissioners. The Board organized, by selecting the same officers as those serving the State Board of Agriculture, and appointed Dr. Paul Fischer, of Columbus, State Veterinarian. The work of the Division was entered upon at once and has been actively prosecuted since.

The General Assembly enacted a law on May 10, 1902, transferring the work of inspecting nurseries and orchards from the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station to the Department of Agriculture. The work was taken up promptly. Mr. A. F. Burgess was appointed Chief Inspector and several Assistant Inspectors were also appointed; all being actively engaged in the work of the Division at the present time.

In 1904 the General Assembly enacted a law to "regulate the sale of commercial feed stuffs in Ohio," which law makes it the duty of the Secretary of the State Board of Agriculture to inspect and analyze commercial feed stuffs, to issue license for their sale, publish a report of analyses, and prosecute for violation of the law.

In 1906 the General Assembly established a Division of Horticulture, placing it in charge of the State Board of Agriculture.

LIST OF MEMBERS OF THE OHIO STATE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE FROM THE ORGANIZATION OF THE BOARD TO DATE.

(NOTE.—The law creating the State Board of Agriculture, passed in 1846, provided for fifty-three members and named them. The act was amended in 1847, reducing the number of members to ten. Five members were elected each year for a term of two years until 1898, when the law was so amended as to provide for the election of two members each year for a term of five years.)

OHIO AGRICULTURAL EXPERIMENT STATION AT WOOSTER.

THE Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station was established by an act of the General Assembly, passed April 17, 1882; its object being, as recited in this act, "for the benefit of the interests of practical and scientific agriculture, and for the development of the vast agricultural resources of the State." The station never had any organic connection with the State University, but it was at first located at that institution, a few acres of land being set apart for its use and the Professor of Horticulture in the University being made its first Director, this office being transferred to the Professor of Agriculture at a later date.

In 1887 the National Congress passed an act now known as "the Hatch act," appropriating $15,000 annually to each state and territory for the establishment of Agricultural Experiment Stations, these stations to be organized in connection with the colleges which had been or might be established under what is popularly known as the "agricultural college act of 1862," except that, in states which had previously established agricultural experiment stations separate from such colleges, permission was given to devote the appropriation to such separate stations.

This course was followed in Ohio, and the Experiment Station was reorganized, Charles E. Thorne being made Director, and the major part of the University farm being assigned to the use of the Station.

The rapid growth of the city of Columbus around the University soon showed that the time must come when its lands would become too valuable to be used for purposes of agriculture, and the permanent and largely increased income now assured to the Station made it seem necessary that it should be so established that its work might be continued indefinitely without interruption. The General Assembly therefore passed an act authorizing the several counties of the State to issue bonds for the purchase of lands and the erection of buildings for the use of the Station and to bid for its location. Several counties immediately took action under this law, and the offer of $85,000, made by Wayne County, was accepted by the Board of Control of the Station; the bonds were sold, several adjoining farms, lying near the city of Wooster, were purchased and the erection of buildings was at once commenced.

A dissatisfied citizen of Wayne County afterward brought suit to contest the constitutionality of the law under which the county had thus bonded itself. The Common Pleas and Circuit Courts both declared the law valid, but these decisions were reversed in the Supreme Court, on the ground that the people of that part of the State were taxed for the support of an institution intended for the benefit of the whole State (see Constitution of Ohio), and it was held that the incidental benefits derived from the proximity of the Station were no justification for the extra taxation for its support. This decision seriously interrupted the work of the Station, but after about two years the General Assembly assumed the payment of the bonds and has since made provision for the completion of the buildings necessary for the Station's work. These comprise the Administration Building and Chemical Laboratory, which is built in fire-proof construction of the vellowish sandstone found on the Station farm; a block of greenhouses, 80x115 feet, with stone offices in front; a small biological laboratory; four large barns and a number of smaller ones; a fully equipped creamery, and seven dwellings. The Station owns 470 acres of land, in which it has laid about 26 miles of tile drains. It has planted about 20 acres in orchards, in which more than 700 varieties of fruit are now in bearing. It has about 70 pure bred cattle, of six different breeds, and similar flocks of pure bred sheep.

As originally organized, the board of control of the Station consisted of the Governor of the State, three persons appointed by him, and the person whom these should select as the director of the Station. At the request of Governor Nash the 75th General Assembly so modified this law as to relieve the Governor and the director from membership in the Board. At the same time the law was so amended as to place the management of the Station distinctly in the hands of the director, subject to general regulations made by the board of control, thus following the practice of the State in the management of all its public institutions.

Under the amended law the Governor appointed as members of the board of control, Hon. Friend Whittlesey, Alva Agee, D. D. White, O. E. Bradfute and D. L. Sampson. This new board organized March 3d, and at their request the General Assembly transferred the work of orchard and nursery inspection to the State Board of Agriculture, thus relieving the Experiment Station from all police work and leaving it free to devote its energies wholly to scientific research in agriculture.

The work of the Station is now organized in four departments: (1) Executive; (2) Agricultural; (3) Horticultural, and (4) Department of Plant Physiology and Pathology. Within the Executive Department are organized Sections of Entomology and Chemistry, each department and section being in charge of a specialist.

THE ATHENS STATE HOSPITAL.

THE Athens State Hospital was under the process of construction from 1868 until January 9, 1874, when the first patients were admitted. The first two admissions to the institution were Thos. Armstrong and Daniel Fernaw. Mr. Armstrong died within a few months and Mr. Fernaw has been until now an inmate of the institution.

Dr. Richard Gundry was made Superintendent of Construction in June, 1872, and remained superintendent until the 15th of December, 1876, when he resigned to assume the superintendency of the newly constructed asylum at Columbus. Upon the resignation of Dr. Gundry the superintendency of the institution devolved upon the senior assistant physician, Dr. Thos. Blackstone, now of Circleville, Ohio, who managed its affairs discreetly and faithfully. On the 16th of January, 1877, Dr. C. L. Wilson, of Indianapolis, Ind., was chosen to fill the vacancy. He being declared ineligible by the Supreme Court, Dr. H. C. Rutter was elected by the board of trustees to fill the vacancy. Dr. Rutter was then a resident of Bellefontaine, Ohio. The next superintendent was Dr. P. H. Clarke, of Meigs County. Dr. Holden, of Zanesville, was then appointed to succeed Dr. Clarke. On the 6th of May, 1880, Dr. H. C. Rutter was reappointed and he resigned his position in February, 1881. and Dr. A. B. Richardson was elected to fill the vacancy. Dr. Richardson resigned the superintendency April 17, 1890, and Dr. W. P. Crumbacker was appointed to the place. Dr. Crumbacker resigned May 19, 1892, and Dr. C. O. Dunlap was appointed. He resigned June 1, 1896, and Dr. E. H. Rorick was appointed to fill his place. While it can be said that the Athens State Hospital never had an inefficient superintendent it will be noticed on the other hand that two of the superintendents (Dr. Gundry and Dr. Richardson) attained a national reputation in their line of work.

The original capacity of the institution was only 572, but by new arrangements and some additions to the buildings the capacity has been enlarged to 813. The greatest number of patients ever in the institution at one time, which has been during the present year, was 1,012. The institution is surrounded by grounds which are both spacious and beautiful, containing walks, drives, gardens, and artificial lakes, abutting on the south bank of the beautiful Hocking River.

The present officers of the institution are: Board of Trustees—Dr. S. B. Lightner, Sabina, President; Virgil C. Lowry, Wm. H. Williams, Columbus; John Kaiser, Marietta, and J. P. Bradbury, Pomeroy. Resident officers—E. H. Rorick, M. D., Superintendent; Milo Wilson, M. D., Assistant Physician; Frank R. Lord, M. ### THE CLEVELAND STATE HOSPITAL.

THE Cleveland State Hospital, with a capacity of one hundred and two, was opened March 5, 1855, by Dr. L. Firestone, with about fifty patients, whose disabilities required the attention of but one assistant physician. The district consisted of twenty-two counties, embracing about one-third of the State. The institution steadily increased in size and number of patients until September, 1872, when it was almost entirely destroyed by fire. But few lives were lost, however, and the patients, numbering some three hundred, were temporarily quartered in the other public institutions of the city and State. An act providing for the reconstruction of the building was passed March 18, 1873, and work was begun immediately. It was not completed, however, until January, 1875. Some years later the building was enlarged by the addition of six wards, and in 1893 two convalescent cottages were added, making our present capacity one thousand.

Eighteen hundred and ninety-six and 1897 saw the construction of a beautiful amusement hall on the grounds of the institution. It has a seating capacity of eight hundred, the basement being fitted up with an improved system of bathing, lecture room, tailor shop, barber shop, etc. Religious services are conducted in the hall on Sunday, and a dance, in which both patients and employes participate, on Wednesday night of each week.

In 1897 the congregate dining room was opened, in which six hundred patients are fed three times daily, during which time music is rendered by the orchcestra.

As the years rolled by, customs changed and the city built up, the footprints of Time were nowhere more clearly marked than in the State Hospital. From the old-fashioned "Lunatic Asylum" it has slowly but surely developed into one of the most modern and well-appointed institutions of the country. We now have our own electric light plant, ice manufactory, training school for nurses, detention hospital, and in fact all the conveniences and appliances of modern times that tend to further the solving of the great problem of caring for the insane. In the meantime, owing to the rapid increase of the population of both the city and State, and the corresponding increase in the number of insane to be cared for, other institutions of a like nature have been erected in the State, in consequence of which the Cleveland State Hospital district now embraces but six counties, which gives a daily average of eleven hundred patients.

The Cleveland State Hospital.

Cleveland township, in which the Cleveland State Hospital is situated, was not at the time of the opening of the institution a part of the city of Cleveland, but constituted what was then a part of the village of Newburgh, an incorporation separate and apart from the city. Since that time, however, Newburgh has been annexed to the city, and at the present time the southern city limit lies quite a distance south of the institution.

The Hospital is situated on an elevated piece of land in the southern part of the township, the grounds occupying ninety-eight acres, the greater part of which is laid out in park. The stately building with its solemn grey stone walls can be seen for several miles, and is a noted landmark.

THE COLUMBUS STATE HOSPITAL.

THE "Lunatic Asylum of Ohio" was organized by Act of the Thirty-fourth General Assembly, passed March 5, 1835, sixty-two years ago, and Samuel Parsons, William M. Awl and Samuel F. Mac-Cracken were appointed directors.

These directors selected a tract of land about one mile east and north of the State House, in Columbus, comprising thirty acres. This tract fronted south on what is now East Broad Street, and the western boundary was near what is now Washington Avenue.

During the next three years they erected a building on these grounds, at a cost of about sixty-one thousand ($61,000) dollars.

The institution accommodated one hundred and twenty patients, and was the first institution for the treatment of the insane organized west of the Alleghenies. A very fair representation of the building is given on the second page, which is a copy of a painting made by an inmate of the asylum, and the original of which is still in the possession of the present Hospital.

On May 21, 1838, William M. Awl, M. D., of Columbus, was elected Medical Superintendent by the Trustees, and the first patient was received on November 30 of that year.

The building was two hundred and ninety-five feet in length and contained one hundred and fifty-three single rooms. The directors apologized for the apparently extravagant size by saying that it would be required in a few years. Yet it was the only asylum the State then had. Now—1900-1-2—the State has accommodations for more than seven thousand five hundred patients in the several "State Hospitals" at Cleveland, Columbus, Dayton, Longview, Massillon and Toledo, and every institution is crowded to its full capacity.

Dr. Awl was in charge as Superintendent until 1850, a period of twelve years, when he was succeeded by Samuel H. Smith, M. D. He was succeeded in 1852 by E. Kendrick, M. D., and he by George E. Eels, M. D., in June, 1854. On August 1, 1855, Dr. Richard Gundry, who later became so prominent in the care of the insane in Ohio and the United States, was appointed assistant physician.

In July, 1856, Dr. R. Hills, of Delaware, was appointed Superintendent. He held the position for several years, and was succeeded by Dr. William L. Peck.

On the evening of November 18, 1868, the asylum caught fire, and was almost wholly destroyed. There were three hundred and fourteen patients in the asylum, and six were suffocated by the smoke before they could be rescued. The others were removed to the asylums at Cleveland, Dayton and Cincinnati, which had been built since this one was organized.

On April 23, 1869, an act was passed by the Legislature authorizing the rebuilding of the asylum on the old grounds, and contracts were let September 23, 1869, and work was begun on the foundation October 24th of that year. Winter soon stopped the work, however, and during the ensuing session of the Legislature, on the 18th of April, 1870, a bill was passed authorizing the sale of the old tract and the purchase of a new site to contain three hundred acres of land.

Governor R. B. Hayes, State Treasurer S. S. Warner and Attorney General F. B. Pond were appointed a commission to sell the old site and to purchase a new one. They were required to sell the old site at a price not less than $200,000, and to purchase a new site of not less than three hundred acres at a cost of not to exceed $100,000.

The commission reported in favor of the purchase of three hundred acres from Wm. S. Sullivant, on the high lands west of Columbus and across the Scioto valley, paying therefor two hundred and fifty dollars per acre.

The trustees took charge of this tract, which is the present site of the Hospital, on May 5, 1870. The site of the old building was determined upon, work was begun under the old contracts, which had been transferred to the new site, and the corner stone was laid on July 4th of that year.

The institution was finally completed on July 4, 1877, just seven years from the laying of the corner stone on July 4, 1870.

The total cost of construction at the time of the opening was $1,520,-980.45—at the time of writing (1901) the cost of construction has exceeded $2,000,000.

The first patient was admitted into the new Hospital on August 23, 1877, and this patient is still an inmate of the institution, twenty years later.

The Hospital, as completed, stands on an elevated plateau about three miles west of High Street, on the north side of Broad Street, facing almost directly east. It consists of a central Administration Building and two wings, of four sections each, and a rear wing. The lateral wings and the Administration Building have a lineal frontage of about 1,200 feet, and the rear wing and Administration Building have a depth of about 800 feet. It is nearly all four stories in height, and the distance around the foundation walls is about one and one-quarter miles. The building, when opened, accommodated eight hundred and fifty-two patients. In the wings for the patients there were four hundred single rooms and one hundred and sixteen associated dormitories for the use of patients. There were twenty-eight wards from 120 to 180 feet in length, and each ward contained bath, lavatory, water-closet, clothing room and two rooms for attendants.

The Columbus State Hospital.

During the last two years the Hospital has added to its capacity two cottages. These buildings are situated in a grove on the hospital grounds just a short distance west of the main institution. Together they will accommodate about 200 or 225 patients.

One of these buildings for the chronic insane was named for Dr. Wm. W. Awl, the first superintendent of an asylum for the insane in the State of Ohio. This building is intended for the treatment of the incurable cases.

"Greer" cottage is situated a short distance west of "Awl" and is named for Hon. H. H. Greer, President of the Board of Trustees of this institution. It is expected to treat only the acute and curable cases in this cottage. At present these cottages are being fitted up and when they are occupied the entire capacity of the Hospital will be close to 1,600 patients.

THE DAYTON STATE HOSPITAL.

Brown, Butler, Darke, Greene, Miami, Preble, Shelby, Warren and Clermont. The Dayton State Hospital was first occupied September, 1855, with a capacity of 162, known as the Southern Ohio Lunatic Asylum. In the year 1875, it was changed to Western Ohio Hospital for the Insane; in 1877, to the Dayton Hospital for the Insane; in 1878, to the Dayton Asylum for the Insane, and in 1894, to the Dayton State Hospital. The hospital is located on a hill southeast of the city of Dayton, adjoining the corporation two miles from the court house. It is on the congregate plan, consisting of the administration building, four stories in height, and the wards on either side three stories in height.

The original building contained six wards, three on either side of the administration building, with a capacity of 164. In 1861, the capacity of the Hospital was increased to 600 by the addition of six wards on each side. In 1891 it was again enlarged by the addition of congregate dining rooms, one on each side, which increased the capacity 170, giving us a total capacity at this time of 770.

The Hospital at this time has a frontage of 940 feet, and is uniformly three stories in height, except the administration building, which is four stories and surmounted by a cupola. The State property consists of about 300 acres, 40 acres of which are in lawn; also four artificial lakes, which are about four acres in extent.

The Hospital is controlled by a board of five trustees, appointed by the Governor, whose tenure of office is five years; the term of one trustee expiring each year.

The annual expenditure for the support of the Hospital is about $150,000,00.

Two detached cottages of 100 capacity each have this year been erected.

A complete new steam and power building is now under construction.

THE LONGVIEW STATE HOSPITAL.

THIS Asylum is one of the notable charities of Hamilton County, for which the State of Ohio makes annual appropriations. It is the outgrowth of a combination of circumstances which have determined its peculiar legal status. It has been the subject of more than thirty years of contention, and its history is that of a great political wrong; and an account of its establishment, growth and present condition might not be uninteresting to the general public.

The first asylum for the insane erected in Ohio was built in Cincinnati, under an act of the Legislature, passed January 22, 1821, entitled, "An act establishing a Commercial Hospital and Lunatic Asylum for the State of Ohio."

By the terms of this enactment the trustees of Cincinnati township were to furnish a site for said institution, containing not less than four acres of land, within one mile of the public landing on the Ohio River, and erect the necessary buildings (which were to be of brick) for the safe keeping, comfort and medical treatment of such idiots, lunatics and insane persons of this State as might be brought to it for these purposes. The trustees were to receive certain compensation for the care of such patients, to be paid by the county sending the same, if paupers, or by the friends or guardians, if the patients had estates.

In addition, the trustees were required to admit and care for, free of charge, all boatmen belonging to boats owned by citizens of Ohio or to boats of the citizens of other states which provided hospital accommodations to boatmen of this State. They were also required to receive into said institution, and care for, all the paupers of Cincinnati township.

The institution was to be known as "The Commercial Hospital and Lunatic Asylum of Ohio." The State donated, for the purpose of assisting in the erection of said asylum, $10,000 in depreciated or uncurrent bank bills then in the State Treasury, from which were realized $3,500 in specie.

The Commercial Hospital and Lunatic Asylum of Ohio was the parent institution from which afterwards sprung the Orphan Asylum, the City Infirmary, the Cincinnati Hospital and Longview Asylum. It was the beginning, on the part of the State, which has led to the establishment of the great benevolent institutions of which every citizen of Ohio is justly proud.

The Legislature, on March 7, 1835, authorized the purchase of land for a lunatic asylum, and at the next session authorized the erection of an asylum for the insane on the land recently purchased for that purpose at Columbus. Said institution was to be known as the Lunatic Asylum of Ohio. On March 9, 1838, an act was passed, entitled, "An act to provide for the safe keeping of idiots, lunatics or insane persons, the management of their affairs and for other purposes," which required all persons found to be lunatics to be sent to the Ohio Lunatic Asylum, and repealing all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provision of said act. Thus the Cincinnati Hospital and Lunatic Asylum of Ohio ceased to be a State institution on March 9, 1838, although the name remained till March 11, 1861, when it was changed to Commercial Hospital of Cincinnati.

The State afterwards built two additional hospitals for the insane, one at Dayton and the other in the northern part of Ohio, and on April 7, 1856, the Legislature passed "an act to provide for the uniform government and better regulation of the lunatic asylums of the State and the care of idiots and insane," which divided the State into three districts, known as the Northern, Central and Southern Districts. County, together with thirteen other counties, constituted the Southern District, the asylum for which was located at Dayton, but, on March 10, 1857, the Legislature passed an act making Hamilton County a separate district for lunatic asylum purposes, and providing for the erection and government of an asylum therein, and that the commissioners shall cause ail the insane of the county to be placed in such asylum when completed. The act further provided that the inmates of the asylum be supported and the salaries of its officers paid from "a fund consisting of all the money raised in the county of Hamilton by county tax for the support of idiots, lunatics and insane persons, and of such appropriations as shall be made by the State for the support of curable lunatics in said asvlum, equal to the amount annually raised by taxation from the county of Hamilton for the support of lunatic asylums in the State." An act of April 28, 1873, which repealed the provision of the act of 1857, and substituted in its place a law which provided that Hamilton County should receive, for the support of Longview Asylum, a sum which should bear such a proportion to the entire appropriations for the support of the curable insane of the State as the population of Hamilton County bears to the population of the State outside of said county.

The injustice of the law of 1873 has been so apparent that no General Assembly since 1880 has insisted on its enforcement. In the years 1880 to 1883, both inclusive, the Legislature appropriated $10,000 each year in excess of the amount due under the statute of 1873. Since 1883 the Legislature has wholly disregarded the rule of 1873, and has appropriated to Longview gross sums, in the same manner that appropriations were made to the other asylums.

The care of the insane in Hamilton County is an exception to the general system of the State, and for more than twenty years spasmodic efforts have been made on the part of the State to acquire the ownership and control of Longview, and to make it part of the State system, but to no practical end.

A new building to accommodate two hundred and fifty patients has been constructed by the county of Hamilton at an expense of $100,000.00.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF LONGVIEW HOSPITAL.

The Board of Directors of Longview consists of five members, two of whom are appointed by the Governor, and one each by the Common Pleas Court, the Probate Judge and the County Commissioners. They hold office for five years, and are not removable except for cause, which gives the board a fixed tenure, and makes it free from sudden political changes.

THE TOLEDO STATE HOSPITAL.

THE Toledo State Hospital is built upon the cottage system. Its plan of construction was a radical departure from the structures then in use for the care of the insane, incorporating the most advanced thought upon the subject. The idea originated with General Brinkerhoff, of the Board of State Charities, who favored the erection of a new asylum in Northwestern Ohio.

The whole question of location and plans was undertaken by a commission, of which Governor Foster was president, Dr. Byers was secretary, and General Brinkerhoff was a member.

This institution was opened on January 6, 1888, and had a capacity for 1,000 patients. There are now 1,689 patients in the institution. When the buildings that are now being remodeled and enlarged are completed there will be ample room for 1,700 patients. There have been admitted in all 3,411 women; 4,048 men. There are 23 cottages, two buildings for infirm patients, two buildings for disturbed wards and two hospital buildings. The ornamental grounds comprise about 110 acres. There are some five miles of drives, about six acres of artificial lakes and 300 acres are cultivated for farm and garden.

Dr. H. A. Tobey has been the superintendent of this model institution from the opening in 1888, with the exception of one year, under Governor Campbell, when the institution was superintended by Dr. Tupper.

A large portion of the success of this hospital is due to the efforts of ex-Governor Foster, who, in addition to being a member of the original committee on location of the hospital, was a member of the board of trustees from the day it was opened to patients until the day of his death. It is said of him that when a cabinet portfolio was tendered him at Washington, D. C., that had it come to the question of resigning the trusteeship of this hospital or refusing to become a cabinet officer, he would never have been President Harrison's secretary of the treasury.

THE MASSILLON STATE HOSPITAL.

N March 31, 1892, was passed a bill authorizing the appointment of a commission to select a site for the building of a new institution, to be known as the Eastern Ohio Insane Asylum, now the Massillon State Hospital. The commission was appointed by Governor McKinley very shortly after the passage of the bill, and consisted of Dr. A. B. Richardson, Columbus; George R. Davis, Wapakoneta, and Dr. C. W. King, Dayton. This commission selected a site two miles south of Massillon, Stark County, Ohio, and on November 30th, same year, the Governor appointed a board of trustees, conformatory with the law establishing the institution. This building board consisted of Robert Sherrard, Jr., Steubenville; S. J. McMahon, Cambridge; Wm. H. Mullins, Salem; Dr. A. B. Richardson, Columbus; Dr. H. C. Eyman, Cleveland. Under the supervision of this building board a dining room building, a kitchen and bakery building, a store house, a boiler house, a power house, a carpenter shop, a laundry building, a hospital building, an infirmary building, a superintendent's residence, a steward's residence and seven cottages were constructed.

The institution now has a capacity of 1,450 patients. In 1894 Mr. Mullins resigned and was succeeded by B. F. Perry, of Jefferson. In 1895 Mr. Sherrard died; his place was filled by the appointment of Mr. D. J. Sinclair, of Steubenville. In February, 1897, Mr. Eyman was succeeded by Dr. E. G. Carpenter, of Cleveland, Mr. Sinclair by George D. Copeland, of Marion. In April, 1898, Dr. A. B. Richardson was elected superintendent and Dr. A. B. Howard, of Cuyahoga Falls, was appointed his successor on the board. In October, 1899, Dr. A. B. Richardson resigned his position as superintendent and Dr. H. C. Eyman, of Cleveland, was appointed his successor. In April, 1900, the board was changed from a building board to an operating board with the following members: Mr. S. J. McMahon, Cambridge; Mr. George D. Copeland, Marion; Mr. J. B. Zerbe, Cleveland; Dr. John E. Russell, Mt. Vernon.

THE Ohio Institution for the Education of the Blind was founded by act of the Legislature in 1837. It was fourth in order of establishment in the United States. In 1839 the first building was occupied. This structure cost the State $34,409 and was designed to accommodate sixty pupils. The present house was occupied May 21, 1874. This building cost at first, exclusive of additions, $358,477.92 and was intended to accommodate three hundred pupils. Later additions have been made increasing its capacity. The first year in the history of the institution there were eleven pupils enrolled. Last year there were 339 in attendance. Since the establishment of the instituion, 67 years ago, 2,341 pupils have been enrolled.

The cost of maintenance from the beginning to November 15, 1900, was $1,828,390.32. Probably $600,000 have been invested in permanent buildings and improvements, making a total expenditure of about $2,-428,390.00.

The average cost to the State for each pupil has been about $1,179.00. This institution is a School for the Education of the Blind, not an Asylum, and it has been the endeavor of the management of the institution to keep this object before the public and not allow the institution to become an infirmary.

THE INSTITUTION FOR THE EDUCATION OF THE DEAF.

THE Ohio Institution for the Education of the Deaf and Dumb is located at Columbus, Ohio. The first legislation for founding this institution was had in 1827. In 1829 the school was opened in rented property on the corner of Broad and High streets with one pupil. In 1834 the first building on the present site was dedicated and the school transferred to it. From 1862 to 1867 the large and commodious building now occupied was erected and was intended to accommodate three hundred and fifty deaf children, besides officers, teachers and employes. In 1898 and 1899 the capacity was increased by the erection of the school building, one of the finest in the world. The total amount of money expended for grounds and buildings is approximately $450,000. Three thousand two hundred and sixty-seven deaf children have been pupils in this school. The attendance is something over five hundred. Forty-one teachers are engaged and seventy officers and employes. The annual appropriations for maintenance are approximately $20,000.

INSTITUTION FOR FEEBLE-MINDED YOUTH.

THIS institution was established by law April 17, 1857. The preliminary work was commenced in 1840 by Dr. N. S. Townshend, who, while pursuing his medical studies in Paris, became interested in the labors of Seguin, Itard and others in behalf of the class. In 1853 Dr. Townshend, then a member of the Ohio Senate, so interested Governor Medill in the results of his observations and studies abroad, that he devoted a portion of his message to the General Assembly to the subject. That part of the message relating to the subject was referred to a select committee, of which Dr. Townshend was chairman. The committee made a report, detailing what had been done for this class. A bill was then introduced for the establishment of an institution, but did not pass. At the session of 1857, Hon Herman Canfield introduced in the Senate a bill to establish an Asylum for Idiots, which passed both Houses and became a law April 17, 1857. Governor Chase appointed William Dennison, Norton S. Townshend and Asher Cook, trustees. Upon organization of the board, Mr. Dennison was made chairman; Dr. Townshend, secretary, and Dr. R. J. Patterson, superintendent. rented the buildings on East Main street, now occupied as the "Home for the Friendless." The institution was opened with nine pupils. number was increased to fifteen at the date of the first report. The rented premises were occupied until 1868, the number of pupils averaging, after the first two years, between forty and fifty. The office of assistant superintendent was created in 1859, and Dr. G. A. Doren was appointed to that position. In 1860, the superintendent, Dr. Patterson, resigned, and Dr. Doren was elected superintendent by the board of trustees, and has continued in that position since, now forty-two years.

After closely observing the operations of the institution and their results, the Legislature, in 1864, provided for the permanent establishment of the institution, authorizing buildings upon a suitable site for the accommodation of two hundred pupils. This provision was made during the strenuous days of the Civil War, and was a strong endorsement of the value of the institution, as well as a valued acknowledgment of the performance of duty under the trying conditions of the war. The new buildings were occupied in August, 1868, the number of inmates soon reaching three hundred. The practical value of the institution being demonstrated, additions were made, from year to year, until the 18th of November, 1881, when over six hundred children were accommodated.

and when the main buildings were destroyed by fire, happily, without loss of life, or even injury, to any of the inmates, officers or employes. So anxious were parents and guardians that their children and wards should not lose any of the benefits of the institution, that only one hundred of the inmates could be sent to their homes, the balance being crowded into the buildings that escaped destruction. The operations of the institution were conducted, during the three years of rebuilding, at great disadvantage, from want of room and facilities for the proper care and training of the inmates. This was relieved by the occupation of the new buildings in 1884. In this case, fireproof buildings were constructed on the sites of those destroyed by fire, and fireproof outside stairways provided for all buildings that escaped destruction. Other buildings have been added since 1884, until the number accommodated in 1900 was 1,100, when the Legislature, recognizing the duty of providing against the increase of this unfortunate class, by placing them under such restrictions as will prevent them multiplying their kind, provided for a permanent home, where the use of such industrial power as they possess may be exercised in their own support. Authority was given to purchase a farm, not to exceed 1,500 nor less than 1,000 acres in extent, where they are to be kept through life, thus lessening the increase from that source. About 1,200 acres have been secured, where the males of this class will be provided with a home and such employment as will come within the range of their capacities. The employment will be mainly such as furnished by the farm, gardening, stock raising and horticultural pursuits. females are to be provided for at the home institution, where they can be better protected, as well as usefully employed in domestic occupations. Buildings are now being constructed to accommodate about four hundred of each sex of the Custodial Class, and, when completed, will restore the old department to its original purpose and duties—"to furnish special means of improvement to that portion of our youth who are so deficient in mind, or have such marked peculiarities and eccentricities of intellect as to deprive them of the benefits of other educational institutions and ordinary methods of instruction."

THE HOSPITAL FOR EPILEPTICS.

THE Ohio Hospital for Epileptics at Gallipolis is the pioneer of its kind in the United States. The problem of providing proper accommodations for epileptics, especially for those with unsound or defective minds, has engrossed the attention of persons interested in nervous and mental diseases for many years. In Ohio, as far back as 1879, a bill for the establishment of a separate institution for their accommodation and treatment almost became a law, passing one branch of the Legislature. Not, however, until 1890 was a law enacted providing for the establishment of a colony for epileptics and epileptic insane. All epileptics resident in Ohio are eligible for admission to this institution, up to the measure of its capacity, each county being entitled to a number proportionate to its population. No discrimination is made on account of mental condition, age or sex.

The buildings, as originally planned, consisted of stone cottages having a capacity of fifty beds each, located symmetrically about a group of executive buildings and connected by tunnels with a central power station, which was to furnish heat and light for all; and a central kitchen and bakery, flanked by two congregate dining rooms, one for each sex. The whole group, with estimated accommodations for one thousand patients, was planned so compactly as to cover scarcely more than twentyfive acres, leaving the balance of one hundred acres of the original tract for ornamentation and gardens. The wisdom of this plan was seriously questioned, and subsequent experience and events have led to an entire modification of it, so far as practicable. Of the original thirty-six buildings, only thirteen have been built as designed. The location and design of six others was materially changed. One hundred and twenty-five additional acres of land were purchased, and a cottage for the insane constructed at a distance of one-third mile from the original group. Other buildings, projected for the future, are to be much farther away, their precise location depending upon the possibilities in the selection and purchase of land, which may or may not adjoin the tract now owned by the State.

Another tract of one hundred and ten acres of farm land has been purchased, on which a group of cottages will be erected, and in which the husbandmen among the male patients will be accommodated. This land adjoins the sewage disposal beds of the hospital, and it is intended to utilize the sewage for fertilizing the farm. Recently (1904) another one hundred acres of Ohio River bottom land has been acquired, which brings the institution to an acreage of five hundred and fifty. It is purposed to expand the institution in the future by erecting small, home-like cottages for small and selected groups of patients, leaving the large central cottages with their common kitchen and congregate dining rooms for the accommodation of more advanced cases of epilepsy and for the infirmary class of inmates. A new style of architecture has been decided upon, by which it is believed the monotony of the present symmetrical groups of large stone cottages can be relieved.

A board of construction was appointed in 1890, which consisted of James E. Neal, of Hamilton; John L. Vance, of Gallipolis; George H. Bunnell, of Sidney; Lewis Slusser, of Canton.

The colony was opened for the reception of patients November, 1803. Twelve residence cottages with accommodations for 40 to 80 inmates each, and one combined laundry and cottage with room for 70 patients comprise the central group. A building for infirm women with room for 80 beds has recently been opened. The advanced insane epileptics are cared for in a large 200-inmate building about one-third of a mile from the central group. In process of completion (1904) there are five small, artistic, homelike houses comprising the new Male Colonists' Group, with quarters for 15 to 40 patients each, every house being independent so far as heating facilities, dining room and kitchen are concerned. A Farm House for 40 men has been erected in a suitable spot in the midst of the 200 acres of river bottom farm; and a 40-inmate cottage for girls is also nearly ready for occupancy. When all the buildings now under way shall have been completed, the institution will have accommodations for 1,200 patients. Besides the cottages, the hospital comprises one schoolhouse; two industrial buildings, each containing eight large, well lighted and well ventilated rooms, accommodating twenty-five patients in many of the manual industries followed; one kitchen and bakery building; one ice machine and cold storage building, with a capacity of eighteen tons daily; two large congregate diningrooms; one boiler, power and electric light station; one waterworks building, and one administration building. The cost of the buildings up to the time when those under way shall have been completed, will be $605,000.

A pathological laboratory in which researches into the nature, cause and prevention of epilepsy are carried forward, has been a feature of this institution for the past eight years. Through the scientific studies pursued in this laboratory and published to the medical profession the Ohio Hospital for Epileptics has achieved international fame. The medical profession of Ohio, and of the United States, is deeply interested in seeing this important work encouraged and properly supported, since it is realized that by this method alone can the mysteries as to the nature, cause, treatment and prevention of epilepsy be solved. The investigations pursued by the scientific staff in this laboratory have already disclosed some very important facts relative to the cause and prevention of epilepsy.

Many of the patients came from almshouses, many from the lower walks of life, and were uncouth in their manners and dress, filthy in their habits, and rude in their conversation. The improvements most noticed by visitors has been the wonderful change in their deportment. The results of the colony regime and treatment as shown by the recovery of suitable cases have been very gratifying. Especially good results have been attained with cases of recent epilepsy, particularly among the children. Hygienic and dietary measures with a regulation of the habits are employed, and strictly medicinal treatment is assigned to a secondary place. The education of the children and youth is carefully looked after in the excellent schools of the colony.

THE BOYS' INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

THE Boys' Industrial School is Ohio's reformatory for juvenile male offenders. It is six miles south of Lancaster, Fairfield County, on the Hocking hills. The State owns 1,210 acres of land in this picturesque region, and the boys are taught agriculture and horticulture to the extent of producing all the vegetables and fruit that the institution consumes. The institution is organized on the cottage or segregate system, is not surrounded by walls, and is entirely free from bolts, bars or other suggestions of restraint. It was the first penal institution in America to make the "open system" experiment, and so successfully was it operated that twenty-eight states have used the Lancaster school as a model. There are now 920 boys confined in the school for offenses against the statutes. These boys range in age from 10 to 21 years and are serving indeterminate sentences. When received at the School they are charged with demerits corresponding in number to the nature of the crime. These demerits must be canceled by exemplary deportment in school and shop, before release. When released, a boy is on parole and can be returned for misconduct at any time before he reaches his majority.

The boys are required to attend school one-half of each day, and are in shop or on the farm the other half. There are many trades schools where the boys are taught useful mechanical knowledge and at the same time contribute to the comfort and support of their fellows. Chief among these trades are blacksmithing, floriculture, tailoring, baking, printing, carpentering, telegraphy, stenography, brickmaking, shoemaking, dairying, cooking, etc. They also operate the steam, cold storage and electric plants, the barn, laundry and poultry plant. A boy band of forty-two pieces is maintained, and the school is organized into a regiment of three battalions, under instructions of a competent military man. Music and physical culture are also features of the training.

The population of the School at this time is 1,035 boys. Boys are received from Juvenile and Probate, and some few from Federal courts.

The institution is located six miles south of Lancaster at the termini of the Fairfield traction line. There are 1,231 acres of land in the farm, and the institution is on the cottage plan. Boys are sent to school and every effort is made to have them go out from here and become useful members of society.

THE GIRLS' INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

LOCATION.

THE home is situated ten miles southwest of Delaware, with which it is connected by good pikes and long distance telephone. It is four and one-half miles from Hyatts, six from Powell on the Columbus, Hocking Valley and Toledo Railroad; and eight miles from Arnold on the Toledo division of the Ohio Central Lines. The two latter stations are connected with the home by telephone, and all are easily accessible at all seasons of the year because of the excellent pikes.

FARM.

The farm comprises one hundred and eighty-nine acres on the west bank of the Scioto River. It is beautifully situated in an unusually healthful location. The grounds around the buildings are adorned with shade trees, a large portion of which are of the original growth.

The celebrated White Sulphur Spring furnishes an abundant supply of excellent water which is used for domestic purposes. 11,000 gallons of water per hour flow constantly from a vein more than one hundred feet below the marble basin from which it overflows.

BUILDINGS.

The buildings consist of the Administration, or Central Building, in which reside the superintendent and family, the clerk, director of music, superintendent of schools, assistant matron and a housekeeper; eight cottages, a school building, and a hospital. The latter is a valuable acquisition to the institution, furnishing commodious quarters for all hospital purposes and comple isolation for inmates affected with contagious diseases. In each cottage an assistant matron, teacher and housekeeper, with from thirty-five to fifty inmates, reside.

THE OHIO PENITENTIARY.

HE Ohio Penitentiary covers 26 acres within the walls. two acres outside the prison proper are occupied by offices, the Deputy Warden's residence, store rooms, barn and stables. prison itself is walled on three sides, the fourth being wholly absorbed by cell houses, offices and the warden's home. This side presents an imposing front, about 800 feet in length, on Spring street, facing the Scioto River, with the street and outer buildings between it and that stream, and a wide fringe of green lawn before it that in summer is beautified by parterres of flowers and shaded by fine trees. The cell houses and offices form a continuous building from the southeast to the southwest gate, in which are more than 1,600 cells, about 600 of these being provided with beds for two inmates, the remainder being too small to receive more than one each. The female department, which abuts on the southeast gate, is somewhat advanced toward the street beyond the frontal line of the main prison, and reaches to the public sidewalk. It contains 46 cells.

The walls are dominated by towers at short distances apart, and of which there are eleven. Within the enclosure is a small manufacturing city, comprising the shops of The Columbus Bolt Works, The George B. Sprague Cigar Co.; C. S. Reynolds & Co., The E. B. Lanman Co., The P. Hayden Saddlery Hardware Co., The National Broom Co., The Brown-Hinman & Huntington Co., and the Columbus Hollow Ware Co., all private corporations that contract with the State, through the board of managers, for the labor of prisoners, at specified prices for able bodied and infirm men, respectively, and in many instances paying to the prisoners certain agreed amounts for all work produced beyond an appointed task. The total amount earned by such overwork and paid in to the account of the men who have earned it averages about $2,500 per year. These contracts employ about 1,000 prisoners. In addition to the labor utilized by these enterprises, the State employs about 700 men in the manufacture of the prisoners' clothing, the care of their sleeping quarters, repairs to buildings, the preparation of food, the management of the gas works, the care of the inside park and other grounds, and in the general administration of the mural city with its sixteen hundred (1,600) population. A tour of inspection more than repays the visitors, who come in great numbers. The number of visitors is increasing yearly, as the people realize more and more that an interesting development of modern ideas relative to the protection of society and the reformation of the criminal may be seen in its various phases from day to day. Since 1834, when the present prison was first occupied—or, rather, that rudimentary portion of it that is now known as the West Hall—an army of more than 35,500 prisoners has passed through its portals, as prisoners. The male prisoners, until a few years ago, wore the old regulation striped uniform of the convict. The striped clothing is now used only as a temporary garb of punishment.

The Ohio Penitentiary.

The walled city has been swept by pestilence but once in its history. In 1849, the cholera raged here, and 121 prisoners died within twelve months, exacting the life of every third man among the prisoners. Now the death rate has fallen from 55 to 36 in one year.

There is a finely appointed and well equipped hospital on the inside grounds, but it is more scantily inhabited than has been the case for years. Since the present administration has assumed control a reform has been introduced into the penitentiary that has lessened the number of patients, halved the death rate, and removed the source of a dangerous discontent. That improvement is a change in the dietary, which the present directorate of this great institution has adopted and made a success, showing that economy and humanity go hand in hand. It has saved lives, the cost of medicine, the price of enforced idleness and loss from poor work. It has also contributed much to the improved good feeling and morality of the prisoners.

THE MORAL, RELIGIOUS AND EDUCATIONAL WORK

of the prison is carried on through the library, Sunday school, prayer meetings, Bible classes and preaching services, under the care of the Chaplain, and a night school under the care of a teacher employed from the outside. While the rules of the prison forbid sectarianism, they also provide that a prisoner desiring to have instruction in his particular faith may be accommodated by the Warden. Under this provision Roman Catholic Church services are held by a priest in the Catholic chapel every Sunday morning.

THE PRISON BUILDINGS

are old and inadequate. The cells are of heavy stone walls, that admit but little light and only poor ventilation. What is worse is that the penitentiary is badly located. For several years the subject of disposing of this property, and securing a new site, in a suburb of Columbus, and erecting new and up-to-date buildings, with sanitary features, has been agitated, but nothing done. It is important that a commission should be appointed to take this matter in hand and push it to a consummation.

THE OHIO REFORMATORY.

HE law creating this institution was enacted April 12, 1884; cornerstone was laid in 1886, Hon. J. B. Foraker, Governor. The west wing and administration departments were not completed for occupancy until September 18, 1896, when 150 prisoners were brought from Columbus.

The object of this institution is reformatory. Inmates are supposed to be first offenders, are admitted for all crimes except murder in the first degree, between the ages of 16 and 30. Male persons only are admitted. There are three grades; first, second and third. When inmates are admitted they are placed in the second grade; if their conduct justifies at the expiration of six months, they are promoted to the first grade, in which they remain for a second six months, when, if their conduct justifies, they are recommended to the board of managers for parole. With the consent of the board of managers they go out and remain the wards of the State under the supervision of the institution for one year, when, if their conduct justifies, they are fully discharged, and restored to citizenship by the Governor. Inmates are reduced to the third grade from either the first or second for punishment for certain misdemeanors.

They receive an indeterminate sentence from the court and the length of time they remain here is governed largely by their conduct, and is exclusively in the hands of the superintendent and the board of managers. They can be released at the expiration of the minimum time prescribed by law for the crime committed, or can be retained until the maximum time has expired.

They are required to attend school and learn such trades as it is possible to teach them under the limited conditions now existing. It is expected, however, within the next few years shops will be erected and trades taught to these boys, so that when they go out, they will be able to make an honest living.

Following is a list of the members of the board of managers since the institution began:

OHIO SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' HOME.

O provide for the establishment of this institution the General Assembly passed an act April as 1996. sembly passed an act April 30, 1886. To carry out the provision of the act, Governor Foraker, in April, 1886, appointed as trustees Hon, Isaac F. Mack, R. B. Brown, Thos. F. Dill, Wm. P. Orr and Thos. B. Paxton. The board organized on June 3, and elected I. F. Mack president, and R. B. Brown secretary. During the summer a number of places were visited and carefully looked over. A site three miles from Sandusky was finally selected as the best place to locate the home. H. C. Lindsey, of Zanesville, was chosen architect, and he at once prepared plans for the buildings. Herman Haerline, of Cincinnati, was employed as landscape gardener, and the work of improvement of grounds and construction of buildings was at once commenced.

On July II, 1888, the corner stone of the administration building was laid by Judge O'Neill, Commander of the Department of Ohio Grand Army of the Republic, in the presence of Governor Foraker and a large assemblage of Ohio citizens; in the fall of 1888 the trustees appointed the following officers: General M. F. Force, of Cincinnati, Commandant; Capt. A. M. Anderson, Delaware, O., Adjutant; Col. E. J. Blount, Cincinnati, O., Quartermaster; Dr. S. C. Rannells, Vinton County, Surgeon; Mrs. Sarah J. Price, Mansfield, O., Matron, who entered upon . the discharge of their duties in October, and the home was opened on November 19, with seventeen members. The annual report for the year ending November 15, 1889, shows that 716 men had been admitted during the first year.

In March, 1898, Col. R. B. Brown, after twelve years' continuous service as a member of the board of trustees, resigned the office, and Col. J. W. R. Cline, of Springfield, was appointed to fill the vacancy.

On May 8, 1899, the State and the home sustained a great loss in the death of Gen. M. F. Force, the Commandant. The board of trustees ordered spread upon the minutes the following testimonial on his death:

&quot;This Board will leave to others the task of writing suitable obituary for the distinguished dead, but we desire to preserve on our own records some testimonial of our appreciation of the eminent services rendered by Gen. Force testimonial of our appreciation of the eminent services rendered by Gen. Force for this institution. He was indeed the father of the Home.

"General Force had achieved renown as a soldier and jurist before being called upon to assume the great responsibility of organizing this Home and placing it as we all desired, first among the soldiers' homes of this nation.

"By unanimous voice of the Board he was tendered the position of Commandant before the Home was opened. He accepted the responsibility and came with his devoted wife to prepare for the reception of those who should seek the support and protection of the institution, and as he often expressed it, not to make a military camp, but a home for his unfortunate comrades. His high character and intelligent zeal insured success from the first.

"With him charity and kindness went hand in hand with judgment and discipline. He was ever ready to hear the most humble petition, and while keeping up a high moral standard for the Home he loved and encouraged the weak and unfortunate.

"His resourceful mind gave to the Home steady improvement and his spotless life protected it from scandal. His zeal and devotion were unbounded, and it was a merciful Providence that permitted him to live to see the full fruition of his hopes, and to be comforted by the assurance of the national inspector that the home of which he was Commandant had found first place among the homes of the land.

"We shall miss him at our Board meetings, and wait in vain for him in our councils, but we shall cherish his memory with love and gratitude.

"To Mrs. Force and her son we extend our profound sympathy and assure them that wherever they may go they will bear with them the best wishes of every member of this Board.'

At the meeting of the board on May 17, Capt. A. M. Anderson was appointed Commandant, and C. A. Reeser, of Springfield, was appointed Adjutant.

The first of January, 1899, found the new hospital completed, which gives the home the most complete structure of its kind of any institution in the country. Seven trained lady nurses were employed to look after and care for the sick and suffering old men. Two years' experience has shown that these ladies have added wonderfully to the comfort and welfare of the sick.

The home started in on the new century with an overcrowded house. Number present, January 15, 1,391; on the rolls, 1,621; average number present for the year ending November 15, 1900, 1,216; cost per capita for current expense, clothing, officers' salaries and trustees' expenses, $151.15; of which the general government pays $100.00, leaving a cost to the State of only $51.15 per annum to comfortably house, clothe, feed and give medical attention to these old soldiers. Since the home was opened in November, 1888, forty-eight hundred and eighty-five (4,885) men have been admitted and cared for. The home is largely indebted to the Grand Army of the Republic and the Woman's Relief Corps for generous donations of books, magazines and papers for the library, and hospital supplies of jellies, fruits, cushions and other articles.

The entire cost of building and permanent improvements, amounts

On April 18, 1901, Gen. A. M. Anderson died of heart failure. He died the death of one beloved by the gods, for it was instantaneous. He was an honest and honorable man, and a conscientious and efficient officer. He had the love and respect of the members of the home.

The board of trustees selected in his place Thomas M. Anderson, a retired general officer of the army, and a Major-General of Volunteers. He is a native of Ohio, and before the war of the Rebellion was practicing law in Cincinnati. When Sumter was fired on he enlisted as a private in the Sixth Ohio Volunteer Infantry. Having been transferred to the regular establishment he was made a Major-General in the Spanish-American war, and commanded a division of the Eighth Army Corps in the Philippine campaigns. He is a Grand Army of the Republic man, a Companion of the Loyal Legion, and has attained the thirty-third degree in the A. & A. S. Rite.

He assumed the duties of Commandant on May 6, 1901. Under his administration a number of improvements have been made by reason of liberal appropriations of the General Assembly. A sewage disposal plant has been constructed on the most approved scientific principles. More methodical methods have been introduced in the management of the home and it is now pronounced by the government inspectors to be the best institution of its kind in the country.

The officers and board of trustees are tabulated below:

THE OHIO SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' ORPHANS' HOME.

TN the summer of 1869 the attention of the survivors of the civil war was called to the large number of fatherless children in Ohio, who were made so by the enormous gift of Ohio men to the Union Army. Every hamlet and township possessed its quota of soldiers' orphans, while in the larger cities the number of children rendered fatherless by the war was so great as to be particularly noticeable to the public spirited men and women who, having served in or in behalf of the Union Army when in the field, found themselves unwilling to rest from their labors until every possible step had been taken to heal the wounds of that notable conflict. The members of the Grand Army of the Republic in Ohio took up the matter of providing a home for these orphans, those ex-soldiers who were already prominent in the affairs of the State taking the lead in the agitation of the subject which followed; Chaplain G. W. Collier, Gen. J. Warren Keifer, Gen. Wm. H. Gibson, Hon. Lewis B. Gunckel, Lieut.-Gov. John C. Lee, Hon. John Sherman, Mrs. Lucy Webb Hayes; Messrs. Millen, McMillen, Lester Arnold, Capt. McDowell, and others of the city of Xenia, being prominently identified with the early days of the Home. In September, 1869, a two-story building in the city of Xenia was rented by the Grand Army officials, and converted by temporary wooden partitions, stairways and halls, into crowded accommodations for possibly fifty children. Funds were raised from public and private sources, principally by Chaplain Collier, who canvassed the Sate and addressed churches, Sunday schools, Grand Army meetings and private individuals, and children were admitted as fast as accommodations for them could be provided. The citizens of Xenia and of Greene County were genuinely interested in the movement, and spared no pains to make it a success. A room in the High School Building, of Xenia, was set apart for the children of the Home by the board of education, thus providing immediate school privileges, and the Court House Park was voted to their use by the city and county officers, thus providing a convenient and well-kept playground. The citizens presented the Home with 100 acres of ground, afterwards increased to about 300 acres by purchase of the State of Ohio, on which the present institution was afterward them could be provided. The citizens of Xenia and of Greene County during that winter, voted six thousand dollars toward the current expenses of the Home to prevent the children from feeling the reduced condition to which the treasury of the Grand Army had been depleted by the expense of opening and operating an institution of such a character. The loyalty and public spirit of the men and women of Greene county during the war was repeated in their efforts in behalf of the orphans of the war. In the winter of 1870, with about 75 children in the Home, an appeal was made to the General Assembly to adopt the children as wards of the State, and to take over the property of the Home and make it a state institution. A committee from the General Assembly visited the children, who were assembled in the City Hall in Xenia, inspected the temporary quarters in town, and the property belonging to the Home just outside the city limits to the southeast, and returned to Columbus in favor of the proposition. The committee was addressed on behalf of the children by a Master Gilkey, who was then a boy twelve years old, having been admitted to the Home from Trumbull County in January of that year.

In April of 1870 the Home passed under the control of the State, and its removal from Xenia to its present location on the old Pelham farm was accomplished in September, the work of construction having been pushed sufficiently to accommodate the children then in attendance. The doors were thrown open to new pupils, and as soon as the transfer from the city to the farm was effected, and from September, 1870, to the present time, there has never been an hour when there were not more applicants for admission than could possibly be received.

It is a matter of course that the requirements for admission should be changed with changing conditions. In 1870 no children were entitled to admission but those whose fathers were killed in action, or had since died from wounds or the disabilities of war. The lapse of time soon rendered this class of children ineligible from age-limit, and the doors were then opened successively to those whose fathers being ex-soldiers had died from any cause; to those whose mothers had died, the father being an ex-soldier, and unable to properly care for his children; to the children of ex-soldiers, whose parents being alive were not able to care for them; to the children and orphans residing in Ohio of such soldiers and sailors who have died or may hereafter die by reason of wounds received or disease contracted while serving in the military or naval forces of the United States.

In 1870 the instruction consisted of the usual school course with some outdoor labor; in 1875 industrial pursuits were added to the school course, and to the number of industries then inaugurated there have been constant additions, aggregating twenty-three, as the science of manual training has grown more familiar to the educator. In the Home was thus established far in advance of similar public institutions, a Manual Training School, supported by public funds for public uses. The Home is the largest institution of its kind in the world, and has a long history of active educational work. Graduates from its schools are filling honorable positions in the civil, political, financial, military, and naval departments of American life. It has been frequently said that in all America it would be hard to find a spot more hallowed to the memory of American Soldiery, more filled with the stirring influences of patriotic devotion to country and to the country's flag; more typical of the peace and honor which follow from the defense of Rights and Liberty, than among the scenes and experiences which surround the home and school life of the 720 pupils of the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home at Xenia.

From an old photograph, made in 1872, the illustration was taken which heads this article, and on the back of this old photograph are given the names of the men who were appointed by the Governor of Ohio to take over the Home from the Grand Army in April, 1870, and mould it into a state institution. They are:

OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY.

In 1878 the legislature passed "An act to reorganize and change the name of the Ohio Agricultural and Mechanical College and to repeal certain acts therein mentioned." The act provided that the institution should be thereafter designated as "The Ohio State University." Up to this time but one appropriation had been made by the State for the support of the institution. With the reorganization came the larger and broader view of the State's relation to public education, and since that time the Ohio State University has shared with other public educational institutions a more generous support by the State.

The governing body of the institution is a Board of Trustees, appointed by the Governor of the State and confirmed by the Senate, for terms of seven years as provided in the law organizing the University. The original endowment has been supplemented, and the objects of the University promoted, by a permanent annual grant from the United States, under an act of 1890, by special appropriations of the General Assembly; and in 1891, by a permanent annual grant from the State, which grant was doubled by the legislature of 1896. In accordance with the spirit of law under which it is organized, the University aims to furnish ample facilities for education in the liberal and industrial arts, the sciences and the languages, and for thorough technical and professional study of agriculture, engineering in its various departments, veterinary medicine, pharmacy and law. Through the aid which has been received from the United States and from the State, it is enabled to offer its privileges, with a slight charge for incidental expenses, to all persons of either sex who are qualified for admission.

The University is situated within the corporate limits of the city of Columbus, two miles north of the Union depot, and about three miles from the State Capitol. The University grounds consist of three hundred and forty-five acres, bounded east and west by High Street, and the Olentangy river, respectively. The western portion, about 235 acres, is devoted to agricultural and horticultural purposes, and is under the management of the College of Agriculture and Domestic Science. The eastern portion is occupied by the principal University buildings, campus, athletic and drill grounds, a park-like meadow, and a few acres of primitive forest.

The grounds are laid out with care, ornamented with trees, shrubs and flower beds; and are so managed as to illustrate the instruction in

Ohio State University.

Botany, Horticulture, Forestry, Landscape Gardening and Floriculture.

The University has eighteen buildings devoted to instruction, one Boiler House, one Power House, two Dormitories, six residences, and some farm buildings. These buildings represent an investment for construction of about eight hundred thousand dollars. The equipment and apparatus amount to about one hundred and seventy thousand dollars. The land now occupied as a site with the farm is valued at one million five hundred thousand dollars.

The Ohio State University is divided into six colleges, as follows:

- (1.) The College of Agriculture and Domestic Science consists of those departments represented in the course leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Science in Agriculture, Bachelor of Science in Horticulture and Forestry, and Bachelor of Science in Domestic Economy, and in the Course in Dairying.
- (2.) The College of Arts, Philosophy and Science consists of those departments represented in the courses leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Philosophy, and Bachelor of Science; and in the Courses Preparatory to Law and to Journalism.
- (3.) The College of Engineering consists of those departments represented in the courses leading to the degrees of Civil Engineer, Engineer of Mines, Engineer of Mines and Ceramics, Mechanical Engineer, Mechanical Engineer in Electrical Engineering, and Bachelor of Science in Industrial Arts, Bachelor of Science in Chemistry or in Metallurgy; in the Course of Architecture, in the Short Course in Clay-Working and Ceramics, and in the Short Course in Mining.
- (4.) The College of Law consists of those departments represented in the course leading to the degree of Bachelor of Laws.
- (5.) The College of Pharmacy consists of those departments represented in the courses leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy, and in the Short Course in Pharmacy.
- (6.) The College of Veterinary Medicine consists of those departments represented in the course leading to the degree of Doctor of Veterinary Medicine, and to a certificate of Veterinary Surgeon.

Each college is under the direction of its own Faculty, which has power to act in all matters pertaining to the work of students in that college.

THE OHIO UNIVERSITY.

THE history of the Ohio University antedates that of the State of Ohio nearly two decades. The ordinance providing for its existence and support was passed by Congress, acting under the "Articles of Confederation," July 13, 1787, in the city of New York. The leading spirit in the movement was Manasseh Cutler, a native of Connecticut, and a graduate of Yale of the class of 1765. In accordance with the spirit of his time he proposed to endow an institution for higher education with a grant of land. As there was a superabundance of land, and as the country was pretty sure to fill up rapidly, such an endowment was supposed to be the most stable and almost sure to increase greatly in value. The history of many land grants for education shows, however, that while the expectation of increase in value has realized, the increase rarely accrued to the pecuniary advantage of the beneficiary. To this general statement the Ohio University forms no exception.

Among the ordinances enacted for the Northwest Territory, there was one providing that "no more than two complete townships should be given perpetually for the purpose of a University, to be laid off by the purchaser or purchasers as near the center as may be (so that the same shall be of good land), to be applied to the intended object by the Legislature of the State." In 1795 the lands to be devoted to the support of the University were located. The townships were numbers eight and nine in the fourteenth range, now Athens and Alexander in Athens county. The first families removed to them in 1797, and settled near the present site of the town of Athens, the seat of the University. Two years later the Territorial Legislature appointed three commissioners "to lay off in the most suitable place within the township, a town plat, which should contain a square for the college; also, lots suitable for house-lots and gardens for a president, professors, tutors, etc., bordering on, or encircled by spacious commons, and such a number of town lots adjoining the said commons and out-lots as they think will be for the advantage of the University."

In the same year Dr. Cutler sent his draft of an act of incorporation for the University. In this draft he said among other things, "Forty or fifty thousand dollars cannot be too high, as it must be applied to one of the most useful and important purposes to society and government." Passing over some intermediate legislation, we find that the General Assembly of the new State that had just been admitted to the Union, passed, in 1804, an act of which Section I gave to the institution its present name, the Ohio University, and defined its object to be "the instruction of youth in all the various branches of liberal arts and sciences, the promotion of good education, virtue, religion, and morality, and the conferring of all the degrees and literary honors granted in similar institutions."

Section 2 provided for the corporate existence of a Board of Trustees. Section 2 also provided "for the subdivision of college lands into tracts of not less than eighty acres nor more than one hundred and forty acres; the valuation of them by three disinterested and judicious freeholders as in their original and unimproved state, and the leasing of the same for the term of ninety years, renewable forever, on a yearly rent of six per centum of the amount of the valuation so made by the said freeholders; and the land so leased shall be subject to a revaluation at the expiration of thirty-five years, and to another revaluation at the expiration of sixty years, from the commencement of the term of each lease, which revaluation shall be conducted and made on the principles of the first, and the lessee shall pay a yearly rent of six per centum on the amount of the valuation so to be made; and forever thereafter at a yearly rent equal to and not exceeding six per centum of the amount of a valuation, to be made as aforesaid at the expiration of the term of ninety Provided, always, That the corporation vears aforesaid. shall have power to demand a further yearly rent on the said lands and tenements, not exceeding the amount of tax imposed on property of like description by the State."

The first building was erected on the northeast side of the present campus and known as the "Academy." It was of wood and has long since been torn down. The first building for collegiate purposes proper was put up in 1817. This is therefore the oldest structure of the kind in the entire Northwest, if not west of the Alleghenies. It is three stories high above the basement, and though somewhat remodeled twenty years ago, is substantially the original building and is still in use. Twenty years later two additional buildings, also of brick, were put up.

In 1881, what was for a time known as the "Chapel Building" was crected and subsequently removed to its present site to make room for Ewing Hall, one of the largest of the University buildings. The Normal College Building is located about sixty-five feet from the west side of University Terrace and faces the east. Among other things held in mind in planning this building were its fitness for the work to be done in it, its sanitary and hygienic conditions, its fire-resisting quality, its safety in construction, and its architectural design showing art, culture, and refinement. The main or central portion of the building was completed at a cost of $46,913.17, the contract price—there being no extras.

The new Library Building, now in course of construction, will be ready for occupancy January 1, 1905. The contract price is $32,311.17. Ample means for furnishing the building, when completed, are available.

Though the University was chartered in 1804, no instruction was given until 1809. In June, 1808, the Board laid out a course of instruction which embraced "the English, Latin and Greek languages, mathematics, rhetoric, logic, geography, natural and moral philosophy." One year later when the school was formally opened but three students presented themselves. This is not surprising when we consider the sparseness of population and the poverty of the newcomers on the soil of Ohio. It seemed a paradoxical scheme to establish a university before preparatory schools had been provided, yet this has been the history of education from the remotest times—the higher has always preceded the lower, though the latter did not always appear.

For some years the university had but one instructor, the Rev. Jacob Lindley, a graduate of Princeton. In 1812 Artemas Sawyer, a graduate of Harvard, was added as a second teacher, and six years later a third was added.

The first graduate was Thomas Ewing, who was probably the first person to receive a college diploma in all Western America. This document was dated 1815. The distinguished subsequent career of Mr. Ewing is well known. It is identified not only with the history of Ohio, but with that of the nation.

The increase in student attendance at the Summer School has been very marked. It may be seen from the following statistical statement:

The revenues of the University were at first very small, but they would in time have increased to a respectable sum as the two townships above named contain nearly fifty thousand acres. Unfortunately the legislature interfered to prevent the revaluation of its lands, notwithstanding the decisions of the various courts, so that the income from the rent duplicate is and will remain at less than thirty-five hundred dollars per annum. This legislative Act of 1843 dealt the University a blow from which it has never fully recovered. The loss of revenue it caused may be estimated by the following statement:

According to the decennial appraisement of 1900, the value of the land was, exclusive of improvements and inclusive of roadbeds of railroads, $1,356,615.00. Six per cent. of this amount would give an annual income of $81,376.90.

Toward the close of the seventies the legislature began to make annual appropriations for the support of the University, and in 1896 enacted the so-called "Sleeper Bill," which gives it an annual revenue of over thirty-five thousand dollars.

At the regular session of the General Assembly of Ohio held in 1902 H. B. No. 369—Mr. Seese—became a law. Its provisions place upon the authorities of the Ohio University at Athens and the Miami University, at Oxford, the duty of organizing "at their respective institutions a normal school which shall be co-ordinate with existing courses of instruction and shall be maintained in such a state of efficiency as to provide theoretical and practical training for all students desiring to prepare themselves for the work of teaching."

The act further provides for a levy upon the grand list of the taxable property of the State of one-thirtieth of one mill upon each dollar of the valuation of such taxable property. This levy produces an annual income of $65,000, which is divided between the Ohio University and the Miami University in the ratio of seven to five.

Acting in conformity with statutory provisions, the board of trustees of Ohio University, on March 25, 1902, declared by resolution its purpose to establish and maintain "The Normal College of Ohio University," and to provide the necessary teaching force, buildings and equipment therefor at the earliest practicable date.

With the opening of the fall term of the University, September 9, 1902, the State Normal College began its existence, with a corps of capable instructors, tentative courses of study and an encouraging student attendance. Since the date of opening not less than 1,000 persons have received some kind of instruction in the college. Surely the wisdom of the establishment of such an agency for the better training of persons for effective service in the public schools is in rapid process of vindication.

Though the college has been giving instruction from 1809 under the charge successively of Rev. Jacob Lindley and Rev. James Irvine, its first president, as he is usually designated, was not elected until 1824, when Robert G. Wilson, a native of North Carolina, and a graduate of Dickinson College, was chosen to fill the position. His successor was the well known Dr. William H. McGuffey. For a few years, dating from 1845, owing to financial embarrassments, the institution was closed, but in 1848 it was re-opened under the presidency of Dr. Alfred Ryors. Dating from 1852, Dr. Solomon Howard was president for twenty years, and was succeeded by Dr. W. H. Scott. From 1883 to 1901, Dr. Charles W. Super was at the head of the institution with the exception of two years, 1896-1898, when the position was held by Dr. Isaac Crook. The term of the present incumbent began July 18, 1901.

MIAMI UNIVERSITY.

REAT institutions grow. They are not born in a day. It is a part and a privilege of an American to feel a pride in America's historic foundations and institutions. In the document under which the great northwest territory was settled, we read: "Religion, morality and knowledge being necessary to good government and the happiness of mankind, schools and the means of education shall forever be encouraged." This sentence is the foundation of the educational policy of the states formed out of this territory. The John Cleves Symmes purchase in southwestern Ohio, like the other grants made under this ordinance, laid permanently the foundation for higher education. Out of this land grant grew Miami University. The trust was given to the State of Ohio and accepted in 1803, and by means of legislative action buildings were erected and the school opened in 1816 as a preparatory school, and in 1824 as a college. The first class was graduated in 1826. Under the stimulus of the land grant, the spirit of the ordinance of 1787, the co-operation of the State and the rapid settlement of Miami County, the college flourished and soon became the most renowned west of the Alleghenies. The early settlers believing in the value of college education sent their sons there. These young men later became the men of affairs and took an active interest in every form of public life. During the war of the rebellion, Miami's graduates, almost to a man, were found enlisted or engaged in some form of public service. Many of these men are still hard at work, so that it has been said that Miami has more prominent men among her alumni than any other western college. A strong American sentiment permeates the every vein of the Miami student or graduate. Miami has been pre-eminently, in her history, a college of public spirit. The student catches the spirit of patriotic devotion to the public welfare as a duty, and the graduate feels that he owes something to his country. College spirit has always been identical with a high idea of citizenship.

Associated with this patriotic ideal, is the conviction that leaders should be men of scholarship and sound character. The management has never faltered in that belief that a college faculty should be men of unquestionable character and highest ability. The college education shows itself in a patriotic citizenship, genuine manliness, sound scholarship and liberal culture. Under this ideal more than a thousand men have been graduated, and many times that number have pursued their courses in part.

Miami University is owned and operated by the State of Ohio, and in recent years favorable legislative action has given the institution more vigorous life than ever before. One of the new buildings is the gift of the late Senator Brice, and bears his name. Another bears the name of Hon. John W. Herron, of Cincinnati, whose long and able services to the University have only been equaled by his generosity.

The chapel in the east wing of the main building has recently been enlarged and improved, and, in memory of Robert H. Bishop Jr., for many years Professor of Latin in the University, named "Bishop Chapel."

The library occupies a part of the second floor of the main building, and consists of some 20,000 volumes, among which many rare old editions may be found.

By the Seese Law, passed by the Legislature of Ohio in March, 1902, two State Normal Schools were established, one of these at Miami University. The law provides for its maintenance by a special tax levy on the grand list of the taxable property of the State.

In September, 1902, the Normal School was opened, and a large number of students enrolled.

Provision is being made for the erection of a dormitory for the accommodation of the young women.

In June, 1902, the Rev. Guy Potter Benton was unanimously elected president, and inaugurated September, 1902.

The location is as healthful as can be found, and comprises fifty-seven acres of the most beautiful campus to be found in the west.

Miami has never been a large institution when measured by her numbers, nor has she ever aspired to be such, but she has been great when measured by her men.

THE WILBERFORCE UNIVERSITY.

THE Wilberforce University, located in Greene County, near Xenia, Ohio, cannot be considered one of the state educational institutions, except that it has been receiving state assistance in establishing and maintaining an industrial department since 1887. The University is for colored youth, and affords an opportunity for extending industrial training to colored youth, such as is not found in other institutions in the State.

The following brief history of this institution is a matter of historical value:

On September 28, 1853, the Cincinnati Conference of the M. E. Church selected a committee which recommended "the establishment of a literary institution of high order for the education of colored people generally;" and in May, 1856, "Tawawa Springs," a beautiful summer resort in Greene County, Ohio, was purchased, and Wilberforce University was organized. By concurrent action, the M. E. and A. M. E. Conferences of Ohio entered into co-operation for the success of the University. It was incorporated August 30, 1856, and a board of twenty-four trustees selected, including Governor Salmon P. Chase, President R. S. Rust, Ashland Keith, of the colored Baptist denomination, and D. A. Payne; and the broad principle adopted that there shall never be any distinction among the trustees, faculty or students, on account of race, color or creed.

The University began its work in October, 1856, under Rev. M. P. Gaddis, as principal. He was succeeded by Professor James K. Parker, and he by Dr. Richard S. Rust, the first president. During the first epoch, which terminated with the Civil War, the number of students, largely the children of Southern planters, varied from seventy to one hundred. Commendable progress was made in literary culture. The war closed the school, and the M. E. Church withdrew from the field.

On March 10, 1863, D. A. Payne purchased the property for $10,000, and associated with himself James A. Shorter and Professor John G. Mitchell, in the reorganizing of the University. It is the oldest college for negroes in this country. Congress in 1870 appropriated $25,000; Chief Justice Salmon P. Chase bequeathed $10,000; the Charles Avery estate added $10,000, and the American Unitarian Association gave for lectures $6,000 to the University.

On March 19, 1887, the Legislature of the State of Ohio came to our aid, helping us in establishing a Normal and Industrial Department, and is appropriating now $17,000 per annum to the University. On January 9, 1894, President Cleveland detailed Lieutenant John H. Alexander, a West Point graduate, to organize and instruct the Military Department of Wilberforce University, and the United States government is still maintaining this department. At the breaking out of the Spanish-American war, Wilberforce furnished some of the best negro soldiers that went to the front, a number of whom are fighting for the flag in the Philippines today.

The Wilberforce University.

The University has received from all sources since organization $513,202.80. Six thousand and six negro youths have attended the University, most of them coming from the South. Two hundred and sixty-six have graduated from our literary courses, and are now preaching and teaching in the South, striving to help solve the race question. Two hundred and ten have graduated from the Industrial Department, and are now engaged in the useful trades. It is the pride of the University that it has always been the aim and object to contribute her full share to the intellectual, moral, physical, and industrial uplift of the negro, and thereby assist in removing the standing menace to our American institutions—the race problem.

LIMA STATE HOSPITAL, LIMA, OHIO.

THOSE in charge of the insane hospitals of Ohio have long recognized the necessity for the building of an asylum for insane criminals, and those with dangerous and homicidal tendencies. To provide for this necessity, the Legislature, during Governor Myron T. Herrick's term of office, authorized the appointment of a commission to investigate a proper site for such an asylum, and to procure options, if the committee deemed best, upon real estate for that purpose.

This committee consisted of the Honorable W. B. Ritchie, of Lima, Ohio; Honorable C. J. Manix, of Cleveland, Ohio; Honorable A. H. Judy, of Greenville, Ohio; Doctor A. B. Smith, of Wellington, Ohio; and Honorable E. LeFever, of Marietta, Ohio.

This Commission, much to its credit, took very great care and made a complete investigation of the different available places for such an institution. They finally took options on about one hunderd and twenty (120) acres of land immediately north of the prosperous city of Lima, Ohio.

The Commission reported the results of their work to the last session of the Legislature, and the Legislature approved the work of the Commission by appropriating sixty-two thousand five hundred dollars ($62,500.00), to purchase the lands upon which the Commission had taken its option. These lands constitute an ideal site for such an asylum, and the Committee was wise in its selection of the city of Lima as the location for such an institution. Owing to its excellent railroad facilities, no better place could have been found.

By an act passed on the 2d day of April, A. D. 1906, the Legislature provided definitely that the institution be known as "The Lima State Hospital." Section two (2) of the Act provides the class of insane who shall be confined in this hospital, and reads as follows:

Section 2. Class of immates to be admitted. The Lima State Hospital shall be used for the custody, care and special treatment of insane persons of the following classes:

I. Persons who become insane while in the penitentiary and state reformatory.

2. Dangerous insane persons now in other state hospitals.

3. Persons accused of crime, but not indicted because of insanity.

4. Persons indicted, but found to be insane.

Lima State Hospital, Lima, Ohio.

- 5. Persons acquitted because of insanity.
- 6. Persons adjudged to be insane who were previously convicted of crime,
  - 7. Such other insanse persons as may be directed by law.

Shortly after the passage of this act by the Legislature, Governor Pattison named the commission to have charge of the building of the asylum, naming the following persons:

Doctor J. E. Russell, Mt. Vernon, Ohio; Doctor M. F. Hussey, Sidney, Ohio; Judge Martin J. Burke, Marion, Ohio; Frank W. Purmort, Van Wert, Ohio; George E. Whitney, Marysville, Ohio; and S. A. Hoskins, of Wapakoneta, Ohio.

This Commission has been organized by the selection of S. A. Hoskins, of Wapakoneta, Ohio, as Chairman, and Frank W. Purmort, of Van Wert, as Secretary and Treasurer.

The Commission is authorized to visit and inspect such institutions as it may deem best, to employ architects to prepare plans and specifications, and estimates of cost for an institution to accommodate not less than six hundred (600) patients.

The Commission is now engaged in this work of inspection, preparation of plans and specifications, and will report, as required by law, to the next session of the Legislature to be held in 1908.

OHIO CODIFYING COMMISSION.

B Y the act of April 2, 1906, the General Assembly authorized the governor to appoint three commissioners to revise and consolidate the general statute laws of the state.

On December 11, 1906, Governor Harris appointed Lewis C. Laylin, Hiram L. Sibley and James E. Campbell as such commissioners, and on January 1, 1907, the commission entered upon the discharge of its duties.

The law provides that:

"The commission shall bring together all the statutes and parts of statutes relating to the same matter, omitting redundant and obsolete enactments, and such as have no influence on existing rights or remedies, making alterations to harmonize the statutes with the constitution as construed by the courts, reconcile contradictions, supply omissions, and amend imperfections in the original acts, so as to reduce the general statutes into as concise and comprehensive a form as is consistent with clear expression of the will of the General Assembly, rejecting all equivocal and ambiguous words, and circuitous, and tautological phraseology; and shall arrange such statutes under suitable titles, divisions, sub-divisions, chapters and sections, with head notes, briefly expressive of the matter contained therein, with marginal notes of the contents of each section, with reference to the original act from which it is compiled; and shall provide by an index for an easy reference to every portion of its report."

LEWIS CASS LAYLIN.

Lewis Cass Laylin was born in Norwalk, Huron County. His father, John Laylin, was a soldier in the war of 1812, and served under Colonel Lewis Cass. He was graduated from the Norwalk High School, and was elected superintendent of the public schools of Bellevue, and re-elected for five consecutive years. He was admitted to the bar, elected prosecuting attorney, and held that office seven years.

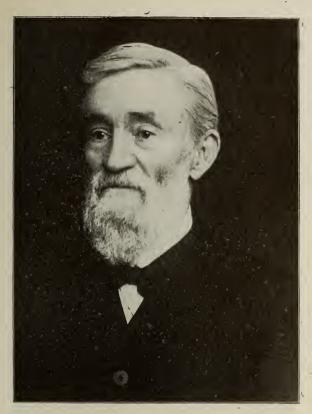

He was elected Representative to the Sixty-eighth General Assembly, was re-elected and received the unanimous support of the Republican minority for the Speakership of the House of the Sixty-ninth General Assembly. He was again re-elected to the Legislature and was chosen Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Seventieth General Assembly.

At the Republican state convention of 1900, he was nominated by acclamation as candidate for Secretary of State, and was elected to that office by a plurality of 69,311. He was renominated for a second term, and relected by a plurality of 90,465. In 1904 he was renominated by acclamation for a third term, and his plurality at that election in November was 230,389, being the highest plurality ever given in Ohio for the head of the state ticket.

He was appointed a member of the Ohio Codifying Commission by Governor Harris, and at its organization in January, 1907, he was chosen chairman of the commission.

HIRAM LUTHER SIBLEY.

HIRAM LUTHER SIBLEY was born on a farm in Trumbull County, Ohio, of New England parentage. His father was a Methodist minister, whose ancestry is traceable to John Sibley, of England, who in 1629 came over in the "Fleet," and settled at Salem, Massachusetts. He became a selectman of that town, and member of the General Court at Boston.

Hiram learned the trade of shoemaker, at which he worked from his fourteenth into his twenty-fouth year. His educational training was in the common, with two six-months periods of special schools, and by private study. In 1878 Marietta College gave him the honorary degree of M. A. While working at his trade, he began the study of law, mornings and evenings. In the fall of 1860 he was elected clerk of courts for Meigs County, entering upon his duties as such in February, 1861. August 12, 1862, he entered the Union service as Lieutenant in Co. B, 116th O. V. I., resigning his office, and serving two years and six months. He was admitted to the bar in 1865; began practice at Marietta, Ohio, in 1866; was elected Common Pleas Judge of the Seventh District in 1882, and re-elected in 1887 and 1892, being each time nominated by acclamation. In 1896 he was elected Circuit Judge, resigning from the Common Pleas after near fourteen years' service, to begin his duties as such, and serving one term. He is the author of a small volume on the Organic Law of the M. E. Church; of a work on the Right to and Cause for Action; and revised, edited and annotated the fifth edition of Nash's Pleading and Practice, in two large volumes. Just before this last work was completed, Governor Harris appointed him a member of the commission to revise and consolidate the statute laws of Ohio.

JAMES EDWIN CAMPBELL.

AMES EDWIN CAMPBELL was born at Middletown, Butler County, Ohio, July 7, 1843. His father, Andrew Campbell, was a physician of prominence, and his uncle,, Lewis D. Campbell, a statesman of note. One of his maternal ancestors took part in the battle of Lexington, and one of his paternal ancestors was with Montgomery at the assualt on Quebec. Both of his grandfathers were soldiers in the war of 1812.

During the Civil war he served in the navy upon the Mississippi and tributary rivers; was discharged for serious disability, but recovered, studied law, and began practicing at Hamilton in 1867.

He was prosecuting attorney of Butler County from 1876 to 1880; was elected to Congress in 1882 as a Democrat in a strongly Republican district, was re-elected in 1884, and again in 1886, gaining the last victory by the meagre plurality of two votes in a total of more than thirty-two thousand. In 1889 he was elected Governor over J. B. Foraker, now United States Senator; in 1891 was defeated for governor by William McKinley, and in 1895 was again defeated by Asa S. Bushnell.

In 1906 he was defeated for Congress, and soon after the election was appointed by Governor Harris a member of the Commission to Revise and Consolidate the General Statute Laws of the State of Ohio.

OHIO TAX COMMISSION.

In response to the well known and growing sentiment in favor of a revision of the Ohio tax system, Governor Harris, in September, 1906, appointed the Tax Commission of Ohio. His letter tendering the appointment fully explained the objects of the Commission. The Governor wrote: "I have determined to appoint an honorary commission of five well known citizens, to examine the taxation laws of Ohio, and recommend to me for transmission to the next session of the General Assembly such changes or amendments in the organic or statute law of the state as will adjust any inequalities that may exist in the burdens of taxation and evolve a system in line with the best public policy and with the most advanced thought upon the subject."

The Commission consists of: Hon. Wade H. Ellis, Attorney General of the State of Ohio, Hon. Geo. E. Martin, attorney, Lancaster, and Hon. Alfred C. Cassatt, attorney, Cincinnati, the Republican members; and Atlee Pomerene, attorney, Canton, and Thomas H. Hogsett, attorney, Cleveland, the Democratic members. Mr. Ellis was chosen chairman, and Mr. Pomerene secretary of the commission. O. K. Shimansky, newspaperman, was selected to act as assistant secretary.
